THE REFLECTOR

Greenville, N. C.

J. W. WHITWELL, Editor and Proprietor

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

(TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1898.)

The Populist State Executive Committee met in Raleigh this week and signed up the fusion agreement papers with the Republicans. As was expected the Republicans dictated the terms, and mapped out the course for the Populists to pursue. It is not strange that there are white men in North Carolina who will be led by any such crew.

The Democratic hand-book has been issued by the State Executive Committee and is now being distributed. This book gives a complete political history of the State from 1868 down to the present time. It strongly draws the contrast between Rep-Pop rule and Democratic rule in North Carolina. It treats every subject of interest in the campaign, and it is going to prove of great benefit to the party. Every intelligent voter in the State should read it.

Lawyers ought to be good men, and no nation or community can hope to be peaceful and happy so long as its lawyers are of an unscrupulous type. There is more than poetry in the common saying that lawyers are responsible for the standard of our government, high or low as may be. Lawyers control our Legislative halls, from the bills enacted into laws, sit on the Judge's bench, manage the cases brought into court; in fact, they are the leaders in making and executing whatever laws a nation or community may be under. Take a glimpse at the nominees of the several political parties, and you will find that lawyers predominate. Little lawyers, big lawyers, long lawyers, short lawyers. But its lawyers nevertheless.

J. W. Bailey, of the Biblical Recorder is being attacked by Republican and Populist papers in the State for respecting his office on the Agricultural Board, thereby exposing the outrages being committed upon the honest, hard working farmers of North Carolina by this department of our State government. The best people of North Carolina are with Bailey and admire his fearlessness in exposing and denouncing these outrages. It is evident that they are unable to answer his logic, hence they are driven to personalism. But Bailey is too well known by the people of his State for these political tricksters to injure him materially. No one who has read both sides can fail to see the hole into which these Republican and Populist followers have been driven. Speak on Bailey—the best of our North Carolinians men and women are with you.

Yellow Fever at Key West.

Washington, August 17.—The naval station at Key West will at once be practically abandoned on account of a threatened epidemic of yellow fever in the barracks and city. The naval base will be removed temporarily to Hampton Roads. Three unmistakable cases of yellow jack have appeared among the marines at the Key West barracks, and there are several suspicious cases. Rigid precautions have been prescribed and a quarantine will be maintained.

HERE THE NEGRO RULES.
A Plain Statement of the Condition of Affairs in Newbern and Craven County

To the Editor of The Charlotte Observer:

A gentleman whose business makes it necessary that he should travel almost constantly around the State, surprised the citizens of Newbern by telling the following story: "In a county of western North Carolina the deputy sheriff summoned a negro man to act as juror. This being an unusual proceeding in this particular county, the white men who had taken their places in the box became incensed at the action of the deputy and expressed their unwillingness to sit upon a jury with a negro. Whether the negro was withdrawn or not is not stated, but it is well known that the deputy received a good sum of abuse from at least fifteen intelligent white men."

This is strange to the people of Newbern, because 25 juries out of 35 in court in Craven county are composed of as many negroes as whites. Mu themers, they are summoned by a negro deputy. Sheriff Haden, upon receiving the nomination at a public county convention made a speech which he said: "No white men need apply for places as deputies or clerks." He has been as good as his word, and all of his clerks and deputies are negroes. If there should be occasion to arrest the sheriff a negro man would do it, for we have a negro coroner. This same negro coroner, Lossiter, some time ago displayed his ingenuity thus: "As aaged while in camp with the last week have given unmistakable evidence of a disposition to involve the white people of this county in trouble, I am compelled to arrest a negro, and but for the carelessness of the civil authorities of this community that would attend to that and reward him with a full jury of negroes in to decide how the deceased came to his death. This is how the negro officials are to retain all the privileges of life— to retain large all over this county in spite of five or twenty commissioners appointed by any commission officer, to drink liquor, quarrel and fight among themselves and with others; to remain away from the camp over nights, revelling in houses of prostitution, robbing and stealing their hands asked to shake hand with them. This, of course, she declined to do and turned to run toward home, whereupon they offered the most insulting language, calling up to her as she ran to go where they pleased and to do as they pleased, white the colored command, James H. Young, was in Raleigh and elsewhere attending public meetings.

The people of this town have borne to make any complaint of the conduct of the soldiers, and have suffered some indignities at their hands, and even in the interest of peace, the civil authorities have allowed to pass apparently unnoticed a call for which a citizen of the community would have been arrested and punished. Forhead, however, ceased to be a virtue to restrain the civil authorities on Saturday, June 25, when Mr. George Carter, of Company A, came into town, all of blockade corn raised and attempted to burn it. A part of his day will be to instruct the law students in the art of oratory and pleading.

The professor of oratory and education, Mr. J. W. Bailey, of the Biblical Recorder, is a negro man, and of course all of his clerks are negroes. Being naturally impudent, there must of necessity be more of them than there would be if they were white.

The keeper of the county jail, being under the sheriff, is likewise a negro. One of the county commissioners is a negro man.

The county standard-keeper is a negro.

The candidates and nominees of the Republican party for the position on county treasurer is a negro school keeper.

One of the members of the county board of education is a negro.

There are thirteen negro school committees in Craven county.

By the way, the negroes in this county, according to the county superintendent's annual report, from July 1st, 1897, to July 1st, 1898, have property valued and assessed $1,363,321. The assessed value of property of the negroes is $2,683,320, more than seven times the value of the property of the negroes, but real: The total amount apportioned to the negroes during this same period was $1,720,255. The white people pay more than seven times as much and draw back just a little more than half as much as the negroes. Yet we have negro men to teach teachers for the white schools, the negroes are not in the majority in the school committee, but their votes are for the negroes. The trouble appearing on each side, I was inclined to think it might, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, perhaps according to the weather, yet swelling continued to grow until each had to hold or the laces, the little boy having been lame in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was turned one thing by one another and another by another. This however, did not come in, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Penry's Remedy having been sold to my attention as favorable. I dropped the treatment on the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Penry's Remedy. To say the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet would the parents of the negroes be satisfied if they could get a price of $40 or go to jail for 30 days.

During the interview Charles Shipp, of Morehead, accused of assisting the other soldier, (who bore the name of Abner), escape, was arrested and tried. He was also convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or go to jail for 30 days. Not being able to pay the fine, the marshal was instructed to take Green over to jail, and give the officials at the camp the option of paying his fine for him. Head's Saraparilla gives help by making the blood rich and pure.

The city government is largely administered by negro officers. In the town council there are three negroes. The city attorney, the legal adviser of the town authorities, is a negro lawyer. He is also the Republican party's nominee for senator. George H. White, colored, at present member of Congress, was at one time our solicitor. Four negro policemen and the sergeant of police strut the streets of Newbern in blue uniforms.

Around the public buildings negro janitors, engineers, etc., are seen until one can't help admiring the truth of the negro Bishop Petty's statement: "Eastern Carolina is the place for the negro." It is true, he has more privileges here than elsewhere and unless the reigns of government are taken from him we are threatened with an influx of negroes from all parts of the Union.

This is a plain statement of facts, which can be verified. No comment is made. It is believed that the people of western North Carolina will realize the evil of such condition without reading of any particular breaches of conduct and decency.

The negro soldiers from Fort Macon overturn the streets,闯入 into public carriages, drink until nearly and never on every hand, accompanied with noisy negroes. The negroes are withdrawn or not stated, but it is well known that the deputy received a good sum of abuse from at least fifteen intelligent white men."

were surrounded by several hundred negroes, and it was evident that they intended to renew their negro contract and mob the officers. The latter, therefore, on the advice of Col. Young—who said he would have them adequately punished—turned the condemned man over to the military authorities.

Such advice as that given by Young was evidence that he had no power available to control the ang 3, resentful, savage mob under his command. It was a confession of his weakness and an endorsement of his lawlessness. He had no authority to prevent trouble between the man under his command, he would not allow it when he came over here by scores, by fifties, and untold numbers. Fashion says so, and that settles it. The fact is not a new one, fads don't last long.

Young's conduct was a violation of the code of honor of the dawdling society creature. Wealth makes queer playfellow, just as poverty makes queer reptiles as articles of commerce. The cost of living jewelry is its interesting point.

A Gross Outrage

The Wilmington Star of yesterday tells of a high-handed outrage committed there Saturday night by Edward Bryant, a negro deputy sheriff, upon D. K. Farch, a street railway conductor. It is probably the most disgraceful of all the shameful incidents that have distinguished, in scoundrelous arrogance and insolence, the present Russell Republican negro regime in Wilmington and New Hanover county.

The evidence was that Deputy Sheriff Bryant boarded the street car of which Mr. Farch was conductor. He came to Bryant on his round collecting fare. Bryant told him that he had no ticket, no money and no transfer, but was going to ride on the car. Mr. Farch told him he could not ride unless he paid his fare. As soon as he finished getting fare, Mr. Farch returned to Bryant and told him he had had over his fare or he out of pocket. He signified the intention to stop. About that time Mr. Farch noticed a transfer to Bryant's hand, and said, "Why don't you give me that transfer and stop all this trouble? There is it in your hand?"

Finally Bryant hauled over the transfer and said he was only joking. Mr. Farch told him it was a very poor way of joking, and that he had no time to be bothered in that way. Bryant became abusive, first calling the conductor a d—- fool and then applying one of the vilest epithets that the English language affords. Mr. Farch told Bryant that he must shut up or get off. Bryant sprang down from the car and drew a policeman's billy, with which he said he would knock him out of the conductor's chair and whip anybody who came at him. "If I can't whip you with that," said he, "I will with this," and he drew from his pocket a pistol and thrust it into Bryant's face.

This is the testimony as given by Mr. Farch and substantiated by five eye witnesses. Bryant tried to make it appear that when he drew his pistol he was about to be attacked by the woman of two cars, who had their controllers in their hands. All the witnessess swore there was no indication of such an attack. The witnesses had the controllers because they were carrying them to the other end of the car, and are required by the rules of the company to keep them in their hands until transferred. Mr. Farch is one of the most quiet and ineffective conductors of the service.

The warrant against Bryant was first sworn out in Justice McGowan's court, but Bryant went before Justice Bunting and had himself arrested. Deputy Sheriff Ash-colored, served the warrant and, after the trial, went on his bond for $50 for his appearance at the Criminal Court in October. Bryant will continue to serve as deputy sheriff.

New Taxes Will Stay

The war stamp tax will remain on the statute books indefinitely. It is not saying too much, perhaps, to assert that the new revenue measure, in its essential features, may never be repealed. Doubtless a strong effort will be made to abolish the war tax next winter, and some features of it may be eliminated, but the attempt to repeal the entire measure will prove a failure.

The Treasury Department has been agreeably surprised at the income from the measure. The revenue derived under the provisions has been more than twice as great as was calculated. So vast have been the sums that rolled into the Treasury that the Department can announce that there will be no more bonds issued. The bill authorizes the Secretary to issue four hundred millions of bonds. Two hundred millions have been issued. The remainder will not be printed.

It is probable that some modifications of the law will be made at the next session. One of the provisions of the law that will certainly be repealed is the onerous and unnecessary tax on collateral for notes. The tax on a note, and the additional tax on collateral for the note above one thousand dollars, together with the tax for the accompanying power of attorney, is entirely too heavy. This is, perhaps, the feature of the law that causes the most adverse comment.

Coming Back Home

From every part of the State the intelligence comes through to us that the Populists are turning away from Populism back to grand old Democracy. Say what you may, the Republican and Populist parties combined will never be able to prove that the present administration in this State comes anywhere equaling the record of the Democratic administration of our late, past, Governor. The cause of Populism will be manifested in the story of heaven. We are preparing materials now and here for the temple of the great King, which is heaven itself. No note of ham-fistedness is heard in all that world except over having had one thing to do with it.

Lukewarm and unmanly men of them are renouncing their short-lived faith in the Populist party and coming back to the work and cause of the Populists.

"Well, I understand," said that old man, "that you are not in the world to be out of it. He signified the intention to stop. About that time Mr. Farch noticed a transfer to Bryant's hand, and said, "Why don't you give me that transfer and stop all this trouble? There is it in your hand?"

AT HOME.

Where burns the fierce bright light, Cheats, and social breast, Who beats the fond heart lightest, It's humblest hope possessed?

Where is the hour of sadness, With mock-eyed patience born, With more than love, and sadness, Who worth's gay cheeks adorn?

Pleasure is marked by feetness, To those who ever ram; While grief itself has sweetness At home-sweet home.

TOLING IN DARKNESS.

We are in a quarry. We are not so well as we like to come to our lonely, poor, obscure, old home. The world is dark, and the day is long.

With meek-eyed patience born,

With more than love, and sadness,

Who worth's gay cheeks adorn?

Pleasure is marked by feetness,

To those who ever ram;

While grief itself has sweetness

At home-sweet home.
