A Real Danger

Almost immediately after the passage of the reconstruction acts, under which the Southern States were re-admitted to the Union, and by which political and civil rights were conferred upon the negro, there was a great influx of negroes into Washington City, and the capital of the Union was fast becoming the negro's political haven. Why? It was about this time that an act was passed by Congress which gave to the citizens of the District of Columbia the power to elect all the local officers of the city of Washington. The people there had local self-government and the negro was as good as the white man. They flocked to that city in great numbers, and had the influx gone on and the right of the people to elect the local officers were continued the city would long ago have been under the control of the negroes. As it was, the city government soon became so corrupt and extravagant that Congress was forced to repeal the act giving the people the right of local self-government. The principal officers of the city are now nominated and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate are appointed by the President, and these appoint the minor officers. Since the present system of government went into operation the negro has had but little showing in the way of office holding, and the city is no longer his political haven.

What place is now to him what Washington once was? What one State in all this Union now holds out to him the inducement to enter his citizenship and seek her political honors? What State, and what State alone, is represented in the Congress of the United States by a negro? What State and what State alone, has registration laws which make it easy for him to register, whether he is a legal voter or not? What State, and what State alone, requires nothing of him to entitle him to vote except his bare oath that he is so entitled? The answer to these inquiries is, North Carolina!

The negro is not a voter in the District of Columbia, as no elections are held there. South Carolina and other Southern States where the negroes are in large numbers, have passed special laws which make negro domination in those States practically impossible. But North Carolina, under Republican rule, not only does not seek to provide against negro domination, but actually invites it. Laws passed by Democratic Legislatures for the protection of the white people in certain localities have been repealed by the Republican party, and the policy of turning over these communities to the negroes has been proclaimed to the world as the policy of the Republican party of North Carolina. Hence we see in New Hanover county forty negro magistrates and numerous other negro officers. In Craven county we find twenty-six negro magistrates and a host of other negro officials. All through the East we find this policy adopted, and as a result many of the local offices held by negroes. Gradually this policy is pushing its way upon the State, and even Chatham, a negroes have been put on committees for white schools. Much has been done in furtherance of this policy since the Republicans came into power, in January, 1867. That policy is now on trial, and a fierce political contest is going on over the State. The Democratic party is attacking it with all the abandon and stragglingness that a hyena displays its young.

This Republican policy is to be passed upon in November by the people in North Carolina. The negroes from other States shall deliberately endorse this policy, can any one doubt that the result? Is it not manifest that negroes from other States, where official life is closed to them, will live themselves away to North Carolina, as they did in former days to Washington, where official life is open to them and where the Republican party offers them its rewards? Let it be proclaimed to the world, after this fierce conflict, that the white people of North Carolina have endorsed this Republican policy and that this party now firmly entrenched in power, and does any one doubt, can any one doubt, that there will be an influx of negroes into North Carolina and other Southern States that will soon give the negroes the majority in many counties where they are now in the minority? In this way county after county in which the whites now feel secure may soon pass under negro control. Can any one doubt that this is a real danger if the Republican party is to remain in control of the State? No more can any one doubt that it is an imminent danger. Who shall say that Colonel James H. Young, the only negro colonel in the United States, when he returns as a conquering hero to his patron and friend, Governor Russel, may not summons his race to join him in making North Carolina the San Domingo of the Union.

Whatever one may think about these weighty and serious questions, it is certain that if the Republican party is overthrown and its policy be repudiated by the white people and the Democratic party be restored to power, none of these dangers can befall the people of North Carolina. The Democratic party is a white man's party, and it will establish and maintain a white man's government over every foot of soil where it governs at all.

Another Postmaster is trouble.

J. M. Pittman, Postmaster at Tillery, was taken into custody last Sunday by Inspector Gregory and brought before Commissioner J. T. Gooch, of this place. He gave bond for his appearance here in the sum of $800. Charges against him are embezzlement of money order funds and opening ordinary letters. He was formerly Postmaster at Tillery under the Harrison administration. He also represented this county in the State Legislature, in 1867, and was a member of the House of Representatives.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

FOR JUDGES SUPERIOR COURT: First District—George H. Brown Jr., of Beaufort. Second District—Henry B. Bry...

FOR SOLICITOR: Third District—Larry I. Moore of Pitt. FOR CONGRESS: First District—John H. Small of Beaufort.

The Progressive Farmer, edited by one J. L. Ramsey, who is an office holder with the Russell...

Perhaps the stretch of the State...

There are some of the troops missing now, but these who came up to the city think they will turn up all right...

The water at Tyson rose a fearful height. It almost covered the land and ground sleeping in tents on the ground almost impossible.

How things change! Once a stamp tax caused a war; now a war causes a stamp tax.

IN THE STORM

North Carolina Volunteers Suffered.

Corporal W. Perkins, of Co. E, second regiment of the North Carolina Volunteers, stationed at Tyson Island...

I guess all of us will catch it when we go back for our own way, but I am going back today as it has let me go. You will see in the paper that the kind hearted Savannah people have not seen any of it.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS ARE BEING RECEIVED.

Well, Mr. Editor as our Home Visitor has suspended business at this place, we take this method by your permission of letting the world know of some of the happenings in and about our little town.

Our Mr. E. G. Cox is in a duffering from an extended trip drumming for Winterville industries. He reports fine sales.

The weather is hot but the A. G. Co. Manufacturing Co. is shipping cart wheels to other markets.

Distributing Price Money

Washington, Sept. 5.—The United States Government is preparing to pay the rewards to men who saved Savannah.

Admiral Dewey and his men of the Pacific Squadron, will get a hundred and eighty seven thousand five hundred dollars.

The weather is hot but still the machines have to hum.

Bible Stained With His Blood

Mr. J. N. Gault showed us yesterday the Bible he had with him in the war. He carried it through the war and it never got wet.
