

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.
GREENVILLE, N. C.

OUR FRIEND HERBERT.
The Kin Press, thinks we are growing old because we have been in the newspaper business a long time. Age is not necessarily a logical sequence of long service because we began quite early in life. But as it was not enough to try to make it appear that we are old Herbert adds insult to injury by insinuating that we are old headed. It is only out of consideration for Dave Wichard that we do not take this as a down right insult and treat it accordingly.—Henderson Gold Seal.

Just listen at the boys. They should not be so jealous. Dave Wichard doesn't need a bit of "consideration" for wearing such a mark of distinction as a red head, for he wouldn't take a million of Klondike gold for this head he carries. We went talk about hearing that Manning talk in his sleep and wishing for a nice head like ours instead of being so near bald headed.

SOUTHERN SCHOOL BOOLS.
We understand that quite a number of publishers will enter the race this year to supply school books to the children of North Carolina. We take it that the Legislature will carefully investigate this important matter and will cause to be selected none except the very best publications. We think that the time has come when we ought to have Southern school books for Southern school children. We are informed it is likely that the Legislature will appoint a Board consisting of eight or ten leading educators upon whom will devolve the duty of naming a uniform system of text books, giving certain latitude of choice, for the entire State. We do not express any opinion as to the wisdom of this course but we wish to be put on record as saying that the youth of the South ought not to be invited by the exclusion of other matter to believe that all the important events of history and literature occurred in Massachusetts. In this connection we are informed, editorially, by the Baltimore Sun of November 22nd that the Johnson Publishing Company of Richmond, Virginia, is the first and only Southern House to provide our schools with a complete course of reading and history of the United States which tell the whole truth and place the facts of our domestic history in true perspective. We do not advocate one publishing house more than another, but we say in unmistakable tones that the South will not come to her own until she has her own literature and until the lives of her great men are written by her sympathizers and admirers and until a great Southern Publishing House is formed as a nucleus around which may cluster the best sentiment and traditions of our people. We understand that the publishing house above spoken of has drawn largely upon Southern authors, and that its illustrations have much to do with Southern men and Southern scenes. And hence we believe that when a child shall have finished a course of reading similar to that contained in such books it will not only not be ashamed of the South but it will regard her as the fairest spot upon the globe.

STOLE AN ENGINE.
And After Going Ten Miles Turned It Loose.
About midnight Saturday night some one went to the yard of the Atlantic Coast Line at Washington and stole a railroad engine. When the culprit started out of town with the engine he threw the throttle wide open, turned on the whistle and raised such a racket as he sped away that alarmed everybody in the neighborhood. The noise awoke the agent, and discovering what had taken place he began telephoning up the road in order to head off the runaway. No one was found awake except at Stokes station and orders were sent there to flag down the engine or ditch it. A watch was put out but the engine did not do that far. The thief stopped at Perdue's, and after reversing the engine to let it go back wild, jumped off. Fortunately the steam was so near exhausted that the engine went only about two miles when it ran down on the tracks. Had it gone back wild into the yard at Washington great damage might have been done. The officials are hunting for the engine robber.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.
Made by the Orange Va. Orscrver.
Santa Claus is a bigger man than old Blane ever was.
The wish is father to the thought and mother to the deed.
The credit gained by a lie lasts only until the truth comes out.
The man who was lost in slumber found his way out on a night-ago.
A smile in sleep is the reflected gleam of a love ripple upon the current of a dream.
Many people call on you to pay their respects—and that's all some of them ever pay.
Tears bring forth the richness of our natures, as the rain deepens the fragrance of the flowers.
This is a bad time of the year for the United States to adopt an "open door" policy when the mercury is flirting with zero.
Every good deed for others, whether they appreciate it or not, is adding to our crown every time that we dispel is a diamond that will be worn in that crown; every bit of sunshine can throw into the lives of others is a bit of the refined gold; every act and deed and article that we can make to add to the beautifying of others is a leaf in our crown.

THE POOR CHILDREN.
Poor folks don't have no Christmas—don't do it. As he had the money to get no drum, an extra one to do do.
Yankee and mother went to where they were going to get the money, at an old store to see the boys and to wish 'em a Merry Christmas.
But I bet you my mother was livin' here, she'd send a word to Santa Claus an' let 'em know where we was.

IT WAS THE RIGHT THING.
The letter of Augustus M. Moore, Esq., published a few days ago, but addressed to the Governor by the late giving an opinion by the Attorney General upon the judicial election in the First District, is creditable alike to his integrity and honor. He, on account, declined to accept the office of Judge upon a technicality. He shows no wavering between his duty and his interest. With the Secretary of State proclaiming Moore's election, and the Governor ready to approve the opinion of the Attorney General, Moore looked the game and waited for the right way and paid for it legally as was another.
Mr. Moore was once a living Democrat, and it was within living memory that his Democracy was of the stalwart type, but in his early manhood and inexperience he was confronted by circumstances that overcame him and he fell into the arms of a party to which he did not belong by social instincts and association, by intellectual and patriotic impulses, and he did not believe that he is a whole hearted Republican of the dusky type today and we are more confirmed in that opinion by the many reasons that he has pursued in refusing the proffered goods that Thompson proposed to steal for him.—Elizabeth City Economist.

BUSINESS CHANGES.
Some That Take Place During the Holidays.
Always about the close of a year or beginning of a new year there are some business changes to take place. Several are already known for the present season.
After the Christmas. Mr. Alfred Forbes will move from his present stand to his building on Five Points that is now being put in readiness for him.
As soon as he is out, Messrs. J. C. Cobb & Son will move from their present stand in the Phoenix building into the Forbes store which will give them the room necessary to accommodate their increasing trade.
Messrs. W. H. White and W. T. Fleming, both excellent business men, have formed a partnership and will open a stock of general merchandise in the Phoenix building as soon as Messrs. Cobb & Son vacate.
Mr. D. S. Smith has purchased Mr. M. H. Quinley's stock of groceries, and will combine his own stock with it by moving down to the Quinley store. Mr. Smith once occupied that store and it will seem like old times to see him back there.
The Reflector will be found at the same old stand ready to do first-class job printing and top-column advertising.

THE NEW RAILROAD.
At a meeting of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, held on December 14th, the following resolutions were adopted in reference to the proposed Greenville and Farnville railroad:
1. That the Board of Commerce has heard with pleasure the proposition of Mr. R. S. Cohn and associates to build a railroad from Greenville to Farnville and promise to give the enterprise its cordial endorsement and support.
2. That the chairman of the board appoint at his pleasure a committee of three to confer with the owners of the lands over which the proposed line of railway will pass and upon which the terminal of said proposed line will be situated and see what is the smallest cost for which the right-of-way and terminal can be obtained from the river to the county gate, and to obtain options for the same.
3. That a committee of three be appointed to confer with the citizens of the town and ascertain what amount can be raised to pay for said right-of-way and terminal.
4. That these committees report at a subsequent meeting of this Board to be held on the 22nd, inst.
The proposition of Mr. Cohn was to build a first class narrow gauge commercial railroad from Greenville to Farnville if the citizens of Greenville would donate to said railroad Company a right-of-way from the river below the Old Dominion Steam Ship Company's wharf up the river to the county gate and a terminal on said river.
This is an enterprise calculated to do Greenville much good and the citizens of the town should hasten to accept Mr. Cohn's proposition.

Quite Naturally.
"You can't fill the bucket by one stroke of the pump handle."
Many business men insert a small advertisement once or twice in a publication "as a trial," and then sit back and wait to see what comes of it. Quite naturally, nothing—or next to nothing—comes of it. People who see your advertisement once or twice are just beginning to take note of what you say, and, perhaps, to resolve to give your goods a trial. The next time they look over the advertisements in their favorite paper you aren't there. Consequently the man who advertises steadily and persistently wins their confidence and gets their trade. It is quite just and proper that he should. Nobody is going to take the trouble to hunt up a man who shyly looks up to the surface now and then, and then bows down again.—The Curtis Publishing Company.

Christmas Don'ts.
Don't give a Christmas present grudgingly.
Don't go in debt for Christmas presents.
Don't give with the expectation of return.
Don't figure out what So and So are to give you.
Don't overlook a real friend and hunt up a trash friend instead.
Don't give a gift as an "investment."
Don't deposit a gift in a Bank of Gratitude and expect 20 per cent. interest on it all the year round.
Don't think you're the only Public on the Christmas Beach.—Exchange.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.
GRIMESLAND, N. C., Dec. 16 '98.
Several went from here to Greenville Sunday to attend the Convention.
Rev. N. L. Seabolt returned from conference last week and will continue his work on this circuit. His many friends wish him success.
W. M. Moore has advertised his horse and store for sale. He will move his family to Greenville. Tickets are out for a grand tournament and coronation ball to be given here on Wednesday Jan 14th, 1899.

Help Them.
We earnestly desire the co-operation of Christian and philanthropic people that we may give the poor of the county at the County Home a royal Christmas. It becomes us to make gifts on that blessed day and surely God's afflicted poor are worthy objects. Will our country friends aid us by making a donation of turkeys, ham or anything they may see fit to give?—"In His Name" who gave Himself for us all.

THE EXCELLENCE OF STRIP OF FIGS
is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medicinal profession, and the satisfaction given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not grip or purge. In order to get its full benefit, please remember the name of the Company—

OAKLEY ITEMS.
OAKLEY, N. C. Dec. 19th, 1898.
G. O. Taylor, who has been living in Florida for the last two years, returned home a few days ago.
W. G. Bryan arrived home a few days ago from Norfolk, where he has been working for Uncle Sam upon his warships.
Mrs. Mahala Highsmith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Mabry, at Penelo, for a few days.
C. H. Ross, near here, had quite a curiosity in our village one day last week. It was a white partridge and was nearly white all over. S. T. Carson, of Bethel, was here and took the bird home with him and has it now on exhibition.
Mr. J. S. Gray and Miss Ida Gurganus were married last Sunday at 10 A. M. at Esquire Williams', at this place, by the old Esquire himself.
W. H. Williams, at Oakley seems to be the Gretna Green for fugitive lovers.

LOCAL REFLECTIONS.
Greenville stores have pretty stocks of holiday goods.
The weather is spring-like and too warm to be comfortable.
Fresh Mountain Butter, 20 cents a pound, at Samuel M. Schultz.
The boys are counting up the size of their popcorn cache.
Neither the holiday shoppers nor business men enjoy rainy weather now.
The rain came in torrents Tuesday night and now the streets are all mud.
The Greenville tobacco market closes for the holidays from Dec. 22nd to Jan. 3rd.
The boys are getting their fruit and confection stands out to catch the holiday trade.
Attention is called to the notice to creditors by G. H. Little, executor of G. E. Little.
A Bible is always an appropriate Christmas present. Nice ones at Reflector Book Store.
You can help THE REFLECTOR enjoy Christmas by handing in that little amount you owe it.
As Christmas falls on Sunday this year the day following, Monday, will be observed as a holiday.
The Raleigh Post has reduced its subscription price so $1 a year. That is dirt cheap for such a paper.
Most of the stores have had to engage extra clerks this week to wait on the numerous holiday shoppers.
Counterfeiters are flooding the Mississippi valley with spurious silver dollars, about 200,000 being in circulation.
The degree team of the Old Fellows lodge here expect to go to Washington one night next week to organize a lodge there.
Mr. Alfred Forbes is having his store building on Five Points renovated and repainted, ready for him to occupy it next year.
THE REFLECTOR office is now ready to deliver bills for deeds, mortgages and crop liens. We are printing a lot on splendid paper.
Have you some absent friend whom you would like to make a nice Christmas present? Send him THE REFLECTOR for a year.

READY FOR HOLIDAYS.

K. R. Tunstall went to Kinston Saturday evening and returned this morning.
J. W. Higgins came down from Tarboro Saturday evening and returned this morning.
Miss Annie Kithen, of Scotland Neck, who has been visiting Mrs. Rosalind Kountree, returned home this morning.
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1898.
Miss Alice Carson went to Bethel today.
Rev. D. B. Clayton arrived this morning.
E. B. Ficklen went to Kinston Monday evening.
W. G. Lamb, of Williamston, came in Monday evening.
Miss Minnie Quinn returned Monday evening from a visit to Bethel.
Mrs. J. W. Higgs left this morning for Rocky Mount to visit her parents.
Miss Katie Haskett took the train here this morning for South Lake Neck.
Maj. C. T. Lipscomb, of South Carolina, arrived Monday evening to spend the holidays with his parents.
Mrs. McD. Holliday, of Grimesland, took the train here this morning for Dunn to see her son who is very sick.
R. L. Little, who has been attending school at Wake Forest came home Monday evening for the holidays.
Rev. N. M. Watson left this morning for Raleigh to meet with the committee appointed by the N. C. Conference to look after establishing a new conference paper.
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1898.
R. M. Moye had business up the road today.
G. F. Smith, of Seven Springs, came over this morning.
Miss Alice Carson returned Tuesday evening from Bethel.
W. M. King has moved to his new residence on West Fifth street.
Frank Quinley, of Kinston, is visiting his brother, M. H. Quinley.
Mrs. B. E. Parham is spending the holidays with her parents in Durham.
Jarvis Sugg who has been sick for several days has moved to the Osmond House.
Capt. Charlie Hancock, representative of the Raleigh Post, spent today here.
Will Moore and T. M. Anderson left this morning for Wilson to spend the holidays.
Mrs. N. E. Smith came in Tuesday evening from Halifax to visit her son R. L. Smith.
Miss Margaret Boyd, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Mrs. Chas. Laughinghouse, left this morning.
R. B. Abdehl, who was hurt by a fall at the first last week, left this morning for Suffolk. He is still unable to be up.
Reital.
On Wednesday evening there will be a recital at the College. All patrons of the school are especially invited to be present, and all other friends of the institution will be cordially welcomed.
Beware.
The Kinston Free Press calls attention to a new "green goods" circular people in that section are receiving. Some of them may have come here also. People should beware how they tamper with the "green goods" swindler.
Caught Again.
News comes from Scotland Neck that Young Savage has been captured again. He is the negro who some months ago made himself notorious by breaking into stores both in Greenville and Scotland Neck and carried on quite a load of stolen goods. He has twice escaped from prison.

Excursion Rates.
The Atlantic Coast Line will sell holiday tickets to all points on the system at one and one third fare for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale from Dec. 22nd to 25th and also from Dec. 29th to Jan. 1st, good to return until Jan. 1th.
Freights Take Holiday.
On Monday, Dec. 20th and Monday, Jan. 2nd, local freight trains Nos. 5 and 6 on the Weldon and Kinston road will not run, on account of holidays. All local freight trains on the Coast Line system will lay off on those days.
Merry Christmas.
From the time he went in office on the 5th inst. up to Tuesday night, fifteen days, Register of Deeds Moore issued even forty marriage licenses, twenty-five for white couples and fifteen for colored. We wish them all a merry Christmas.
A Good Rule.
If you wish to have a good Christmas, be happy yourself and make some one else happy. If there are poor in your immediate neighborhood, be sure to remember them with gifts while you are enjoying the good things of this life.—Kinston Free Press.

Hotel Changes Hands.
Several weeks ago it was announced that Mrs. W. M. King had sold her King House property to Mr. J. A. Andrews and would retire from the hotel business. Mr. Andrews rented the property to Mr. C. C. Vines, of Falkland, and Tuesday afternoon Mrs. King retired and Mr. Vines took charge of the hotel. Mrs. King has conducted the hotel for fourteen years and kept such a house as won the favor of the traveling public. Mr. Vines will not doubt make a good successor to the business. He is well known and a popular man, and is agreeable to all with whom he comes in contact.
Moore Court.
The January term of Pitt Superior Court will not have any more officers than are necessary to transact its business, but at the same time there will be Moore officers about it that have been known in one court before. Judge Fost Moore will preside and pass sentence on the guilty. Solicitor L. I. Moore will prosecute for the State and make it warm for offenders. Clerk D. C. Moore will do the swearing and make 'em kiss the Book. Sheriff G. M. Moore (that like to have been Moore) will keep order and have an eye on the prisoners. While all this is going on up stairs, Register of Deeds T. R. Moore will be holding the fort down stairs keeping things in his quarter in order.
Cutting Scrap.
Down at the Elmwood Dairy, two miles below town, two colored men had a row and Jim Wichard was seriously cut by another man named Jackson. This occurred Saturday night.
Snap Shots.
A bird in the hand sometimes means one less in the chicken coop. Now is the time when the average man's face is considerably longer than his purse.
A man may be able to write a dozen volumes and still be unable to fill one pocketbook.
If you do not believe you are a creature of habit, try to put your coat on the other arm first.
The annual tax on tobacco in the United States aggregates $86,000,000.

Married.
Mr. D. H. Fleming, of this city, was happily married to Miss Eleanor Howard, formerly of Oenoke, near Greenville in Pitt county, on Wednesday afternoon last at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Lasford Fleming. Rev. L. O. Wyeche of the M. E. church officiated. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fleming drove to this city and on Wednesday evening a delightful reception was held at the groom's residence on East Second street. Quite a number called to pay their respects.
Miss Howard is a most excellent young lady, pretty and fascinating. Mr. Fleming is one of our city's rising business men, popular and energetic.—Washington Messenger.

News comes from Scotland Neck that Young Savage has been captured again. He is the negro who some months ago made himself notorious by breaking into stores both in Greenville and Scotland Neck and carried on quite a load of stolen goods. He has twice escaped from prison.

Excursion Rates.
The Atlantic Coast Line will sell holiday tickets to all points on the system at one and one third fare for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale from Dec. 22nd to 25th and also from Dec. 29th to Jan. 1st, good to return until Jan. 1th.
Freights Take Holiday.
On Monday, Dec. 20th and Monday, Jan. 2nd, local freight trains Nos. 5 and 6 on the Weldon and Kinston road will not run, on account of holidays. All local freight trains on the Coast Line system will lay off on those days.
Merry Christmas.
From the time he went in office on the 5th inst. up to Tuesday night, fifteen days, Register of Deeds Moore issued even forty marriage licenses, twenty-five for white couples and fifteen for colored. We wish them all a merry Christmas.
A Good Rule.
If you wish to have a good Christmas, be happy yourself and make some one else happy. If there are poor in your immediate neighborhood, be sure to remember them with gifts while you are enjoying the good things of this life.—Kinston Free Press.

Hotel Changes Hands.
Several weeks ago it was announced that Mrs. W. M. King had sold her King House property to Mr. J. A. Andrews and would retire from the hotel business. Mr. Andrews rented the property to Mr. C. C. Vines, of Falkland, and Tuesday afternoon Mrs. King retired and Mr. Vines took charge of the hotel. Mrs. King has conducted the hotel for fourteen years and kept such a house as won the favor of the traveling public. Mr. Vines will not doubt make a good successor to the business. He is well known and a popular man, and is agreeable to all with whom he comes in contact.
Moore Court.
The January term of Pitt Superior Court will not have any more officers than are necessary to transact its business, but at the same time there will be Moore officers about it that have been known in one court before. Judge Fost Moore will preside and pass sentence on the guilty. Solicitor L. I. Moore will prosecute for the State and make it warm for offenders. Clerk D. C. Moore will do the swearing and make 'em kiss the Book. Sheriff G. M. Moore (that like to have been Moore) will keep order and have an eye on the prisoners. While all this is going on up stairs, Register of Deeds T. R. Moore will be holding the fort down stairs keeping things in his quarter in order.
Cutting Scrap.
Down at the Elmwood Dairy, two miles below town, two colored men had a row and Jim Wichard was seriously cut by another man named Jackson. This occurred Saturday night.
Snap Shots.
A bird in the hand sometimes means one less in the chicken coop. Now is the time when the average man's face is considerably longer than his purse.
A man may be able to write a dozen volumes and still be unable to fill one pocketbook.
If you do not believe you are a creature of habit, try to put your coat on the other arm first.
The annual tax on tobacco in the United States aggregates $86,000,000.

Married.
Mr. D. H. Fleming, of this city, was happily married to Miss Eleanor Howard, formerly of Oenoke, near Greenville in Pitt county, on Wednesday afternoon last at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Lasford Fleming. Rev. L. O. Wyeche of the M. E. church officiated. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fleming drove to this city and on Wednesday evening a delightful reception was held at the groom's residence on East Second street. Quite a number called to pay their respects.
Miss Howard is a most excellent young lady, pretty and fascinating. Mr. Fleming is one of our city's rising business men, popular and energetic.—Washington Messenger.
