

TRINITY NOTES.

Mr. Albert Whitehouse has been elected Director of the Gymnasium and is expected to reach here this week. Mr. Whitehouse has had several years experience in this kind of work at three of the well-known colleges of the United States. He received his training at Harvard University where he was four years an assistant in the gymnasium, he was two years instructor in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at Boston, and three years trainer of the Athletic Team at Dartmouth College. He studied medicine at Tufts College, Mass. He is thoroughly equipped for his work, and will introduce into the gymnasium here the methods followed at the leading colleges of the country. The new gymnasium furnished with all modern apparatus, will be opened March 1st. This is something the college has long needed and much good is expected to come from it.

Hon. H. G. Connor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, delivered an address at the City Celebration, held on Washington's birthday under the auspices of the Trinity College Historical Society. His subject was "A Senator and His Citizen Ship." Judge Connor is a man who has studied social questions, and his address was of good advice and sound wisdom. His address was of great interest to a large audience consisting of residents of the Park and visitors from the city.

The third of the series of Historical Societies is just from the press. It consists of papers prepared under the direction of the Historical Society.

The South Carolina papers announce that the literary address at the commencement of Methodist College is to be delivered by President Kilgo.

Rev. C. E. Siler, pastor of Trinity Church, Charlotte, has arrived at the Park. He comes at the invitation of the College. A. M. C. to hold a series of special religious services.

My Silence Explained.

A young lady from the country was sitting her eyes toward her brother, pointing, and the lawyers were, as usual, making all sorts of injudicious inquiries.

"You say," remarked one, "that the defendant frequently sat very close to you?"

"Yes sir," was the reply with a hectic blush.

"How close?"

The Fruit Crop.

While the damage to the fruit crop by the recent severe frosts certainly has been great, there is reason to believe that it is less than was at first supposed.

The Georgia peach has not suffered to the extent first reported. Florida has lost heavily. By the destruction of early vegetation, but the good news comes that the orange crop, in the main has escaped injury.

Florida was just beginning to recover from the terrible effects of the frosts of 1895, and has been sending us this winter the best oranges we have had since that disaster.

The whole country is interested in the Florida orange crop, as it is in the Georgia peach crop. The Florida orange and the Georgia peach have no equals; there is no substitute for either.

The peach industry of this state has grown to vast proportions, and the market for its product has been extended to every part of the country. Last year there was an unprecedented yield of peaches in Georgia, and it brought millions of dollars into this state at a time when hardly any other money crop was available.

There is yet hope that we may have another great peach crop this year. Without an abundant supply of Georgia peaches the pleasure of life is distinctly decreased for millions of the people of this country.

The greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, eczema, aches and pains and breaking up colds. Nine years ago I suffered with a chronic cold, which resulted in a bronchial affection and repeated serious troubles of the throat which were alarming.
