

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.
GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WHITCHARD, E. L. & Owner.
Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second Class Mail Matter.
FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1899.

One of the most shameful crimes that has occurred was committed by a mob of 200 men at Palmetto, Ga., on last Thursday night. Several incendiary fires had occurred in the town and nine negroes had been arrested on the charge of being the guilty parties and were placed in jail to await trial. The mob went to the jail, overpowered the officials, broke down the door, and going in to the cells poured a volley of shot into the bodies of the helpless prisoners. Four of the negroes were killed instantly and the others were horribly wounded.
Such a crime is a disgrace to every one who participated in it, as well as a stain upon the State in which it occurred.

Mr. Walter Aycock Burned to A shocking death occurred here early this morning. Last night about 10 o'clock, after he had un-dressed and had slipped in a dressing gown, Mr. Walter Aycock lowered the swinging lamp and blew it out, when it burst, enveloping his body from neck to foot in burning oil. No one was in the room at the time, but his wife ran in and enveloped him in a blanket and extinguished the fire.
Mr. Aycock was charred to crisp, but survived till 7 o'clock this morning. He was about 36 years old, was a good merchant, and was universally esteemed. He was an active member of the Baptist church. His life was insured for about $8,000.—Warrenton Corrales News and Observer.

In all this medley of law suits one figure stands apart and pursues the even tenor of its way, placid and serene. It is that of R.
A. Cobb. He affably surrendered his office of litigation to Capt. Sherill, shook hands and walked out of the door. And no one has ever heard him say anything about quarrants proceeding or "standing on his legal rights."—Charlotte Observer.

Big Masonic Building.
A movement is on foot, and is rapidly crystallizing, to erect a fine Masonic building in Wilson.
The members of Mr. Lebanon Lodge are taking deep interest in the matter and have strong hopes of seeing it erected in the near future.
It will contain, besides the halls for lodge use, stores on the ground floor, offices above and a modern opera house. Plans will soon be secured for the building and its erection, if a suitable site can be secured, is almost an assured fact.

THE Almighty Dollar.
The dollar is indeed almighty.
It is the Archimedes lever that lifts the illbred man into select society and places the ignorant sap-head in the U. S. Senate; it makes presidents of stuffed prophets, governors of intellectual glories, philosophers of fools and gilds infamy with supernatural glory.
It wrecks the altars of innocence and pollutes the face of the people; breaks the sword of justice and binds the goddess of liberty with chains of gold. It is the lord of the land, the uncrowned king of the commonwealth.—Orange, Va., Ob-
