

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.
GREENVILLE, N. C.

D. J. WHITCHARD, Ed. & Owner.
Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1899.

The searching of the ruins of the windor hotel, recently burned in New York, has been completed.
The total number of dead reached 45. It was a horrible disaster.

The Postal Telegraph Company has sent the Southern Railway in a suit to condemn a right of way to build a telegraph line along this system of railroad through this State.

Science says scarlet fever is often carried around in the fur of cats, and may bring smallpox, and other pestilences are scattered in a peculiar manner on the clothing of persons who have been in contact with them. The death rate is highest where attention is paid to everything that is good or otherwise agreeable. And this accounts for the difficultly of avoiding even the appearance of it.—Raleigh Post.

And the next thing you know books will be catching members from going a fishing, or coming home with jam-fice from pulling yellow sauce. Whether you wish to be entirely safe in this big April snow!

Teach the Little Ones.
There is scarcely a busy housewife who has not at some time or other felt how much easier it would be to do the work herself than to attempt to teach a child to assist her, whether it be in household matters or in sewing. Now, you should speak particularly of the latter. It seems almost to be the right of every little girl to be taught to sew neatly, even if it does cost the mother some self-denial.
Very few grown women are wholly except from ever using a needle.
On the contrary almost every one wants to take care of her own wardrobe more or less, even if she has no responsibility for that of any one's around her. Machines cannot sew up rips in gowns, replace missing buttons, or make up the need without any needwork for hand.—Ashville Mountain Home.

Baker's Prophecy for April.
Prof. L. C. Baker, Cardwell's weather prophet, lends the Charlotte News the following forecast for April:

1st, cloudy and cool; 2nd, light rain, mild; 3rd, cloudy, warm; 4th, rain, fog, warm; 5th, foggy, little rain, then fair, somewhat warm; 6th, warmer, soft, light rain; 7th, cloudy morning, foggy, with fair day; 8th, fair, mostly morning, then south wind; 9th, cool, cloudy; 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, partly cloudy and warm.

Hard on the Tax Collector.
The last Legislature left the tax collector of Greenville county in rather an awkward position.

Section 2 of the act repealing the road law of the counties of Greenville, Wilson and Wayne, reads as follows:

"That the tax collector, for the purpose of working the public roads of the county of Greenville for the year 1898, under the provisions of said act, shall be refunded to the taxpayers of said county, and all taxes levied under said act and not collected at the passage of this act shall not thereafter be collected or collectable."

Of course the law should read "That the tax collector . . . shall be refunded to the taxpayers." But it doesn't. And the act is certified as "examined and found correct" by Senator Speight for the committee on enrolled bills.— has accepted an invitation to deliver the Memorial address in Washington May 10th.

SUPERIOR COURT.
April Term in Session.

The April term of Pitt Superior Court began Monday morning with Judge Fred Moore presiding and Solicitor L. I. Moore representing the State.

The following were drawn for the Grand Jury: Stiles Chapman, foreman; J. A. Taylor, W. B. Tucker, J. S. Pittman, Matthews, John C.
Owen, R. A. Crawford, John C.
Dawson, J. J. Chance, colored, J.
H. Flanagan, J. R. Pippin, G. A.
Casper, Franklin Edwards, W. A.
Gaskins, L. B. Elix, J. B. Black, W. A. James, Jr., C. J. Briley, E.
M. Chick.

The Judge made an able charge to the jury and began the work of the term in that business like manner that characterized the two former terms at which he has presided in this county.

Upon the calling of the docket several State witnesses failed to appear to their names, and the Judge ordered the clerk not to attend to any more of them until they were ready to appear. The docket was then called.

The following cases were disposed of since last report:

Charlie Barrett, et al., pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.
R. E. Jones, et al., judgment with debtors, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.
Ben May, et al., larceny, not guilty.
Nathan Barrett, assault with deadly weapon, not guilty.
Nathan Parker, carrying on road without license, not guilty.
Sam Allen, et al., pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.
Charlotte Abitton, John Plammer and Melvina Hardy, et al., guilty, judgment suspended as to Charlotte Abitton and Melvina Hardy, John Plammer sentenced to 90 days in jail with leave to commissioners to hire out.

Elizabeth Shelby, burglary, pleads guilty in second degree, sentenced to 10 years in State prison.
Roy Little, carrying concealed weapon, pleads guilty in two cases, sentenced to 3 months in jail, with leave to commissioners to hire out.

The case against R. F. White, murder, indicted on the charge of murder, was not passed.

Van B. Robbick, under the indictment of murder, was arraigned Monday afternoon. The trial was set for Thursday morning and a venue of twenty-five jurors ordered.

Moss Jones, larceny, guilty, Johnston Mills, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Tharkus Flock, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment
of costs.

Jesse Taff, larceny, guilty.
Ned Waldron, larceny, guilty.

Amos Warden, larceny, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon
payment of costs.

Philipino Discouraged.
Washington, April 3rd.—Gen.
Oles cables today: "Present indications denote that the insurgent government is in a perilous condition. Their army is defeated, discouraged and scattered. The insurgents are returning to their homes, and the cities and the villages are being reoccupied. The constituting parties reached, de-island is more encouraging every day."—"Oris."

Pointed Paragraphs.

returned to the tax payers."

Many a scriptural text serves as a pretext for lengthy discourse.

Evans remarked that he could not send the whole crew."
"Who does not want to go?" he asked.

There was no answer.
"Well, boys, some of you fellows have got to die. Murphy, step out here. You too, McLean. Now, I am going to sentence one of you to death. There is not one chance in a million for you to escape if you go on this trip. It is a death warrant for you."

Taking a penny from his pocket he said: "Murphy, you're heads, McLean, you're tails. If it comes down heads you go, Murphy. If it comes down tails, you are to die, McLean."

"I'll give you $50 for your chance to go," said McLean.

Murphy shook his head.

The penny was flipped and it came down heads, Murphy had been sentenced to death.

"I'll give you $100 for your chance," said McLean.

Murphy smiled and shook his head.

"I'll give you $150 cash," said McLean excitedly. Murphy shook his head again, and McLean burst in tears and sobbed like a child, then was led back to the ranks.

THE IOWA WAS SAVED.
By Cervera Coming Out of Santiago Harbor.

The sortie of Cervera's fleet from Santiago harbor the morning of July 3 prevented the destruction of the United States battleship Iowa and the death of Capt. Robley Evans and his crew of devoted seamen. The story is told by Capt. Evans himself and was repeated in Henry Triebel, who rode with Capt. Evans from Cincinnati to Washington recently, the two being the only occupants of the sleeping car for more than half the journey.

Capt. Evans willingly reviewed the Iowa's work during the recent war and told of the assaults and battles in his characteristic manner punctuating his story with the emphatic language for which the captain is famed.

"Only luck prevented the destruction of the Iowa," said the captain. "The day after the arriving of El Caney Gen. Shafter made an appeal to the department at Washington for help on the part of the fleet. He desired that the fleet enter the harbor and create a disturbance, thus diverting the attention and preventing further slaughter of the Americans when the city was taken. Others were sent that a battleship enter the harbor and a consultation was held. It was decided that the Iowa should enter the harbor the morning of July 4."

Capt. Evans told the officials that if they told him to go, of course he would, but it meant the destruction of the Iowa and every man aboard.
"I know the harbor to a dot," he said. "I have been in there many times."

Then making a sketch of the passage, which remains one of a letter, he said: "Right there, in pointing with his pencil about the middle of the letter, 'All the guns of the enemy, 100 feet above the water, bear directly upon this point; the guns have an accurate range and when my ship reaches that point good-by to the Iowa and Bob Evans.'"

There was another consultation, and Evans was ordered to prepare to enter the harbor the morning of July 4. The Spanish fleet left the harbor the morning before the appointed day, Cervera presented the sacrifice by making his final dash for liberty.

Capt. Evans said that when it was announced that the Merrimac would enter the harbor, the sailors on the Iowa were expectant. All wanted to go and seemed not to think of the consequences.

The Iowa was to send one man with the Merrimac's party and Capt. Evans lined up the men for the purpose of securing volunteers.

The clerk of the ship called 300 names and each man responded.
"Here am I," sent one. "Capt.
Evans remarked that he could not
send the whole crew."
"Who does not want to go?" he
asked.

down heads you go, Murphy. If it comes down tails, you are to die, McLean."

"I'll give you $50 for your chance

Murphy shook his head.

The penny was flipped and it
came down heads, Murphy had
been sentenced to death.

"I'll give you $100 for your

Should Be Universal.

The flood of prosperity seems to be turned at last toward North Carolina. From every locality in the State come news of new indus-of others.

Capital is very scarce—and cautious. It is seeking our State now in great abundance, the best evidence in the world of the confidence of those who have money to invest in the future of our State.
All we have to do is to show our own faith in ourselves and in our State, frown down the demagogues, whosoever they be, and stand thick for the upbuilding of our communities.—Raleigh Post.

PROOF.
It is an easy matter to claim that a remedy has wonderful curative power. The manufacturers—
RHEUMATISM
leave it to those who have been positively and permanently cured of Rheumatism to make claims. Among those who have recently written us voluntary letters saying they were cured are: Rev. J.
L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr.
J. E. Robinson, Editor Goldsboro, N. C.; Daily Argus; Mr.
A. Datus, a prominent merchant, Kansas City, Mo.

 Is only $1 a year and contains the news every week and gives information to the farmers, especially these growing tobacco, that is worth many times more than the subscription price.

Explained.
 Band Leader—You want us to play funeral music? It is the funeral of your brother. He was a private citizen. He requested that your band should play at his funeral.
 Band Leader (promptly)—My band, eh? Vy he choose my band?
 Stranger—He said he wanted every body to feel sorry he died.

THE RAVAGES OF GRIP.
 That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your throat and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

CATARH CANNOT BE CURED WITH LOCAL APPLICATIONS
 CATARH CANNOT BE CURED WITH LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood-accumulation disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. All's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood, thus removing the cause of the disease. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Sent for testimonials, free.

MEXICO'S SIGN LANGUAGE.
 Mexico's Sign Language is a very interesting and useful mode of communication. It is used by the deaf and dumb in Mexico, and is a very simple and effective system. VILLAINS IN NOVELS.
 Examples of the atrocious crimes that have been devised by the Writers of Fiction For their Men and Women of Crime.
 Dickens is responsible for a most interesting gallery of rogues. Only a few of the most notable are mentioned here. The villainous characters in his novels are: Fagin, the Jew; Squeers, the schoolmaster; and the various other characters who are the villains of his stories.

FELLING BIG TREES.
 The methods by which the woodsman approaches his work are of great interest. He uses a variety of tools and techniques to bring down the trees. The process is a very laborious one, and requires a great deal of skill and strength.
