WHERE WILL THEY STOP?

The Trust mania is spreading. It struck Greenville Saturday and all day its subtle poisonous influence could be felt in the air. A bright young man, who had been a buyer on the Greenville tobacco market, arrived from Danville on Friday. Saturday morning a shrewd reticent lawyer arrived from Wilson by way of Kingston, and he and the young man from Danville were soon closeted together. In a short while the owners and lessees of the tobacco warehouses were sent for and all day the mysterious conferences were going on at the Hotel Macon. We have not been able to get at the exact status of affairs, but enough is known to justify us in saying that a movement is on foot to put the warehouses of Greenville and other eastern towns in the Danville Tobacco Warehouse Trust. When this is accomplished then we predict that many of the markets will be closed and the tobacco growers forced to ship their tobacco to certain markets to be handled by the Trust upon its own terms. It may be that Greenville will be one of the closed towns and its unoccupied warehouses will stand as sad monuments of the desolation and ruin wrought by the Trusts.

There are some things so clean cut and simple that no man can fail to understand unless he is blinded by partisan zeal. Among these we mention these facts. Since McKinley and the Republican party came into power the 4th of March, 1897, Trusts and combinations have multiplied, grown and prospered and they are still multiplying and absorbing 'till no one can tell where they will stop. Republican policies and practices foster and protect Trusts and the people need not expect to overthrow the Trusts until they overthrow the Republican party and repudiate its policies. Republican conventions and Republican politicians may declare against Trusts but as long as the Trusts grow multiplying and prospering under Republican policies the people will not be deceived by these meaningless declarations. The people we believe are becoming more and more alarmed at the rapid growth of these Trusts and unless we mistake the signs of the times we predict they will force men and parties to make the annihilation of these Trusts the great issue in the great battle of 1900. The promoters of these Trusts may feel that McKinley and the Republican party are sure to win in 1900 and that therefore the Trusts are safe. It would seem from the manner in which they are multiplying and spreading then that they have this confidence in the success of McKinley and his party. They seem not to consider that there is a point beyond which they cannot safely go. That point, in our humble judgment, has been reached. Will they stop there? It seems not. Flushed with success and blinded by greed they rush madly on. If Democrats will cease their bickering, get together, select candidates and leaders in whom the people have confidence and meet the Republican party fairly and squarely on its Trust policies and productions they can win in 1900 if it has the courage and the wisdom to seize upon it. Will it do it? We have faith that it will.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., July 3, 1899.
The break between Mr. McKinley and Secretary Alger, which seemed almost at hand a day or two ago, has been postponed for a time by the refusal of Alger, doubtless under instructions from Alger, of the correctness of the anti-McKinley interviews recently attributed to him by reputable newspapers in Michigan and elsewhere. But postponing it does not mean that it will be avoided permanently. Notwithstanding his public protestations of loyalty to Mr. McKinley, Alger is under suspicion, and if he can prevent a break that will result in his being kicked out of the cabinet, he will have to display more diplomacy than he has ever shown in his career. His retention in the cabinet was also probably assisted by what Senator Burrows told Mr. McKinley—that Senator McMillan and himself would not ask for Alger's dismissal, at this time, because they believed his remaining in the cabinet would be more of a benefit than an injury to the country's interests. The results of Mr. McKinley's suspicion of Alger will be that the latter will not be allowed to assume an important office or to make an appointment, until the approval of Mr. McKinley has been secured. Of course, this approval has always been necessary, but it has as a matter of course been freely given heretofore in all matters pertaining to the War Department. One of the results of Mr. McKinley's suspicion of Alger will be that the latter will not be allowed to assume an important office or to make an appointment, until the approval of Mr. McKinley has been secured. Of course, this approval has always been necessary, but it has as a matter of course been freely given heretofore in all matters pertaining to the War Department.

UNCLE WAYBACK'S PHILOSOPHY.

I have noticed that suitable marriages pass everybody but the contractants parties. That a person's pants generally wear out at the seat after they do in at the knees. That lazy men always live short lives. That most preachers think the Lord is deaf. That wise men sometimes learn of fools, but then fools don't learn of wise men. That you can't tell the size of a man by the noise he makes. That a point of perspective is better than a fan or a camp stool. That "thank you" pays a pile of debts.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by The Orange Va. Observer.

Most people believe in a purse and religion. Many a good man becomes a better at a horse race or a prize fight. The string is apt to break if a girl has too many young men on. Some men who assume to be dogmatic only show their puppyism. The young man's words have the right ring when he proposes to his sweetheart. A man cannot gather grapes from thistles, but he can get curries from electric wires. The streets will be kept clean now—the ladies have commenced wearing sweeping dresses. Porterfield's Creditors Get Nothing.

As the democratic state convention of Ohio will not convene for some weeks, there is plenty of time to talk about probable candidates for Governor, and it is freely taken advantage of wherever a few demagogues are gathered.

The application of the North Carolina creditors of Porterfield and Company, the stockholders of this city who recently made an assignment for the appointment of a receiver, has been denied by the court, upon the ground, it is stated, that the counsel for the company admitted that the business was one of gambling, and that gambling debts cannot be collected by law. If this is true, it is held that it makes the firm guilty of crime, and an attempt will be made to secure the indictment of the firm in North Carolina, and application may be made for the requisition of the partners to that State. There seems now in view of the decision of the court, no prospect of the creditors of the defunct brokerage firm getting their money.—Charlotte News.

Convicted of Lying.

Richmond, July 1.—In the County Court of Patrick, today, C. J. Thompson, L. D. McMillan, Madison Montgomery, Jr., H. I. Montgomery, Robert Montgomery, and W. M. Branch, all white, were convicted of murder in the second degree in lynching Lee Puckett, white, for attempted criminal assault on a young lady. Puckett was a discharged lunatic. Thompson was given six and the other five years each in the penitentiary. The jury were out only thirty minutes. This is said to be the first case of its kind in Virginia.

LOST.—Many golden opportunities have been lost by those who suffer from rheumatism, not taking them now they will be permanently and positively cured.

WINTERTVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERTVILLE, July 5, '99.
J. F. Stokes is knocking around here a little. About fifty negroes went to Greenville from here on the train and returned yesterday. Mrs. Dr. B. T. Cox, who has been visiting at Seven Springs, returned home yesterday morning. A. D. Cox is improving his corner very much by building a nice wall around his yard. Miss Kittle Morgan took the train for her home yesterday morning, as her father seems to be some better. The seats have been put in the waiting rooms of the depot, and all it needs now is a visit by the painters. W. L. Hurst now has coal and is prepared to furnish almost any cold drink a body wants. Lee for sale at a low price. In a short while R. F. Manning & Co. will have in a nice stock of ready made clothing. Wait and see them before buying. At regular meeting of Town Commissioners yesterday H. T. Smith having resigned as Police-man, A. D. Cox was appointed to fill his place. Joe Manning is lamp light.

Special Meeting.

On Monday, July 10th, 1899, the Board of County Commissioners will hold a special meeting for the purpose of hearing complaints of any and all persons who are not satisfied with the valuation placed upon their lands by the appraisers.

Disolution Notice.

The firm of Brown & Hooker was dissolved by mutual consent on the 1st day of July, 1899. Those indebted to the firm can settle with either member. The business will be continued by W. B. Brown, S. T. Hooker.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Commissioners of Pitt county will meet at their office in the Court House, in Greenville, on Monday the 10th of July, 1899 for the purpose of revising the tax list and valuation of property reported to them. All persons objecting to the valuation of their property will be heard.

Any person who has failed to list property for taxation upon application that day will be allowed to list the same.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of Pitt county.

T. M. MOORE, Clerk.

NOTICE.

On Monday at 7th day of August, A. D. 1899, I will sell the Court House, in Greenville, N. C., to the highest bidder for cash one tract of land in Pitt county containing about 157 acres at about 1000 feet square, situated in Greenville township beginning at the mouth of a slough on Tar River.

Wesley Booth, a white man 80 years old who lived near Cary, was killed by a train Saturday afternoon. He was drunk and drove on the railroad track ahead of a train.

There is a preacher in Durham who says he has tramped 20,000 miles and preached the gospel in every section of the country. He travels without purse or scrip, and does not carry an extra cent. His only baggage consists of an old pair of saddle-bags in which he carries his food from one place to another.

The Kissing Bug.

Washington is annoyed by a bug that is said to be devastating the fair beauty of the Washington face. This bug bites on the lips, and the affected parts soon swell to enormous size, the skin becoming scaly and feverish, and the whole face like a toothache at one o'clock. The identity of this kissing bug was a mystery until this week when the entomologist who superintends the Department of Zoology in the American Museum of Natural History examined the specimen and said it was "Melanolestes Picipes." This sounds bad enough for any thing, and when we learn that the bug lives on other insects and is a first cousin to the Melanolestes Biguttatus it simply horrifies us to think what fearful consequences may ensue from its bite. The Charlotte authorities should take steps to quarantine against the kissing bug of Washington.—Charlotte News.

Puckett was a discharged lunatic. Thompson was given six and the other five years each in the penitentiary. The jury were out only thirty minutes. This is said to be the first case of its kind in Virginia.
