FRIDAY, AUGUST 18, 1899.

New Yorkers are trying to get up a Van Wyck boom for President. But Bryan is the man.

The Mayor of Atlanta has promised the city council to sober up and stay sober, or else resign at the next offense.

The superintendent of the Northampton convict farm has brought suit against the Raleigh News and Observer because that paper told of his cruelty to the convicts.

The hurricane that visited Porto Rico the latter part of the past week left ruin and devastation in its wake. Secretary Root has sent an appeal to the cities of our country for aid for the sufferers. Relief is being hurried forward to them.

Raleigh Aldermen passed an ordinance that no signs should swing or project over the sidewalks. An injunction was used against the enforcement of the ordinance, and in granting the injunction the city authorities were restrained from interfering with the signs until the validity of the matter can be determined in the courts.

Not satisfied with persecuting Dreyfus unmercifully and unjustly, his enemies undertook to hinder his defense by shooting one of his counsel on Monday morning. But the scandalous trial is in progress on the other side of the ocean, and whatever may be said about it this far away will have no effect. But Americans feel an interest in the trial and think that Dreyfus should have his liberty.

The Reign of Prosperity.
The work of construction now going on in Charlotte is little less than phenomenal. Every brick layer and every carpenter is fully occupied, and there is still demand for more. Quantities of bricks have been made, but they have been laid as fast as made and more are wanted. Quantities of lumber have been shipped into Charlotte, but it goes into buildings as fast as it arrives, and more lumber is wanted. In every part of the city new dwellings are going up, and on the business streets blocks of stores and offices are in course of construction. The city is never in so prosperous a condition. It is gratifying, too, that the neighboring towns and cities are enjoying fully as much prosperity in proportion as Charlotte. These are the brightest and most hopeful times the South has known since the civil war.

It is not material prosperity alone that brings all the contentment and satisfaction that prevails. The political and social confusion, semi-anarchy, that succeeded the civil war lasted in more or less aggravated form for more than a quarter of a century, has been giving way gradually to order and industry. The Northern friends of the negro have almost come to know that the negro needs encouragement to work and be thrifty more than he needs encouragement to assert social rights that he can never attain. The negro himself has also learned to know that there is more happiness in contented labor and in preserving friendly relations with neighboring white people than in fruitless controversy and strife. All in all, the prospects for the people and the country look fair.—Charlotte Observer

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, August 16, '99. Ed. W. L. Billro, from Ayrden, stopped here a short while yesterday.

H. T. Smith of the Wire Fence Co. and Watt Parker went to Kingston last night when they killed 1700 yards of fence to put up.

B. F. Manning leaves this morning for Baltimore, where he is going to purchase the largest stock of goods ever brought to Winterville. Some of the patrons of Winterville Academy met Monday night to take some further steps in regard to the school. There seems to be considerable interest, and we hope to have a good school.

In a New History—Look out for a complete history of "Light-colored Hub and Rim" cart wheels from way back to the flood if we can find record of any that far back.

A. G. Cox Mrs. Co. A. G. Cox went yesterday and is going today with a crowd of hands to Mr. Joe Wilson's, about five miles South of here, to help save his crop of tobacco, which has nearly dried up since they have all been down with typhoid fever.

When A. G. Cox Mrs. Co. gets their new Hama and Single tree perfected, they will then be making a complete set of wagon and cart harness, and when a man comes after a wagon or cart, they can fit him up all round.

A man by the name of Phillips was going all through this community last Saturday delivering a kind of cooking ware which he went through and sold a few days ago, and which he claimed to be fire proof and said they would not break if you burned them a hundred years in a kitchen and then poured cold water over them. Almost by the time he got out on town several parties who might try their new ware, and it broke all to pieces as soon as it got hot. When will our people quit fooling with dead beats?

PARMELE ITEMS.
PARMELE, N. C., Aug. 14, 1899. Rev. L. Jackson preached in the M. E. church here yesterday. Miss Eva Simpson, of Everett, paid one town a visit yesterday. Dr. Hicks says it is distressingly healthy in and around Parmele. Miss Lela Crumpler, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Hicks. The colored people are holding a protracted meeting in their Baptist church. W. H. Eubanks has accepted a clerkship with White & Co., of this place.

Mrs. D. H. Hazlett, who has been on the sick list, is much improved. Dr. Johnson, of Elizabeth City, will preach in the Presbyterian church tonight. Mrs. Windley and children, of Robersonville, spent yesterday with Mrs. Dr. Hicks. Miss Nannie should have appeared in last week's correspondence instead of Miss Lela Hazlett.

The W. C. T. U. held their first August meeting last Friday night. All present enjoyed an excellent lecture by Rev. L. Jackson. There were a large number of young people on the streets here yesterday evening, some of whom had very sentimental expressions. Hold your very straight Cupid levers. We are morally persuaded that prize fighting should not be allowed in our towns, especially those that are trying to free themselves from the terrorizing rule of strong drink. Therefore we will have to decline visiting Bethel if her correspondent has nothing better to invite a fellow to.

The Youngest Confederate Soldier Dead.
Palmer, Aug. 14.—James T. Palmer, the youngest enlisted man in the Confederate army, died tonight. He was powder monkey on the Confederate steamer Morgan, commanded by Captain Fry, of Virginia fame, and served in the terrific action off Fort Blakely, Mobile Bay, in April, 1865, being then 6 years old.

TARBORO LOSES A GAME.
Special to Reflector. Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 16.—Union won out in the eleventh inning in yesterday's game with Tarboro at Charlotte by a base on balls and a three base hit by Newman. Score: Union 8, Tarboro 7. Batteries: Tarboro, Jones, LeGrand; Union, Melkian, Shaw.

TARBORO BEATS S. C.
Special to Reflector. Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 15.—Phillips won the game for Tarboro yesterday in the game played with Union, S. C., at Charlotte. He made a home run with two men on bases in the ninth inning, making a final score of five to two.

Batteries. Union, Newman, Shaw. The best two out of three in the series played with Union this week will decide the championship of the south.

Wisdom in York County, S. C.

The superintendent of education for York county has in his office the examination papers of applicants for teachers' certificates. One of the questions was: "Explain the American idea of government," and here are a couple of answers: "To keep a man from carrying more than five gallons of liquor at a time."

"The American idea of government is very good, but the United States has never been able to give expansion to it."

Other questions brought out the following statements: "Day and night is caused by the rise and set of the sun."

"A man could go around the world in five minutes if he could travel at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour."

"To secure the right to vote a man must pay $300 and be able to read."

"The moral effect of alcohol is to cause people to lose respect for each other."

"The moon has a great influence on the crops. For example, if you eat potatoes in the light of the moon they will be all vines."

"The axis is a rod on which the earth turns. The poles are the ends of the earth's axis. The distance around the earth is 25,000,000.—Columbia Dispatch.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.
Immigration Commissioner Thompson has a letter from a Michigan man saying he raised apples in Michigan and shipped them to this State, so he thought he would come to the western part of North Carolina so as to save freight.

Conley Shadrack, a young man of Wake county, was drowned in a mill pond Sunday afternoon.

Scotland Neck had an S. O. clock closing ordinance for business houses. There was kicking against the law, it was repealed, and now the town has some all night houses. If any choose to stay open.

A company has been incorporated to build a railroad from Raleigh to Springhope. Gen. J. S. Carr, of Durham, is at the head of the company.

C. N. Rothrock, of Salem, received a telegram yesterday from his daughter, who has been held for 18 years, stating she would arrive here Monday. She has been living in Colorado.—Winston Sentinel.

The Man Who Succeeds.
The man who makes a success of an important venture never waits for the crowd. He strikes out for himself. It takes nerve. It takes a great lot of grit. But the man who succeeds has both. Any one can fail. The public admires the man who has enough confidence in himself to take a chance. These chances are the main thing after all. The man who tries to succeed must expect to be criticised. Nothing important was ever done but the greater number consulted previously doubted the possibility. Success is the accomplishment of what most people think can't be done.—C. V. White.

About to Call for More Volunteers.
Washington, August 14.—Secretary Root has asked the Governors of the State to name two officers from each volunteer regiment which their States had in the Spanish war. As all the regiments now ordered are fully equipped with officers, these must be for new regiments in contemplation, which it is thought will be ordered early this week.

Tarboro Beats S. C.
Special to Reflector. Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 15.—Phillips won the game for Tarboro yesterday in the game played with Union, S. C., at Charlotte. He made a home run with two men on bases in the ninth inning, making a final score of five to two.
