

EASTERN REFLECTOR.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

D. J. WHICHARD, Ed. & Owner.

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1899.

The question of tax valuations has recently had much more discussion than it usually gets, and it may result in some reformation in listing when another assessment time comes. The railroads of the State thought they were assessed too high this year, and that their valuation for taxation was not in proportion to the valuation of other property over the State, so they took the matter before Judge J. M. Simonton on an injunction. The case came on for a hearing last week in Asheville and many of the State's best lawyers were there representing each side. Hundreds of affidavits were introduced, some setting forth that other property was not assessed at full cash value but only at about two-thirds or three-fourths value, and others affirming that property was assessed at its full value. At this writing a decision has not been given out, so it is not known yet how the matter will end. The REFLECTOR does not take sides with the railroads in wanting the values assessed against them reduced, for we do not yet believe they are valued at near what they would bring in cash. On the other hand we believe, that to take the State over, other property in nine cases out of ten is not assessed at near its actual cash value. According to our way of thinking all property should be assessed at its true value and then the tax rate should be made correspondingly lower. And such valuations should be made to bear on all alike in proportion to what they possessed.

Built on Peanut Trade.

Boykin, Va., is a flourishing town of five hundred people, a Raleigh Post correspondent writes. And Mr. W. H. Beadles says it would be impossible to find, throughout the Old Dominion, five hundred more honest, enterprising and law-abiding citizens than those over whom he officiates as mayor. The town was incorporated in 1884. By association this is properly a North Carolina town, being only two miles from the State line. And large part of its citizens are Tar-Heels, giving rise to a large North Carolina trade.

Don't Come Often.

Decker Moore, an old colored man of Beaver Dam township, is 74 years old. He is a defendant at court this week, charged with injury to stock, and says this is the first time that he has been in the Court House since he got married, right after the war.

JOHNSON'S MILLS ITEMS.

JOHNSON'S MILLS, N. C., Sept. 19. W. F. Harding left last week for Chapel Hill. Miss Annie Harding went to Kingston yesterday.

Miss Katie Kooner, of Polkville, is visiting friends in the neighborhood.

L. B. Mewborn, J. S. Pittman

and F. M. Kilpatrick are jurors from here this week.

Joe S. May left Monday to attend the A. & M. College at Raleigh.

Hymen Rice went to Greenville yesterday to accept a position as salesman for C. T. Munford.

Died.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. J. H. Harris last Friday night, and claimed their little seven year old son, Eddie, for his victim. He with six others of the children were down with typhoid fever. His remains were interred in Reedy Branch church yard Saturday evening. Rev. W. L. B. B. conducted the funeral services. The stricken parents have our sympathy. The remaining six are all improving.—Free Will Baptist.

"Trust not to appearances," but put your faith in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which never disappoints. It is the best medicine money can buy.

MARRIAGES THREE.

One in Church, Two at Home.

WHICHARD-RENEW.

In the Methodist church Tuesday evening Mr. Clarence B. Whichard and Miss Emily Catherine Renew were joined in holy matrimony.

The bridal party reached the church a little past 9 o'clock, and Mrs. J. L. Fleming beautifully rendered the wedding march as they entered.

The ushers were Dr. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, Messrs. S. M. Schultz, W. F. Burch, A. F. Kennedy and D. J. Whichard.

The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Lucy Johnson, and the groom with his best man, Mr. H. Walter Whichard.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. M. Watson and was very impressive.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. V. H. Whichard, where many friends called to extend congratulations.

They received several very pretty and so-called bridal presents.

At 5:30 Wednesday morning at home of Mr. J. S. Norman, brother of the bride, in South Greenville, Mr. J. H. Cobb and Miss Ellen M. Norman were married in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. B. B. of Ayles.

The couple left on the morning train for a bridal trip to Baltimore and New York. They will remain in the latter city to attend the Dewey reception.

BARBER ABRAHAM.

At the home of the bride, two miles from Greenville, at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Mr. A. W. Barber and Miss Mary Abrams were married. Rev. C. L. Little performed the ceremony.

THE REFLECTOR extends best wishes to each of these couples.

Pretty as a Picture.

The most attractive place in town is the store of J. B. Cherry & Co. Their fall and winter opening is now in progress and the magnificent display of new goods is the admiration of every beholder. This enterprising firm takes the lead in quality, variety and magnitude of stock. Do not fail to see their display.

After Wilmington, no city

suffered more from Marion Butler, the first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

After Wilmington, no city

suffered more from Marion Butler, the first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

Men in Women's Places.

Since so many women are forging to the front in lines of employment hitherto regarded as the inherent rights and privileges of the rougher sex, it need not surprise any if men seek revenge by undertaking the work of the hired girl, the chambermaid, the scullion, the cook, and even the seamstress. The first general movement of this kind was made in a Southern city, where negroes have been employed for some time as general houseworkers and chambermaids. They have given entire satisfaction, and no "nigger gals" need apply. Chicago now is following suit, as we may judge by the advertisements in the papers, though whites are wanted there instead of blacks. I know a French family in this city that has had a white man doing chamberwork and general housework for twelve years, and no woman could approach him in general execution.—New York Press.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Sept. 20, '99.

Winterville Cigars are going their mouth like hot cakes.

Relief agent Crump is here in Mr. Green's place for a few days. Glad to know that the sick in the community are improving so rapidly.

"Bad Joe" goes to Greenville this morning to take in the Reformation office a few days.

Thomas McGilohon and little daughter, of Grifton, paid out town a nice little visit yesterday. They were the guests of W. L. House.

"Substantial Savings" You know money saved is money made. You would have saved money by buying Wire Fence some time ago for the advance, but it is still there it gets any higher.

MONEY IS IT.—Bring your cotton to Winterville, the booming cotton market. Having special advantages, we propose to give the farmer the benefit of them, and strain the market as heretofore. The first bale of this year's cotton sold here for 6 cents, and brought $37.08. B. F. MANNING & CO.

The oldest adage "Least said is soonest mended" is no doubt true, yet it is our purpose to keep saying and doing more all the time, and if there is any meaning to be done, there is no abatement either. Would be glad to have our customers say more too.

If it is in our favor, we will appreciate it and use it as an advertisement. It is against us we will try to profit by it, and remedy the difficulty.

Afterthoughts.

It is the things we do not do that make us weary of life.

Hardly anybody is as sure of himself as he would have people believe.

A sanguine disposition is one that can continue to hope for something which it knows won't happen.

Sometimes when we are most puffed up over the size of our shadow we are standing in our own light.

Whether a man is a crank or eccentric depends much on his importance as a part of the social machine.

A sane disposition is one that can continue to hope for something which it knows won't happen.

Sometimes when we are most puffed up over the size of our shadow we are standing in our own light.

Whether a man is a crank or eccentric depends much on his importance as a part of the social machine.

A sane disposition is one that can continue to hope for something which it knows won't happen.

Sometimes when we are most puffed up over the size of our shadow we are standing in our own light.

Whether a man is a crank or eccentric depends much on his importance as a part of the social machine.

