

EASTERN REFLECTOR

GREENVILLE, N. C.

D. J. WEICHHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1899.

During a revival in Davis county E. D. C. Pope was converted. He was the owner of a government distillery, and immediately after his conversion he went to his distillery and tore the stills from the furnace and destroyed what beer and mash there was in the tubs. What whiskey was on hand was in the government warehouse, and he had no right to trouble that with out stamping it. He will have to account to the government for the beer as though he had converted it into whiskey and this will cost him about $2.

Making The Pecker. Little 3-year-old Bessie ran flying down the front steps with an agonizing cry of "Papa! Papa!" Her father had started downtown, but he stopped and waited.

"What is it, Bessie?" he asked, "I want to kiss you good-by," she said.

"Well, I'm waiting for the kiss," he said.

"I'll give it to you," she replied, with trembling lip and quivering chin, "just as soon as I can make the pecker."

A Law That is a Dead Letter. There is one law in the State that is practically a dead letter. It is section 3841 of the Code, which provides that every person using weights, measures, balances, steel-yards, etc., shall take them to the standard keeper of the county once every two years to have them tested and stamped. The section imposes a fine of $50 for failure to comply with the law, $25 to go to the standard keeper and $25 to the county, but no body seems ever to mind it. If the law were enforced, it is rightly enforced the standard keeper would become a plutocrat in short order. And it is a good law too.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A Windfall Fishermen. Beaufort, Oct. 13.—The large three-masted schooner Carrie A. Lane, lumber-laden from Apalachicola, bound for Norfolk, Conn., Capt. Schoolfield, sprung a leak. Capt. Schoolfield, cut away her mast and was abandoned during the recent gale, the British steamer Rhodessa, rescuing the crew on September 26th, 70 miles southeast of Cape Fear. The vessel drifted in. She was sighted, boarded and safely anchored yesterday, three miles off Brown's inlet, by Capt. Scott's crew, who were seeing fishing on the beach. Only part of the deck load was gone and the cabin burned. Otherwise the cargo and hull of the vessel are good. They were wired for a tug and will tow her into the harbor. The find is a valuable one, the fishing season being the poorest in years. Capt. Scott's crew are all poor men and it is quite a windfall to them.

Dry Salt Bath. A dry salt bath is said to tone up the general system and renovate the complexion as if by magic.

"I never had anything to do so much good," said a lady who has tried it, "as that feeling of fatigue which oppresses me nearly every summer. My physician advised me to avoid tonics and to try dry salt baths instead."

"I fill a large earthen jar with the coarsest salt I can get, and add enough water to this to make a sort of thick paste but not enough to dissolve the mineral. Every morning when I get up I take this up in handfuls and rub it lightly over my body. Next I jump into a tub of clear, cold water, and take thorough but quick dousing. This being done, I take a brisk rub down with a Turkish towel."

"The effect is delicious. It gives one a sense of exhilaration. But the best part of the dry salt bath is not the feeling of freshness and renewed life that it imparts, but the soft, satiny texture of the skin."

Scott threw me over!"

OVER THE COUNTRY.

A heavy iron beam fell on William Steiner, in the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg car shops, at Dubois, Pa., crushing his skull.

Freight and cattle trains collided on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, near Bethlehem, Pa., and several cars were wrecked.

A ten-story steel frame hotel is to be built in the City of Mexico.

During the last three months 28,351 men and 7,699 women were arrested in New York.

A trolley car at Dallas, Tex., collided with an excursion train, and twenty people were injuring, three fatally.

The Florida orange crop is said to be the shortest on record.

While carefully handling a gun, Joe Golden, of Corbinville, Pa., shot his father in the face, seriously wounding him.

Four highwaymen knock down James Flanagan, at the Back Ridge colliery, Northumberland County, Pa., and took his money.

While shaving at New York William H. Leves, a broker, deliberately cut his throat and will die about Dec. 1st.

Mr. Nash Edwards was very glad to have an old friend, Mr. Johnson, a merchant in Gold Point, call in awhile yesterday evening. He was just passing through on business.

Land in and around Winterville, instead of being owned by a land company trying to get the highest possible price for it, can be procured on very reasonable terms at any time.

STRIKE FOR STRIKE. If anything strikes you, you generally strike that. There is a chance for you to strike something that strikes you at B. F. Manning & Co.'s in the way of Furniture, Clothing, or General Merchandise.

And if the strike will strike you too, don't care whether he talks sense or not. He says that he is selling more fence than he can fill any ways. He says he will have to increase his capacity.

ANYTHING YOU WANT?—In the way of general shop work you can get from us. While as you know we make a specialty of Carts, Wagons, Collies, Saddles, etc., we can compete with others on any kind of work that you thought. Try us.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 18, '99

L. N. Edwards has a very sick child.

J. A. Manning moved his family in the Buster house Monday.

The brick kiln, which is on fire this week, seems to be burning very nicely.

People down here are getting in a great notion for using heaters instead of open fireplaces.

If you are an experienced workman in any part of the carriage business, there is a chance for you with the Hunsucker Carriage Co., which which will begin work here about Dec. 1st.

Mr. Nash Edwards was very glad to have an old friend, Mr. Johnson, a merchant in Gold Point, call in awhile yesterday evening. He was just passing through on business.
