

D. I. WELCHARD, Editor and Owner. Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1903. TERPENTINE ALL THINGS.

The course of reform has ever been marked by varied degrees of bigotry and instances of mistaken judgment. As a rule people who do not agree with their neighbors are not apt to admit that sincerity and honesty of purpose are, to any considerable extent, to be found in the opposite camp.

In the pending campaign in North Carolina against the evils of the whiskey business we have a delicate question to deal with, requiring all the patience, tact and Christian charity that we can bring to bear upon it.

Let it be understood that THE REFLECTOR believes in prohibition—has always believed that its observance would go far toward making the human race happier, higher and nobler.

Let the world a half a century after the crucifixion of the Saviour. The early Christian martyrs whose bodies of the flames of heathen hatred knew this.

While the sunshine of a bright summer day was smiling over the Carolina a rip roaring howling, snorting cyclone struck Omaha, Nebraska, and proceeded to work for the right and justice of their cause.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. Let the state papers take the hint from the friendly, gentlemanly way in which the several candidates for senator are presenting their claims, and are not content to cheap, vulgar methods of political hucksters.

The Indianapolis postoffice incident for keeps, likewise the Indiana "incident." This is how the South is so "early" betrayed by the devotee of the strenuous ego who verities the presidential chair in Washington.

1883, that no new Revenue and Machinery acts be enacted, advising simply the changes thought best in the present acts.

As a whole the message worthy of the great North Carolina who is the chief executive of the commonwealth. In our hall of fame, which is in the hearts of the people, Governor Aycock will rank with the best and noblest the state has bred.

The material development of North Carolina during the past year has been much greater than that of any previous year of her history," says the State Auditor.

The national gaze upon the pathetic figure of the venerable Senator Vesey, as he pleads for relief from the distressing conditions growing out of the shortage of the coal supply.

We would like to see out of the British government for its treatment of the poor heathen, heathens of India, but we are our Philipines, as Charles the First had his Cromwell. We would also like to knock the spots out of President Roosevelt's policy in refusing to turn down the Mississippi postmistress on account of her color, but we have our Wilson.

Dr. Lorenz says that one of the American characteristics which most impressed him was the national delight in pie eating. Suppose the eminent surgeon had been in Raleigh this week—Winston Sentinel.

Governor Odell demands compulsory arbitration, and the trust continue to raise prices. Now you see where we are at.

LETTER TO J. L. DAUGHTRY, Greenville, N. C. Dear Sir: Here is an interesting story about a patient. We give you him and find out about it.

RENTON ITEMS. RENTON N. C. Jan. 9, 1903. Sunday's rain dispelled our entire neighborhood. Everybody anticipated a grand time at the dedication of Reedy Branch church.

NEW YORK. P. S.—H. L. Carr calls our patient, just as it is not serious.

The candidates for positions in the legislature who didn't stick to the constitutionality of the amendments, but they didn't stick to anything to scramble around in the lobby of the Yarborough, anyway.

Scientists have discovered another deadly germ in the air we breathe, but they haven't been thoughtful enough to discover something else for us to breathe instead of air.

And yet some people call Roosevelt a Statesman. Oh! Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, ancient fathers of the free, if that could be known, 'twere to weep o'er our degeneracy.

In a small house before which stood a large elm tree across the street from Mr. Hazzard's, Mr. John Brown, universally known as "Pinner Brown," resided. Mr. Brown was a man of intelligence and education but much addicted to turkey, hunting and sporting generally, and was a great favorite of the first fire arms.

The Warrenton Record has passed into the hands of J. C. Hardy. We wish Mr. Hardy and the Record the success which both deserve.

It looks as if Greenboro's luck had turned at last. A street carnival proposition now has designs on High Point's thriving suburb.

Governor Odell demands compulsory arbitration, and the trust continue to raise prices. Now you see where we are at.

RECOLLECTIONS OF GREENVILLE. Today it is the pleasure of THE REFLECTOR to begin another series of "Recollections of Greenville" written by M. T. C. Davis of Wilson. Our readers yearly enjoy Mr. Davis' articles, and you are sure they will find pleasure in reading more of his reminiscences of Greenville's ante bellum history.

Mother. "My mother was troubled with consumption for many years. At last she was given up for dead. She also tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was speedily cured." D. P. Jolly, Avoca, N. Y.

No matter how hard your cough or how long you have had it, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best thing you can take. It's too risky to wait until you are coughing today. Get a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at once.

GREENVILLE BEFORE THE WAR. Light of Other Days Sheds its Beams Around Us.

EDITOR REFLECTOR: In writing "Recollections of Greenville" sometime since the notes of some incidents which I witnessed, were mislaid and did not appear in the story. For the benefit of the incredulous allow me to state in advance that the outline of the story of "The Wandering Jew" is true. And I saw the man with my own eyes at the time, and was startled some years after attending a meeting a stranger who was his exact counterpart.

It is announced that the Southern edition of Harper's Weekly is delayed, and will not appear until November. Well, we'll try to get along without it.

At last reports Butler was still in control of the republican party in North Carolina. It is not supposed that he has to work at night, either.

LETTER TO J. L. DAUGHTRY, Greenville, N. C. Dear Sir: Here is an interesting story about a patient. We give you him and find out about it.

Winterville Department. WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 10. Mrs. Margaret Nichols, widow of the late John B. Nichols, died suddenly while dining at her home here on the 9th. She leaves four sons and three daughters, respectively, R. L. F. A. G. and James Nichols of Beaver Dam, and Mrs. Dr. C. A. Blount, of Standard, and Miss Nannie and Lee who are unmarried and lived with her at the time of her death. She can be truthfully said of her that she was a loving mother, a devoted Christian and a good woman. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. W. F. Nobles, of Nashville.

Little Miss Larue McGilobon is visiting at her grandfather's on Grindin Creek. Miss Allie Dall is visiting her sister at Standard. Jerome McGilobon spent Monday in Greenville. Master Bradford McGilobon met a painful accident Friday afternoon. While riding a wheel he ran against a clothesline which threw him off and sprained his left wrist.

Have you seen the dozens of testimonials we have in substance the same as above? If not we will send you a copy of them to you. —A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Among the many pleasant social events of the past week, none was more enjoyable than the meeting of the Sans Soci Club, which was held at the home of Miss Mary Moxe, Jan. 6th, 1903. The fact that Miss Moxe was hostess made the meeting a great social success.

A lady with two children boarded a Coast line train at Rocky Mount, Wednesday afternoon. The children were ill, and after their mother had taken them off at the hotel the mother, who had been seriously ill with scarlet fever, was taken to the hospital, and died there, and the mother, anxious to reach her home, had evaded the doctor and brought the child out. When the other passengers on the train learned of the scarlet fever case which had been among them there, something of a scare, and a rush was made for fresh air.

Postmaster J. J. Perkins tells us the receipts of Pitt county for the last few years have shown an increase of $100 to $200 per year. For the fiscal year ending March, 1901, the total receipts reached nearly $4,000, for the year ending March, 1902, about $4,500, and he estimates that for the year ending March, 1903, it will reach $4,800. This increase of postage receipts gives an evidence of the growth of the town.

At the special meeting of the Board of Aldermen, Thursday night, Assistant Postmaster W. H. McGowan tendered his resignation to take effect on the 19th. Night. Policeman S. D. Dudley was elected assistant day police to succeed Mr. McGowan, and at a special meeting of the Board next Thursday night a night police will be elected.
