

Rheumacide

The great rheumatic remedy not only cures every form of rheumatism, but makes radical cures of

Contagious Blood Poison,
Serofula, Sores, Boils, Catarrh,

and all diseases arising from impurities in the blood. Endorsed by physicians and prominent men everywhere after thorough trial.

DOES THE DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Gentlemen—Take pleasure in bearing testimony to the curative properties of our product. Two boxes cured me of a very bad case of indigestion. I am now well again. Your truly, W. H. RAND, Stoer's Drug Store, Boston.

All Druggists, $1.00 or prepaid on receipt of price.

Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

THE LITTLE LACE SMUGGLER

(Continued)

Little Gretchen, Lassie of Germany, was born in one of America. She was advised by a business acquaintance to put several hundred dollars which she had saved herself for passage to America, in her pocket book and made her city and carry it with her to New York. If she could get it through the custom house free of duty, she would add considerably to her little money. She was afraid that nothing else was to do. Therefore after purchasing some white and pink lace, she went to the custom house, left clothing which she had brought with her, and asked if it would likely be noticed by the customs officer. With the black lace, however, she was told that of course it was a violation, while the white was made like flowers on her dress.

Gretchen crossed one ocean in the sweet summer time, when it was still warm enough to go swimming in the green waves, the gulls and the blue feathers for ushers by day and the stars by night. Besides, the moon was bright and the stars were many. There was living in the town where the prison was situated a young man named Carlsson. He used to come to Gretchen's shop and buy lace, and when he sat in his steamer chair near her and formed her acquaintance. Though the weather was cold, he was always very cheerful, and when he was in an older, he said that he had dropped.

Gretchen, though herself understood more perfectly the feelings of the young man, who was not only unattractive but ill, still therefore devoted herself to him, and when he was in a sheltered nook, cover him with rugs, talk him round to him and in her power contribute to his comfort. She was very anxious about him, and when he was in an older, he said that he had dropped.

Gretchen, however, was this time surprised to the fact that before M. de Lancy, a member of the tribe of Louis XIV, was to be born, he had to be born in certain hours of the day, so that they resolved to inflict upon him a hasty punishment. Feigning one day to be ill, he sent for Gretchen, who came to him, fell upon him in mass, hugging and kissing the wretched sinner, and then, as he lay there, the ladies continued their merciless sarcasm until the object of their fury was no longer to be found, grateful for these attentions. When she put a pillow under his head, more than gratitude. He regretted that he could make no return for her attention, but she was too good a girl to notice this, which was very imperfect. It is but natural that with the language of the passing years, Gretchen should have become stronger and more attractive, and she began to act upon him with more consummate expressiveness. The young man, however, was not yet strong enough to be able to stand up to the public schools and seemed quite unable to succeed in his studies. This made Gretchen even more anxious about him, and when he would rise slowly above his sister's shoulder, he would kiss his sister more closely about her, and he would look up with that same smile which she had given him.

When they approached New York, Gretchen began to be worried about him, and when he had written to her, she confided him to her friend. Her friend, however, by telling her that if she did not marry him, he would be lost to her, never ever worked for him.

He would, however, be lost to her, and when he was about to leave, he said to her, "I will never let you go."

What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

The husband arranged that he should receive the value of such information and the two approached Gretchen.

"The husband, however, and the other forthwith turned poor Gretchen over to a woman who searched her bag, and when she was about to leave, she said to her, "But it is not right that you should be treated this way."

"What is there in it for me? I put you on to a woman who is smuggling?"

HEALTH INSURANCE

(Continued)

The man who insures his life is wise for his family.

The man who insures his health is wise for his family.

You may insure health by buying it. It is worth guarding.

At the first attack of disease, which generally approaches sudden and violent, LIVER and manifests itself in innumerable ways.

TAKE

Jutt's Pills

And save your health.

GERMAN STEEL
W. H. RAND, Stoer's Drug Store.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR

SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

D. J. WHICHARD,
PAUL R. OUTLAW,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR;
ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter.
Advertising rates made known upon application.

A correspondent desired at every post office in Pitt and adjoining counties.

GREENVILLE, PITTS COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1903.

"AFRAID IT WILL HURT THE PARTY."

Just now the phrase "afraid it will hurt the party" is being worked overtime by some of the over zealous state legislators at Raleigh drawing their per diem. These legislators were sent there by the people to do the will of the people. The people have, through petitions innumerable, asked that legislation be enacted that will check the evil of the saloons and distilleries, yet these legislators in question put on a wise look and declare they are "afraid it will hurt the party."

The opportunity is now at hand with the present legislature to make permanent the control of the democratic party or again open a way that leads to its defeat. Which will it do? The action taken on the temperance question will determine.

It has been the history of the democratic party in this state every time it came in power to do some fool thing to insure its overthrow, and history will repeat itself if the influence of those controlled by the whiskey interest prevails. Just so as this legislature fails to enact a temperance measure satisfactory to the people, the measure will be made an issue in the next campaign and a substitution party will be the result. The outcome of such a condition is not hard to foretell.

The Watts bill, which has been approved by the house committee, does not meet the desires of the advocates of temperance. It is good as far as goes, but the objection is that it does not go far enough. The people want and demand the principal features of the London bill, and any half way legislation is not going to satisfy them. The "afraid it will hurt the party" legislators should take warning.

GREENVILLE IS ALL RIGHT.

There is not a more solid town for its size anywhere, or one in which safer investments can be made. The eagerness with which real estate that gets on the market is bought shows how people look upon the town. There is no likelihood that there can be any decline in the value of real estate here, and these with money to invest do not hesitate to buy when they have the opportunity. Did the town of the many obnoxious saloons, issue the bonds and get the public improvements underway, put the graded school in operation, and we will show you the fastest growing town in the state.

ROCKS AHEAD.

Not a few lawyers are hanging around Raleigh lobbying against the movement for temperance legislation. When questioned some of them profess to be there only as "visiting statesmen" or on some other business, yet on the quiet they are working, and are exerting every influence possible for the whiskey interests. The people are not much fooled by the "visiting statesmen," and a day of reckoning will come.

DESTINY AGAIN.

We would ask the Greenville REFLECTOR if a state or national guard, subject to federal service in case of emergency, only in case of emergency, could then return to their former peaceful avocations, is not preferable to a repulse to a large soldier-hated in barracks than the country and trained to fight military rule and knowing no law but orders of the commanding general? —Greenville REFLECTOR.

If the editor of THE REFLECTOR had never heard of the famous Kilkenny cat, he should visit the library. At the time he goes to Raleigh and ask the librarian to let him look at the book of this great and world wide reader—Wilmington, N. C.

It was the Record's farmer friend for whom THE REFLECTOR suggested enlightenment. Did the editor of the Messenger ever hear of the city of Philadelphia, in Pennsylvania? If he is thus far ignorant, we suggest that he take a voyage to the city and stay a few days. The negro who thinks we are ever again going to return to the position of semi-slavery occupies regarding the other powers before the Spanish war is mighty likely to be in his calculations. That war may have been a great success, but it is not likely to be remedied at this late date, or to any great extent by any party which may come into power at some future day. We have no friends in the North and we have no power to govern ourselves.

So far as we have seen, Alfred Austin has had the sense not to contribute to the general masses of the allied war against Venezuela.

We insist that it is not a question of which wrong is preferable. Injustices and national unrighteousness made the "conditions" which we are facing, and true American principles demand that "We have become one of the world powers," says the Messenger. We were a world power before Santo Domingo and Manzanillo—and power unto all the world as an example of a just and brave nation, to whom the little people looked not in vain. We had no large standing army, yet our arm was strong for the $8 per month; those between 60 and 70 years to receive $300 and living expenses; those over 70 years to receive $100 and pension of $600 and $15 per month. An annual poll tax law.

Stanley Waterloo, the fictionist, says the dog has joined the human race element of the country and, whatever negro delegation that may get to the next republican national convention. It has introduced a bill in congress to pension all ex-slaves who were freed by the proclamation of President Lincoln during the civil war. His bill provides that those between 50 and 60 years of age shall receive a bounty of $100 and a pension of $600 per month. An annual poll tax law.

Senator Hanna is endeavoring to make himself solid with the negro element of the country and, whatever negro delegation that may get to the next republican national convention. It has introduced a bill in congress to pension all ex-slaves who were freed by the proclamation of President Lincoln during the civil war. His bill provides that those between 50 and 60 years of age shall receive a bounty of $100 and a pension of $600 per month. An annual poll tax law.

It is the fact that Senator Hanna has introduced it by request, and he has achieved the usual sore. President Roosevelt refers to such spot of defeated candidates. Weington Messenger will palliate the miserable Sanpo-Sonney new students to learn how on.

We suppose the esteemed W. H. Watson is correctly quoted as having said, "I am a man of the world." He need not be afraid that he is a man of the world. Weington Messenger will palliate the miserable Sanpo-Sonney new students to learn how on.

"We suggest to the Greenville Reflector that it explain to those of its former friends who are opposed to the Audubon Society

Senator Vann has had the courage to introduce a bill in the legislature to tax dogs at $1 per head, requiring them to be listed just like any other property, the proceeds arising from such tax to go to the general school fund in the respective counties. There you have progress. It has been said ever since that every legislator who went to Raleigh was afraid of the dog. If a dog tax doesn't break the democratic party there is no danger of going to pieces if it does.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

Neglected colds always lead to something serious.

They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or consumption.

Don't wait to take Ayer's Chlor. Pectin just as soon as your cough begins. A few doses will cure you then.

The bills providing for improvement for Greenville ought to be provided with an injunctive attachment.

To the father of the first born wireless telegraphy doesn't seem anywhere as near necessary as a crysle baby.

A reward of $800 is offered for Utley, the murderer, but from all accounts he can raise the amount indefinitely.

The strike committee will probably end its investigation in time to get to work on next winter's coal strike.

Utley, the convicted murderer who escaped from the Fayetteville jail, is a good humor but a poor actor.

Rodney Kipling ought to issue a catalogue of his poetry, showing price per ton and in car load lots, but everything will go for cash only, and selling for cash will enable us to give you the very lowest prices.

Johnston Brothers,
THE CASH GROCERS.

It is said that no life was lost in railroad wrecks in England last year, while 149 perished in wrecks in America. Well, there ought to be more widely and favorably commented upon—Raleigh Times.

Now we can get the long-winded stump speaker and choke off the feed who insists upon telling Chancery Depew's ancient and infamous jokes, perhaps there'll be peace in the family.

Every since the criticism of President Roosevelt's pro-African policy some idiot has been saying up that joke about the groundhog's fear that the president would eat his hole in his hole if the groundhog stayed out. The question is, How did he manage to spring the trap all over the state at the same time?

We heartily congratulate Charlotte, the Queen City of North Carolina, upon her rapid and solid growth. The News very correctly says:

"The Kentuckian whose wife sat up in a balloon and never came down will doubtless have as little difficulty in believing the latest version of Elijah's ascent."

The Venezuelan muddle is becoming as tiresome as was the senatorial scene.

By this time the president has probably found out that something went wrong.

There is one man who will not weep over Teddy's follies—General Miles.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The poor man thinks it is easy to be good on ten thousand a year, and the rich man that he can do better.

The poor man thinks it is easy to be good on ten thousand a year, and the rich man that he can do better.

By the time the president has probably found out that something went wrong.

Come to see me for your next barrel of flour or pork.

Yours to please.

Jas. B. White.

The labor market will not be over-crowded after the artisan wheels are finished. The time when the wheels are looking at the wheels go round as difficult to break of the habit as it is to keep a hungry pig out of a potato patch.

Raleigh is again engaged in its annual going to build a hotel talk. The agitation is kept up a few centimes longer the city may get another hotel.

The labor market will not be over-crowded after the artisan wheels are finished. The time when the wheels are looking at the wheels go round as difficult to break of the habit as it is to keep a hungry pig out of a potato patch.

Hannan wants to pension the negro and Roosevelt wants to cut down on the negro, but that is sought is the same in both cases.

There was some hope for the negro until Congress took a motion to saddle an investigating committee on the colored man and brother.

ROCKS AHEAD.

The glory of "Old Kentucky" is departing. A revenue agent has discovered that the "vegan 20-year-old" red eye is colored by foreign substances in Blue Grass distilleries. They'll adulterate mint that made julep famous next.

It was the Record's farmer friend for whom THE REFLECTOR suggested enlightenment. Did the editor of the Messenger ever hear of the city of Philadelphia, in Pennsylvania? If he is thus far ignorant, we suggest that he take a voyage to the city and stay a few days. The negro who thinks we are ever again going to return to the position of semi-slavery occupies regarding the other powers before the Spanish war is mighty likely to be in his calculations. That war may have been a great success, but it is not likely to be remedied at this late date, or to any great extent by any party which may come into power at some future day. We have no friends in the North and we have no power to govern ourselves.

So far as we have seen, Alfred Austin has had the sense not to contribute to the general masses of the allied war against Venezuela.

We insist that it is not a question of which wrong is preferable. Injustices and national unrighteousness made the "conditions" which we are facing, and true American principles demand that "We have become one of the world powers," says the Messenger. We were a world power before Santo Domingo and Manzanillo—and power unto all the world as an example of a just and brave nation, to whom the little people looked not in vain. We had no large standing army, yet our arm was strong for the $8 per month; those between 60 and 70 years to receive $300 and living expenses; those over 70 years to receive $100 and pension of $600 and $15 per month. An annual poll tax law.

Stanley Waterloo, the fictionist, says the dog has joined the human race element of the country and, whatever negro delegation that may get to the next republican national convention. It has introduced a bill in congress to pension all ex-slaves who were freed by the proclamation of President Lincoln during the civil war. His bill provides that those between 50 and 60 years of age shall receive a bounty of $100 and a pension of $600 per month. An annual poll tax law.

It is the fact that Senator Hanna has introduced it by request, and he has achieved the usual sore. President Roosevelt refers to such spot of defeated candidates. Weington Messenger will palliate the miserable Sanpo-Sonney new students to learn how on.

We suppose the esteemed W. H. Watson is correctly quoted as having said, "I am a man of the world." He need not be afraid that he is a man of the world. Weington Messenger will palliate the miserable Sanpo-Sonney new students to learn how on.

"We suggest to the Greenville Reflector that it explain to those of its former friends who are opposed to the Audubon Society

Bad Coughs

"I had a bad cough for six weeks and could find no relief until I took Ayer's Chlor. Pectin. Only four of the bottles cured me." L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Mr. Hobson's efforts to become a private citizen ought to refute the statement that but few die and none resign.

L. Hawn, Newtonton, Ga.

President Castro says he fears a world's war. He needn't worry. Venezuela wouldn't eat even a small figure in it.

Don't fail to see me before you buy
Guns, Shells, Stoves, Heaters, Pumps, Locks, Hinges.
And anything else in the Hardware Line.
Your friend,
H. L. CARR

AFTER TWO YEARS PREMIUMS HAVE BEEN PAID IN THE MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEWARK, N. J., YOUR POLICY HAS

1. Loan Value
 2. Cash Value
 3. Paid up Insurance
 4. Extra Premiums that works automatically
 5. Non forfeitable
 6. Will be re-instated if it appears be paid within month while you are living, or within three years after lapsus, upon satisfactory evidence of insurability and payment of arrears with interest.
- After second year—7. No Restriction.
8. Insurable.
9. Premiums paid in the second and each succeeding year, provided the premium for the current year be paid.
- They may be used—1. To reduce Premiums, or
2. To increase the Insurance, or
3. To make policy payable as an endowment during the lifetime of insured.

J. L. SUGG, Agt
Greenville, N. C.

Three Times the Value of Any Other.
One Third Easier,
One Third Faster
Agents wanted in all unoccupied territory.
Wheeler & Wilson Mig Co.
Atlanta, Ga.

S. T. WHITE, Greenville, N. C.

THE BUSINESS THERMOMETER
Goes up, or down
According to the Publicity you give your business. Keep it to yourself and it goes down. Keep it before the public and it climbs up.

Never tried it? Well, it's time you tried it and let the people know you want their trade. The advertising columns of

THE REFLECTOR
Push your business thermometer up by advertising.

20% REDUCTION
at B. Fleishman & Bros.

We are overstocked with Fall and Winter goods, and in order to clear them out to make room for new spring goods have given the best prices and will give 20 percent reduction on all these goods. There are bargains in the prices we are offering and it will pay to buy now.

Our stock was bought low, and this reduction makes our prices far below what you will have another opportunity to buy for.

Come early and get the benefit of this great reduction. All winter goods must be disposed of quickly.

B. FLEISHMAN & BRO.

Phoenix Building, Greenville, N. C.

"The Reflector"
Five Cent Cigar not made by a Trust. You don't get any charity presents with this cigar, but you do get your money's worth of good Tobacco. Reflector Book Store.

CAREFUL attention to details in our Job Department is shown in the high class of work we are turning out. We have the best equipped offices and do a class of printing hardly equalled in this section. If you are particular as to the quality of your stationery, we want your work. We give you the best

TICKETS FOR TWO
Copyright, 1902, by the S. S. McClure Company.

Tutt's Pills
This popular remedy never fails to satisfy you.

Spesia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness

AND ALL DISEASES arising from a Torpid Liver and Bad Digestion

The natural result is good appetite, health, strength, and especially sugar-coated and easy to swallow.

No Substitute.

A SINGULAR COURTSHIP

[Original]

I never approved of Mrs. Spencer's conduct. That I wish distinctly under her roof. When she was a widow, she had a son, a very good boy, and he was not at all like his mother. She was buying a ticket to Chicago and wanted a berth as well. She had made a mistake in the amount necessary to buy the ticket, and when the ticket seller called for the additional $2 she discovered that her purse was empty. It was an embarrassing moment, but still there was no help for it, so she took the railroad ticket and passed on to the waiting room.

She could not help noting the cut come. In her hand was her ticket and the girl standing in the ad joining room examining her empty pocketbook.

There were no excuses; she thought of her little sister, and wondered how she would feel under similar circumstances.

Then settled it. If she could quickly get a dollar, she would be able to "wash out," but I could not help seeing the trouble you were in at the tick window. Won't you allow me to be your banker in the emergency?"

"Oh, I'm afraid you'll be asked."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"You're right, but I don't like—"

"Of course you don't," said Rod; "but I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."

"I'll give you my card, and you can get away with it."