Misses Lula and Nora Smith returned Wednesday evening from a visit to Greenville. Elder E. P. Phillips and wife left Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Press Association at Wrightsboro. Mrs. E. G. Cox and little Katie went to Greenville Wednesday on a visit. SAD DEATH. On Tuesday night one of M. B. Barbers little boys suddenly became very sick. Doctors were summoned but despite their best efforts the little fellow died Wednesday afternoon.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS. ORMONDSVILLE, N. C., July 1. W. J. and C. L. Hardee went to Snow Hill Sunday evening. Mrs. W. M. Edwards, of Ayden, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Turnage. It is with deep regret that we learn of the sickness of Mr. Jas. C. Dail, of Kinston, who is confined to his bed with typhoid fever. Mr. Dail is an Ormondsville boy and his many friends regret very much to hear of his sickness. We hope, however, he will soon be out again. Mrs. H. C. Ormond and children, of Cary, are visiting their many relatives in this neighborhood. Miss Sallie Palmer, of Hookerton, is visiting Miss Margaret Ormond. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore are spending today in Farmville. A good many from our neighborhood are anticipating quite a big time over at Seven Springs on the 4th. J. M. Ormond made a business trip to Ayden yesterday. The following invitation has been sent out: Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dail requests the pleasure of your company at an ice cream supper July 8th given in honor of their son, Walter Sutton, on the occasion of his twenty-first birthday. Hours 8 to 12. We hope the Asheville Citizen will be successful in taking a fall out of the telephone merger. It is pretty certain that W. R. Hearst is having a better time than the other candidates. Is the Wilmington board of aldermen trying to get into the Pitchfork Tillman class?

GRADED SCHOOL. County Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale, of Greenville, paid our town a visit last Friday to inquire into the school question. As a result he made an appointment to meet with the citizens of Ayden and vicinity in mass meeting Wednesday night July 1st. A goodly number of our people met and after a clear explanation of the question and an eloquent plea from Prof. Ragsdale for a graded school and local taxation he asked for expressions of opinion. He was unanimously elected to preside over the meeting. No more speeches were made. By a practically unanimous vote the meeting decided to petition for an election on the question of taxation. W. C. Jackson, W. F. Hart, J. W. Quinerly, Jesse Cannon and E. V. Cox were named as a committee to prepare the petition, obtain the necessary signatures of free holders and consult with the county board of education as to ways and means. A striking feature of the meeting came just after adjournment. Old men, young men, men married and single pressed around the secretary's desk in the Masonic Odd Fellow Hall to sign the petition. The committee will meet a once Thursday morning and begin their work. Most of our heavy tax payers were present as active participants. Ayden shirks no public duty. R. C. Cannon continues quite sick. He is an ardent supporter of the graded school and was missed at the meeting. J. L. Sugg was in Ayden Wednesday working insurance. J. C. Smith, of Robersonville, came Wednesday afternoon to see his sister, Mrs. W. O. Bilbro, who is seriously ill with fever. The number of our people who went to Kinston on the Masonic excursion is too large to mention all. R. W. Smith was installed as master of the Masonic Lodge here. He is always active in fraternal work.

Teachers' Institute or Summer School. The Pitt County Teachers' Institute or Summer School will open at Winterville on Monday, July 20th and continue four weeks. The institute will offer its advantages to all who desire to avail themselves of the privilege of attending. Those who are too young to teach, and those older who are not teachers may attend if they wish. All the white teachers in the county are required by law to attend continuously or they will be barred from teaching in state. The law accepts an attendance of two weeks at any summer school in lieu of attendance upon this institute. In Pitt county, however, we are not looking for teachers who avail themselves of only the opportunities which the law forces upon them. We desire to have those who take advantage of every opportunity presented for improvement. Therefore we expect the teachers of this county to be present at the institute. Teachers from other counties will also be welcomed. There will be no charge except for board. This may be had in the dormitories with rooms at eight dollars for the term. You had better write Prof. G. E. Lineberry and engage rooms. Board and rooms may also be had in private families and at the hotel. The work will be in the hands of experienced and skillful teachers, and no one expecting to teach can afford to miss it. You are hereby notified to attend not later than the second day. You cannot teach unless you attend this institute. W. H. RAGSDALE, County Superintendent of Schools.

"Three Sheets in the Wind."

"What was the origin of the phrase for drunkenness, 'three sheets in the wind'?" a landsman asked a sailor the other day. "Well," said the sailor, "I'll explain that matter to you. The two lower corners of a ship's sail are held taut by two ropes, one called a tack and another called a sheet. The tack is always kept very tight, but the sheet is loosened according to the wind, and the looser the sheet is the more freely the sail swings. If the sail is quite free, its sheet is said to be 'in the wind.' Now, suppose that all three of a ship's sails were quite free. They would then fly about very crazily, and the ship would wobble. The course of the ship would be a zigzag one, and the reason for this would be that she had 'three sheets in the wind.' That, I guess, is why a man, when he zigzags in his course, is said to be 'three sheets in the wind' also."—Philadelphia Record.

An Irish Duel.

The annals of the Emerald Isle bristle with incidents of dueling in which Irish humor, if not at all times Irish bravery, is conspicuous. On one occasion Sir Jonah Barrington fought a duel with a barrister named McNally. The latter had one leg shorter than the other and because it was his habit when in a hurry to take two thumping steps with the short leg to bring up the space made by the long one he was nicknamed "One Pound Two." McNally could get no one of his bar to fight him, and so he challenged Barrington, who good naturedly exchanged shots in the Phoenix park.

The baronet hit his opponent in the breech, then called the "gallows," and feared he had killed him. When the result was made known, one of the seconds shouted, "Mac, you are the only rogue I ever knew who was saved by the gallows."

Slaughter House By-products.

Some of the uses of byproducts of slaughtered animals: The blood is used for the production of albumen, the bones for knife handles, toothbrush handles, chessmen, etc.; the horns for combs, backs of brushes, large buttons, etc.; the hoots for buttons, ornaments and fertilizers. Neat's foot oil, extracted from the feet, has a high commercial value. The fat is used for glycerin and butterin. Gelatin, glue, pepsin and other articles are obtained from slaughtered cattle and sheep. The value of such articles made every year represents many millions of dollars.

Children and Growth.

The year of greatest growth in boys is the seventeenth; in girls, the fourteenth. While girls reach full height in their fifteenth year, they acquire full weight at the age of twenty. Boys are stronger than girls from birth to the eleventh year; then girls become superior physically to the seventeenth year, when the tables are again turned and remain so. From November to April children grow very little and gain no weight; from April to July they gain in height, but lose in weight, and from July to November they increase greatly in weight, but not in height.

Meanings of Several Names.

Asia means morning or east; Europe, evening or west; Australia means lying to or in the south; hence we may consider that these names mean eastern land, western land and southern land. Asia is a Greek word; Europe is a Hebrew word; Australia is a Latin word. The origin of the word Africa is uncertain. Some conjecture that it is a Semitic word meaning "Land of Wanderers."

Doesn't Want It Back.
