Absence of Material Witnesses His Speech Warmly Commended By the Greenville Aggregation of Popular Greenville Merchant Married in Scotland Neck.

TUCKER-JOHNSON.

A. E. Tucker, accompanied by C. S. Forbes, J. F. Davenport, J. L. Carper, J. S. Williams, Misses Maggie and Rosa Tucker and Glenn Forbes, left on the morning train for Scotland Neck, where at 1:30 tist church, Mr. Tucker and Miss Nora Johnson were married by Rev. M. L. Kesler.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tucker drove to Palmyra to take the train for Norfolk. They will extend their bridal tour to Washington, New York and Niagara.

Mr. Tucker is a prominent merchant of Greenville and one of our best young men. His bride is a young lady of culture and refinement. She is a sister of Z. V. Johnson and niece of C. T. Munford, and has spent much time in Greenville with the family of Mr.
