Let all come who can for the proceeds are for a most worthy cause.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, dead seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

Murphy of Tammany invited David B. Hill of Albany--so the "Herald" hears--to make the principal speech at a McClellan meeting in Durland's Riding Academy on a Saturday night. Hill hesitated until Saturday morning, then he went to Murphy and reported for duty. "I am sorry, but it is too late," said the Tammany chief unbarbered. "I have asked Mr. Cosman to make the speech." Now--the "Herald" hears--it is the Murphy program to oust Hill definitely from the state leadership, to make Judge O. Cady Herrick of Albany leader in his stead, and to send a solid Grover Cleveland delegation to next year's democratic national convention.--Hanford Courant.

Miss Margaret Devereux, of this city, has loaned to the Hall of History at the State Museum, some very valuable papers and documents. There is the Treaty of Peace between the Tuscarora Indians and the whites, made in 1712; the signatures of Governor Sir Richard Everard and Governor Eden, beneath land grants a deed by Lord Granville to ladies in Eastern North Carolina, dated in 1706, and other deeds, grants, maps and papers, contained in a show-case.--News & Observer.

INTERESTING POINT.

Public Streets Cannot Become Private Property.

The suit that was tried in court here last week and disposed of Saturday, was one in which the town felt interested in that it determined the right the governing board of a town may have in disposing of a portion of a street. It seems that Mr. L. C. Arthur, who purchased property in the south west portion of the town after it had been laid off in lots and streets by the former owners and the streets then being the property of purchasers of lots to be kept open as streets, sold a lot to parties on which to erect a tobacco stemmy. In giving the deed for this lot it included a 10 foot strip of the street and when the purchasers went to build their house was extended out on this portion of the street. The attention of the board of aldermen was called to this and after discussion of the matter there was an order made to give the portion of the street to the purchaser of the lot. As time went on the owners of the plant wanted to dispose of the property. They received an offer for it, but when the contemplated purchaser looked into the matter they thought a good title could not be given to the property and therefore declined to take it. The trial last week was to compel the contemplated purchaser to take the property. After hearing the testimony Judge Moore did not let the case go to the jury, declaring that the governing board of the town had no right to give away any portion of a street which had been dedicated to the public by being indicated on a plat by which lots were sold and which indicated both the lots and streets. The plaintiff took an appeal to Supreme court.

There has been a lively debate in the senate on the numerous petitions from all over the country sent to that body, protesting against the seating of Reed Smoot, the Mormon senator from Utah. Senator Hoar claimed that the petitions were out of order as the question was a judicial one for the committee on privileges and elections, and it was as wrong to petition that committee as it was to petition the Supreme court of the United States. Senator Dubois, of Idaho, took issue with this statement and declared that the petitions were entitled to the serious consideration of the senate, as they represented the moral thought of the country. Those who have been the rounds think that the lettuce crop of Fayetteville's amateur truckers in the suburbs will help the larger dealers to make the shipments large this season. North street and vicinity is especially a lettuce district, and the sheltered beds make it look like a tented city.--Fayetteville Observer.

To Bring These Negroes Back.

Valdosta, Ga., Nov. 13.--There is a movement on foot here to bring back from Liberia the Irwin county negroes who last February emigrated to that country. The predicament of these negroes was described in a letter from the United States minister, resident and consul general at Monrovia, to Secretary Hay, and transmitted by him to Congressman Brantley, of Georgia. The report of Minister Lyon to Secretary Hay is as follows: "I have the honor to inform you that in the month of February of the present year, a party of 56 colored persons, consisting of males, females and children, left Irwin county, Ga., as emigrants for Monrovia, Liberia, under the leadership of one B. J. Scott. "On their arrival the Liberian government did its best to assist them in overcoming the rigor of the climate and in supplying them with some food; the land which had been given them could produce nothing for their sustenance. "Since then, however, twenty of the number have died at Cheesemanburg, the place assigned them by the government. For the lack of homes they were all put in a house of two rooms, where they died one after the other, from the want of food and medicine. "Thirty-six of this number still remain in a sickly and destitute condition. Sixteen are still at Cheesemanburg. Twenty-two have returned to Monrovia; these are ragged, starving and homeless. Five of them will return to the United States by the first English steamer to Liverpool about the first of October, 1903, their transportation having been arranged by friends in the United States. "There being no provision for relief in case of this kind, we had to keep them from our private purse. We soon discovered that we could not give much charity to 22 persons for any length of time, as food is scarce and the prices are enormous. "Owing, your excellency, to the agitation now going on in the United States on the subject of negro emigration to Liberia by irresponsible persons whose literature has wide circulation among the innocent and poorer class of negroes, the question becomes one of gravity for the consideration of both governments."

Sixty Thousand Acres.

The state board of Education was in session yesterday afternoon and last night, but gave out no report of the proceedings. It is learned, however, that the board made an option sale of large tracts of public school lands in Carteret county, and these for a price they consider good. In the state lands in Carteret disposed of there are about 60,000 acres. These were sold to Mr. D. W. Morton, of Beaufort, the figure agreed upon being 85 cents an acre. The board requires Mr. Morton to put up $1,000 by the first of December to make the sale binding. Col. W. B. Rodman, of Washington, the state engineer is here with the board.--News and Observer.

NO HOPE FOR GOLDBRICK GANG

United States Supreme Court Decides Against Them.

Washington, D. C. Nov. 16.--"If the effect of this sentence is to induce like criminals to avoid her territory, North Carolina is to be congratulated, not condemned." This was the declaration of the Supreme court of the United States today in passing upon the case of the gold brick combination that attempted to defraud Paul Garrett, of Weldon, N. C., two of whom are now serving ten year terms in the state prison. The court held that no federal question was involved and announced that the decision of the North Carolina Supreme court was conclusive upon this court. Consequently the case on writ of error from the state court was dismissed for want of jurisdiction, while the judgment in the habeas corpus case from Judge Purnell's court was affirmed. As to the motion of the Chicago attorney appearing for the prisoners, who prayed that the custody of their clients be given to the marshal of the United States court because of the fear of injury to them by a North Carolina mob, the court simply passed it by with a denial of request. This brings to an end the strenuous fight for freedom of the gold brick crowd.

South Carolina Town Upset.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 17.--It was learned here late last night over the S. A. L. train dispatchers' wire, that Camden, S. C., is in a great ferment over the suicide of the president and the cashier of the Farmers' National Bank. No details could be ascertained further than that the bodies of the two men were found in a corn field, the president being shot through the heart with a shot gun. Financial troubles are believed to be the cause of the suicide and there is considerable uneasiness pending the investigation of the condition of the bank.

Portsmouth Cashier Missing.

Portsmouth, Va. Nov. 16--John H. Downing, cashier of the Portsmouth Dime Savings Bank, is missing and the board of directors of the institution are in possession of his confession to defalcation extending over a comparatively recent period. Some of the depositors, when they heard the news of Downing's disappearance this morning, appeared at the bank and were promptly paid. Many of the largest depositors, however, made a special point of being there at the opening with heavy deposits and this restored the confidence of the public to a large extent. Downing was bonded for $15,000; the shortage is said to be $12,000.

Capt. E. R. McKethan, of Fayetteville, has been appointed commander of the North Carolina division, United Confederate Veterans. He succeeds Dr. John C. DAIRY-BLOW.

Pretty Afternoon Church Marriage.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) St. Paul's Episcopal church was a beautiful scene at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, when the marriage of Mr. W. H. Dail, Jr., and Miss Mary Durcas Blow was witnessed by a large number of admiring friends. The church was artistically decorated, the color scheme being green and red with white background. The windows were darkened and soft lights added a rich halo to the scene. Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party reached the church and entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. J. B. Cherry. The first to proceed up the aisle were the ushers, Dr. Charles Laughinghouse and Messrs. N. S. Fulford, T. M. Hooker and C. S. Forbes. Then came Miss Lizzie Blow alone, followed by Messrs. C. W. Harvey and J. D. Garden. Next was Miss Lizzie Jones followed by Mr. George Dail brother of the bridegroom, with Miss Pattie Skinner. Miss Lottie Blow, sister of the bride and maid of honor was next to enter followed by Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse, dame of honor. All eyes were turned to the beautiful bride who entered with her father, Senator Alex. L. Blow. She was met at the altar by the bridegroom who had entered through the vestry with his best man, Mr. Frank Wilson. Then as the "Flower Song" softly floated from the organ, the ceremony that joined two loving hearts was performed by Rev. W. E. Cox, assisted by Rev. F. H. Harding of Tarboro.

Sheriff Didn't Have the Keys.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 16.--An attempt was made to lynch Adam Hunt, the negro who killed the young man Wilkins a few days ago, at Roxboro last evening. Soon after midnight a party of 50 men went to the sheriff's home and demanded the jail keys. The sheriff had previously let one of his deputies have the keys and was finally able to convince the crowd that he had no access to the jail.

Case Against Phelps Dismissed.

The arrest of Jacques Phelps, mentioned in Tuesday's REFLECTOR, was in a warrant sworn out by J. B. White, of Contentnea township, before J. J. Stokes, J. P. of Ayden. The warrant, which was made returnable before H. Harding, J. P. at Greenville charged Phelps with having gone in a trunk belonging to White and taking $85. The warrant was delivered to Constable Joe McLaughorn, of Ayden, who came to Greenville Tuesday morning and arrested Phelps. The latter was kept in custody at the courthouse until White and his wife arrived in the afternoon. Lawyers were employed on both sides and after consultation between these and the parties interested the case was called before Justice Harding. Counsel for the prosecution stated to the court that they had no evidence to convict the defendant, and therefore moved that the case be dismissed, the prosecution to pay the cost. Upon this motion the case was dismissed.

FARMVILLE CORRESPONDENCE

FARMVILLE, N. C., Nov. 16, 1903. Since last Wednesday until last night, a series of meetings have been held in the Episcopal church at this place by Revs. Messrs. Joyner, who with their sisters and other near relatives came from different parts of this and other states, and held a family reunion near the old homestead where most of them saw the light of day. Last night's services were very impressive—as each one of the brothers, (four of whom were ministers of the Episcopal church) gave short talks of their early days, of the dear ones whose places are now vacant—of their long separation, and the sad thought that they were soon to part again never to look into each other's faces until they meet in that blessed home where no one shall ever say goodbye. This service was very precious and solemn. It was soul coming in close touch with soul, and the farewells were freighted with words of encouragement, words of encouragement, words of hope and faith, each one experiencing the blessed thought that though separated here in this life, there shall be a happy reunion when they shall dwell together in a land of undying love in the Father's house of many mansions.

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE.

"I was taken severely with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Fine Farm.

Travelers on the railroads say that the farm of N. B. Dawson, at Conetoe, is the most attractive they see in this section of the state. Recently a drummer was so taken with it that he announced his intention to quit the road and buy him a farm. Persons who ride along the country roads say the same about this farm, and so do those who have been over it. It is in a high state of fertility and is cultivated much like a garden.—Tarboro Southerner.

DISASTROUS WRECKS.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Craig of Dechester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by Wooten's Drug Store. DOESN'T RESPECT OLD AGE.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off mistakes no matter how severe and irrespective of old age, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c, at Wooten Drug Store.

The December Delinquent (Christmas Number) represents the highwater mark of beauty and utility, and possibly of circulation also, in a woman's magazine, having a first edition of more than a million copies. It contains 240 pages. To produce this mammoth edition 728 tons of paper and 49 presses working 25 days were required. In addition to exquisite color work, clever fiction and striking illustrated articles, the number includes a display of charming winter fashions covering forty-two pages, letters from the foreign fashion centres and illustrated articles on the fashionable fabrics and trimmings, millinery, etc. Among the notable contributors are; Richard Le Gallienne, W. A. Frazer, Albert Bigelow Paine, Harriett Prescott Spofford, Andrew Lang, and Gustav Kobbe. There is also the third installment of the Evolution of a Club Woman, the piquant narrative of clubdom by Agnes Surbridge, and a remarkable photographic article by J. C. Hument. There are many beautiful art features among them, four pages in colors representing babyhood, childhood, girlhood and motherhood—the work of Bernard J. Rosemeyer. For the children there are entertaining games and stories, and for the housewife many practical suggestions in cookery and other departments of the home, for the Christmas season.

Moore Leases Biltmore.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 13.—The deal which has been pending for some time between George W. Vanderbilt and Edgar B. Moore, of Kenilworth, for the lease of the Biltmore estate, was completed today. With the exception of 1,000 acres immediately surrounding the Biltmore mansion, Mr. Moore will have control for ten years of an area of 125,000 acres. This tract of land will be converted into hunting preserves. A club of 100 members of wealthy circles will be formed by Mr. Moore for the purpose of hunting and fishing on the estate. It is said that these preserves will be the best stocked in the country. Deer, bear, grouse, turkey and quail will abound in large numbers. A staff of rangers and guards will patrol the estate to prevent the encroachment of poachers. Mr. Moore stated tonight that the transfer of the hunting and fishing privileges has been under consideration for some time, Mr. Moore said: "I am engaged in the formation of a hunting and fishing club. There will be a meeting of those who are to compose the membership within the next sixty days. The organization will be completed by January 1."

Why, Chauncey!

Senator Dupew, who is gaining quite a reputation as a story teller, recently attended a banquet at which several titled Englishmen, including Sir, Thomas Lip-on, were present. "Sir Thomas," said Chauncey, "can you tell me why does a hen go across the road into the melon patch?" "Blast me if I know," said Sir Thomas. "That's easy. To see if she cantaloupe with the rooster!" It is said that several of the guests smiled audibly.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Long Buried Words of Christ Found
London, Nov. 14.—Many hitherto unknown sayings of Jesus Christ have been discovered in Egypt by archaeologists who have dug up papyrus, buried, since the second century, 100 miles south of Cairo. Dr. Bernard P. Grenfell, who has been engaged in Egyptian excavations since 1894, at the general meeting of the Egypt Exploration Fund here, yesterday gave the following details.

Accompanied by Dr. Hunt, Dr. Grenfell found a rich ptolemaic necropolis at El Hibes. The bulk of the documents from one mound consisted of a collection of sayings of Jesus. They are all introduced with the words "Jesus saith," and for the most part are new. The ends of the lines, unfortunately, are often obliterated. Apparently all the sayings were addressed to St. Thomas. One of the most remarkable is:

"Let not him that seeketh cease from his search until he find, and when he finds he shall wonder; wondering he shall reach the Kingdom, and when he reaches the Kingdom he shall have rest." Dr. Grenfell remarked that enormous interest would be aroused by the discoveries, on account of the variations they disclosed from accepted texts. One variant of the mystical saying, recorded in St. Luke, "The Kingdom of God is within you," was of great value as the saying in the papyrus appeared in quite different surroundings from those attributed to it by the evangelist and extended far into another region.

According to Dr. Grenfell, these sayings form the new gospel which is traditionally associated with St. Thomas.

An interesting variation of the gospel according to St. Luke, eleventh chapter and fifty-second verse, reads in the papyrus:

"Ye have hidden the key of knowledge, ye entered not your selves and to them that were entering in ye did not open."

Another fragment contained a discourse of Christ, closely related to passages of the sermon on the Mount, and a conversation between Christ and his disciples, in which Christ answers a question as to when his Kingdom would be realized, saying:

"When ye return to the state of innocence which existed before the fall."

A valuable find was made in papyrus, written in Latin, giving the text of the epistle to the Hebrews, and an epitome of Livy's six lost books. This, with other papyrus covering the period 150-137 B. C. threw much new and valuable information on the history of the world and marked the recovery of hitherto lost classical literature of Egypt.

The Germ of Bad Manners.

"Independence is a trait I like in Americans," said a girl near me the other day. "To think that I am as good as every one else puts a strain of confidence in me."

"That same reflection, 'I am as good as every one else,' is at the bottom of a great deal of our proverbial bad manners," was the reply. "Would it not be better to think 'every one else is as good as I am?' It certainly is a commendable trait to be self-reliant so far as material affairs are concerned, but there is an equality of worth to be recognized in others which is above the obligations to self.—Ada G Sweet.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind. who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

His Fate.

"You are me prisoner," announced the officer in plain clothes, grasping the pickpocket by the collar.

"What right have you got to arrest me?" angrily exclaimed the other.

"I'm a policeman."

"You'll have to show me."

The officer simply pointed to his shoes.

"Thirteen?" gasped the pickpocket, submitting to be lead away.

"What can a man do against a no-doo like that?"—Chicago Tribune.

A Boom for Glenn.
Wilmington, Nov. 17.—Hon. R. B. Glenn of Winston has accepted an invitation to speak to the labor unions of this city on the night of December 6th. The labor organizations which Mr. Glenn will address on that occasion number a total membership of two thousand. He has many ardent supporters here already and his visit will be a considerable boom for him. Mr. Glenn is looked upon by many in this vicinity as the strongest gubernatorial candidate in the field, and when the time comes he will poll a good vote in New Hanover county. The laboring men are preparing to give him an ovation. On the afternoon of December 6th Mr. Glenn will speak to a large gathering of men at the Young Men's Christian Association.

Banish of Truth in This.
Some people are not satisfied unless they are agitating something. Agitation is not wrong in itself. In fact there are things that ought to be agitated. But agitation for the sake of agitating is often a source of mischief. Frequently it is not done from the sheer love of it, but for the gain of it. Agitators are often cat's paws. They are paid directly now and then and they see for themselves again as a result in one way or another. When the discrediting public sees no great public good if any at all by disruptive disturbances it is not slow to reach the conclusion that there is some axe to grind somewhere.—Rev. P. B. Law, in Kobesonian.

Presented With Overcoat.
Roscoe Jefferson, the clever messenger boy of the Western Union Telegraph Co., was called in by the local cotton buyers, Wednesday, and presented with a nice overcoat. He is a deserving boy and appreciates this kindness of the gentlemen.

Mr. Fleet Wilkins, of Roxboro, who was brutally assaulted and beaten by a negro named Allen Hunt, died on Thursday. There is talk in Person county about lynching the murderer. This will make two murder cases for Judge O. H. Allen to hear at the next term of Person Superior court, which meets next Monday.—E. X.

Stores Will Close Thanksgiving
As the Greenville merchants have been in the habit for several years of closing their stores on Thanksgiving day, we take it for granted the same observance of the day will be had this year. Purchasers of goods for Thanksgiving should lay their plans accordingly.

Fire at Tarboro.
Tarboro, N. C. Nov. 21.—The old Marriatt building, a two-story frame structure on Main street about two blocks from the river, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire started in the rear of the building and had made good headway when discovered. Being in a thick business section the streets had a hard fight to save adjoining property. The building was used as a bakery and market and the occupants lost nearly all they had in it. A fire-brigade will take the place of the one burned.

Ready to Recognize Panama.
Washington, Nov. 20.—The state department received today a cablegram from United States Minister Thompson, dated at Petropolis, stating that the Brazilian Minister for foreign affairs had informed him that the Brazilian government was ready to recognize the new republic of Panama whenever application is made in due form.

A woman recently begins her life work when she marries a man to whom she is bound.

Mr. Small's Opponents.
Washington, Nov. 17.—The fact was ascertained today that Congressman Small's chief opponents for appointment on the house committee on rivers and harbors are from Texas and Tennessee. Representative Ball, of the Lone Star State, has resigned as a member of congress, and unfortunately for Mr. Small the Texan was a member of the committee on rivers and harbors—a fact which lends some force to the claim of the Texas delegation that they should be allowed to name the successor of their colleague, with respect to all his committee assignments. The member from Tennessee seeking the appointment is John Wesley Gaius, a gentleman who enjoys no little distinction here, chiefly from the fact of his omnipresence when there happens to be a debate in progress on the floor. Texas is most to be feared, but Leader Williams has said some things recently that have very much reassured the friends of the North Carolina Congressman. These friends of Mr. Small have made his recognition their paramount consideration with respect to committee assignments.

Fell off a Stump.
There was a bit of excitement at the graded school during the noon recess today while the pupils were on the campus eating their dinner. Little Miss Marie Duce, daughter of Prof. Dove, was on a stump while eating. She got choked on a piece of bread which caused her to lose her balance and fall to the ground. The fall, to use the words of the physician who was summoned, knocked the bread and the breath both out of the child. Seeing her lying still on the ground some of the teachers thought she was killed and began screaming. The excitement spread among the pupils and for the time being all was confusion. The little girl soon came to and was not hurt, much to the delight of all.

Carried to Wilson.
A policeman from Wilson came in last night and on his return this morning took with him Jim Duff, a young colored man wanted in Wilson for stealing. Duff had been in bad reputation around Greenville and left here sometime ago and went to Wilson. In the latter town he stole a trunk containing a lot of clothing and shipped it here last week to his father, Jim coming on later. It was for this that the officer came after him. The trunk and contents, with the exception of a coat and two pairs of pants, were recovered.

Gun Accidents.
It is lamentable that so many accidents occur with persons who hunt with guns. It would seem that all persons ought to be sufficiently warned by such accidents to keep the muzzle of a gun away from them. Almost every day there is account of some one being killed or seriously wounded from a gun shot while hunting. To be sure, those who hunt have had sufficient warning in the many accidents to others, and it is to be hoped that in the future people will be more careful.—Sotiland Neck Commonwealth.

The farmer with plenty of hay, hog, hominy and other food crops stacked away can now hold the remnants of his cotton crop without being compelled to lie awake at night wondering when the market is going to do.—Alling Journal.

Misplaced Charity.
Two beggars recently here together were given a quarter each by some gentlemen whom they approached on the street. They were next seen going into the nearest barroom where the money was invested in whiskey.

Agent Moore Has Narrow Escape.
Though people may be ever so careful, they sometimes unwittingly find themselves in dangerous places. It so happened Friday with Mr. J. R. Moore, agent of the Atlantic Coast Line. He started to go from the freight office to his residence across the railroad. A long string of freight cars were on the track with a break in front of the office door to permit passing. Thinking the train had finished shifting Mr. Moore started to cross the tracks through this opening, when he was struck by the cars coming together. With presence of mind he supported himself from falling and by pushing back off the track escaped being run over.

Ask War Against Boll Weevil.
Washington, Nov. 20.—Members of congress from the cotton growing states held a meeting today to discuss the boll weevil problem. It was determined that a committee of three members from each state should call upon the president and lay before him the serious situation which is confronting the cotton states, and request him to urge upon congress the importance of carrying into effect the plan which will be submitted by Secretary Wilson in his annual report.

Made Fatal Mistep
Wilmington, Nov. 19.—Owen Hansley a young farmer living near Castle Haynes, this county, was crushed to death under train No. 42 of the Atlantic Coast Line, as it was passing out of the yards in this city tonight. Hansley was late in reaching the station on his return home and came down an embankment, and ran up in front of the train as it was leaving the station. He attempted to board one of the cars, but in doing so he had miscalculated the speed of the train, and was thrown under the wheels.

And They Smacked.
Persons in the lower part of the court house yesterday evening were attracted by the sound as of an explosion and hastened to the sheriff's office from which place the sound emanated. There it was found the cause of the noise was the resounding smack of a dusky couple who had just been united in the holy estate of matrimony by Justice J. D. Cox.

At the conclusion of the nuptials the justice suggested to the dark hued Luthario that he salute the bride. To the suggestion the sensitive nerves of the lips of the dusky bride responded in a very creditable and proper pucker and the bridegroom gently folded her in his arms and the resounding smacks of the vehement osculations were heard to the front of the building and attracted others to the scene.—Kinston Free Press.
