Comes Back to See Us.

Mr. Alex, Heilbroner, of New York, is in town shaking hands with his many friends, having come in Monday night to spend a few days. He lived in Greenville for several years and is perhaps best remembered as the popular salesman at M. R. Lang's store. He was also for a while in the tobacco business, being associated with Mr. O. L. Joyner in building and conducting the Eastern Warehouse, the second that was built on this market. Mr. Heilbroner left here twelve years ago and located in New York. He engaged in for manufacturing and has acheived much success, his firm ranking with the largest in his line in that city. We are glad to see him down this way. He says Greenville has made wonderful progress since he last saw the
