IS HIS THE HAND?

Judge Charged With Arson at Rocky Mount and Elsewhere. Rocky Mount, N. C., April 5.—The citizens of Rocky Mount and vicinity have been in quite a fever of excitement since yesterday morning caused by the arrest of George Judge, alias Ernest W. Brooks, for arson. He was arrested by two detectives who have been here for several weeks, working on the case. It will be remembered that on the night of March 1st, the bank of Rocky Mount, opera house, the postoffice and several handsome brick stores were burned, and that about the time this fire was gotten under control, the fire alarm was turned in from the third ward, and fire was discovered in the Second Regiment band armory, which was extinguished with light loss. The work of an incendiary was so plain in these two fires that detectives were employed to work on the case with the result above. The man arrested came here about two months ago from Wilmington, N. C., and gave his name as Ernest W. Brooks. He loafed around town for several weeks, then went to work in the Rocky Mount cotton mills, where he was still employed at the time of his arrest. It was learned after his arrest that he was run out of Wilmington for being suspected of setting fire to several buildings and that he now has a brother in the penitentiary for stealing a horse and turning in false fire alarms in that city. He was given a preliminary hearing this morning before Mayor Tuorp, and the evidence was such that he was sent on to court with out bail. Judge, or Brooks, as he was known here, is not a bad looking fellow at all. He also dresses very neatly. There were four fires during the month of March that can be traced to him with strong evidence. There seems to be no motive for the fires that have occurred here, except pure unadulterated deviltry. Tarboro, N. C., April 5.—George Judge alias Ernest Brooks, was brought here this afternoon by the police of Rocky Mount and lodged in the county jail. Judge is charged with burning the Masonic Temple of Rocky Mount and other buildings. The prisoner is a light built man and presents a good appearance. He has been in Rocky Mount only a short time having come there (it is stated,) from Wilmington.

The fact that Harrison Paints are overwhelmingly in the lead on the National Government Buildings is a fact that means something to you. Harrison Paints are the only paints on the White House. They cover the Capitol, inside and out. If you wish to see beautiful tinted work, go through the Senate or House Corridors. They are on the National Library, Department Buildings, and on nearly every "show" structure in Washington. If this condition does not spell "Best," what does? Baker & Hart Wholesale and Retail Distributors, Greenville, N. C. 4-8-2nd s-w. The Bank of Greenville. Attention is called to the new statement of the Bank of Greenville made at the close of business March 28th. This statement shows the deposits in the bank to be $329,591.09, which is remarkable for this season of the year. It will be interesting also to give some comparative figures with former years to show how rapidly the business of the bank has grown. March 28th, 1900, the deposits were $162,422.45; March 28th, 1901, $209,680.63; March 28th, 1902, $238,723.11; March 28th, 1903, $297,181.96; March 28th, 1904, $329,591.09. Another excellent showing for this bank is that the surplus and undivided profits are considerably in excess of the capital stock, which is a condition that few banks reach.

MISS MATTIE HOLT HURT.

In Runaway Her Hip is Broken While Two Children are Uninjured. A serious injury to Miss Mattie L. Holt, of Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Banks Holt, and the almost miraculous preservation of her little nephew and niece, Thomas Wharton and Catherine Wharton, children of Mrs. John C. Drewry, of this city, is the report that comes from Graham. Monday afternoon Miss Mattie with the children started to drive out of the yard of her father's place in Graham. As the boy left the horse it ran at once, going straight down the lane to the street and dashing across. As it did so the buggy was whirled against a large tree and completely turned over, Miss Holt and the children being thrown out. Servants gave the alarm and soon had taken Miss Holt and the children into the house. Drs. Scott, Long and Stauffer came and found that while the children were only bruised, the hip of Miss Holt was broken. This was set at once and yesterday the young lady was resting well. The physicians do not expect any permanent injury. The many friends of the family congratulate Miss Holt and the children on their escape from death and trust that the young lady who has a large circle of friends here will recover very shortly from the effect of her injury.—Raleigh News and Observer.

INJUNCTION AGAINST ALDERMEN.

Saloon Men Still Fighting the Dispensary—Board Moving to Build Market House. The board of Aldermen were in regular monthly session Thursday night. Besides the routine business of committee and officers, reports and allowing accounts, there were two matters of importance before the meeting. One was relative to the building of a market house and city hall. At a previous meeting it was decided to erect a building at a cost of $8,250, but at this last meeting the figures were reduced to $3,500 and a committee was appointed to proceed to build on that basis. The other matter was an injunction proceeding by counsel representing the saloons to prevent the board establishing a dispensary as voted for at the recent election. The injunction is returnable before Judge Justice, at Wilmington on the 20th inst. A committee was appointed to confer with counsel for the dispensary advocates and ascertain if they wished to join with the aldermen in the defense. Several questions were raised in the complaint. One was that the town has not a legal board of aldermen. Another that the dispensary election was held under the wrong law. Yet another was whether the alderman, in case the matter is not settled by the first of July, can issue any licenses then for liquor to be retailed in the town. These questions will be decided by Judge Justice when the matter comes up before him.

WOODS FIRE.

Fire in the woods some distance south of town, Wednesday afternoon made a big snake, and created the idea that buildings were burning somewhere. Some telephone inquiries came from down the road to know if there was a fire in Greenville, and some inquiries were made from here if there was a fire down the road. It was only the woods burning because of us.

FIRE NEAR GRIMESLAND.

E. D. Holliday Loses His Dwelling.

On Monday, a short while before noon, Mr. E. D. Holliday, who lives near Grimesland, lost his dwelling house and contents by fire. The fire started from the kitchen stove while dinner was being prepared. At the time only Mrs. Holliday and a girl were at home, and they could save hardly anything out of the building.

There was no insurance and the loss falls heavily on Mr. Holliday. It is the third time he has suffered a loss by fire. One thing lost in this fire that grieves him more than anything else, was an old family Bible that had been among his ancestors for more than 200 years, and had been saved in two previous fires.

Robbed The Grave

A startling incident, is narrated by John Olive of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Wooten's Drug Store.
