Street Needs Sprinkling.

The merchants suffer much unnecessary damage to their stocks, to say nothing of the discomfort to people, by the failure of main street being sprinkled when it is needed. We heard one merchant remark that "about the only benefit that has ever come to me from paying town taxes was the sprinkling of the street in front of my store to protect the goods, but even that benefit cannot be had half the time when it is needed, and the town has three horses and a street sprinkler."

Ill Years of Good Paint Making

Honorable wares and honorable dealings have been the Harrison way since 1793.

That is the right way and the prosperous way.

The past few years have brought a steady and enormous increase in the demand by painters for Harrison's town and country Paints. It was larger in 1903 than ever before.

Preparing for Opening.

A company of home talent is new at work on a splendid play with which to open the new opera house in the Masonic temple. It is going to be good and there should not be a vacant seat in the house. The play will be presented on the night following the dedication of the temple, which will be some date in the near future.

TESTIMONY IN MOORE CASE.

Preliminary Trial Held at Washington.

From the Washington Gazette Messenger we get the following report of the preliminary trial of James Moore and John Reid in connection with the killing of John Rue:

The first witness was Mamie Hill who testified, I and Maud Martin were on our way to the dress makers, we were in a buggy and we were over taken by John Rue, the deceased, and John Kinian. Maud got in the buggy with John Rue witness in Kinian's buggy--then went in the country. Maud and I took two drinks apiece. The men had a pint of whiskey. John Rue said he wanted more whiskey. Kinian left us all and returned to town for more liquor and Rue said he would stop at the race track and play ball with the boys until Kinian returned. When "Lover's Lane" was reached witness got in the buggy with Maud Martin and John Rue. We all went down Lover's Lane and took another drink. We all drove back and about one hundred yards beyond the red hill and then drove on about one mile further down the road towards the country. Rue then got out of the buggy and said to Maud "you have not treated me right." Rue then picked up a stick about the size of a witness wrist and three or four feet long. About this time James Moore and John Reid came up. Reid said to Maud, "you have treated me dirty," and grabbed Maud by the arm. Reid had one foot on the stirrup and the other foot in the buggy. Rue ran up and struck Reid on the back of the head with the stick. In consequence of the blow Reid lost his balance and fell in the buggy. Reid then turned to see who it was and was met the second time with the stick, being struck on the forehead. About this time James Moore stepped up and said "my friend, I wouldn't do anything like this." Rue then attacked Moore and hit him with the club. Rue made a second attempt to strike but Moore warded off the blow with an arm. Moore all the while was in a retreating attitude. As he was retreating from Rue his foot caught and he slipped on the edge of a ditch. While in this position Rue again drew the club in striking attitude with his left hand and threw his hand towards his hip pocket, Moore then drew his pistol and fired one time. Immediately after Rue was shot heard him say to John Kinian "take me to town." Witness then placed handkerchief to her face. This was all she saw. On cross examination said that Rue was under the influence of whiskey and cursing Maud Martin. Rue also said after he had struck Reid the first time "God damn it I'll kill you both." James Moore was sober and not under the influence of liquor at all.

The testimony of Maud Martin and John Kinian was similar to that given by Mamie Hill.

Dr. D. T. Tayloe stated that he found no evidence of bruises on the body. He found the wound in the upper part of the left chest, the ball entering between the third rib going through the left lung and part of the right. The ball ranged upwards and lodged in his shoulder blade. In order for the deceased to have received a wound of this kind the person who shot him must have been standing to his left the ball ranging upwards obliquely; as result of the wound Rue bled to death. Can't see how he could walk eight feet, could not have gone but short distance. The ball I think was 32. My opinion is that Rue was evidently lower than Rue was for the shot to inflict such a wound.

John Reid one of the defendants, was next placed on the stand. Among other things he stated, that he and Moore went to the Cowhead springs on wheels. After loitering around the springs they started to return and the owner of the springs told them that the road was better the other way. They came up with Maud Martin, Mamie Hill, John Kinian and John Rue on the road. Moore was in the lead and after passing Maud, who was in the buggy, he saluted. Witness then came up to where Maud was and said "Maud you have acted nice, out here with John Rue. Witness caught hold of her and started to get in the buggy with her. Rue ran up struck me on the side of the head with a stick; the blow knocked me down on my knees. Witness looked around and was struck on the arm the third time. When witness came to his senses, being groggy from the effect of blows received heard the report of a pistol. Witness went at once to Moore thinking he had been shot. Rue was lying cross-ways of the road. After he was shot he walked ten or fifteen steps and fell. Moore and witness then placed body on the side of road and witness put the stick beside him. Moore said to witness, "what had we better do." Reid said lets go to town and surrender ourselves to the sheriff. They came to this city and surrendered.

Dr. Vann.

The large congregation in the Baptist church Sunday morning was delighted with the sermon of Dr. R. T. Vann, president of the Baptist Female University. Dr. Vann is greatly beloved by the people here, and they are always glad to hear him. His sermon was on the trials of Job, from which he drew many comparisons that were helpful to Christians. While here Dr. Vann was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Allen.

The pastor preached from the text "Thy have Moses and the prophets, if they hear not them neither would they hear though one should rise from the dead." His sermon was the conversation between the rich man and Lazarus proving that there was recognition in Heaven, and that God's plan of salvation was sufficient, and that there was no need for one to rise from the dead, as he has called men to preach his Gospel.

What We Owe To Asia.

It is noteworthy that out of Asia came our alphabet and our Arabic numerals. The compass we owe to the Chinese, who knew the magnetic needle as early as the second century A. D. Gunpowder originally came out of Asia, and so did the art of printing and the manufacture of paper. The Chinese invented movable types in the middle of the eleventh century, 350 years before Gutenberg. They also made silks long before Europe, and porcelain that has never been equaled by Europe. Truly, Asia is the cradle of the race. On the original ideas of the Persians, the Arabians, the Hindoos, and the Chinese our modern society has been built.—Portland Oregonian.

Political conventions this year are bitter as of yore. The passing of the lie, the blacking of the eye, and other similar operations are still prevailing characteristics. Isn't the lesson to be drawn this. That men who have control of themselves should take more interest in politics? The fire eater has been the whole show long enough. It is time for the sane, self-contained fellow to put in an oar.—Greensboro Telegram.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1904.

No doubt Judge Parker can survive all Mr Bryan says.

Congress is getting ready to adjourn and the country will soon have a rest.

Now they say the fruit is not all killed, but that there will be a fair crop. Good.

Better interview the sheriff about your poll tax if you want to vote. Only a few days left.

Spring took a long jump when she left the lap of winter and landed almost in the arms of summer.

Mr. Bryan seems to be getting in a class by himself. He is one man who says Judge Parker is unfit for the Presidency.

Since the two Raleigh morning dailies have got so warm in their language toward each other we may look for warm weather.

The Raleigh Enterprise, a weekly paper published and edited by J. L. Ramsey, has made its appearance. It is independent in politics.

Russia is continuing to do some blowing up of her own boats. This is about the quickest way she can end the war.

It looks like the hand of Providence is with Japan in this war. Russia has inflicted greater loss upon her own navy than has been done by the Japanese.

Marion Butler has announced that he is out of politics. Having bled his state all he could in office he found new employment in raking up and prosecuting frauds against her.

The republicans of this State are hoping to make an issue against the Watts law. As they have stood for almost everything else, it will not create much surprise if they take a stand for waiskey also.

When voting time comes don't curse the law if you are disfranchised through failure to pay your poll tax before May first. You have had warning and know the law says unless you pay your poll tax you cannot vote.

The greed for office is something remarkable. United States Judge Simonton was recently taken sick and is apparently on his death bed. Without waiting for the end to come, the scramble for his successor has already started in Washington.

Russia is getting up nerve and has declared that she will entertain no proposals for peace but will fight the war to a finish.

Charlotte is showing some of the big folks around this week. Ex-Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson and Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson are both guests of the city.

Certain kinds of presidential tours are not a legitimate charge upon the national treasury—Atlanta Constitution.

But the bill for any kind of a junket goes into the treasury for the people to pay, just the same.

President Roosevelt declares that Elihu Root is the greatest man in the United States, present company of course excepted. Whereupon Secretary Shaw, John Hay, and Senator Lodge have all written to him and asked him if he said so.

The tornado in the West has commenced early this season to get in its work of devastation. Kansas and Indian Territory have both suffered disastrously in the last few days, there being large loss of both life and property.

The good work of Congressman John H. Small is heard of again. The house has passed his bill authorizing the erection of a light house and fog signal on Diamond Shoals, off Cape Hatteras. If the light house stands five years and proves a success the contractor is to be paid $590,000. No place on the coast needs a light house more than Cape Hatteras, but all efforts heretofore to build one there have proven failures.

Quite a number of the North Carolina papers are getting tired of acting as pack horse for politicians and have given notice that all communications will be charged for at so much per line. And why not? It is an actual fact those who do most of the writing of communications to the papers are anything but its strongest supporters—in fact few of this class ever subscribe for the home paper. On the contrary if they have any money to spend in advertising they spend it elsewhere.—Greensboro Record.

The North Carolina Press Association will visit the St. Louis Exposition during the week of May 16-21. The Wayside Inn, near the Exposition grounds, will be the headquarters of the editors, their wives and members of their families who accompany them. The nineteenth annual session of the National Editorial Association will be held in St. Louis from May 16th to 21st, inclusive, and the International Press Parliament will be held there during the same week.

THE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

THE REFLECTOR has several times referred to the need of a building and loan association in Greenville, expressing the belief that one good help to the town arising therefrom would be enabling wage-earners to become home-owners, in which capacity they would be worth much more to the town as citizens than if they continued as mere tenants.

An idea of what such associations have done for Charlotte is thus told by the Charlotte Chronicle:

"No influence has done more to build up Charlotte than her three building and loan associations. The local and home institutions of other cities and towns have also done wonderful good work in furnishing the means by which working people, merchants, preachers, and others may save something in regular installments or buy a house and pay for it in regular installments and not pay any profit to anybody on the transaction. Philadelphia, which is the home of the building and loan association in this country was formerly the City of Brotherly Love only. It is still so perhaps, but it is now much more accurately the city of workmen's homes. The same is to a large extent now true of Charlotte and each case and other similar cases the local home building associations have been almost wholly the means by which this beneficent result has been brought about."

Wanted—A Southerner.

Bourke Cockran says that the country wants a northern man for president and a southern man for vice-president. This is the opportune moment for those who know Governor Aycock, his friends and admirers, to fall in line with this sentiment and advance the claims of our great educational governor for the second place on the ticket. Circumstances point to the fact that Judge Parker, or a man "equally as good," will be asked to lead the Democratic hosts. And the indications are that added enthusiasm would accrue to our cause could we succeed in placing with the New York jurist that clean, whole-souled noble hearted man who now adorns our governor's chair.

Charles B. Aycock is the man to place on the national ticket with Judge Parker. The State should instruct for such a ticket.—Kinston Free Press.

A Child's Dictionary.

Dust—Mud with the juice squeezed out of it.
Snoring—Letting off sleep.

STATE NEWS.

George F. Eason, a retired undertaker of Gates county, North Carolina, now living in Florida avenue, Port Norfolk, has had in his house for 21 years the metal casket in which he will be buried when his life has run its course. Twelve cars loaded with early vegetables were demolished in a freight train wreck on the Seaboard Air Line, near Hamlet. The fireman lost a leg.
W. H. Rich, a brakeman on the Southern railway, was caught between two cars on the yard at Spencer and crushed to death.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C. April 23.

Fire destroyed the pack-house, a three story building, barn and stables of Jas. H. Hardee this morning at 3 o'clock. It is not known just how the fire originated. Mr. Baker, who lives on Mr. Hardee's place awoke at 3 o'clock seeing it somewhat light in the yard, he went to the door, and to his surprise the barn was on fire. The pack house and stables caught from the barn. Mr. Baker lost all his fodder and corn, including good many peas. Mr. Hardee had all his tobacco sticks stored in his pack house, and with lots of other plunder were burned. The pack-house was partly covered by insurance, but your correspondent understands that Mr. Hardee did not carry any insurance on either his barn or stables.

E. G. Cox, of Ayden, spent last night in our neighborhood, and returned home this morning.

Clarence L. Hardy went to Ayden one day this week on business. Mr. Hardy has recently had his house painted, and his house is attractive enough for most anyone (Y)

Your correspondent is glad to know that Mr. Bow, who had charge of the Winterville Department of THE REFLECTOR, has moved his headquarters to Ayden. Mr. Bow will feel more like our neighbor now.

H. C. Edwards and Y. T. Ormond, of Kinston, were in our vicinity yesterday.

Earnest L. Denton went to Ayden today on business.

Jas. Moore, of Wilson is making Ormondsville his head quarters for a season working insurance. Mr. Moore is a very clever young man and has won many friends in our midst.

Mrs. W. M. Edwards and children, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Turnage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Frizzelle went to Grifton this morning to visit for a few days.

D. H. Dixon, of Goltsboro, and Mr. Johns, of Mt. Airy, were here yesterday.

LETTER TO C. V. YORK.

Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: Here's something every painter and builder ought to know.

Mr. J. J. Hall, Snerfield, Pa., painted two houses, 5 years ago, lead-and-oil; took 40 gallons; last year, he painted Devco; bought 40 gallons; had 10 left. He is one of thousands. The the kucwledge is getting about pretty generally, that Devco goes further than anything else.

Have you found it out in your own experience?
How much further?
Suppose a job amounts to 10,000 square feet; how much less Devco could you buy?
Is it as easy to paint? Does it cost any more or less to put-on by the gallon than anything else? how much?

If it costs no more to put-on Devco by the gallon, it costs less by the foot, you know; for the gallon does more feet. How much less, do you find it, for wages? Lasts, say, twice as long; that is the owner's gain; but perhaps you reckon it yours; some do. The time, when that comes-in, is when he gives-out the next job. Who gets it?
Yours Truly,
F. W. Devco, & Co.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our paint.

A Story About a Wilkes County Horse.

A very valuable horse belonging to Deputy Marshall A. C. Bryan, of Wilkes county, died last Thursday. The horse had been trained by him to catch blockaders who tried to run away when wanted. The animal showed unusual intelligence and when given the rein would always, so the story goes help his rider catch the law-breakers. His training had been a long and careful one, and after many attempts Deputy Marshal Bryan succeeded in teaching the horse to chase anybody that was pointed out to him. The horse generally would get his man by the back of the coat collar and hold him until the arrival of some one whom he knew would take his charge away from him.

The animal had a jet black coat with a white star in the middle of its forehead and from that face bore the name of Star Pointer. Mr. Bryan says he would not have sold the horse for $500.

Alfred Daniels Must Hang.

The Supreme Court of the United States will not interfere with the execution of Alfred Daniels, the murderer of Senator Simmons' father, and he must pay the death penalty next month, says a Washington special. Justice Harlan, of the Supreme Court, Saturday denied the application for a writ of error to the Supreme Court of North Carolina. Attorneys for the condemned man had sought an appeal by raising a Federal question in order to stay execution. Justice Harlan carefully considered the papers in the case for two days when he reached the conclusion that there was nothing in the conduct of the case below meriting review by the court above. For that reason the application for writ of error was denied.

Ill Years of Good Paint Making.

Honorable wares and honorable dealings have been the Harrison way since 1793. That is the right way and the prosperous way. The past few years have brought a steady and enormous increase in the demand by painters for Harrison's town and country Paints. It was larger in 1903 than ever before.

LETTER TO JOHN J. ELKS.
Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: But few of the men who sell the hundred different paints in the market know much about. All Devco agents have a state chemist's certificate telling just what it's made of; they know a good deal, not only about Devco but the rest; we see that they do. We buy every paint, that has any sale, and analyze it. Our agent finds out all about it.
When we know what a paint is made of, we know how it will act; we know how far it goes, and how long it wears.
Devco is the standard; call it 100. The best of the rest is about 75; the worst about 25; the rest are between.
But the men, who sell them, don't know any better. They know what the maker tells them. That is: they know that he tells them. They don't know whether he tells them the truth or not.
The business is not conducted on knowledge; the less they know, the more comfortable they are.
Yours Truly,
F. W. Devco, & Co.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our paint.

An Honest Farmer.
A western paper says that an Iowa farmer had a cow killed by a train on a railroad. He presented his claim to the company in a note in which he said:
"Thirty dollars will be considered sufficient, as the animal killed was but a common cow and by no means the best of my herd."
The claim agent of the road promptly and cheerfully enclosed a check for $100. He wrote the farmer:
"It is the first instance since my connection with the road that any other than a full blooded animal of great value has been killed by our train, and I enclose $100 as damages and a reward for your honesty, and I would humbly ask for your photograph to be framed and placed in my office."

Announcement.
I beg leave to announce to the farmers of Pitt and adjoining counties that I have associated myself with the Parham warehouse for the coming season.
I assure you of my appreciation of the large patronage and support you have so kindly given me during the past eight years. The coming season, I will be in position to serve you well and look after your interest at all times.
Hoping to see all of my friends and patrons at the Parham House, I am,
Very truly your friend,
4-24 11d 2s w J. G. BOWLING.

Greenville Won.
Kinston and Greenville colored baseball teams played a slow game yesterday afternoon at the ball park, which resulted in a defeat of the home team by a score of 10 to 5. Several pretty plays were made and the teams showed possibilities of good ball playing; but yesterday's game lacked snap and ginger to make it interesting.—Kinston Free Press 29th.

HON. R. B. GLENN.
Forsythe Democrats Endorse Him by Resolutions.
A large and enthusiastic mass meeting of the democracy of Winston-Salem and Forsyth county was held in the court house last night.
Mr. Manly offered the following resolutions, which were received with cheers and unanimously adopted:
"Whereas, the name of Hon. R. B. Glenn will be presented to the coming democratic state convention for governor, and that we, his neighbors and friends, believe him to be qualified and worthy of that high office and recognize that he stands on the broad plateau of middle life, in the full flush of his matured faculties. He is a good lawyer, a strong thinker, an able campaigner, a sound statesman, a man of the people and for the people, and with the courage of his convictions.
"He is a man who loves his party with his whole heart, who loves it most when in the right, but, right or wrong, weak or strong, in prosperity or in adversity, he is a loyal, true, steadfast democrat.
"He has been a lifelong party worker, commencing in 1876 taking part in every campaign from that day to this. Free of cost to his party, he has placed himself in the hands of the executive committee, going cheerfully wherever and whenever sent. In the dark days of the state's oppression he was ever in the thick of the fray, fighting to rid the people of the black cloud placed upon them by negro domination and radical misrule.
"The people will not forget his campaign with Marion Butler, his services as a member of the Senate committee that helped from the constitutional amendment, his more than one hundred speeches for white supremacy and good government in 1903, and his untiring efforts in every campaign for his party's success.
"Being now under fifty years of age, he has no war record, but at South Mountain his father gave his life for his state and a cause that has always been dear to his son. He was baptised a true and loyal son of North Carolina in the married bond of his father and from his earliest manhood he has fought the battles of his party in the most trying crises in its history, and perhaps as no other son of North Carolina has done.
"He has not yet been honored with an office directly from the people of the state. It is true that he has been an elector, a member of the General Assembly and has served as district attorney, but these were positions that did not carry with them the stamp of approval, recognition and confidence of his fellow citizens of the state.
"He has labored for the success of the Democratic party for twenty eight years on the day of election—never studying his own ease, but only asking where he was needed—has given his services to the people. Now he asks to be governor, a great honor, but he has won and deserves. We believe that those who have enjoyed the fruits of the victories he has helped to win, and the people whose interests he has helped to defend and uphold, will rally to his support and nominate him.

"And whereas, Mr. R. B. Glenn is the choice of the democrats of this county, and, we fully believe, the choice of the majority of the democratic voters of the state:
"Resolved, That the democratic voters of Forsyth county form a Glenn Democratic Campaign Club for the purpose of aiding him in his nomination, and hereby pledge ourselves to use every honorable means to accomplish this end."
