MEETING OF BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector]

The End of the Century Club held its regular semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, May 3rd, the hostess being Mrs. Mark Quinerly.

The meeting manifested the undiminished zeal and interest of the members in the matter of a free library for the town of Greenville. Plans were discussed looking to the early circulation of the books donated at the recent book reception, to which have been added all those purchased by the club.

An outline for a course of study to be followed during another season, was placed in the hands of a competent committee.

Several new books were ordered, and many other matters arranged for the future usefulness and pleasure of the club.

The house was tastefully decorated, and the hostess expressed her artistic instincts, by serving with the delicious refreshments, lovely roses to each guest, thus blending the useful and the beautiful, in a way which added to the universal pleasure.

The visitors present were Messdames Jarvis, Smith, Coward, Mumford and Vines.

After an afternoon replete with pleasure, the club adjourned to meet on May 17th at the home of Mrs. Fordyce Harding.

RIOT AT GRIMESLAND.

Three Negroes Brought to Jail.

It seems that certain negroes around Grimesland have been imbibing the spirit of the James City element and have become imitators of them by openly defying the law and officers of the town.

One day last week a negro guilty of a violation was arrested by Policeman Gibson, of Grimesland. He was taking the prisoner to the lock-up when other negroes surrounded them and took the prisoner away from the officer and let him escape.

The policeman waited his time, and Wednesday found where the escaped negro was. He went again to arrest him and more disorder ensued, the negroes disordering the authorities of the town and making all manner of threats of violence. A phone message was sent to Greenville and Wednesday night Deputy Sheriffs Leon Tucker and Jack Harrington went to the scene of the trouble. These officers and the Grimesland authorities proceeded to the house in which the leaders of the riot were, and for a while there was a stormy time. After some fighting three negroes wanted were overpowered and they have been brought to Greenville and placed in jail. One of the negroes showed fight till the last and had to be beaten before he would surrender.

WOMAN IN BULL FIGHT

Quick Work With a Shot Gun

Mrs. J. E. Browning, who lives some three miles west of Durham, adjoining the plantation of Mr. R. M. Jones, engaged very unexpectedly in a fight with an enraged bull yesterday at noon and she was not long in dispatching his bullship. She ended his life with a well directed shot gun which, fortunate for her, was close at hand when she was attacked.

The animal, it is said, belonged to Mr. E. N. Duke and was of very fine stock. He had broken away from "The Meadows," Mr. Dukes farm near University Station, and had wandered as far as the home of Mrs. Browning, when he came to his sudden death.

Mrs. Browning went out about noon to look after her cow, which was tied near the home. She wore a red shirt waist. The bull was coming that way and seeing the red dress decided that it was a challenge to battle and accepted the challenge at once, charging towards Mrs. Browning.

To gain safety in flight Mrs. Browning did not have time, so she decided quickly on what course to pursue. Her husband had a shot gun in the field, close at hand, which he had been using to keep crows away from his corn. Mrs. Browning remembered this in the moment of her peril and she used it with a quickness and directness of aim that would have done credit to an old veteran of many battlefields. Grabbing the gun, she raised it to her shoulder and fired both barrels at the enraged animal, now but a few paces away. The entire charge of shot struck the bull fairly between the eyes and he was a dead fighter in less time than it takes to reckon how it all came about.

But for the gun being close at hand and the promptness with which Mrs. Browning acted there is no doubt but that she would have been seriously, if not fatally hurt.—Durham Herald.

The county is to be only charged with the expense of feeding the prisoners, all other expenses of working and caring for them to be borne by the said Joyner.

A petition for a public road in Belvoir township was presented.

The sheriff made his report of the laying out of a public road in Chicod township in accordance with the order of the board at April meeting. This report was confirmed and ordered recorded, but J. A. RUNAWAY MARRIAGE.

Love Wins The Victory.

Early Thursday morning Mr. John Ormond and Miss Myrtle Holloway of Swift Creek township, came to Greenville. They lost no time in applying to the register of deeds for license, and after obtaining this they next sought the services of Justice C. D. Rountree to unite them in marriage.

The ceremony took place a little past 9 o'clock at the home of Justice Rountree, on Greene street, and the couple left happy.

The bride left her home Wednesday evening, ostensibly to spend the night with a friend. During the night, as had been pre arranged, Mr. Ormond called there for her, and accompanied by another couple they drove to Greenville.

MEETING CLOSED.

New Church Building in Contemplation.

Wednesday night Rev. J. A. Hornaday closed the meeting which he has been conducting in the Methodist church for a week and a half. His closing sermon was on the judgment, how all must appear before God and be judged out of the books according to their works.

After the sermon he made a brief talk regarding the contemplated new church building and said he had called on six members whose subscriptions aggregated $2,600. He felt greatly encouraged at this beginning and hoped others would be equally liberal when called upon, as they will be soon. The new church will occupy the lot on Washington street near Dickinson avenue.

A TRIBUTE.

God in His goodness and mercy called from her earthly home, April 27th, 1901, the sweet spirit of Maude Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sutton. She was 15 years old, and had been a great sufferer, having been confined to bed since January 1st. She was a child of sweet disposition and was held in love and esteem by all who knew her. She was a member of the Sunday school at Forbes' School House and it was always her greatest pleasure to be prompt and regular in her attendance. We bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, realizing that He doeth all things well. This tribute is written by order of her Sunday school.

M. A. ALLEN.
For the Sunday school.

LETTER TO A. J. GRIFFIN.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sir: Would you like to hear of a 20 year paint?

Mr. James A. O'Neill's house, Henderson, N. C., was painted 20 years ago with Devco lead-and-zinc, and never painted again till last year; it then looked better than common paint in half that time.

The reason is: Devco is all paint and true paint; while the common paints are part true and false. Don't pay to monkey with paint. And Devco costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name.

Yours truly
F. W. DEVCO & CO.

Truth in Reference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 10 1904.

Wonder what kind of trouble the new applicant for a receiver is looking for.

Durham goes one dryer, having raled apple cider out of the drinkables that can be sold there.

A good bit of war news comes one day and it takes the press dispatches five more days to tell over how it happened.

The Greensboro Record has installed a Mergenthaler typesetting machine and the appearance of the paper is much improved.

In some counties of the state the question is being agitated of paying all county officers fixed salaries instead of fees as at present.

The Russians say they have not commenced fighting yet. At this rate the Japs will have them licked before they get ret ready to start.

Though the nominating convention will be late, there is beginning to be talk of county officers. The woods will be full of them further on.

Speaker Cannon says no, he would not be the tail end of the ticket under any circumstances. So another running mate will have to be found for Roosevelt.

The negroes of this state are contending for one of their race as a delegate to the republican national convention, and the bosses are in somewhat of a quandary.

The man who built the toms prison in New York and was afterwards imprisoned there for forgery, now has an opportunity of practically testing his own work.

As the merchant's association is never heard of now it is presumed that the organization accomplished all it could for the town and quit. Or did it die from doing nothing?

W. R. Odell, of Concord, declines to enter the contest for the nomination for congress in his district, because his business interests demand his attention. That is really refreshing, that a man has business enough to keep out of the office hunting.

Perhaps every town has a bad side and a good side, or at least bad features and good features. Carthage recently defeated a proposition to issue bonds for water works. That sounds bad. That same town boasts of being the quietest of its size in the state. With a population of between twelve and fifteen hundred, it has not had a regular policeman in over a year. That sounds good.

All the candidates for governor express confidence that they will win the prize.

When Greenville gets electric lights, water works and the Raleigh & Pamlico sound railroad, you will see things moving around the old town.

If building material could be more easily obtained here Greenville would grow faster. A brick making plant is much needed.

And now comes the report that the big victory of the Japanese land forces was all a fake. The denial has a Russian color to it.

The war against saloons goes bravely on in this state. Wilmington and Charlotte have both asked for elections to vote out the saloons.

The Rev. Thomas Babb has wobbled up again. He was the star speaker at a republican convention in Washington, Wednesday, and was loaded to the neck with abuse of everything democratic.

If the next legislature does its duty it will revoke the charter of a number of cross roads places that were incorporated solely for the purpose of permitting the establishment of whiskey distilleries.

The aldermen of Kingston have passed an ordinance forbidding the dispensary employes to sell liquor to a minor or to an intoxicated person, and also making it unlawful for any person to buy liquor for a minor or intoxicated person.

The three gentleman on trial in the Federal court at Greensboro for collusion with a whiskey distillery to defraud the government, were convicted and each sentenced to a term in the penitentiary and to pay a large fine. They all took an appeal.

"Divorces while you wait," was the expression of bystanders in court the other day when they saw a divorce granted in five minutes. The thing is now done so easy that one has to stop and wonder where it will end. The next legislature ought to make it harder to get a divorce in North Carolina.

Truer words have not been spoken than the sentiment expressed by Governor Jarvis near the close of his speech on the dispensary restraining case, when he said "the days of the open saloon are numbered." We make the prediction that the saloons in this state that are not closed in the meantime by local elections, will be wiped out by the next legislature. The sentiment against them continues to grow rapidly, and the saloon men themselves ought to be able to see it.

Sully has fessed up and says his firm is bankrupt.

If Port Arthur, is sealed delivery is next in order.

Thursday was a good day for hangings. Three murderers were hanged together at Winchester, Tenn., and two were strung up at Pittsburg, Pa.

WHAT ARE TOWN CHARTERS FOR?

According to the interpretation of some lawyers, charters enacted for the government of towns are inoperative and worthless. Suit has been brought against the town of Spencer because under its charter a higher rate of taxes is levied and collected than the rate prescribed in the general law of the state. This reminds us that right here in Greenville men asserting knowledge of law have set up the charge that the mayor and aldermen of the town are usurpers in office because they were elected under the charter enacted for the government of the town instead of under the general law enacted for the state. This leads us to ask two questions: What is the use of having a charter if its provisions cannot be carried out? And why is not a charter enacted for a town by the legislature just as legal as a general law enacted for the state by the same law making power? One hears strange things said in the name of law, but in both the above instances it looks more like playing for political capital.

There seems to be a decided inclination on the part of some of North Carolina's judges to put a stop to so much divorce getting. A late instance was when Judge Justice in Mecklenburg court instructed a jury in a divorce case to be withdrawn and a mistrial to be had. In disposing of the case he said, "This is a reputable looking man, and no doubt his wife is a nice woman; and they should live together. I cannot allow the case to go to the jury on this evidence. The cause of the separation should be removed; that is, this plaintiff should make further efforts to live with his wife, and her people should not interfere." This is, therefore, another case where the law is just plain common sense. "Should make further efforts." That's the remedy for incompatibility of temperament and the thousand other excuses for divorce. The discouraged brother, or sister it may be should keep trying until he or she gets reconciled.—Greensboro Telegram.

Didn't Want the Family. He had at last summoned up sufficient courage to "ask papa," when to his astonishment, the blustering parent demanded, "Are you capable of supporting a family, sir?" "No, sir," he replied with great firmness. "My father tackled that job and has had his wife's family on his hands ever since. I only want your daughter, sir, not the family."

"Dopes and Such."

The following from Col. Olds' Raleigh letter to the Charlotte Observer reveals a fearful state of affairs in Raleigh, and Raleigh is not the only place:

The writer does not know whether the conditions prevailing here are prevalent in other North Carolina towns, but taking it for granted that they are, it is really ghastly to think about the amount of 'dope' medicines, if they can be dignified by the name of medicine, which are swallowed by young men and women daily. The conditions here are really something horrible in some cases. The things that people take are astonishing. For example, I hear of a lady in this city who each week drinks two quarts of bay rum. She used to drink cologne, but has now gone beyond that. Then there are others who drink paregoric in enormous quantities, one taking it to the amount of half a dollar's worth a day. There are men who take Peruna, with its 55 per cent of alcohol and all sorts of coal tar products besides, in such quantities as to stagger belief. There are men, young men, who wake up in the morning with that dark brown taste in their mouths, who cannot hold a hand steady or do one thing on earth until they have had a few pulls at a cigarette, of course inhaling the smoke, and then taking a dose of some one of those dreadful 'bracers.'

Are Country Schools Worth While.

Had there been no change in the conditions prevailing between 1880 and 1900, the population of country districts would cease to increase by 1910. The rate of increase is much greater in cities than elsewhere, and though the country population is increasing slowly, the proportion of the inhabitants of the United States living in the country was smaller in 1900 than it was in 1890. The causes of the tendency to leave home to go into the more crowded sections are various, but one of them is plainly the fact that superior educational facilities are to be found where there are the most people. The farmers are therefore facing a serious problem and they will be obliged to choose their own way. Unless they build schools and secure other modern improvements the present trend of emigration will continue and as the demand for country property decrease; on the other hand, with modern improvements in the country, the demand for the property will increase, the value will increase and with the better inducements, the tide of emigration may be turned. The first step in this direction is the betterment of the schools. Along with this improvement will come better roads, telephone service proper mail facilities, markets, and other features of city life. Country schools are worth while.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Greene The Banner County.

The Snow Hill Standard prints a picture of Mr. W. W. Edwards, the popular and capable sheriff of that good county, and says: "The above cut represents the best sheriff in the State. He has actually collected every white man's poll taxes prior to May 1, 1904 in the county, and therefore no white man will be disfranchised in Greene County by not paying his poll taxes. There are a few on the books unpaid but they are known not to be living in the county. Now if any other county has got a sheriff that has done the same, trot him out and let's see who he is and where he is from. The Standard joins the people throughout the county in saying we have got the best sheriff in the state."

There seems just now a disposition on the part of the newspapers to stop this continual picking and fussing at each other. Much of it is without excuse or reason and the paper that recognizes this shows its good sense.—Durham Herald.

Senatorial Luxuries.

Alfred Henry Lewis, who contributes a political letter from Washington to The Saturday Evening Post every week, is generally interesting though his wonderful satisfaction with himself as shown by his off-hand setting of the greatest problems, is anything but pleasing to the reader. In a recent issue, however, he threw some light on the darkness of the incidental expenses of the United States Senate. He gave a number of the items for which the government pays—among them being pocket knives, toilet articles, manicure sets, and apparently something of everything for which the usual family can find any use, it being especially noted that a large quantity of soap was included. It appears that these expenses together with the salary, mileage and allowance for secretaries, amounts to an average of $11,000 a year for each senator, and Mr. Lewis suggests that the salary be raised to that sum and thus avoid the injury to senatorial consciences. The senators may need the money, but this increase for the reason given would establish a dangerous precedent.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Quick Arrest
J. A. Gulledege of Verbena, Ala was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain.

Made Young Again
"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again!" writes D. H. Turner of Dempsey-town, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripes. Only 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

Joe L. Wooten
does not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to his friends and customers. Indigestion causes more ill health than anything else.
It deranges the stomach and brings on all manner of disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well.
Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

A Cure For Piles
"I had a bad case of piles," says
G. F. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga., "and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. It is splendid for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for its healing qualities.
Eczema and other skin diseases, also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every kind are quickly cured by it. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Ladies And Children
Who do not stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups and cathartic pills are especially fond of Little Early Risers. All persons who find it necessary to take a liver medicine should try these easy pill and compare the agreeably pleasant and strengthening effect with the nauseating and weakening conditions following the use of other remedies. Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache, jaundice, malaria and liver troubles. Sold by J. L.
Wooten.

When The Sap Rises
Weak lungs should be careful.
Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E.
Pence of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs.
I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength."
Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A Sure Thing
It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Meter of Shepherdown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me absolutely."
It's infallible for Croup, Whoop Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten Drugist.
Trial bottles free. Reg size 50c $1.

A Startling Test.
To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merrit of No. Wahoo, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

Here's the New Millinery for Spring

Take Thought for Your Spring Footwear

And remember, while doing so, that it is but the beginning of a long season, and that the shoes you buy now should be bought with a long look ahead. Look as far as you like, if Munford shoes are your starting point. Comfort and style, to begin with, both important factors, and, in addition, the satisfactory lasting qualities that are emphasized by continued wear. Whether you pay $1.90 or $5, you don't get any variation in sturdy durability, its mainly the material used.

THE BEAUTIFUL SHOWERS.

(Contributed)

How delightfully refreshing was the shower of rain yesterday!
Everybody, everything, was hoping it would rain. The atmosphere had become oppressive. The dust had become so suffocating and intolerable, from head to foot one would be covered in dust. And then came the beautiful mist of rain. Only a gentle change—hardly enough to discern and no voice of thunder, no shriek of wind, but quietly, softly, like the cooing of the dove.

"And it fell on the fevered spirits,
Like the voice of an angel's dreams."

How grateful should we be that "He sendeth His rain upon the just and the unjust."

There seems to be almost a new world today for every one. Truly what a great world is this of ours.
The farmers are happy, the people are all rejoiced, and the birds sing more cheerily. All indeed are happy. X

A Beautiful Home Marriage.

At 8 o'clock this morning at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moye, on Fifth street, a beautiful marriage was witnessed by a large number of friends. The contracting parties were Mr. T. W.
Skinner and Miss Emily Higgs, both very popular young people.

The spacious hall and parlors of the residence were splendidly decorated in keeping with the happy occasion.

Miss Nina James played the wedding march as the bride-party entered the parlor and "Angel Serenade" during the ceremony.

The first to enter were little Miss Jessie Moye and Charlie Laughinghouse, Jr., who held ribbons forming an aisle for the others to pass through.

Then came little Miss Novella Moye bearing the wedding ring on a silver tray.

Following her came the dame of honor, Mrs. J. R. Moye, sister of the bride. She wore an elegant dress of black lace over black tulle and carried carnations.

The bride and groom then entered, the bride wearing a most becoming traveling suit of blue voile.

The ceremony was gracefully performed by Rev. A. T. King, pastor of the Baptist church.

After brief congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, accompanied by a number of friends, drove to the depot where they took the morning train for a trip to Washington City and other points.

Many very handsome bridal presents were received.

After their trip Mr. and Mrs.
Skinner will return to Greenville and make their home here.

LETTER TO T. R. MOORE.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: A painter complained that our cans are too full; unbandy; spills.

It's away we have; his hauler not to be full-measure. Our gallon contains eight pints; the usual "gallon" is seven.

We'd think it over again; but we like a full can. How much short would you like a barrel?
Seven gallons would be the proportion.

Short-measure suggest that the shortage is probably not in the cheapest ingredient.

Guess we'll stick to four quarts to a gallon, and fifty gallons a barrel.

The name to go by is Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly

MEMORIAL DAY.

Reunion of Confederate Veterans.

One of the lessons learned by old soldiers on the battle field was "never mind the weather." Men who feared not to face cannon, would not be likely to flinch before a thunder storm and rain, hence the old soldiers gathered in large number here Tuesday, even though the morning brought both storm and rain.

At 10 o'clock Bryan Grimes Camp of Confederate Veterans met in the court house and called the roll and transacted such business as was before them. At 11 o'clock they formed in line and marched under the command of Maj. H. Harding to the new opera house in Masonic temple where the public exercises were held.

There was a large number of veterans in line and each wore an appropriate badge.

The stage in the opera house had as a background a large United States flag, and in front was a pyramid decorated with Confederate flags. The Daughters of the Confederacy had preceded the veterans to the opera house and occupied seats reserved for them.

At the opera house the program as previously published was carried out, the only change being that Mayor H. W. Whedbee who was to welcome the veterans had been called out of town and Solicitor L. I. Moore delivered the address in his stead. Both his welcome, and the introduction of the speaker by Mr. F. C. Harding were couched in eloquent and beautiful language.

The opera house was filled to its full capacity, and all present enjoyed the excellent speech of Gen.
W. R. Cox. In his speech he paid glowing tribute to the valor of the Confederate veterans, and also the part taken in conducting the affairs of the nation by men coming from the ranks of the Confederacy. The administration was never so well managed, he said, as when this country was represented in the court of every prominent foreign nation by a man from the South and two Southern men were members of the cabinet.

At the conclusion of Gen. Cox's speech, Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, in behalf of the daughters of the Confederacy, presented him with a magnificent bouquet.

After the exercises in the opera house the procession formed and marched to the cemetery to decorate the graves of soldiers, then returned to the court house lawn where dinner was prepared for the veterans.

The Osceola Band furnished music for the day's exercises.

Winterville Commencement.

The public will be admitted free to all the exercises of the Winterville High School commencement this week, except the closing concert Friday night. For admission to the latter there will be a small charge of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. No one will be admitted without a ticket.
Each member of the families represented in the school and the Tar Heel band will be given tickets.
All others will be charged. This method of admission by tickets is adopted so as to prevent overcrowding like the past commencements and to give those who get seats a chance to enjoy the exercises without being disturbed by people standing up.

Splendid Opera House.

The large audience gathered in the Masonic temple opera house on Tuesday gives some idea of the crowd the house can accommodate.
It was the first time the opera house was opened to the public, and many were surprised at the size and splendid seating arrangement. When the first entertainment is given, which will be for the benefit of the lodge temple fund, the audience should be equally as large as the one Tuesday.

Caught a Fine Bunch.

J. G. Moye and the editor spent Monday at Wharton's, and in company with W. R. Whichard and H. M. Dixon enjoyed a fishing trip in Tranters Creek. Wind and tide were both contrary, making it what old fishermen call a bad day for bites, but by patiently sticking to it a good string was landed, most of them very fine specimens of the fluky tribe.
Tranters Creek is an ideal place for fishing.

New Buildings.

L. McLawhorn is having two more houses built on his property

F. M. Hodges is having a house built on his Dickison avenue lot.

First and Youngest.

As some of the veterans at the reunion Tuesday were talking over incidents of the war, it was learned that Justice C. D. Rountree was the first in Pitt county to enlist in the service of the Confederacy, and Senator A. L. Blow was the youngest Pitt countian to enlist.
