BENSONIZER LUNG CURE.
NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.
A Cure at Last Obtained. After a Searching Investigation by St. Louis Interests.
A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating the most dreaded of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.
So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and it is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost, this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh Street, St. Louis. They have also located a laboratory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.
Free booklet on request.

TRIPLE DROWNING.

Three Men Perish in the River.
On Sunday Allen Forbes and his son Charles, together with Henry Arnold, Charles Braxton and Louis Allen, all white, went to Bell's seine beach, about three miles below town, on Tar river. Late in the afternoon the five men crossed the river in a canoe. Just before reaching land the boat took water and sunk. Louis Allen and Charles Braxton swam ashore and saved themselves. Allen Forbes and Henry Arnold had also nearly reached a place of safety when they saw Charles Allen, who was a cripple, struggling in the water and went to his aid. The three were drowned together.
Things of the accident reached town some later and a messenger went out to the home of Mr. Forbes to advise his wife of it. When the messenger reached the home he found morning already there, an eight-months-old child having died about the time the drowning occurred.
All of the bodies were found Monday.

FOUR GENERATIONS LIVING.

Perhaps the Largest Family in the State.
Mr. Jeremiah Wethington was in town today and says that he is now 78 years old. He has living nearly one hundred children, grand children and a great grand children. Few people can say as much. Mr. Wethington is well preserved and works on the farm. He has been married twice but all these children, grand children and great grand children are of the first marriage. He has twelve great grand children in one family that of Mr. Curtis Corey, and in all there are more than forty great grand children.
There is probably not another family of such number living in the state that sprung from one marriage during the lifetime of the ancestor. Mr. Wethington married first in April, 1841.

LETTER TO GREENVILLE LUMBER & VENEER CO.

Dear Sirs: Two years ago the estate of the late Congressman Scott, of Erie, Pa., painted 24 Rolling-Mill houses one coat Devoe at a saving of 11 per cent for paint (lead-and-oil was after the job). That's how the tale reads. We infer what really happened.
The buyer, as usual, went by the cost of paint; got bids. Lead-and-oil bid low and guess the quantity low; the saving was only 11 per cent.
Nobody seems to have thought of this: the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint. How much did we save on the painting? Don't know.
The tale end with this: We often refer inquirers to those houses, for wear of Devoe.
That's a good-enough story; but nobody knows what it is. Our only difficulty is want of paint-intelligence.
Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & CO.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our paint.

THE BEST WEEK YET.

The Weekly Crop Bulletin for the week ending Monday, May 23, 1904 says:
Throughout the eastern half of the State the past week was more favorable for crops than any preceding it because abundant rains fell on the 17th and 18th in the sections suffering most severely from drought, with great benefit to vegetation generally.
In the northwest portion the rain was heavy and washed land considerably, and in more than twelve counties hailstorms occurred with some damage to gardens and wheat; the following counties reported damage by hail: Henderson, Ashe, Alexander, Wilkes, Surry, Forsyth, Davidson, Rutherford, Iredell and one or two eastern counties. On the other hand in the extreme west and southwest portion of the state the rainfall for the week was sufficient for the requirement of crops. The temperature has continued below normal, especially at night, preventing rapid growth, and injuring more sensitive crops, such as cotton, considerably. The latter part of the week was fair and warmer.
On the whole the rainfall this week was extremely beneficial, and placed the soil in good condition; where the largest amount occurred farm work was delayed to some extent, but crops are generally in good condition, clean and well cultivated.

LEON W. TUCKER FOR SHERIFF.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:
The sheriff's office of Pitt county becomes more important every year. The duties are more complicated and arduous as the country becomes more expanded, and the many intricacies and complexities of the laws enacted and the greater volume of business accumulations. It therefore requires a man of experience, cool head and an active intelligent mind to fill the sheriff's office of the large county of Pitt as it should be.
Leon Tucker has proven that he is capable to fill to the full measure the requirements and expectations of a first class sheriff. Long years of experience, a perfect familiarity with the duties of the office, his intimate personal acquaintance with the people of the county, his high character and exemplary habits, his cool nerve and promptness to duty, make him the most thoroughly equipped man for this high and responsible office.
And without disparagement to the claims and strength of any or all of the aspirants, it goes without saying Leon W. Tucker is the man upon whom the mantle of the sheriff's office should fall.
HICKORY.

SOME UNEXPECTED EVIDENCE.

Mrs. Neiswanger, of Beloit, sued the Missouri Pacific Company for $40,000 damages for injuries received in a fall for which, she alleged, the company was responsible. The case was tried in Rooks county.
B. P. Waggener wanted to prove that there was a full moon at the time the accident happened and to place the responsibility on the plaintiff. He sent a boy down town to a drug store to get an almanac of that year. Without examining it, except to see that it contained the proof which he desired, he offered it in evidence.
The attorney for Mrs. Neiswanger, in his argument, said that the defendant company was the property of Jay Gould and other millionaires, who had amassed a fortune amounting to hundreds of millions. Mr. Waggener protested against this line of discussion, declaring that there was nothing in the evidence to warrant the statement.
"But there is, may it please your honor," the other lawyer declared. "It is in the evidence offered by Mr. Waggener himself. Where?" exclaimed Mr. Waggener.
"In this almanac," the opposing lawyer said, and snr enough in the book were pictures and short sketches of Jay Gould, Russell, Sage, Henry Marquand and other associates of Gould, and every one of them said to be worth from $79,000,000 to $100,000,000.
The jury returned a verdict of $5,000 for Mrs. Neiswanger.
Colored Graded School.
The closing exercises of the colored graded school, of which C. M. Epps is principal, ended Tuesday night. The exercises were very creditable to both teachers and pupils. An excellent address was delivered by Mr. F. C. Harding to the school on Friday night.

COMMITTEE REPORT.

Rather Adverse to Management of A. & N. C. Road.
RALEIGH, N. C. May 24th.
The report of the special committee which has been investigating the condition and management of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad was placed in the hands of the governor last Thursday and was released to the press for publication today.
It is an adverse report and criticises unfavorably the management of the road. The system in use of keeping accounts was crude and unsatisfactory. The committee does not think that the improvement of the property has been in keeping with the large amount of money expended, a total of $324,499.62 having been available within the last 4 years and 9 months. While the service has been greatly improved in that time and much of the money wisely spent, some of it has been injudiciously used, in some cases approaching extravagance.
The committee stated that the spirit of the law prohibiting free transportation has been violated in furnishing free passes to persons who are not even stockholders. Free passes of all kinds have been generously distributed.
There are charges that contracts for supplies were made at too high figures, a notable one being the price paid for wood, the committee stating that the use of coal would have saved $6,000 a year of the price paid for wood.
The committee declared that the road being in politics is not calculated to serve the best interests of the property.
There is some plain talk in the report about the purchase of the Atlantic Hotel property. It says the management bought it in this transaction and express the opinion that the purchase was not lawfully made and certainly was not wise.
The report concludes with the statement that it is clear that the best and most economical management of the property cannot be attained under state control, that it is equally clear that it is a very valuable property and its condition and earning capacity have been greatly improved during the last four years. At the same time the committee said there was nothing in the situation to call for haste or extreme action in reference to any proposed change in the control or operation of the property.
Died.
Mr. J. Walter Howard died at 5 o'clock, Sunday morning, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Howard, at Conetoe. The interment took place Monday with Masonic honors, a large number of people being in attendance. Mr. Howard was 31 years of age and leaves a widow and one child. He was a brother of Mrs. J. G. Moyer, of Greenville, and she has the sympathy of many friends in her sorrow.
Just received a shipment of very nice loaf bread and after today will always have a fresh supply on hand.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 27 1904.

Better let the office seek the man instead of the man seeking the office.

Those who were looking for such a mare's nest when the report came out did not find it.

Japan has the largest and best exhibit of any foreign country represented at the St. Louis world's fair.

The second application for a receiver should be thrown out of court and let the state proceed to accept the best offer to lease the road.

The Lumberton lawyers got Judge Peebles in such close quarters that it is now his turn to hunt up testimonials. Better call that contempt business off and quit.

A colored preacher of Richmond dislikes for his picture to be handed around too much, and has sued a chemical company for using his picture to show the before and after effects of a preparation to take the kinks out of hair and make it straight.

It is inferred from the report that the committee think a lease of the road would be the best thing for it, but this does not need to come by way of a receivership. Pat Cyle and the rest of his kind need not let the leasing be done by the council of state.

It is less than two weeks to the municipal election. In that time the matter of changing the offices of treasurer and tax collector from commission to salary basis should be fully discussed. It has been pointed out where a great saving of the town's money can be brought about.

North Carolinians lead the procession in Atlanta. Last week we noted that Rev. John E. White, D. D., a Wake county boy, and in one Sunday raised over twenty thousand dollars and freed his church from debt. That's what a Wake County Baptist preacher can do for his denomination in the metropolis of Georgia. About the same time the first service in the new Methodist church was held. It is the handsomest and costliest church in Georgia. On the Sunday it was opened, the pastor, Rev. Charles W. Byrd, D. D., a Harnett county boy, raised $27,000, and the church was dedicated free from debt. That's what a Harnett county Methodist preacher can do for his denomination in the metropolis of Georgia. Take from Georgia its Tar Heel blood, and it would have been a very poor State. North Carolinians chiefly settled in early days and they have been furnishing it great preachers, great lawyers, great statesmen, great captains of industry ever since. And the supply left in the mother State has been fully equal to the demand.—Raleigh News & Observer.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

St. Louis has done herself proud in the great exposition now in progress in that city in celebration of the centennial of the Louisiana Purchase. The exposition is in reality, as in name, a World's Fair, for almost all the world has been drawn together to help make the event both interesting and memorable. Every country of prominence on the globe is represented and the visitor gets a fair idea of the people of every nationality and the products of every land. Our own great country came up from every state and territory, and these supplemented with the best endeavors of the foreigners brings together in the magnificent buildings and spacious grounds a vast panorama and presents a miniature world at one view.

The writer left home on the 14th, his destination being this great World's Fair. Barring a tedious and patience-taxing delay of six hours at Weldon, the journey was most agreeable and enjoyable. As far as Richmond our travel was over the Atlantic Coast Line. From that city to Cincinnati the trip was over the Chesapeake and Ohio road that traverses a section rich in historic memory and resplendent with magnificent scenery. This road runs through the Blue Ridge mountains, following the course of sparkling rivers, the banks and mountain sides being dotted here and there with great mining plants, prosperous towns and flourishing cities.

From Cincinnati on the route was over the Big Four, and a little less than forty-eight hours after leaving home the distance to St. Louis had been safely and pleasantly passed. The fair being the objective point, little time was lost in getting out there.

After quartering at the Inside Inn, the largest hotel in the world, covering acres of land and embracing thousands of rooms, we were ready for sight seeing in earnest.

It was Press week at the fair, and besides the thousands of editors there from all sections of the United States, thirty or more foreign countries were represented.

The exposition is truly immense, so vast as to be at first bewildering, but with the use of some system and the aid of the transmutal electric cars, visiting the various portions of the grounds and various buildings is made easy.

While there is a great deal to be seen, perhaps enough, yet the early visitor is impressed with its incompleteness. This is a fault, however of the exhibitors and not of the exposition management. What most impressed us is this particular, even to bringing a feeling of shame, was that North Carolina is so far behind her sister states in preparation of exhibits. As the representatives of other states could view with pride the splendid exhibits made by their commonwealths, those from North Carolina were pointed to a vacant space and told that is where it will be later on. The trouble is not that our state has not just as good exhibits as others, but because there is tardiness and negligence in getting the exhibit arranged. Those supposed to have been there attending to this seem to have been giving their attention to other things. Just to think, for instance, that the fine exhibits of Pitt county tobacco sent there weeks ago by the Greenville board of trade, is yet stored away in some freight depository in the original packages as shipped.

It would take columns to tell of all we saw at the fair, and no attempt in that direction will be made. The Pike attractions also come in for their full share. They are numerous. Some of course are poor, but many stand high in point of merit and are worth seeing.

It is a great fair and must be seen to be properly appreciated. But it is best to wait until after the middle of June to go.

Definition of a Blush.

"A blush is a temporary erythema and colorific effulgence of the physiognomy, etiologized by one perceptiveness of the sensorium when in a predicament of unequilibrium from a sense of shame, anger or other cause, eventuating in a paresis of the vasomotor filaments of the facial capillaries, whereby, being divested of their elasticity, they are suffused with a radiance emanating from an intimidated precordia."—American Medicine.

Butter 42 Years Old.

A stone jar of butter that had been buried for 42 years was found the other day on a farm in Burt county, in north-eastern Nebraska. Forty-two years ago a family by the name of Decatur lived on the place, and one day in summer this jar was packed and placed in the spring. A few days later, when one of the family went to get the butter it was gone, and no search unearthed it. The Ponca Indians roamed the neighborhood, and the supposition was that it had been filched by some of them.

The Decaturs lived and died, and the farm has changed hands several times since then. Two weeks ago a man was put at work excavating for an out building near the spring. At a considerable depth he encountered a stone jar.

On being exposed to the air the jar crumbled to pieces and a four-pound roll of butter fell out. It was mouldy on the outside, but yellow and sweet inside.

The butter was brought to town, and neighborhood tradition soon established that it was the self-same roll put in the spring forty-two years ago. A member of the Decatur family recalled the circumstances fully.

An investigation of the spot disclosed the fact that the bottom of the old spring was in quicksand, and it is supposed that the weight of the jar and its contents caused it to drop to a firmer bottom, where it was kept intact all these years.

This is undoubtedly the oldest roll of butter in the world, and steps have been taken to preserve it for exhibition at the St. Louis Fair.—Charlotte Chronicle.

CLOTHES AND THE MAN.

Personal Appearance Goes a Long Way Toward Success.

In these days of inexpensive clothing no one can afford to leave his room until he is in a condition to be presentable anywhere. Neither can he afford to bother about thinking of his clothing after he is once dressed, but he should so clothe himself that he will be utterly unconscious of any inferiority. A sense of being fittingly and appropriately dressed increases one's efficiency and self respect and so adds materially to achievement. If you are improperly dressed or badly groomed, you will feel a certain timidity in meeting people, a loss of power, chagrin and a real loss of energy and self confidence.

We are our own best advertisements, and if we appear to disadvantage in any particular our standard in the estimate of others is cut down. The great majority of people who come in contact with us do not see us at our homes. They may never see our stocks and bonds or lands and houses. They know nothing of us, unless it be by reputation, but what they see of our personality, and they judge us accordingly. They take it for granted that our general appearance is a sample of what we are and what we can do, and if we are slovenly in dress and in personal habits they naturally think that our work and our lives will correspond. They are right. It does not matter where the slackness or shiftlessness manifests itself, or what its nature may be, it will reappear in your work, in your manner and in your person. Many people form a careless habit of neglecting some part of their toilet, as when they black only the front part of their shoes and leave the heels untouched. The same incompleteness, the same lack of finish, will appear in every letter they write and in every piece of work they attempt to do. It will prove a detriment to character growth. The consciousness of incompleteness or "sliphodness" tends to destroy self respect, to lessen energy and to detract from one's general ability.—Success.

Good Sponges.

There is a great difference in the quality of sponges. A good bathing sponge has rather coarse pores, but is soft and strong in texture. The most expensive sponges, however, are the tiny ones which have the very finest holes and a silken texture. They are used for washing little children and by surgeons. It is always better to purchase a sponge of a wholesale dealer, who handles them from the original package as they come to market, or from a trustworthy druggist.

The sponges that are very white and clean looking are said to be often the refuse sponges thrown away by hospitals and afterward collected, cleaned and bleached by acid. A sponge that has not been bleached is a brownish yellow or a light yellow in color.

A Mistake.

Of "Dumas le savant" a good story is told. Nothing annoyed the great chemist so much as being mistaken for the novelist. On one occasion a lion hunting English lady, after praising him in the most effusive language and observing that she knew every line of his writings from "Monte-Christo" to "Mousquetaires," added, "I hope you will allow me to send you a card for my next soiree."

"Madame, I am in no way connected with the writer you allude to," said the savant, with a cold disdain that no assinine, snub proof coat of mail could resist.

"Oh, I thought you were the great Mr. Dumas!" exclaimed the bewildered lady.

Comforting the Curate.

A very nervous young curate who as a rule always shaved himself once found himself compelled to patronize a barber, having while from home forgotten his shaving tackle. "I hope you can shave me without cutting me. I am—er—I mean I have a very nervous—er—that is, sensitive skin," stammered the curate.

"Cut you, sir," repeated the juvenile looking operator reassuringly, flourishing his gleaming razor round the shrinking throat of the curate. "If I so much as nick you once I'll—I'll—I'll cut your head off, sir, and my own arterwards. I can't say fairer'n that."—Liverpool Globe.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE TOWN OF GREENVILLE.

A very important problem in the administration of our town government is the question of economy. Every taxpayer in the town of Greenville should, and doubtless does, feel a deep interest in the growth and development of our town. Especially is this true since the sale of the improvement bonds, and makes it certain that at an early date we are to have street improvements, water works and electric lights. These improvements, while they mean the development and progress of our town, yet they mean large expenditures of money.

It becomes a question of vital interest to every taxpayer that the government of the town should be administered with strict, substantial and business-like economy. We desire to call the attention of the taxpayers to a matter wherein at least $1,000 can be saved in the administration of the town government and yet in no wise impair the efficiency of the administration. The matter to which we desire to call the attention of the citizens of Greenville is the item of salary paid to the Town Treasurer and Tax Collector. The amount of taxes collected by the Tax Collector and by him turned over to the Town Treasurer is approximately $18,000. The Tax Collector for his services receives five per cent. The Town Treasurer for his services receives two and one-half per cent. on receipts and two and one-half per cent. on disbursements. Thus we are paying $900 per year to the tax collector and $900 a year to the town treasurer, making an aggregate of $1,800 per year the citizens of the town are paying merely to have the town taxes collected in and paid out.

We heartily commend the efficiency of each one of the present officials. They are good officers and they are to be commended for their efficient work, yet these same officials would gladly perform the duties of the office for a much smaller consideration than is now paid them. The duties and labor connected with the treasurer's office are exceedingly light; being merely to receive the money from the tax collector, and pay it out by order of the board of aldermen. The duties of the tax collector are more laborious, yet are such that a much smaller compensation than that now paid would suffice.

There are quite a number of citizens of the town, thoroughly competent business men who would willingly accept the office of treasurer, and thoroughly and accurately perform all the duties attached thereto for $300 per year. There are also quite a number of thoroughly competent business men who would accept and perform the duties of tax collector for $500 per year. Thus all the duties connected with the two offices can be thoroughly and efficiently executed for $800 per year, for which we are paying the enormous sum of $1,800 per year and by so doing save $1,000 to the tax payers of the town of Greenville in the administration of those two offices alone.

There are one or two other items in the administration of the town government, wherein an additional saving of one to two hundred dollars can be made.

These are important questions to the taxpayers of the town of Greenville, and while we have no complaint to make in regard to the present administration, yet experience and efficiency of our Board of Aldermen, and no doubt they will make such changes as will be expedient and beneficial to the people at large.

conquers aches and kills pain.

Jno L. Wooten

does not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to his friends and customers. Indigestion causes more ill health than anything else.
It deranges the stomach and brings on all manner of disease. Kodol eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well.

Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

A Cure For Piles

"I had a bad case of piles," says
G. F. Carter, of Atlanta, Ga.,
"and consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. I purchased a box and was entirely cured. It is splendid for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers."
DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for its healing qualities.
Eczema and other skin diseases,
also sores, cuts, burns and wounds of every kind are quickly cured by it. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Ladies And Children

Who can not stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups and cathartic pills are especially fond of Little Early Risers. All persons who find it necessary to take a liver medicine should try these easy pill and compare the agreeably pleasant and strengthening effect with the nauseating and weakening conditions following the use of other remedies. Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache, jaundice, malaria and liver troubles. Sold by J. L.
Wooten.

When The Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful.
Coughs and colds are dangerous
then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E.
Fenner of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs.
I tried a number of remedies to revail but I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of my cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength."
Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A Startling Test,

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merrit of No. 10 company, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months."
Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discover-ery then cured me absolutely."
It's infallible for Croup, Whoop-Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist.
