Peculiar Murder Case in Missouri

A Nodaway county man, Dr. O C. Kessler, has been indicted for murder in the first degree under peculiar circumstances . Kessler is a physician. According to his accusers he has kept among the other drugs in his office a flask of whiskey which his acquaintances have been accustomed to drink out ing whiskey from his bettle that they did not pay for and remarked that if they did not quit it one of them would some day get a drink that would be his last. On April 24th William Simmons to ka drink from the bottle when Kessler was not in, and rithin a half hour he was dead, it is charged that Kessler had put deadly p ison into the whiskey. The case is probably withuot a precedent in the criminal history of the State.- Kansas City Journal.
