REFORM ALONG ALL LINES.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

The determination manifested Thursday night by our citizens in their ward primaries, voices the sentiment that is now uppermost in the minds and feelings of the people of this town, that is that our beloved Greenville must move forward and that the affairs of government of the town shall and must be administered in an economic and less expensive manner than has been done in the past years of our recent history.
The salaries of all officers from mayor down to lamp lighter should be made commensurate with the services performed, and an eye kept upon the small and unnecessary expenditures which in the end amount to hundreds of dollars annually. I am not undertaking in this article to attack the actions of the present or past boards of aldermen in the government of our town, but simply wish to point out the way and call the attention of the incoming board who I know wish to and will give us the most economical administration in their power.
First, gentlemen, I would make a reduction in the tax rate. Next I would reduce the salary of mayor to $250 or $300. Next I would reduce the salary of tax collector to $400, the salary of treasurer to $250, the salary of clerk to $3 for each meeting, the salary of chief of police to $40 per month and the assistant police to $30 per month.
Then I would enter in detail into the examination of prices paid for all other services rendered to the town. I would foster and encourage the fire department and look especially after the efficiency of the equipment and officers thereof.
You are a very responsible position, fraught with responsibilities that work for the good or evil of your town and community, and I am sure you will meet every requirement like brave and honest men, giving to us a clean economical administration that will respond to the good of our town.
I am not forgetful of the fact that every citizen of Greenville owes a debt of interest to our town, and that should be manifest by his making the very best citizen possible for him to make, and always working for the upbuilding and advantage of our town. Let all fac-tious cease clashing in the matters of Greenville's interest and welfare put our shoulders to the wheel as man to man and push with might and main to put our town where she rightly belongs, in the front rank of the towns of North Carolina, and indeed in truth she will be the pride of the people of Pitt county.
Mr. Capitalist, we need more factories and industries of various kinds. Mr. Laborer, we need more services rendered and more days spent in labor. Mr. Loafer, we don't need you.
And Mr. Citizen of all kinds, colors and descriptions, we need a more healthy, vigorous, demonstrative town pride. Beautify your homes and surroundings as much as possible. Plant trees, shrubs, flowers, grass and evergreens. Look after your side walks around your premises. Put on an air of NEGRO SHOOTS HIMSELF.

Domestic Troubles the Cause.
Just after noon today Joe Eborn, a colored man who has been at work as drayman for A. H. Telford & Co., shot himself on Washington street.
Joe used a pistol and fired the weapon into his right jaw. The ball ranged upward, badly tearing the roof of the mouth and lodged somewhere in the head. While the wound is a serious one it is not necessarily fatal.
Joe's rash act is said to be due to domestic trouble, he and his wife having scrappy times together and frequently being before the mayor for fighting. Joe seems to have grown tired of this kind of life.—Daily Reflector 2nd.

LOST HIS TEETH

They Went Out His Pants Leg There is a man in town who wears false teeth. Unlike most persons wearing this kind of ornament, this man did not use his artificial in chewing his food, but after "gummed it" when he went to eat. At dinner the other day he did not have on his coat, and he took out his teeth and stuck them in the bosom of his negligee shirt. Getting up from the table after finishing his meal he forgot his teeth for the time being and when he felt them later they were gone. The teeth had slipped down and worked out through his pants leg. A colored woman found the teeth and got a quarter for returning them.

by H. W. Whedbee, chairman, and C. B. Whichard was elected secretary.
Candidates were voted for one at the time. Charles Cobb and L.
H. Rountree were placed in nomination, the ballot resulting Cobb 26, Rountree 14.
J. R. Moyer and L. H. Rountree were then placed in nomination, the ballot resulting Moyer 26, Rountree 14.
Charles Cobb and J. R. Moyer were declared the nominees of the primary.
H. W. Whedbee was re-elected executive committeeman for the ward.
THIRD WARD.
The third ward meeting was called to order by J. G. Moyer, chairman, H. A. White was elected secretary.
M. A. Allen, W. A. Bowen, R.
Greene and Charles Skinner were placed in nomination.
A ballot was taken resulting as follows: Allen 42, Bowen 41, Skinner 28, Greene, 27.
M. A. Allen and W. A. Bowen
convention.
J. G. Moyer was re-elected executive committeeman of the ward.
FOURTH WARD.
The fourth ward meeting was held in Parham's warehouse.

were placed in nomination. The

THE ORPHAN CLASS.

Large Audience and Splendid Entertain-

The class of orphans from the Oxford Orphan Asylum gave a concert here Friday night in the Masonic temple opera house. The audience was very large and the children gave a delightful program.
Everything about the entertainment was good and the audience enjoyed it. The children show that they have had excellent training. The net proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $86.
Mr. W. S. Atkins, salesman in this territory of the Steiff pianos, kindly loaned a piano for use in the entertainment.
This was the first entertainment given in the new opera house, and our people had an opportunity of seeing what a beautiful and well arranged opera house the town now has. The Masonic fraternity and town are both to be congratulated.
DANIELS RELEASED.
Judge J. C. Pritchard, the new judge of the United States Circuit Court, in Raleigh Friday afternoon, released Editor Josephus Daniels from custody and dismissed the entire action brought against him by Judge Purnell.
When Judge Pritchard reached Raleigh to hear the case under a writ of habeas corpus, he asked whether Judge Purnell's order granting Mr. Daniels the right of appeal had been issued before or after his own order to Marshal Dockery to produce the body in court before him.
When informed that Judge Purnell's order had come after his own, he proceeded to decide the matter on the writ of habeas corpus, thereby rendering entirely void and invalid the last order of Judge Purnell.
This action on the part of Judge Pritchard, which was his first official act after becoming circuit judge; wins him the highest praise of the people of North Carolina.
THE LUMBERTON CASE
The much talked of case of Judge R. B. Peebles against the Lumberton lawyers, during the progress of which Judge Peebles sentenced three of the witnesses on the charge of contempt, has been settled. The three witnesses in question went to the Supreme court under a writ of habeas corpus and won their case.
This was followed by an agreement between counsel that the entire proceedings against the Lumberton bar be dismissed, and peace reigns supreme once more.

The real friend to society is the man who can think along right lines, and then who is not afraid to express his thoughts for the eyes and ears of the world. If he is writing, let him write honestly and prudently what he believes to be true and just. He may do this in broken sentences and in faulty rhetoric, yet he will not fail to send his message home to his readers. A man may speak with stammering tongue and knees smothering together, but the thoughts of an honest mind with an unselfish aim will be as seed sown in good ground.

Ants Destroy Weevils.

San Antonio, Texas, May 31.—Jose Cassiano, former county collector, who has several hundred acres of cotton in this county, is the bearer of good tidings concerning the work of red ants. Mr. Cassiano's fields less than a month ago, were alive with boll weevils. Today he said there is not a live weevil in his fields. The rows are strewn with dead weevils, which the busy little red ants are carrying away by thousands. Mr. Cassiano says a close inspection failed to show a single live weevil on a cotton plant anywhere in his fields. The ants are on the plants and the rows between in countless thousands. They seem to have completed the slaughter of the weevils and are now engaged in carrying the corpses away, probably to be stored for food.

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 7 1904.

VICTORY FOR REFORM.

The result of the primaries held in the several wards, Thursday night, was a sweeping victory both for the reform movement in taxation and expenditure of public money, also for other needed reforms.

The eyes of the people have been opened by recent discussion of changing the pay of the tax collector and treasurer from a commission to a salary basis, and a reduction of the general tax levy to a figure only necessary to meet the requirements in economically administering affairs of the town. They wanted to see these reforms brought about and they have nominated men for aldermen who can be depended upon to do this.

The men who have been nominated, and who will be elected Monday, to compose the next board of aldermen are substantial business men, men of good judgment, men of high character and above reproach, men who will conduct the affairs of the town economically and wisely. The town is to be congratulated.

Receivers Meares and McBee did not hold their seats long enough to get them warm.

Judge Purnell caused Judge Peebles to nearly get lost in the notoriety shuffle.

Capital M's and P's have for the last few days come in for much use by the linotypers.

The scribes are kept busy recording history in North Carolina as fast as it is made these days.

Meares and McBee did not ride far, but had hardly got aboard before they were told to get off.

Home news beats the foreign news, and the war in North Carolina is more interesting than that between Japan and Russia.

It must have given Judge Purnell a jolt when Chief Justice Fuller so quickly set aside his appointment of receivers for the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad.

Haman wanted to hang Mordecai and built a very high scaffold upon which to carry out his desires. But instead of hanging him he had to lead the procession and proclaim the praises of the man whom the king delighted to honor. If Judge Purnell had really desired to have heralded the praises of Josephus Daniels and make a hero of him, no more effective step than the contempt attachment could have been taken to accomplish that purpose. Joe Daniels got all the honor out of that proceeding.

Now for lower taxes. The Old North State holds her own.

The result of the primaries tell the tale.

Greenville is one on the reform list for sure.

North Carolina continues to be top of column.

A big cotton crop is planted and away goes the price.

North Carolina is about ready for the springing of the next sensation.

Cotton is getting where it takes only three figures to tell the price.

There are some folks who wish they had been on the winning side in the primaries.

It does not always pay a judge to slap a sentence on a man because he is mad with him.

When you are about to make an engagement now add the proviso if you are not in jail.

The Winston-Salem Journal is doing some good cartoon work. The pictures hit the spot.

When Charley said walk, or he would send the sheriff with the military to make them walk, they walked.

Judge Pritchard is the biggest P. in the bunch. Purnell and Peebles can spell their names with a little p. hereafter.

Injunction, mandamus, receivership, contempt, habeas corpus and other such terms are becoming quite familiar to the people of North Carolina.

Mr. R. M. Phillips has become editor of the Raleigh Post, succeeding the late editor, Mr. Furrman. Mr. Phillips has for sometime been city editor of the Post, and is a man of much newspaper experience.

Enough has been said recently in these columns, both editorially and by correspondents, to show the tenor of the people relative to saving money to the tax payers of the town by paying out less of the public money in fees and salaries to officers. The tax payers themselves will have an opportunity in the primaries tonight of saying whether they want lower taxes under the next administration. It is the duty of every democrat to attend his primary and help nominate the right men.

If lawyers and editors are to occupy the jails you may look for a movement to have the prison houses made palatial.

It is likely that all the candidates for governor will get some votes from Pitt county, but a majority of them will be for Glenn.

Judge Purnell ought to have seen at first that he was in error without waiting for the fact to be pressed upon him by higher authority.

McPee might get a job digging potatoes on some of the truck farms around New Bern. That might suit him better than trying to run a railroad.

The town primaries worked surprises to some people. There will be other surprises when the county convention to nominate candidates comes around.

If Judge Purnell keeps Editor Daniels in jail much longer at Raleigh, the newspaper man will make so much glory and get such an increase in circulation out of it that it will tempt other editors to get sassy towards judges.—Wilmington Star.

A more masterly effort is seldom penned than Editor Josephus Daniels' personal word in the News and Observer, written while in the custody of the United States Marshal. The occasion seemed to give his pen an inspiration to speak for liberty and freedom. Never were the sympathies of all the people of the state more centered upon one man.

Editor Daniels' friends have been generous in their offers of money to pay the fines; but not one of them has yet carried him the head of Judge Purnell on a charger.—Wilmington Star.

The lawyers of Washington are very angry at the President because he has appointed a justice of the District Supreme Court without paying him from among them. Yet 25,675 people of the District of Columbia are in government employ.

A strong movement has been begun in Washington and in New York in favor of the nomination of Ex-Senator Vilas of Wisconsin for vice-president at the democratic ticket. He is popular in Wisconsin, is a favorite of the immense German element in the North West, and has been U. S. Senator for six years, and twice a member of the president's cabinet, and is undoubtedly one of the ablest and best informed publicists in this country.

The report of the national department of Agriculture upon the bobwhite, is of interest. It is shown that he is invaluable as a destroyer of weed seed, and that some of the pests which he habitually destroys are the Mexican cotton boll weevil, the pests of the potato crop, the cotton worms, the chinch bug and the Rocky Mountain locust. While doing all this good he does no harm to fruit, grain or any other crop, and with good reason he is pronounced the most helpful bird on the farms. Bobwhite thus has placed upon him the imprimatur of the national government, and in the light of this report upon him, in addition to what was already known, it is seen that it is wrong to kill him under any circumstances and that to kill him is only a crime.—Charlotte Observer.

A STEEDMAN ESTIMATE.

To the Editor News and Observer: Though I do not class myself as a "manager," I am taking a very active part in Major Steedman's campaign; and I take the liberty of supplementing the estimates of the Glenn and Turner managers—printed in your issue Sunday—with one of my own. My facilities for obtaining reliable information are exceptionally good, and I have endeavored to make my figures strictly impartial.

With every county represented there will be 1,242 votes in the State Convention. These votes, I estimate, will be divided as follows on the first ballot:

Stedman	495
Glenn	415
Turner	190
Davidson	142
Total	1,242

It is proper to add that this estimate includes results in all those counties that have thus far held primaries.

Yours very truly
WM. H. BERNARD,
Editor Star.

Wilmington, N. C., May 30, 1904.

Bill Arp's Ideal Girl. Here is Bill Arp's bit of wisdom that fits every clime, every race, every nation and all time: "Once I was young, but now I am old, and I never have seen a girl who went back on her mother who ever came to be worth a one-eyed button to her husband. It is the law of God. It is not exactly in the Bible, but it is written large and lawful on the lives of many misfit homes. If one of you chaps ever run across a girl with a face full of roses, who says to tell you when you come to the door: 'I cannot get for thirty minutes, for the dishes are not wiped, you wait for that girl.' Sit right down on the doorstep and wait for her, because some other fellow will come along and marry her off, and then you lose an angel. Wait for her, and stick to her like a burr on a mule's tail."

When hauled up in court to plead to the indictment that he has also eaten of the forbidden fruit, Adam straightway turned State's evidence. Eye became the principal defendant in the action, but Adam had to work out his sentence by "making bread with the sweat of his brow." Every woman in the land is prepared to believe that Adam got his just deserts because he went against his wife in court. Be it so that the hour of her trial. Be it so that Adam made his excuse, but it did not work any more than those of his sons who stay out late and invariably get caught in the midst of their prevarications.—Wilmington Messenger.

A German official demands an explicit definition of the Monroe Doctrine. The Washington Post glibly responds, "That's easy! Thou shalt not steal!" The Post is a vicious paper, but it indulges in some snide definitions. The inside meaning of the Monroe Doctrine is of course, Thou shalt not steal anything that I may want. That man had a very accurate idea of the Monroe Doctrine. He who, when the minister asked if there was any objection to a couple being married rose and said "I object." On what ground do you, object?" asked the minister. "I want Hannah myself," said the candid swain.

Anyhow, editors, may take consolation from the fact that there are worse places than a jail. The "lions' den" and the "fiery furnace" have the jail skinned to death.—Wilmington Star.

-HELP THE BOYS.

Communicated.]

The base ball players of Greenville are organizing a ball club. This club is expected to be one of the best in the state, and to make it so there must be some ball spirit among the people. We have some of the best material in North Carolina from which to pick a team, and if we can only get the support from the people, Greenville will have a team to be proud of. Of course we don't expect everybody to help us, but we do think those who like baseball and who always attend the games, ought to be willing to contribute something towards the support of the team. Every other town in the state the size of Greenville has a ball team and the only reason we haven't one is because the boys haven't been discouraged by the bumps they get from the older men. We want every boy who thinks he can play to come out and even if he doesn't make his position he will make the other man play harder and in this way our team will be much stronger than it would if every man was assigned to his position. Now, let everybody work together and instead of knocking our team puff them up, and when Washington, Kinston, Goldsboro, and other teams come to Greenville, our people will see some ball playing that will startle them. Below is our lineup; but the position is always open for the best player. We want all the boys who are interested to be at the Perkins opera house, Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Governor Jarvis in Washington.

One of the most honored citizens of North Carolina, ex-Governor Jarvis, who was seen at the Riggs House, has had a unique political career in that he was twice governor of his state although by the North Carolina constitution the chief executive is not allowed to succeed himself in office. This happened by reason of his filling out the unexpired term of Hon. Zeb Vance who was elected to the United States Senate Jarvis being lieutenant governor at the time. At the next election he was chosen for the full term.

In answer to a Post reporter's questions as to his views' Governor Jarvis said:

There is an encouraging outlook for this election of a democratic president. If the party were wise enough to do one thing, the matter would be simple enough, but this will never be done. Grover Cleveland would be the next president of the United States beyond all peradventure if nominated. As his nomination seems to be an impossibility the next best thing is to name Judge Parker. Parker can carry New York, and that is what we are looking for since New York is indispensable to democratic success. I have not the least doubt that the North Carolina delegation at St. Louis will give him its solid vote.—Washington Post.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE.

NO MORE EXILE FOR CON-SUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Inventors.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption.
Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now preparing to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C.
P. Benson, the discoverer of the "Lung Inhalants" which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Pitt Countian Brings libel Suit for $25-000.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 7.—A damage suit for $25,000 has been begun in the Circuit court here by Col. L. D. Tyson, Speaker of the Tennessee legislature at its last session, against the Journal and Tribune Company and State Senator W. L. Ledgerwood. The suit is the outcome of the bitter fight being waged by the friends of Senator William G. Bate and the supporters of ex-Governor Beaton McMillan, who is fighting for Bate's seat in the United States senate.

Col. Tyson was colonel of the Sixth Immunes in the Spanish-American war. Col. Ledgerwood is leading the fight of the State Democrats in this county, and Col. Tyson, Attorney General Gates, and others are leading the fight for McMillan. Two delegations from Knoxville sought recognition at the recent democratic state convention, but the Tyson delegation after a hot fight, was seated.

On his return from Nashville, Col. Ledgerwood was interviewed in the Journal and Tribune, and in it he charged that Tyson and Gates argued before the credentials committee that stealing votes from Republicans was proper. This allegation contains the alleged libelous matter.

stone of the Masonic temple in Greenville and to dedicate the building. The dedication ceremony and laying the corner stone will be conducted by the Grand Lodge. At the same time the officers of Greenville Lodge will be publicly installed by the Grand Lodge, as will also the officers of all other lodges wishing to be.

It will be made a memorable day for the Masonic fraternity in Pitt county. All lodges in the county will take part in the exercises and invitations will also be sent to the lodges in neighboring counties.

Some Good Rules.

Here are some rules are worth keeping. Cut them out. Put them up where you can see them.
Look at them every day. They are written by Burgess Charles H.
Pennypacker, of West Chester, Pa., and published in the Philadelphia Ledger:

1. Don't mad. Leave the to the dogs.

2. Walk a mile a day.

3. Abstain from pork. Few Jews have cancer, tuberculosis or smallpox.

4. Be clean—in person, in and conversation.

5. Eat moderately of good food.
Get bread baked at home. Get butter from some honest farmer.
Eat all the apples you can.

6. Don't forget to speak to every body. The salvation of a good remembrance is joy to the soul.

7. Stand up straight; look people in the eye while conversing and speak the truth.

8. Respect age, honor age; treat sober people courteously.
Their hearts are tender and true, and they wish you well. Seek the advice of old people.

9. Get to heaven by starting at home and making your hearth there. Make comrades of your children. You don't need to go from home to get good fellowship.
No club, no society can supply the place of the fireside, by the evening lamp at home.

10. Sleep in a well ventilated room, doors and windows wide open.

Fire in the Country.

A little past noon today a dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house on the farm of Mrs. Nana Brown, about 4 miles from town, were destroyed by fire. The dwelling was occupied by the family of a colored tenant, and the fire originated from the kitchen stove.

Mrs. Brown had some insurance on the property.—Daily Reflector 6th.

Dr. Hyatt Farmville.

Dr. Hyatt, of Kinston, will beat Farmville at the hotel July 5th, 6th and 7th, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the purpose of treating diseases of the eye and fitting glasses. Those who are not able to pay a fee will be examined free. 6-7 4w
