Log Cabin Philosophy.

What's the use cryin' over spilled milk? 'Twould have got sour anyhow, and, ten to one, it was half water.

If we spent less time in growlin' at the world, and more in trying to make it better, we'd pull through like a railroad train on smooth rails.

Half the trouble in this world is in thinking that it's comin'. When it does come it's never so great but we can bear it, with the hope of shouting halleluia by and by.

There's no use in looking on life as a dream. The fellow that spends it dreaming has to dodge the bailiffs and never has enough cash for the gas bill.—Atlanta Constitution.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ethel Bowling, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bowling, gave a birthday party Friday afternoon. Many of her little friends enjoyed the occasion with her.

FLANAGAN-PERKINS.

Popular Couple Married This Afternoon.

Tuesday evening at his home on the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, Mr. J. J. Perkins gave a pre nuptial reception in honor of the approaching marriage of his daughter, Miss Helen, to Mr. Roy Chetwynd Flanagan. This reception was an elaborate social event and was attended by a large number of friends who called to express their best wishes to the popular couple soon to pledge their vows at the matrimonial altar.

The residence was beautifully decorated, the hall, parlor and dining room each being especially appropriate to such an occasion.

The display of handsome and valuable bridal presents was exceedingly large.

The marriage took place at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Memorial Baptist church. Here the and of artist was again displayed, the decorations, in green and white, being superb. The windows were darkened, and the soft lights about the altar gave a halo to the scene that made it one entrancing beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Higgs, died Saturday afternoon at Beaufort, where they carried the child Thursday in the hope of improving its health.

The remains were brought to Greenville Sunday evening and interred in Cherry Hill cemetery immediately after the arrival of the train. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. A. Hornaday. The pall bearers were Messrs. C. T. Munford, J. S. Tunstall, L. M. Savage and Z. P. Vandyke.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Dixon, of Rocky Mount, parents of Mrs. Higgs, accompanied the remains from that point to Greenville.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Higgs sympathize with them in their bereavement.

GELSEMIUM POISONING.

Causes Death of a Colored Child.

Dr. E. A. Moye tells us of a death that occurred in this county a few days ago under unusual circumstances. It was a child of Thad Rogers, colored, who lives on Mr. F. Ward's place about 7 miles from town. It seems that some of Thad's relatives living in the neighborhood had taken honey. They sent word to Thad to go to their house and they would give him some of the honey. He went after the honey and upon returning home his two children ate some of it. Not long after eating it they complained of being blind and dizzy and became so sick that they went to bed. Seeing their condition Thad began hitching up to come to the doctor, but in a few minutes one of the children, aged about 4 years, was dead. The other child has recovered.

Dr. Moye says the death was no doubt due to gelsemium poisoning. He says the bees had probably sucked the blossoms of the yellow jessamine, which is a poisonous flower, and in this way had poisoned the honey.

Died.

Little Sadie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Higgs, died Saturday afternoon at Beaufort, where they carried the child Thursday in the hope of improving its health.

The remains were brought to Greenville Sunday evening and interred in Cherry Hill cemetery immediately after the arrival of the train. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. A. Hornaday. The pall bearers were Messrs. C. T. Munford, J. S. Tunstall, L. M. Savage and Z. P. Vandyke.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Dixon, of Rocky Mount, parents of Mrs. Higgs, accompanied the remains from that point to Greenville.

Bright Jewel Lawn Party.

The Bright Jewels of the Methodist church will give a lawn party in Mrs. Wiley Brown's yard on Tuesday evening June 21st, 1904. The wish and purpose of the Bright Jewel Band is to make it a pleasant occasion. A general and cordial invitation extended to all to be present.

Suicide.

Mr. George C. Billips, of Norfolk, well known in this section where he used to travel frequently, committed suicide Friday by jumping off a steamer enroute to New York. He had been despondent for sometime.

Married.

On Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride in the country, Rev. W. H. Laughinghouse and Miss Annie Tripp were married. After the ceremony they came to Greenville, the home of the groom.

WANTED—350 Cypress or Juniper poles thirty-five feet long, measure not less than twenty-one inches in circumference at the top and not less than forty-one inches in circumference six feet from butt. Must be straight, skinned and knots smoothed. For further information address:

ROUNTREE FOR MAYOR.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Without in the least meaning to reflect upon any one who may be mentioned for mayor of Greenville, for two reasons I want to second the suggestion for that place the name of C. D. Rountree.

1st, Mr. Rountree is as well qualified to discharge the duties of that office as any man in Greenville, and in many respects he possesses superior qualifications. His previous experience as a conservative, cautious, prudent, painstaking business man especially commended him for the work the next mayor of the town will be called upon to discharge. His instructive knowledge of human nature trained in the right field of experience, his common sense knowledge of the application of law, and his desire above all to do right regardless of consequences, combine to make him from the business man's standpoint an ideal mayor.

2nd, The second reason is purely a sentimental one. The writer is well aware that in the push and press for place at this day, sentiment is a quantity unknown and foreign to the minds of most men, and if the subject of this sketch had nothing stronger to commend him than the fact that he was a brave, true and loyal Confederate soldier, mention of his name for the place would not be made. This fact is cited here only for the purpose of refreshing the minds of the audience elect for the town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson and Mrs. Harry Skinner received in the sitting room, at Mrs. M. D. Higgs, Miss Martha O'Hagan and Mrs. Charles Skinner in the dining room.

Misses Lettie Blow and Winnie Skinner presided at the punch bowl.

In the sitting room were displayed a large number of beautiful silver presents expressing the esteem of friends.

Greenville has no more popular people than Senator and Mrs. Blow, and it is the wish of all that their wedded life may continue for many years to come as happy as it has been through the first quarter century of their union.

SILVER WEDDING.

Senator and Mrs. Alex. L. Blow Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Their Marriage.

On Saturday evening at their home on Pitt street Senator and Mrs. Alex. L. Blow celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

Their handsome home was decorated in keeping with the happy occasion and was indeed a scene of beauty. The lawn and veranda were lighted with Japanese lanterns. The hall was draped in red and silver, the parlor in white and silver, the sitting room in white, green and silver and the dining room in pink and silver.

There were a large number of callers to extend congratulations and wish them many more happy years.

The guests were received at the front door by Miss Alice M. Blow and Alex. L. Blow, Jr., and in the hall by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams.

Senator and Mrs. Blow received in the parlor as they stood between two arches, one bearing the figures 1879 and the other 1904. Mrs. Blow was handsomely attired in gray crepe de chine trimmed in white and silver and carried pink carnations. They were assisted in receiving by Gov. and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Fulford, of Washington, and Mr. and W. H. Dail, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson and Mrs. Harry Skinner received in the sitting room, at Mrs. M. D. Higgs, Miss Martha O'Hagan and Mrs. Charles Skinner in the dining room.

Misses Lettie Blow and Winnie Skinner presided at the punch bowl.

In the sitting room were displayed a large number of beautiful silver presents expressing the esteem of friends.

Greenville has no more popular people than Senator and Mrs. Blow, and it is the wish of all that their wedded life may continue for many years to come as happy as it has been through the first quarter century of their union.

Mrs. Holcombe Dead.

The Danville Bee announces the death of Mrs. Artimata Holcombe which occurred in that city Sunday afternoon. She was the mother of Mr. Hugo W. Holcombe, former representative of the American Tobacco Company on this market, who visited him when he lived in Greenville. Mr. Holcombe's friends here extend sympathy.

Dr. Joyner Hurt.

Dr. Claud Joyner, of Farmville, came from his home to take the train here for Morehead this morning, and his horse ran away with him while driving over, and Dr. Joyner was hurt on the face, receiving right severe bruises under the eye.—Kinston Free Press, 13th.

Owing to the cool weather the lawn party that was to have been held tomorrow night by the ladies of the Episcopal church has been postponed to next week.

I will pay you cash for your Beeswax. S. M. SCHULTZ.

Came Long Way Not to Wed.

A slim, pretty Armenian girl, traveling alone, arrived at New York early last week and was detained at Ellis Island. She said that she expected to go to a city in the northern part of New York State to marry her lover, whom she had not seen in four years. She was told that she would not be permitted to leave the Island except as the wife of the young man, and that a despatch would be sent to him to come down. He came by the first train next day and expressed an enthusiastic willingness to marry the girl and take her away with him. But the girl was more than coy. In fact, she finally declared that she would not marry the young man. She was asked why she had changed her mind, and she said that her lover did not look the same to her as he had looked in Armenia. He had changed very much. In the first place, he was too fat, and in the next place—well, she did not want to marry him. She was told that if she did not she would have to return to Armenia. She looked over her fat lover once more, and then shaking her head with some appearance of sadness, remarked, "No; I cannot do it, I would rather go back to Armenia." The fat lover pleaded with her, but she was obdurate, and he went back to his home, while she was sent to Armenia by the next ship.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR

SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

D. J. WHICHARD, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter, Advertising rates made known upon application. A correspondent desired at every post office in Pitt and adjoining counties.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 17 1904.

Dowie, the Zionite, is trying to muster a following in London.

Boll weevil or what not, Taxes has already sold two bales of new cotton.

North Carolina has had a quiet season of about two weeks without a sensation.

All are confident now, but the Greensboro convention will show what it is to be over confident.

The nearer the state convention comes the more evident it is that somebody will be nominated for governor.

Carnegie donated a library to Greensboro and the city is having a squabble over a site on which to build it.

Before Senator Quay died he is said to have called his party's attention to the handwriting on the wall.—Atlanta Constitution.

What a relief to the public mind it will be when the state and national convention are both over. We will then know who to hurrah for.

Most of the Eastern war news that comes now is by way of "Chinese sources." Like all the other plenty of allowance must be made for its authenticity.

The Confederates are marching on Nashville this week, and the Tennessee capital is putting forth every effort to give them a great time in the annual reunion.

Raleigh is the centre of a great upheaval of sentiment against the lax divorce laws that prevail in North Carolina. Every section of the state should join the movement to have the divorce laws changed by the next legislature. The law that is now in force is a disgrace to the state.

Double tracking main lines is coming in for consideration by the larger railroad systems to facilitate better and safer handling of their growing business. The Atlantic Coast Line is preparing to double track the portion of its road between Rocky Mount and Elm City. No doubt this double tracking will ultimately extend along the entire main line of the road.

Mrs. Francis, wife of the president of the St. Louis World's Fair, is a level headed woman. She refused to wear décolleté gowns at fair functions, and when it was reported that she wished to set an example to other St. Louis women, she said "It is none of my affair what other women wear, but as for as myself I consider a low neck gown very poor taste on the exposition grounds."

Next week will tell the confident of winning ones where they are at.

"What Japan is fighting for" is the heading of an article in an exchange. We thought it was fighting to whip Russia.

Even a bogus interview some smart newspaper man works off on the public does not make Judge Parker speak out. He adheres to the theory that "silence is golden."

The Charlotte Observer says real estate in that city has advanced 150 percent in value in the last five years. We expect some in Greenville has advanced almost that much in the same time.

Guns in the hands of children are dangerous things and should not be permitted. The killing of a 16-year-old boy by his little 5-year-old brother, in Charlotte adds another chapter to the list of tragedies occurring by boys being allowed to have a gun.

It looks like Mr. Bryan is overstepping the bounds of propriety and decency when he goes to New York to be the chief speaker at a rally in opposition to Judge Parker. But he has said and done so much that almost anything might be expected of him.

Teddy's color scheme is continuing to have effect. The Charlotte postmaster has recommended the appointment of a negro to a position as clerk in the postoffice in that city. This recommendation was made over the heads of several eligible white men who were applicants for the position.

A severe windstorm at Whitesburg, Ky., picked up a hive of bees and dashed it through a farm house window. The hive was demolished, and the liberated bees soon made it so uncomfortable for the human occupants of the house that they were compelled to vacate it and rushed out in the storm.

Good Health.

Bob Ingersoll was once asked if he could improve upon the laws of nature and if so, how. He replied that he would make good health contagious instead of disease. The question is, "Is not good health contagious?" There are some localities where ill health is almost unknown and that are entirely free from diseases that are quite common in other sections not far removed. Good health is like good humor, it is contagious.

When a happy cheerful individual comes into a room where there is depression and sorrow, there is always a change for the better and all seem to take on to the cheerful side of things with avidity. The same is true of health and when there are many healthy people there is always more chances for the unhealthy man to get well than if he remain where all are unhealthy. —Elizabeth City Economist.

Couldn't Stand "The Second."

The Pythians in Asheville are considerably stirred up over a suit of a singular nature, which is thus reported:

On the night of April 4, 1904, District Deputy Grand Chancellor George L. Hackney, of the Knights of Pythias, in company with other Pythians of this section instituted a lodge at Canton. One of the candidates for membership in the order was John Curtis, a lumberman of Haywood county. Curtis had paid $10 initiation fee, had taken his first rank and was almost through with the second when he refused to go any further and demanded his $10 be refunded to him before leaving the hall. Little attention was paid to the demand, as it was thought that Curtis would either drop the matter or conclude taking his rank. Several days after the incident at Canton, and after Mr. Hackney had returned to Asheville, he received a letter in which the writer stated that the $10 must be returned or there would be trouble, but nothing has since been heard of the matter until Friday, when Mr. Hackney was served with a State warrant, charging him with assault on Curtis, and with taking and carrying away and still retaining the sum of $10.

Are We Losing Our Sense of Sin?

A writer in the current Harper's Weekly makes some sane comments on the recent disapproving remarks of two wellknown Presbyterian ministers about the degenerating moral standard of the American people. Our ideals of the home, it was maintained, have been lowered, we suffer from the social scourge of easy divorce; childless firesides are taking the place of family circles. Things that use to be wrong are wrong no longer. But the American people, comments the Harper's Weekly writer, are intelligent, "and they undoubtedly want to be good. If it is true that just now they are less successful than usual realizing their best aspirations, we must believe that it is only a passing condition born of vast changes, and that presently they will get their bearings again and steer a better course."

A Sad Story.

A short distance below Nashville and before reaching Murfreesboro, Tenn., our attention was called to a man standing on the railroad embankment, and a very pathetic figure. He was told concerning his sad life. When he was a young man his mother left him at home to go on a visit to relatives, but was killed in a railroad wreck.

He was told of his mother's terrible death by wire, and the shock caused him to lose his mind. It is said that for 25 years that man has stood at that place every time a train passes, looking for the return of his mother. Disappointment is stamped on the poor fellow's face when the train pulls out and leaves not the tender, loving mother of his youthful days.—Moorsville Enterprise.

Fine Cotton Crop Ruined.

Laurinburg, June 11.—A record-breaking hail-storm fell upon this county yesterday afternoon, beginning about 5 o'clock and continuing an hour. The hailstones were drifted from one to two feet deep and were five to six inches deep on the level. Hail was still on the ground this morning. The growing crops in its path, principally cotton, were totally ruined. Its sweep was some three miles wide, and is known to have been 20 miles in length. The damage cannot be safely estimated. Twenty-five farmers in town today reported their crops either wholly or partially devastated. This disaster covers some of the finest cotton farms in the state.

CROP OUTLOOK AND THE PRICE OF COTTON.

The government cotton crop report issued on the 5th instant, estimates the number of bales for the coming season—that is to say, 1904-1905—at nearly 12,000,000, while the largest yield hitherto received was only 11,176,000. As a direct result of this publication prices, of course, fell off but The New York World, viewing the matter from a general aspect, that of the sum total of exports, is rather pleased, than otherwise. It says: "At ten cents a pound, 12,000,000 bales would be worth $600,000,000, a magnificent contribution of the southern soil to the national prosperity. The United States raise two-thirds of the world's cotton and export approximately three-fifths of its product. The cotton exports for the last ten months ending April 30 were valued at $352,042,222. If the estimates are realized next year's exports, even at ten cents or somewhat below, may turn a still greater volume of foreign balances to our credit. Although December options dropped to 9.77 on Saturday morning on account of the unusually favorable report, the low prices of six years ago need not be feared even if the 12,000,000 bale estimates are actualized. The world's surplus of raw cotton has been pretty well cleaned up in spite of the excessive prices exacted by the corner operators. The demand is likely to be brisk when the American crop is marketed, if present expectations are realized the value of next year's exports of cotton may easily break all previous records in foreign commerce."

Commenting on the above, The Augusta Chronicle says: "This may all be very true, but what the southern farmer is most concerned in is the price of the raw material. Increased production carries with it increased expenditure, and hence, an 11,000,000 crop sold at a fair price means much more to the south than 12,000,000 bales sold for as much less as to make the two sums identical."

Of course, viewing the matter the narrow standpoint of profit on each bale, it is desirable that prices go as high as possible, and yet there is much to be said in favor of a large crop at a fair price as against a short crop at an abnormal figure. If the coming crop turns out only 11,000,000 bales, for instance, and the value is the same in the aggregate as though it had been 12,000,000, there is really a loss to the consumer of 1,000,000 bales and no adequate return to the farmer, for he will have to work just about as hard to produce the fewer number as the larger, the weather, boll weevil, etc., being taken into consideration. There is something exceedingly comfortable in the contemplation that the Southern farmer may bend every energy to raise all the cotton he can confidence that he will get a fair price for it. This is much better for him than that he curtail his production in order to secure an unusually high price per pound. It seems to us that 10-cent cotton means prosperity for the South, and if that price can be maintained without regard to the amount raised, all will be well. In the meantime it is up to the Southern people to manufacture every bale of cotton they can. The raw staple we export the more prosperous we will be.—Charlotte Observer.

There are only 90 cases against the Southern Railway at the present term of the Superior Court. It might be a good idea to have a regular Southern Railway term.—Greensboro Record.

It is the Mind That Sees.

How do we see? Did you ever chance to think? I have asked quite a number of people lately, and they reply: "With our eyes, of course. How else?" or words to that effect. Did you ever realize how much of our vision is mental? We see nothing properly and definitely until the mind lends its preception. We may gaze steadfastly at a picture, yet be unable to see anything but a confused mass of color, because the mind is seeing faces and scenes a thousand miles away, perhaps. Call the mental vision back, and the figures on the canvas take their proper places. At once we see the picture. Or shut your eyes. Can you not see the faces of those you love or hate as clearly as you ever see them with the physical means of sight? How many times one glances at his watch, yet when asked the time as he replaces it in his pocket is unable to tell simply because he looked only with the eyes and not with the mind also.—From an Exchange.

Army Uniforms Shown.

Every kind of uniform used in the United States army is exhibited on well-formed wax figures in the War Department's exhibit at the World's Fair. These models represent the rank and file of the army in the heat of the tropics, in the frozen north and in the temperate climate of the United States proper.

In tropical uniforms are the snowy white duck, while in the frozen regions of Alaska are the furs and the fur-lined and blanket-lined clothing of the cold climate, regardless of style and neatness. In the regular display of army uniforms are those of all rank, from private to lieutenant-general. The various dress and service uniforms are shown, and those of the several branches of the army are indicated by the colors and insignia belonging thereto. It is a most interesting display of up-to-date uniforms of the latest pattern, color and finish.

Strawberries.

The strawberry crop just closed has been the best in the history of the industry in this state. The Fruit and Truckers' Journal, of Wilmington, gives the following figures showing the extent of this industry:

The total number of refrigerator cars shipped out of this territory during the berry season of 1904 approximates 2,217 ear loads, against 1,965 cars last year. Reduced to crates the total number this year foots up 537,369 against 500,342 in 1903 in refrigerator cars. By the Southern Express Company the total number of crates shipped this season is 71,000, which, when added to the number shipped by refrigerator, brings up the grand total to 608,369 crates against 575,000 crates during the famous year of 1903. The net average to the growers per crate is about $2, and at this rate it will be seen that more than $1,216,738 have been returned to this section and distributed among the growers from the one item of strawberries alone.

Less Oratory and More Business. Old members of the House of Commons are usually of opinion that the debates compared with twenty or thirty years ago, are now more business-like and less oratorical than they were. Some welcome the change, and rejoice in the greater efficiency of the house as a governing assembly, praise the conversational style of speaking now so much in vogue as less stilted than the old. Others, regretting the loss of the picturesque, distressed that the house should be less attractive as a show, condemn the new manner as more slipshod. There is agreement that the average member takes less trouble with the form and phrasing of his speeches.—London Spectator.

is the on perfectly Tasteless CASTOR OIL sold. Taste as good as Maple Syrup. 15 cents per bottle at Dr. B. T. Cox, Winterville, N. C. 2-28 wv

The other day the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. received an order for a buggy of their nicest make, together with an especially urgent request that the work be completed at once.

Later the following facts developed: Somewhere there was a girl and the gentleman who wanted the buggy was in the last stages of a delightful delirium. But one silent spectre came to disturb his dream. He had a rival and this buggy was to aid in his defeat.

Knowing the style and finish of Hunsucker's buggies and also the harness which he always carries in stock, although as you would suppose, in a desperate hurry, he preferred to wait until this buggy could be built here, rather than buy his outfit from the stock of the manufacturers near.

Wise young man! Needless to say his job was done promptly and in such style as to satisfy his critical taste, made more so by his position. His expectations were fulfilled and today he is singing the praise of Hunsucker buggies. Try one.

He Wasn't Hurt.

Pat was working on the railroad, and was staying at the town hotel with a number of his fellow laborers. Pat's room was on the third floor, up two flights of stairs. One night a severe fire broke out in the hotel. Pat was awakened from his deep slumbers, and immediately realized his danger. He dressed hurriedly, and in his excitement he put on his trousers front side behind. He rushed to the window, and jumped to the ground. He was at once surrounded by his friends, who thought him seriously hurt. "Air ye hurt, Pat? Air ye hurt?" was heard on all sides.

Pat got up, shook himself, and then noticing the appearance of his trousers, said "O! don't belave O!m hurt, but O!m fatally twisted."—Selected.

Uncle Button Smith went out to an Indianapolis, Indiana, barber shop last Saturday where he was shaved and had his hair trimmed for the first time in fifty years, and was so changed that his wife did not recognize him and refused for several hours to believe that he really was her husband. Button Smith, who was one of the first Republicans in the State, entered into an agreement in 1854 not to shave or have his hair cut for fifty years unless the free soilers elected a President in 1856. His hair and beard grow to an enormous length, his hair reached to the ground and his beard below his waist. Both were as white as snow, and the old man attracted attention wherever he went. He celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday one week ago and he went to a barber shop and was shaved and had his hair "shingled". It is said that the hair and beard taken off filled a half bushel basket and "Uncle Button" now appears not more than sixty years old.

Quick Arrest
J. A. Gullledge of Verona, Ala was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Backlen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain.

restored vision.—New Bern Journal.

A Startling Test.
To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehopyay, Pa., made startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Wooten's drug Store.

There is a prevalence of appendicitis in Temple, Texas, at the present time that physicians are unable to account for. Two operations were performed on railroad employees for the complaint, at the Santa Fe Hospital Friday, while three more were performed in private sanitariums. The dread disease attacks adults and infants alike, and in nearly every case an operation is considered expedient to save life.

A Strong Heart
is assured by perfect digestion, indigestion swells the stomach and puffs it up against the heart. This causes shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general weakness. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures indigestion, relieves the stomach, restores the strain of the heart and restores it to a full performance of its function naturally.
Kodol increases the strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and assimilate the blood and tissues all over the system. Tones the stomach and digestive organs.
Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

"Instead of handling trading stamps if you place one fourth of one per cent of your sales in advertising in your local papers you will get better results for yourself and help build up your town."
That is what Mr. Norman H. Johnson, attorney general for the North Carolina Retail Merchants' Association, says he has advised the merchants of the state

ask the merits of this paper to test the value of Kodol Dyspepsia cure. Those people who have had it and who have been cured by it, do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends. Kodol digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.
Increases strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to contribute to the blood all of the nutriment contained in the food.
Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is pleasant and palatable.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely. It's infallible for Croup, Whoop-Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten Druggist. ### For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

The only place in the world where four States, Territories, or provinces join, is where the boundary lines of Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, and Arizona meet. It is the only "four corners" combination of political divisions of the kind on earth, and the United States has marked the place with a stone monument, the names of the four divisions being inscribed on the shaft.

An Alarm clock for 25c.

If you want to get up early and feel good all day take a Little Early Riser or two at bed time. These famous little pill relax the nerves, give quiet rest and refreshing sleep with gentle movement of the bowels about breakfast time. W. H. ### Puck's Definition of Eternity.

"Eternity!"

The voice of the preacher sank to a horrified whisper.

"An eternity of torment?" he repeated. "Do you bethink you what eternity is? I tell you it as long as it would seem to you if you are going to the theatre and were waiting for your wife to get ready, and she had eight or nine heads instead of one!"

Here several men rose, haggard, and tottered forward to the anxious seat.—Puck.
