RENTON ITEMS.

RENTON, N. C., June 22, 1904.

Misses Letha McGlohon and Donnie Abrams were here a while Sunday.

Miss Annie McGlohon spent Monday night with friends near Grifton.

Mrs. C. H. Langston spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. John Smith near Winterville.

Grover McGlohon and Luther Fletcher were in the neighborhood
Sunday.

An ice cream supper was given at the home of Chas. Mc-Glohon Saturday evening. Quite a number of young people were present and seemed to enjoy it fine.

Oscar Jolley and Miss Clara
Jolly were in the neighborhood
Sunday.

Johnnie and Archie Tripp were in the neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

C. H. Langston went to Greenville Friday.

Miss Mary Smith spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Eva Langston.

Miss Swan Nelson, after spending some time with Miss Annie McGlohon, returned home Monday.

Mrs. T. R. Norville, of Fountain, spent last week with her parents,
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Worthington.

Mr. Corbitt, of Ayden, was over Sunday.

Madison Smith and sister, Miss Nina, were here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whitfield, of Robersonville, spent Saturday night and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B.
Speight.

Stop it.

We have been asked to announce that it is wrong to accompany a girl home two weeks on the gate with her an hour afterwards. The parlor, with the lamp lowered to emblance the pokey of sentiment, laden twilight, is decidedly more pokey and inviting for "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one." So boys quit the gates, go in the house,
act like men, show your appreciation of the grandeur of life's holiest mission, seize your chosen one by the hand with fervent grasp, tell her of the beating of your heart—
rich with unbought
affection and love given of God; look down into the liquid depths of her radiance filled eyes to see if your image is floating away on the waves of endearment to the deep hidden channel of the heart, and if she drops her head, cuts one eye downward and reminds you of a one-eyed gobbler spying a suspicious bug, you may know you can "go to press" at once, as the printers say, imprint upon her quivering lips that golden type of endearment that thrills with an ecstasy known only to those who have managed to get there and of such rapture fondly shares.—Wilson News.

The Anti-Saloon League appears to be weakening its hold as the campaign warms to its work, and the old party spirit waxing stronger. It may be that some people who protested long and loud against the nomination of liquor candidates will fall by the wayside, but there are still those among us who are determined to support no candidate for office, no matter what pressure may be brought to bear, who is not out and out opposed to the liquor traffic,

R. C. Cannon and Allee Cannon went to Greenville Tuesday on business.

E. G. Carr will be away for several weeks and would esteem it a great favor if those of his friends anticipating taking out insurances would wait his return or if urgent would request them to see his brother, E. V. Cox, at the postoffice. Their kindness will be very highly appreciated.

Line, plastering hair, windows, doors, blinds and side lights at

E. E. Rouse, of Kinston, was a visitor here Tuesday.

When you need a nice, light, tough pole, say for your buggy or carriage. Call on us and make a selection. Ayden Milling & Mfg.
Co. Ayden, N. C.

The ladies have found out where to go when they need the latest quality dress goods, laces, insertion, hampers, etc. Cannon and Tyson.

As authorized agent for DAILY and EASTERN REFLECTOR we take great pleasure in receiving subscriptions and willing receipts for those in arrears. We have a list of all who receive their mail at this office. We also take orders for job printing.

Call and see Samrell & McLawhorn's nice and attractive line of groceries.

Mrs. Josephus Latham who for many lived near Greenville and is well known there, has been on a visit to Mrs. Gardner at this place recently.

Fresh light bread and butter and all kinds of nice groceries at Sam-rell & McLawhorn's.

W. M. Edwards & Co., will sell you an up-to-date set of clothes
mightily cheap.

Rev. W. L. Billro and wife who have been on a visit to their son have returned to their home in Dover.

Just the finest line of lawns
you ever did see at W. M. Edwards & Co.

We have cut the price on all our white goods. Come and buy a per day, near depot on West Avenue. Transient custom solicited—

R. F. Early, proprietor.

We regret very much to learn of the serious illness of Elder Fred McLawhorn at his home near here.
Mr. McLawhorn had a severe attack
Wednesday night of kidney colic
and as a relief his physician administered morphine, since which time Mr. McLawhorn has been unconscious all efforts to arouse him have failed. It is feared his right side is paralyzed, besides much apprehension is felt as to his final recovery.

We hear the young men say the cheapest and best fitting clothing is sold by Cannon & Tyson.

Just received another lot of boys and children's clothing at W. M.
Edwards.

Why suffer from intense headaches, eye aches, smarting and burning, when you can be permanently relieved by one pair of glasses properly fitted, by J. W. Taylor, the graduated Optician, Ayden, N. C., weak eyes, when in need of glasses, always go to him to be fitted. A little piece of glass properly arranged will often work wonders.

We learn B. C. Cox who is at Seven Springs for his health has so much improved that he will return home tomorrow.

J. R. Smith says his firm has a pair of shoes for every body. They come in by car load.

We call special attention to our new line of Tan and Ideal Kid shoes. Cannon & Tyson.

The fullest store in Ayden is that of W. C. Jackson & Co. You can get anything usually kept in a first class store from them and at prices to suit the times.

If you want a pair of all wool
pants at $1.75 go to Jackson's.

A full assortment of ladies and gent's shoes at reasonable prices at our store—Hart & Jenkins.

Go to E. E. Dail & Co's new market for beef, fresh meats, sausage, and fresh fish.

H. H. Hart, of Rocky Mount, spent Wednesday night here with friends.

For a nice cool drink go to Sam-rell & McLawhorn fountain.

Notice—For first class brick apply to E. S. Edwards & Son, Ayden, N. C. A full supply always on hand.

Miss Martha Harding, of Centerville, is stopping with Miss Helen Quinley.

The ladies are especially invited to call and inspect our line of mercerized waists; we have it in bolts also in patterns of 3yds lengths. J. J. Hines.

Ayden Milling & Mfg. Co.,
Ayden, N. C.

Charles Nunn, of Kinston, and John Nunn of Elizabeth City, are here on a visit to their brother Ben Nunn. John Nunn has accepted a position with the Ayden Milling and Mfg Co. in the thriving department. The business of the firm is constantly increasing and are continually employing new force to meet the demand made upon them.

We are told that Cannon &

etc., go to Jackson & Co's.

I wish to remind my friends that I keep a very nice line of millinery
goods, and I know that my Tessie girdles, ribbons and new kid belts will please you all. Give me a call, Mrs. J. A. Davis.

If you feel hurt, go to Jackson's and get a pair of Sels shoes. They will make your feet glad.

Friend Tommie Smith has been confined to his room with sickness for the last two days. His smiles are missed and his presence badly needed by we boys at the store.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 28 1904.

Greenville is making some history too.

How they did shout for Teddy up in the windy city.

The man who is not satisfied with the ticket nominated by the state convention is hard to suit.

The state savers who did not get it can go home and turn their attention to saving something else.

Durham is very much exercised over a lost man. There were several who got lost at Greensboro.

Don't jump up and say "I told you so." You hoped Glenn would get it but you were scared just the same.

Most of the congressional conventions so far held in this state have renominated the present representatives.

The orators should not prepare any speeches for the next convention but save their efforts for the hustings.

There are reports it is not likely that a new one in attendance at the Greensboro convention will forget it in a life time.

The boisterousness of the state convention and calling down of those who attempted to speak was not creditable to conservative democrats.

When the St. Louis convention shows Bryan that his attacks on Parker are of no avail, perhaps he will be ready to go home and keep quiet.

We hold to the opinion that an election in Greenville would pay. There is much ice consumed here and the small towns near by could also be supplied from this point.

The nomination of Hon. R. B. Glenn for governor brings much gratification to his friends throughout the state. He will make an ideal governor and will fill the executive chair with credit to himself and the state.

As the cut and dried proceedings of the republican national convention could have been put off in an hour, the crowd was probably held together three days to give the Chicago hotels a good chance to work them or to let them sober down enough to return home.

Ex-Judge Roberson, of North Carolina, must have committed the unpardonable sin from the way the republican convention in Chicago sat down upon him. They ousted him as a member of the national convention. Guess he can stand that better than he could attending receptions with negro members.

It is all over and several of them did not get it.

Lieutenant Governor Winston sounds all right.

Fairbanks got a tail hold on the rough rider's steed.

It is Roosevelt and Fairbanks on the republican ticket.

Butler shouting for Roosevelt! Just what was expected.

The left estimators can now tell how their man did not get it.

They voted all night 'till broad day light, and nominated Glenn in the morning.

Glenn got it all right, even if the message did come to us fifty instead of five ballots.

Interest will next center in the democratic national convention at St. Louis July 6th.

Now let those who did not get it throw themselves into the campaign in behalf of the winner.

The acceptance speeches that could not be aired at the convention might make good reading.

The Charlotte Observer says: "On July 28th emfwy emfwy mfwywp."

The Observer must have just started over to Greensboro to the convention.

The republican national platform says "Our administration of the great departments of the government has been honest and efficient." The postoffice department must have been overlooked in the count.

Christian Helper is the name of a new paper that has been started here by Rev. W. E. Powell, pastor of the Christian church. It will be published monthly at 25 cents a year. The initial number is very interesting.

The republicans in national convention at Chicago adopted a loud sounding platform which patted themselves on the back vigorously. One sentence says "In the Philippines, we have suppressed insurrection, established order and given to life and property a security never known there before." This is certainly news to the balance of mankind. If such a transformation has taken place it must have been during the last few hours.

With Fayetteville near the centre there are twenty one contiguous counties in North Carolina without either a saloon, distillery or dispensary.—North Carolina Baptist.

Some people see no wrong in giving a part of their salary to the man who lets out the jobs. Then too some people see no wrong in fixing or doctoring accounts, so as to make up for expenses. It is all right if they are lucky enough not to be caught.—Lexington Dispatch.

No, it is not all right. To doctor accounts is pure undiluted stealing; and the man who does it to even up ought to wear stripes.

Says the Concord Tribune: "A North Carolina preacher named Dunaway married a 'runaway' couple the other day, but there is nothing in a name." Go on away from here with your foolishness! You are just trying to get us to say that the runaway bride has Dunaway with her name. We hope that it will never be said of this couple that they have done away with the knot that Dunaway tied.—Wilmington Star.

The War Department, which was expected to court martial Lieut. Col. Pitcher, who is charged with jilting Miss Harrold, a War Department clerk from North Carolina, has decided that the affair is one in which the department cannot take a hand. It is said that Miss Harrold did not ask the department to take cognizance of Pitcher's conduct, but her friends pushed the matter.

This talk about farmers not going to town because they can't buy liquor there is all rot. It is a slander on the farmer and a measly bid to merchants to advocate the open saloon. The farmers do not go to town to get liquor, but some of them, when they get into a saloon town are tempted and tried and persuaded by the insidious saloon until they do drink and get drunk. For a town to set up such "attractions" as the saloon to get business from the farmer should be resented by the farmer as unjust to him. Let the farmer beware of the town that tries to lure him into a saloon.—North Carolina Baptist.

It is funny to see a flannel mouthed gas-bag of a fellow get up and beat the air and split his voice and swear that he is as much opposed to the contaminating influence of a still house as any man that ever walked beneath the pure blue sky. But he does not like the Watts law; it is not quite right. He says it discriminates against the country and gives the town the still house, which heretofore was in the country. This old rotten argument has long since been exploded. The country people are saying already that it is a discrimination in their favor to take the still away from them and put it on some one else. In this the country people show nothing but good sense and good horse sense at that. The time for fooling the country people is past. They do it in Russia, but it has passed in North Carolina.—Lexington Dispatch.

The trend of things in the political as well as the religious world is toward the centres of wealth and power. This is not a new nor an original statement but it is a true one, and it bodes no good to the world. Money has popularized many things that were once odious, and the eyes of the public are dazzled by its false and dangerous light. Zeb Vance said in Fayetteville years ago: "Fellow citizens, let us remember that there are some things in this world that are better than money." We have left this old doctrine and are fast coming to believe that there is nothing else quite so good. But the truth is ever the same, and that is the eternal truth. Not what a man has, but what he is, is the real question.—Charley and Childers.

Virginia-Pilot Wins in a Damage Suit Norfolk, Va., June 21.—The jury returned a verdict for the defendant in the $16,000 suit of City Councilmen Higgins vs. the Virginia Pilot newspaper for alleged slander. Higgins and three other councilmen at the same time sued for $60,000 damages. The Higgins case is the first one tried.

A Cute Answer.

The childish idea of things are original and sometimes wonderful, as bright and sharp. Master James Burch, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Burch, was asked by his mother during the storm yesterday, "what is thunder?" To which he replied with remarkable acumen: "Dess de moon talkin, to de tars ('stars')." A bright idea for one so young.

His Double Crime.

Weldon, N. C., June 23.—V. R. Valentine, a prominent farmer of Northampton county, committed suicide by shooting himself with a shot gun last night. He first attacked his wife and shot the back of her head off and she will die. The terrible tragedy causes widespread sorrow. Mr. Valentine was at one time a freight conductor on the Seaboard Air Line. He had been drinking heavily and was crazed from the effects of liquor.

To Preserve the House in Which Andrew Johnston was Born.

Funds have been received, contributed by the public-spirited persons, for the purchase of the old house here in which President Andrew Johnson was born. It is the plan to remove this to Pullen Park, and place it on a site in plain view of passengers on the Southern and Seaboard Air Line Railways, and to fit it up as a museum, in a room of which the Colonial Dames and Daughters of the Revolution can hold meetings. The old house is very well preserved, is small and can probably be easily moved.—Raleigh Dispatch.

An Appeal For Aid.

Laurinburg, June 21, 1904.—A meeting of citizens was held here to-day to discuss some means of relief, in addition to local contributions, for the farmers whose crops have been destroyed by hail. It was decided to make an appeal to the people of the State in their behalf, and ask any who may wish to respond to this appeal to forward their contribution to T. J. Gill, cashier, Laurinburg.

These crops have been wholly ruined. It is now too late in the season to replant cotton or to plant any valuable crop successfully. The people of the county are very liberal, and are doing all they can to help their unfortunate neighbors, but the loss is so large and the consequent distress will soon be so great that contributions ought to be distributed over a broader area than Scotland county. The damages from the storm will approximate $50,000. Any aid will be most gratefully received.

JONATHAN PEELE,
Chairman Relief Committee.

Some very interesting relics have been placed in the Hall of History this week, among these being the artillery uniform of Major Thomas Sparrow, a loan from his grandson; the flag of the first company from Washington to enter Confederate service, a carbine which was taken from a Federal soldier by the late Dr. Charles J. O'Hagan, of Pitt county. The growth of the collection during the past three months has been extremely gratifying and some very valuable additions are soon to be made.—Raleigh Correspondent.

The town of Durham is too large to make prohibition a success. It will not be long till they will abandon it and substitute the dispensary for it. There may be some unlawful sales of whiskey in Raleigh—it would be strange if there were not—but we believe the business done by "blind tigers" is at a minimum. We look for the sale of whiskey through the dispensary to get less and less every year. To get whiskey through a dispensary is not the most fascinating way to get it, and so, for this reason, many men will not use so much as they used to, when the social pleasures were greater.—Raleigh Times.

The World's Fair is already a great success. The attendance is beyond the expectation of the management, now exceeding 60,000 paid admissions daily, with every indication that they will exceed 100,000 daily by July. The Pike concessions report their shows generally to be now on a paying basis, much to their surprise. The exposition is a thing of magnificence beyond all precedent or description and of the greatest possible educational value to all persons of inquiring mind. Every exhibit building is free and the gate admission pays to everything except the Pike shows and special entertainments. There are over two hundred acres of exhibits free to all. State and foreign buildings are also free except that parts of such buildings are in some cases reserved for official use.

Messrs. Charles E. Johnson & Co. the well known cotton brokers of Raleigh, are quoted as saying: "Labor conditions throughout the South today are much worse than they have been for many years. They were worse last year than they were the year before. They are worse this year than they were last May." Senator Simmons after a recent trip through a part of eastern North Carolina, was quoted as reporting labor conditions in that section as almost desperate. These are parts of a general story. The South is short of farm labor and what remains is wholly unreliable. While present conditions exist a phenomenal cotton crop is not to be expected. It is not that the South's soil is not capable of producing an almost unlimited yield of cotton, but the labor to tend and to pick it is not at hand.—Charlotte Observer.

A movement is on foot to petition the next General Assembly to make a change in the arithmetic now used in the public schools of North Carolina, as it is claimed these books being used are unsatisfactory to the great majority of school teachers, public and private throughout the State.

The initiative step was taken a few days ago, it is learned at the Forsyth County Teachers Association, when the body was unanimous in its expression of a desire for a change. The book now used is Co. law and Elwood's and is published by B. F. Johnston Co., Richmond, Va.—Raleigh Times.

FLOGGED WITH COLD WATER.

In The Oregon State Penitentiary it has Proved Effective.

The cold water cure has recently been adopted at the Oregon State Penitentiary with apparently satisfactory results. For all practical purposes flogging has been abandoned. No rule has been established prohibiting flogging, and if a case should be presented in which all other punishment failed the lash might be resorted to, but this is a contingency not deemed probable. The cold water cure has been found effective in some very obstinate cases.

The cold water remedy consists of stripping the prisoner to the skin and turning upon him a stream of cold water from an ordinary garden hose. The infliction of the punishment is not as brutal as flogging, it leaves no scars nor permanent injuries, and the punishment ends the moment the water is turned on. A prisoner who has been subjected to the punishment once wants no more of it, though he may be smiling within a few moments after the ordeal is over. Governor Chamberlain and the prison authorities are highly pleased over the result of the experiments, for they have been desirous of abolishing the whip.—Portland Oregonian.

It is gratifying to see that wide attention is being given to the fact that of the six star students at West Point Military Academy at this term—C. R. Pettis, of North Carolina; W. D. A. Anderson, of Virginia; E. T. Ward, of Colorado; H. H. Robert, of Mississippi; and R. P. Howell, Jr., of North Carolina—five are from the South. A further fact in this connection which we would like to rivet upon the public mind is, that of the five from the South two are from North Carolina. There is in these statements a suggestion that something yet is to be expected from the republic down to the civil war, gave government to the country during two-thirds of the period, and of the State which, during that period, stamped its impress upon the nation through Macon and Gaston and Fredell and Badger and Mangum and Graham and Cleggman and their likes. The section and the State have not, as shown by these facts from West Point, lost the power for the development of intellect; nor have they lost "the breed of noble blood."—Charlotte Observer.

Reform Needed in Our Jury System.

The Progressive Farmer has more than once called attention to the need of certain reforms in our jury system. Last October, after the conclusion of the Haywood murder case, we argued that in the matter of preemptory challenges of venire men, the prosecution should have the same number of challenges as the defense. We showed that this is the tendency in other States, and that for the country over, the prisoner is not allowed even twice as many challenges as the prosecution, while in North Carolina he has five times as many. We are not bloodthirsty, and we would give the prisoner every reasonable concession. But it is enough, in all conscience, that he should have twelve chances to one before an unbiased jury—having only to convince one jurymen of his probable innocence to escape while the State must convince twelve jurymen of his positive guilt in order to convict. It is enough, as we then said, for the prisoner to have twelve chances to one before the jury, without the additional advantage of practically selecting that jury.

These facts and the need of action are brought more impressively to mind by a letter now before us written by an officer of long experience in our Superior Courts. The figures given by him are nothing less than amazing and ought to lead to an irresistible demand for the legislation which, as he himself declares, is so much needed.

"I understand," he writes, "that between 50 and 100 men have been killed in Watauga county since the war, 90 in Ashe, and an even larger number each in Madison and Mitchell. Yet only one man has been hung in Watauga in 24 years, not one in Ashe, probably one in Mitchell, and not one in Madison save one man carried there from Buncombe and tried in a case removed. These are not very definite, but approximate facts I obtained in that section."

"Now there are very many good citizens in that country. But life is not one of the things held sacred by a large population, and the reason for it is, in large part, that the courts are powerless to protect."

"I know this from long experience: That the state cannot get a fair trial in this state in contested murder cases. I know this. A safe, a reasonably safe remedy, lies in jury reform, or at least in jury reform and in rational and expeditious procedure. Legislation is needed."

This last sentence ought to ring in the ears of all men chosen to represent the people in our next legislature, and it would be well if our party platform makers would also remember it "Legislation is needed."—Progressive Farmer.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a physician and public health officer of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 73 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and so absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a nominal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the laudible or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, a company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid tuberculin which are used, will personally have charge of the sales of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C., June 24.

W. A. Darden is in Greensboro attending the democratic state convention.

Elias Turnage and W. W. Ormond have gone to Seven Springs to stay several days.

A. D. Warren, one of the candidates for the office of sheriff of our county, was here a short while Wednesday. Mr. Warren seems very hopeful of his nomination.

Misses Palmetto and Vera Taylor, of Hookerton, Bessie Corbett, of Mebane and Mayme Galloway, spent several days in our neighborhood this week visiting Misses Fannie Hardee and Lucy Turnage.

J. M. Ormond made a business trip to Ayden yesterday.

Miss Nannie Frizzelle has returned home from a visit at Ayden and Kinston.

Our primaries are called for Saturday July 2nd. There are a good many candidates in the field and they are all good men. Candidates for sheriff: B. W. Edwards our present sheriff, A. D. Warren and F. A. Moseley, of Snow Hill. Walter E. Lane, of Bull Head township. Register of deeds: E. D. Little, of Ormondsville township. Treasurer, Will Carraway, our present treasurer and T. E. Barrow, of Snow Hill. House of representatives, J. T. Frizzell, of Ormondsville township, W. A. Darden, of Willow Green township, and Parrott Mewborne, of Shine. It looks like our county might succeed in getting good officers from the number of candidates on the tickets.

C. L. Hardee went to Snow Hill Saturday.

Mrs. Elias Turnage and children have gone to Ayden today to visit Mrs. W. M. Edwards.

F. T. Carr and wife went to Morehead City this week. From Morehead Mr. Carr went to Greensboro to be present at the state convention.

Miss Fannie Hardee spent several days last week in Hookerton attending a house party given by the Misses Taylor.

A. S. Wooten, has withdrawn from the race for the office of register of deeds. Mr. Wooten was a strong candidate, and his chances were exceedingly good but for harmony's sake and for the interest of his party he felt it his duty to withdraw. He is a good man and would have made our county fine office. He has gained many friends by this action.

Accepted Bids.

The board of internal improvements on Thursday evening completed the examination of bids for material to construct the electric lights and water works plants. Bids were accepted for the entire equipment of both plants. The contracts go to several different firms. The work of construction will begin as soon as enough material arrives and it is hoped to have both plants installed by the end of the year.

NEW MASONIC TEMPLE.

The Laying Of The Corner Stone and Dedication.

GREAT MASONIC DAY IN GREENVILLE.

Greenville Lodge no. 284, A. F. & A. M. now has a beautiful home of its own, and Thursday, June 30, 1904, marks a date that for years to come can be pointed back to with pride by every member of the lodge. That is the date set apart for the laying of the corner stone and dedication of the temple.

At the first recollection of this writer the lodge owned a lot on the corner of Pitt and Second streets on which was a two-story frame building, the upper floor used for the meeting of the lodge and the lower floor as a school room. To many of us that old school room will ever be held in blessed memory.

This lodge building was considerably removed from the centre of town and as the years rolled on and the lodge increased in membership it was found that the quarters were too small. In planning for more convenient quarters it was decided to secure a lodge room down town. When the Rialto building was being erected arrangements were made with the owners to construct a good lodge room for the Masons on the corner near the court house.

As soon as this was completed the lodge moved in and for several years held its meetings there. In the meantime the old lodge property was used for school purposes and for awhile a school for girls was conducted there under the direction of the lodge. The building was burned while being thus used.

The first steps taken by the lodge towards securing a temple in which to make itself a permanent home was near the close of 1899. At that time the two-story portion of the Rialto building in which the lodge quarters were located was purchased by THE REFLECTOR to make a home for the paper. This purchase necessitated the Masons looking about for other quarters and the outcome was that the lodge settled upon the idea of building a temple. Arrangements were made with THE REFLECTOR for the lodge to continue using its same quarters until the plans for building the temple could be carried out.

Enterprises of such magnitude must of necessity move slowly, but the earnest efforts of the Masons were crowned with success. Their old lot was sold and they bought the Delaney lot near the court house on which to build the temple. Work on the building was started Aug. 10, 1903, and on the first of April, 1904, the lodge moved into its own quarters.

The temple is a handsome building representing an outlay of about $20,000. It is three stories, the first floor being devoted to suites of offices, the second floor a modern opera house, the third floor lodge rooms. The town as well as the Masonic fraternity are to be congratulated upon having such a creditable building.

After getting the building completed the next step was to arrange for laying the corner stone and formally dedicating the temple. Owing to circumstances at the time of starting the building the corner stone could not be laid then and was deferred until the completion of the temple.

Below is the program: Masons meet at Masonic temple oper house at 10 a. m.

Laying corner stone at 10:30 by the Grand Lodge.

Public installation of officers. Dedication of temple.

Oration by Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest.

In Honor of Greenville Ladies.

Kelford, N. C., June 25.—Mrs. George W. Baker, of Lewiston, entertained her friends delightfully on Monday evening at the Rawles hotel. The occasion was a progressive "Up Jinks" card party, given in honor of her guests, Miss Hennie Ragsdale, and Miss Sophie Jarvis, of Greenville. The first prize, a handsome fan, was won by Miss Hennie Ragsdale, Miss Laura Phelps and Miss Daisy Britt tied for the booby, which was finally awarded to Miss Phelps. Mrs. Baker was a charming hostess, and looked radiantly beautiful in white silk over taffeta. Miss Sophie Jarvis, who ranks among the pretty women of Eastern Carolina, was gowned in green silk. Miss Hennie Ragsdale was attired in white silk. She is fair, tall and graceful, and a social favorite.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

The Schools Showing Rapid Progress.

On Sunday afternoon the quarterly meeting of the Sunday school union was held in the Christian church. The attendance was not as large as it should have been, but the oppressive weather can be blamed for this.

The lateness of publishing the program was also responsible for much of the program being omitted, but there was enough to make the session interesting. E. A. Moye, Sr., gave a splendid review of the lessons during the past quarter, bringing out many good thoughts suggested by the lessons.

The reports of the schools for the quarter were excellent and indicated the growing interest in Sunday school work in the town. The increase in both attendance and collections was large. That the public may be better acquainted with the work being done by Sunday schools, a motion was adopted that the reports for the past quarter be published. These are found below in condensed form.
