A PERTINENT QUERY. One Question That a Certain Man Will Ask His Wife No More. These are a young wife in Baltimore who naturally enough prides herself upon the trim daintiness of her shoes, and in order to live up to her reputation for small hands and feet she very properly refuses to purchase footwear that would warrant the phrase "as easy as an old shoe" in first wearing. There is a period of what is termed "breaking in" her shoes, and her husband's unfeeling habit on such occasions has been to cheerfully inquire, "Why don't you get shoes to fit you?" It happened that last week the husband bought a pair of new shoes, and as he expressed it, "got fooled on the number." Of course his wife never "got fooled on the number," she made mistakes with "malice aforethought," but, anyway, there were days of woe in that flat and night of profanity and calls for old slippers and hot foot baths, all of which that woman bore with heavy meekness and silence. The other day, however, her liege lord announced that he was going to break those shoes in or die; he was going to wear them to his office and trust to the excitement of business duties to divert his mind from any possible discomfort he might experience. The wife humbly suggested that he take an old pair of shoes along in case of emergency, but he scorned her remarks and departed. Three hours later an office boy appeared at her home with a laconic message to send down the oldest, biggest and easiest masculine footwear the house afforded. The request was complied with promptly, but accompanying the parcel was a delicately perfumed note containing the tenderly solicitous query, "Why don't you get shoes to fit you?" - Baltimore Sun.

A Prize. The only son had just announced to the family his engagement. Mommer—What, that girl! Why, she squints. Sister—She has absolutely no style. Auntie—Redheaded, ain't she? Grandma—I'm afeared she's flighty. Uncle—She hasn't any money. First Cousin Jim—She doesn't look strong. Second Cousin Jane—She's stuck up. Third Cousin Jezebel—She's an extravagant thing. The Son (thoughtfully)—Well, she's got one redeeming feature anyhow. Chorus—What's that? The Son—She hasn't a relative on earth. Popper—Grab her, my boy, grab her.—Pittsburg Post.

An Appeal For Clemency. "I want you to discharge that hired girl," said Judge Blixham. "I said I wanted spareribs for dinner this evening, and here she has cooked a mess of pork chops!" "Probably she misunderstood," suggested Mrs. Blixham. "It is the same kind of meat anyhow. By the way, before I forget it, let me ask you what you did with that man you told me about the other day who was up before you for burglary?" "I had to let him off on a technicality. There was a flaw in the indictment." "Well, can't you let Norah off on a technicality this time?" The judge scratched his chin and took the case under advisement.—Chicago Tribune.

One Accidentally Kills the Other. A distressing accident occurred near Winterville, Saturday afternoon, in which a boy lost his life. Ollie Kittrell, a son of C. T. Kittrell and Louis Crawford, a son of David Crawford, both about 16 years of age, were out together shooting at the mark with a breech loading gun. While young Kittrell had the gun young Crawford happened to step in front of it just in time to receive an entire load from the gun in his left shoulder and was almost instantly killed. Young Kittrell was almost wild with grief over the accidental slaying of his playmate. Both families are greatly distressed. The victim of the accident was buried Sunday. Report of Baracac. TOBACCO MARKET OPENED. Fine Beginning of New Season. The Greenville tobacco market began the new season today under most favorable conditions. The sales were not large, but this was as expected, the farmers being nearly a month later in their curing than last year. An encouraging feature of the sale was the good prices that prevailed, being fully fifty per cent higher than that at the opening a year ago. Most of the offerings today were first primings, yet the prices ranged from 3 to 17 cents which was very gratifying to the sellers. Smokers or first primings, green or dark, 3 to 4 1-2 cents; bright and clean smokers 5 to 9 cents; bright and clean cutters 10 to 16 cents. The first sale was at the Farmers warehouse, proceeding through the other houses in regular order. There is a good force of buyers on the market and they are going to keep prices here up to the best. As business is expected to be light for the first month of the season the warehouses have not yet put on their full complement of employees, but as at present constituted they are as follows: CENTRE BRICK Brinkley & Hooker, proprietors. W. T. Burton, auctioneer. E. B. Thomas, book keeper. H. S. Hardy, floor manager. A. L. Potter, watchman. PARHAM Parham, Foxhall & Bowling, proprietors. Ols Forbes, auctioneer. R. E. TOBACCO BOARD OF TRADE. Officers Elected for the New Year. The Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade held its first meeting of the season this morning. The following officers were elected: President—M. A. Allen. Vice President—E. B. Ficklen. Secretary and treasurer—C. W. Harvey. The following new members were added to the board: G. S. Pritchard & Co., Skinner, Garden Tobacco Co., Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co., and J. G. Bowling. It was decided that at present single sales will be run beginning daily at 9:30 a. m., it being left with the sales committee to change to double sales and begin at 9 o'clock whenever deemed expedient.—Daily Reflector 2nd. ACCEPTED THE CHALLENGE. And Won a Huge Watermelon. Four little girls while down town Tuesday evening, were admitting some 50-pound watermelons. By way of a banter they were told they could have one of them if they would carry it home. The challenge was accepted, and borrowing a bag the huge melon was placed therein, a little girl gathered hold of each corner and off they went taking it home a third of a mile distant. The trip was safely made and the little girls were proud of their achievement as well as of the melon. They created much merriment along the way. Victim of an Unfortunate Accident. Mr. C. A. Moseley, the general Charlotte traveling man, spending his vacation with his family at the old Mosely homestead, at Drake's Branch, Va., met with a serious accident Tuesday, sustaining a severe sprain of the hip. The information came in a private letter and details of the accident were not given. The letter states that Mr. Moseley is confined to his bed and his physician insists upon absolute rest and quiet. The many warm friends of the splendid gentlemen will hear with genuine sorrow of his misfortune and will wish for his speedy restoration.—Charlotte Observer. Mr. Moseley is a brother of Mrs. A. T. Lipscomb, of Greenville. Charlotte Officer Killed by Boy. Charlotte, N. C. Aug 2.—Asth result of an altercation with a 14-year old boy, Officer J. H. Brown, who has been a regular patrolman for the past six months, died this afternoon. Paul Biggers, a news-boy, had some words with Officer Brown this morning, the trouble arising from a bull dog owned by Biggers. During the fight Biggers struck Brown in the stomach with his head, causing injuries from which the officer died five hours later. The boy is held for murder and the trial will take place tomorrow morning. Big Sale Going On. The two page advertisement going out as a supplement to THE REFLECTOR of A. E. Tucker & Co's, great inventory sale is attracting much attention to his store. It is a stroke of advertising enterprise that has not before been equalled in Greenville. People visiting his store are finding unusual bargains.

ODD BELIEFS OF THE ABORIGINES AS TO THEIR ORIGIN.

An interesting report of the investigations by Professor Baldwin Spencer into the question of "totemism" in Australia is given in a Melbourne paper. Various myths, it seems, exist as to the origin of the totem. The aborigines believe that in what they call the dream times there lived beings, half animal, half plant, which were transformed into human beings and wandered about making the natural features of the country. Each ancestor carried a stick, and with that stick the spirit of the ancestor is associated. Each place where an ancestor has wandered is believed to have a spirit, such, for instance, as an emu spirit, a kangaroo spirit, etc., and each child born in that particular place is, say, an emu child or a kangaroo child and so on. Thus it is that each child has its totem.

As to the ceremonial, if a woman or child see it, the eyes are put out or death inflicted. The professor was initiated by one group and was thus permitted to see the ceremonies. The initiators bedaubed themselves with ocher, down and their own blood and, after going through a grotesque dance, related to the novices the doings of the ancestors. The aborigines believe that reincarnation is continually going on, so that many living people are accepted as reincarnations of some celebrity. As to the religious or magical aspect, every person believes he has influence over the animal or plant after which he is called, even to the extent of causing it to increase. As a rule, the totem is edible, and in the great majority of cases the totem is the food supply, wherefore the power of increasing the totem is of importance. The aboriginal rarely eats his own totem, but he has no objection to giving it to others to eat.—St. James' Gazette.

Squaring Accounts.
An office boy in London owed one of the clerks three halfpence.

The clerk owed the cashier a penny.

One day the boy, having a halfpenny in his pocket, was deposed to diminish his outstanding indebtedness and paid the clerk to whom he was indebted one halfpenny on account.

The clerk, animated by so laudable an example, paid one halfpenny to the cashier to whom he was indebted one penny.

The cashier, who owed the boy a penny, paid him a halfpenny.

And now the boy, having his halfpenny again in his hand, paid another third of his debt to the clerk.

The clerk with the said really "current" coin squared with the cashier.

The cashier instantly paid the boy in full.

And now the lad, with the halfpenny again in his hand, paid off the third and last installment of his debt of three halfpence.

Thus were the parties square all round and all their accounts adjusted.—London Tit-Bits.

An Easy Way Out.

"So this is your birthday? How old are you?"

"Don't you know," she indignantly replied, "that it is a sign of bad breeding to ask a lady about her age?"

"Oh, no; not in all cases. It is only unmannerly to ask how old a lady is when one has reason to believe she is old enough to be ashamed of it."

Then she invited him to sit down so they could have "a nice, long visit."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Small Matter.

French Maid (to inquiring friend)—"Oui, madame is ill, but ze doctor haf pronounce it something very trifling, very small."

Friend—"Oh, I am so relieved, for I was real anxious about her. What does the doctor say the trouble is?"

"Let me recall. It was something very little. Oh, oui, I have it now. Ze doctor says zat madame has ze smallpox."—Woman's Home Companion.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all other methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 1904.

Atlanta has opened war on impure milk. That is timely

The farmers are in Raleigh this week learning how to farm.

Home grown beef is better than the western kind, anyhow.

Now if you have any bids to submit for the lease send them to the governor.

There are some big liars connected with the war news bureau.

If General Kuropatkin keeps on retreating he may get back to Russia.

Judge Parker already knows it, but they will tell him again on the 10th.

Judge Parnell has changed base and says the governor can lease it if he wants to. It's up to the governor.

The very same, Tom Toggart, sounds like a fellow that can do things.

Wilmington is making a move to get separate apartments for white and colored people on the street cars.

Wilmington offers refuge to the saloons that are expelled from other towns.

Kipling is in the public eye again with a new poem. The remarkable thing about it is that it is a good one.

Now the warning is raised to be ware of oats coming from Texas, as there is danger of the boll weevil coming along with the oats.

The fellow in this state who goes over to the republicans expecting pie is placing his hopes on slim possibilities.

Just as if there were not already parties enough, a call has been made for a convention in Chicago on the 29th to launch a new labor party.

With firemen from all over the state in that town armed with their fighting apparatus, Salisbury should feel pretty safe this week.

The denial of the fall of Fort Artler has come. About what was expected, as you don't know when to believe any of the war news.

Ex-Governor R. E. Patterson, of Pennsylvania, died Monday of pneumonia. Though his state is largely republican, he was twice elected democratic governor.

Another bank wrecker is about to get his due, the court having given Bruse, who broke the national bank at Asheville a seven year sentence.

Judge Parker has already been the recipient of a North Carolina rabbit's foot, and a Charlotte man has sent him a miniature bale of cotton. Now somebody send him a big watermelon and he will be strictly in it.

A notable event of the near future is the encampment of the state guard near Morehead. Two regiments will be in camp there from the 9th to the 19th.

New York is coming in line with western ideas. Right in central park the other day five masked robbers held up two men at the point of pistols and took what money and valuables were on them. If they had tried their hand in Wall street the haul might have been larger.

The manner in which F. Hornaday edited THE REFLECTOR during the absence of the editor, last week, shows that he has talent for newspaper work. He should not hide that talent under a bushel nor bury it in a railroad office, though he seems to have fascination for the latter.

It is deplorable for one man to kill another, but the Guilford county farmer who shot and killed a negro who was in his hen house filling a bag with fowls, ought to be excused by the law. A man should have the unquestioned right to protect his own premises and property against thieves.

Buncombe county comes forward with the boss case of "suing the company." A man in that county was walking on a railroad trestle. A train came along and the man jumped to keep from being run over. Now he is suing the railroad for damages. There is too much of such fool business allowed in the courts.

Bethel is advocating two men for nomination for the legislature by the county convention. Both are good men and much can be said in praise of each, but if Bethel township would get together and come up to the convention united for one there would be much better chances of securing his nomination than if the strength of the township is divided. THE REFLECTOR does not want to be construed as dictating to its Bethel friends, but we throw this out as a suggestion. Remember the proverb that "in unity there is strength."

At this advanced age of civilization it is remarkable with what success train robbers continue to ply their avocation. A few days ago in New Mexico robbers boarded a train, lined up the passengers and relieved them of their valuables; they dynamited the express car robbing that also, and got away with their booty.

BETHEL ADVOCATING TWO.

These are for Brown. BETHEL, N. C., July 30, 1904. EDITOR REFLECTOR: After reflecting the field North of Tar river, in our humble judgment we have in the person of our young found Julius Brown, a capable and efficient man to represent us in the next general assembly of North Carolina.

He is universally popular and has also a large circle of influential family relatives which make him the more available. Now let the democracy nominate him and it will not only do a graceful act, but will help a deserving young man—one who will make us an active, energetic representative, and will in no wise cause us to regret the selection.

J. R. BUNTING.
R. J. GRIMES.

THIS FOR BRITTON.

BETHEL N. C., July 30th, 1904. EDITOR REFLECTOR: There are some things in regard to the candidacy of T. G. Britton who offers to represent the people of Pitt county in the house of representatives, that the voters of the county ought to know. He is a young man of exceptionally good character and would not only render efficient service as a legislator, but his amicable disposition, intellectual strength and high moral character would easily put him in front ranks of the ablest and most successful law makers of our State. Mr. Britton not only graduated with honors from Chapel Hill, but personally he has the highest appreciation of the faculty.

Pitt county has reasons to congratulate herself upon having such a representative, and especially as the success of any people largely depends upon the character of their representatives. As Mr. Britton, however, is a comparative stranger to some of the voters of the county I feel that the foregoing facts are really due to all concerned.

BETHEL.
Would Be Ashamed to Meet Judas Coming Down a Hog Path.

It really looks like the poorest sort of a Southerner cannot help drawing the line against Roosevelt when it strikes at his home like the Chicago platform does in its negro plank. Judas Iscariot's self respect reasserted itself when, self-condemned and feeling meaner than a suck-egg dog, he went out and hanged himself. It is to be hoped that there are very few Southern men who would be ashamed to meet Judas coming down a hog path.—Wilmington Star.

Husband And Wife Do Not Speak.

In a trial before a justice of the peace here yesterday an elderly couple were put on the stand as witnesses in behalf of a neighbor, and it was developed that they had not spoken to each other in fifteen years. The man said in explanation that he and his wife had had a little quarrel fifteen years ago and he had said in his anger that if he ever spoke to her again he hoped God would strike him dead, and now he is afraid to talk. The conversations are carried on through the children.—Monroe Journal.

At their regular monthly meeting Thursday night the board of aldermen will levy taxes on real and personal property for the fiscal year. The citizens hope the tax levy will be made as low as is expedient. A low tax rate holds out inducements for people to locate in a town, while a high rate is calculated to keep them away.

RAILWAY VALUATION

The corporation commission has announced this year's assessments of the railway and other common carriers. The total railway mileage is 8,803, divided as follows: Atlantic Coast Line, 948; Seaboard Air Line 612; Southern Railway owned lines 689, and leased lines 690; miscellaneous railroads, 652 miles. The total valuation of railways is $64,483,073. Other valuations is the Western Union Telegraph Company $727,924; telephones $623,702; electric light and gas companies, $905,800; street railways, $564,190 water works, $401,125; Pullman Company 163,401; Southern Express Company, $492,109; steamboat companies, $179,605; bridge and canal companies, $222,500; grand total, $74,377,522. The increase over last year is $592,826. There was 56 miles of new railway constructed, of which the Suffolk & Carolina is 24; Transylvania, 11; Durham & Charlotte, 3; Cape Fear & Northern, 4; Chowan & Aulander, 3; Raleigh & Cape Fear, 7; South & Western, 4."

The attack being made on the south by the republican party on account of alleged disfranchisement of negroes comes with ill grace from the party which long ago disfranchised the negro in the District of Columbia. In order to get free from negro voters and voting the republican party in congress disfranchised everybody in the district white and black, but everybody knows that the real purpose was to get rid of the negro as a voter.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Here are the list of candidates to be voted for next November: Democratic, Parker and Davis; Republican Roosevelt and Fairbanks; Prohibitionist, Swallow and Carroll; Socialist, Debs and Hanford; Socialist-Labor, Corregan and Cox; Populist, Watson and Tribbles; Negro Liberty, Scott and Payne.—Ex.

One of the peculiarities of the labor question is that the striking workman is willing to sleep in a dry goods box in order that the walking delegate may have a room with a private bath at a high-class hotel.—Winston Journal

The fact that the Democratic party has no wings at this writing is not properly the subject of a pun. The point is that there are no party divisions to hinder the progress toward victory.—Raleigh Post

Don't need any wings now. Looks like we can win in a walk this time.

A Bottle of Lithia Water.
(With compliments to the Roberson lawyers).
When our good Parson Bill drank more than his fill of something which he hadn't tasted, all the members went around in their sympathies profound— Says the parson: "Twas lithia water!"
Booby Pat and Regged Tim stood before a mayor grin,
Who charged them with drunken disorder.
"Faith, yer honner!" cried Pat, "You kin jes' stop at that: I will swear 'twas lithia water."
In a neighboring town There are lawyers of renown
Yet they sometimes get out of order:
And they'll never be exempt From the charge of contempt
While his honor drinks lithia water.
Against this old judge They hold quite a grudge:
They say that HE gets out of order,
"But, dear Sheriff Mack," Said his honor, with a sneak, "It was a bottle of lithia water."
LEN SEAWELL.

Glad To See Him.
We had the pleasure of a call from our good friend, Mr. O. L. Joyner, of Greenville, N. C., last week. Mr. Joyner was in the city on business for his company, the Tobacco and Planters Mutual Bail and Fire Insurance Company of which Mr. Joyner is president.
Mr. Joyner reports his company in a most prosperous condition. He says this has been a great year for hail storms, and farmers have been making frequent calls on the treasurer.
Hail insurance is becoming more popular each year and farmers everywhere are becoming more impressed with their value and importance. Mr. Joyner is a tobacco dealer and warehouseman at Greenville, where he does an extensive business. He is enthusiastic over the success of the Farmers' Co-operative Warehouse Company, which he organized, Mr. Joyner is one of the State's most progressive men, and we are always glad of an opportunity to talk with him.—Winston Tobacco Journal.

Judge to Resign.

It is understood that Judge George H. Brown, Jr., who is at present the Judge of the First Judicial District, and one of the Democratic nominees for associate justice of the Supreme court, will shortly tender his resignation to Governor Aycock to take effect on October 1st, says the News and Observer.
It is highly probable that the First District will then hold an election and nominate a judge, who will be elected for the full term, instead of at the expiration of Judge Brown's term, as would be the case if the new judge were appointed by the governor in stead of elected.
