EPWORTH LEAGUE EXCURSION.

Reported for Reflector

For the past few weeks the members of the Epworth League of the Greenville Methodist church have been planning a naphtha launch excursion down the river. Recently it was decided to take advantage of the bright moonlight nights of this week and have a moonlight trip Monday night, August 22nd.

So promptly at the appointed time with about fifty light-hearted excursionists the good ship Alteiro weighed anchor and "moved majestically out upon the bosom of the deep." The trip down the river for six or eight miles was uneventful. Gay couples chatted, the more musically inclined sang songs, Capt. Wiley Brown shouted his orders, the engine coughed rhythmically and everything was lovely.

As the human freighted vessel moved over the waters bejeweled wavelets danced in its wake and the luxuriant foliage bowed gracefully from the shores. The little fishes scampered about telling their neighbors of impending troubles and gentle breezes wafted soft sighs from the tree tops, and if the gay crowd had listened they might have heard these same trees whispering that the singing and laughing would soon cease, and that boats do not always come in as pleasantly as they go out.

About a mile from the home dock when the boat was bravely facing the current on its return and when Capt. Brown was calmly munching crackers, and First Mate Ellington with hat in hand was contemplatively gazing at the moon's reflection in the sparkling water, suddenly there was a quiver, a jerk and the odorous puffs of the engine ceased. The boat began to drift but Chief Engineer Ed Harris soon had the boat under way again.

Soon the home dock was sighted as the boat swung round a bend, and when the boat was in the stream only a few yards from the desired dock there was another quiver, another jerk and again the engine's puffs ceased to be heard.

This time the vessel was hard aground. It seemed so bad to be so near and yet so far. The waters sparkled, the fishes laughed, the plumed trees bowed and the tired excursionists groaned. There was a council of war and heroic Chief Engineer Harris agreed to swim to the dock and bring another boat to the rescue. Now Second Mate Jarvis Harding, who was deeply interested in the bow of the boat suddenly became aware of the fact that something had happened and Boatswain Tom Duke began to prepare to depart.

Soon the chief engineer's staunch little boat was alongside. After several short trips the excursionists were all again on firm earth and as a new day began they wended their ways in the wee sma' hours to their respective homes.

Wait for It.

The big excursion to Norfolk will be run by Little & Kittrell on September 1st, returning 2nd. There will be ten coaches, half of them exclusively for white people and half for colored. The coaches will be separated by a baggage car in middle of the train. Fare for the round trip only $2.

BOISTEROUS SATURDAY.

Policemen Kept Busy With Disturbers.

Saturday was the busiest day in police circles that has occurred in sometime. The first disturbance was in the afternoon when several negroes engaged in a free-for-all fight which resulted in no serious damage.

Later a white man who had on more liquor than is needful created some excitement by using a pistol too freely. A pistol ball through a neighboring store window was one result of his wreckless shooting.

Again after dark there was more excitement when two policemen passed up the street carrying a woman to the lock-up. The woman cried piteously as the trio marched along, a crowd of jeering boys following in the wake and adding to the noise.

Altogether it was a boisterous Saturday evening.

Seven Lost in Arizona Flood.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 20.—It was known today that seven lives at least were lost in the flood that swept through the town of Globe,
Ariz., and surrounding country.
The known dead are: M. N.
Mitchell, Southern Pacific Railway
machinist, and his wife; O. D.
Wilson, clerk; Charles Sims, John
Epley, a Mrs. Hurd and Miss Moody.

According to the report of the Courier who brought news of the disaster to Bowie, others were drowned besides those named in the foregoing list, but their names are not yet known. The Gila Valley and Globe and Northern Railway tracks were washed out for three-quarters of a mile. O. D.
Wilson and Stanley Meutyer, by heroic work, saved many lives.

Wilson saved a young woman whom he was to marry, and is reported to have then lost his life in trying to save another.

The property loss will probably reach half a million dollars. Large forces of men are reconstructing the railroad and telegraph lines.

Truth in Reference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1904.

With wheat pulling around $1.10, As the notifications are now over the next question is, where is flour? the campaign can settle down to business.

A number of prominent people living along the line of the A. & N. C. railroad are forming a syndicate to make a bid for lease of the road. They have faith in what can be done with it. Already there are three bids in for it.

The Hon. John H. Small, Democratic Congressman from the first district, who was re-nominated on Wednesday at Edenton, parts his hair in the middle.—Wilmington Star.

But he keeps his head level all the same.

Divorces in Japan, which can be obtained on the most trivial pretension, have somewhat diminished in number in recent years, but they still occur at the rate of one to every three marriages. In 1902 there were 349,489 marriages and 113,489 divorces.—Ex.

This hot spell is a strong reminder of the one in August, 1887, that terminated in the big earthquake. It is hoped this one will not have a similar ending.

A furious gale struck the city of St. Paul, Saturday night. Twelve persons were killed, many injured and property damaged to extent of a million dollars.

The merchants' association of Asheville adopted a resolution that for one year they would stop using "fake" advertising schemes and stick to the newspapers as the best means of publicity.

That is a pretty howdy do some of the papers are telling that the Czar's recently arrived son is not a boy at all but only another girl. The story goes that the Czarina's child was really a girl, and that the Czar was so anxious for the effect it would have on the army to announce that an heir to the throne had been born, that the new royal girl baby was traded for the son of a peasant woman born about the same time. But the story really seems incredible.

There is some talk of an investigation being held to fix the blame for the killing of the two soldiers who lost their lives while riding on top of the car between LaGrange and Goldsboro. It does not look like any investigation is necessary, as it is very plain that the men themselves were alone responsible for the loss of their lives. They were drinking and climbed up on the cars both in disobedience to military discipline and against the rules of the railroad company. If they had been in their places as soldiers ought to have been, the disaster would not have taken place. They lost their lives by their own willful disobedience and carelessness and no one else should be blamed.

JIM FLEMING FOR THE SENATE.

HOUSE, N. C. Aug. 23rd 1904.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

A word to the wise is sufficient. I know the feeling of the democracy of the North side of Tar river because I have the opportunity to hear the people express themselves.

The nomination of Jim Fleming for the senate will do more toward restoring peace and harmony in democratic ranks than anything that can be done. It is talked over here that he does not want it and that it would be a sacrifice to him to go to the senate, but that is all the more reason why they want him.

They know that he is in sympathy with and closely allied to their interests and they have faith in both his honesty and ability and nothing else will satisfy them. Let's nominate Jim Fleming for the senate and two other men for the house as near to his stripe as possible, if it takes us from now until midnight, Sept. 10th to do it, and then the solid North side of Tar will continue to roll up her democratic majorities.

L. A. RANDOLPH.

LEON W. TUCKER FOR SHERIFF.

GIRMESLAND, N. C., Aug. 23.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As our primary and county convention dates have been announced, and the time is almost at hand for the democrats to choose whom will serve them as county officers for the next two years, I place in nomination for sheriff of Pitt county Leon W. Tucker, our present capable and clever deputy sheriff. Mr. Tucker needs no introduction to the people of Pitt county, and if integrity of character, honesty, diligence and energy count for anything in selection of a candidate for this office, then I am sure that Mr. Tucker will measure up to the full requirements.

His clean, capable record as deputy sheriff under two democratic administrations is before the people. He comes from a long line of good old democratic ancestry. He is decidedly the strongest candidate in Chicod township, and I think he is the strongest candidate in the county. Let us nominate and elect him and democracy will honor herself by so doing.

Dr. C. M. JONES.

A Great Section.

The more we think of it and the more observations we make, the more thoroughly we are convinced that Eastern Carolina is a great and promising section of North Carolina. Any intelligent man can easily demonstrate to his own satisfaction that he can produce almost anything in this section that will command money on the markets.

Half a century ought to be, and is, one of the leading agricultural counties of the State; but somehow the people do not seem to have confidence in the possibilities of their lands. Do much for your land and it will do much for you. This will hold true until the laws of nature are reversed.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

This applies with equal force to Pitt county.

Editor Bryan throws out the suggestion that Mr. Cleveland has insulted the Democratic party by talking about its return to sanity. But the party has no right to complain, for that is the very thing upon which it has been congratulating itself ever since the St. Louis convention.—Raleigh Times.

A Texan wandered into the white house the other day and announced that he wanted the president to reform society people. He was promptly, and, of course, properly, locked up. Even a Texan should keep his visions within the bounds of possibility.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Rome Tribune thinks the "Japs have carried Hig Chang, low cheng, Jack and the gameeki." It begins to look that way.—Atlanta Constitution.

A New York policeman who found two women fighting over the possession of a monkey clad in kimono gave the simian to the one it ran to. Had the monkey exercised the usual trait of rushing to its kind that policeman would own it now.—Atlantic Journal.

No Mourning.

The will of the late Dr. J. H. McAden, was probated in Charlotte Monday. He left an estate valued at a quarter of million dollars. The following extract is taken from the closing paragraph of the will:

"I make this request that none of my family shall wear mourning for me after my death. I have tried through life to school myself to look on the bright side of every picture and make life as bright and pleasant as possible for all my family and I do not want recollections of me shrouded in darkness."

ENDORSES FLEMING.

SEVEN SPRINGS, N. C. AUG. 27.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I have read with pleasure the letter of Mr. Randolph endorsing Jim Fleming for the senate.

I came out in a letter for him for the senate two years ago. I thought it was wise for us to nominate him then, and I think I can safely say I know it is wise for us to nominate him at the coming convention.

He is amply qualified in every way for the position and I endorse fully the statement made by Mr. Randolph, that his nomination will satisfy North side of Tar river, and do more toward putting down the threatened disunion in democratic ranks than any thing that can be done by the party at the convention.

My township, Pactolus, is full of his kinsmen and friends, who have the greatest confidence in him, and I believe he will carry every democratic vote in Pactolus township at the primary and I am sure he would pile up a handsome majority at election if we nominate him.

I don't believe the people or any part of the people, will make any mistake by trusting Jim Fleming as their representative in the senate next time, and I hope the other townships of the county will endorse him at the primaries on the 10th of September as Pactolus will doubtless do, and make his nomination unanimous.

In this connection, I desire to appeal to every white man who has heretofore affiliated with the democratic party to go to the primaries and vote for his choice and stop fussing and discussing their differences upon local questions.

I will thank you, Mr. Editor, to publish the above letter in your paper. Very Respectfully,

M. T. SPIER.

Dawson Won Out.
Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 25.—As neither of the six applicants for the office of sheriff received the requisite number of votes necessary to a nomination in the primary Aug. 4th, another primary was held yesterday to choose between the two leaders in the former primary. It was a hard fought contest and both sides claimed a majority of just a few votes until the final result showed Dawson to be the successful man. He won from Jenkins by probably a hundred votes.

It is Now "Oak City."

Information has been received that the station on the Weldon and Kinston railroad formerly known as Goose Nest has been changed to "Oak City." This is a much more euphonious name for a railroad station in the good and prosperous county of Martin.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

McNeill President.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—J. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, N. C., was today elected president of the National Firemen's Association. The next meeting will be held at Kansas City.

RENSTON ITEMS.

RENSTON, N. C., Aug. 24, 1904.
Everybody feels refreshed today owing to the rain yesterday afternoon which cooled the atmosphere.

Most of our farmers have finished curing the golden weed and are busy saving fodder.

E. E. and George Dail will take in the excursion to Norfolk today and tomorrow.

Miss Nora Laughinghouse, of Greenville, is the guest of Miss Annie Hardee this week.

Miss Delia Smith, of Ayden, came Saturday to spend a few days with Miss Allie Dail.

J. A. Jarrell, after a week's vacation at home, returned to Farmville Monday.

The guests at E. E. Dail's had the good fortune to enjoy a tableaux scene—"In the shadow of the pines" Sunday afternoon.

Misses Pearl and Swan Nelson, of Grifton, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Annie McGlohan.

Miss Annie Hardy, after spending a very pleasant week in Greenville, returned home Monday.

E. E. and Mrs. Dail spent Tuesday afternoon in Ayden.

Miss Addie Owens, of Saratoga, came Saturday to visit Miss Allie Dail. She returned home Monday leaving, at least, one sad heart.

Miss Fannie House, of Parker's chapel, is visiting Misses Cornelia and Addie Nobles.

A large crowd attended the quarterly meeting at Bethany Saturday and Sunday.

SALES INCREASING.

Greenville Best Market in the East.
The past week has been a good one on the tobacco market, and the sales were larger today than on any day since the season opened. Prices are not what might be called high, the best grades offered being around 20 cts., but are so much better than last season that the farmers are pleased as what they get.

As the farmers are now about through with their curing, sales will grow larger as time can be had for grading.

John Walters and M. O. Nelson, warehousemen of Danville on a trip to the Eastern North Carolina markets, spent today on the Greenville market. They said this was the best market they had visited and that some grades bring 2 cts more here than on other Eastern markets.

HURRAH OF JIM FLEMING FOR THE SENATE.

GRIMESVILLE, N. C., Aug. 25.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I see in your paper of yesterday a letter from Mr. Randolph naming Jim Fleming for the senate. This is what the people want in Chocod township, and if he is nominated everything is all right, and the party will go straight to victory in November. Everybody knows Jim Fleming down here and knows his ability, and every one I have heard mention it, which is a great many, is for him for senate. Give us Jim Fleming for the senate and two good men for the house and all will be well in Pitt.

W. E. PROCTOR

A GOOD SHOT.

Dog Killed at Long Range.

Mr. O. L. Joyner tells us of a good shot made out at his farm, Friday morning, by Mr. Marcellus Fleming who is guarding the convicts at work on the road out there. Mr. Joyner was driving out of one of his fields towards his house. Just as he reached the road he noticed a colored man driving at a rapid gait. The colored man called to him to drive on fast as a mad dog was coming down the road behind him. Mr. Joyner looked back and saw the dog coming in a full gallop. He quickened his horse and drove on into his yard, then hurried into the house to get his gun. In the meantime he called to Mr. Fleming to watch out for the dog and shoot him if he came in range. Mr. Fleming could not leave the convicts he was guarding, but he took a stand with his Winchester rifle at a point that commanded a view of the road. Before Mr. Joyner could get his gun and come back out the dog was abreast the house running at full speed. Mr. Fleming raised his rifle and brought the dog down at the first shot, the ball passing through the animal's head. He was about 80 yards from the dog and it was a bit of fine marksmanship.

THEATRE SEASON NEAR.

Will Open With "A Boy Wanted."

Greenville people are to be congratulated that the new season will bring them much better opportunities for enjoying good theatrical companies that they have had heretofore. The completion of the modern opera house in the Masonic temple building gives Greenville a play house that is the equal of that in any town. Its accommodations and appointments are ample for the larger and stronger troops, and now it is expected that many of the best attractions on the road will come this way.

The new season will begin on Wednesday night, 31st, when the Masonic temple opera house will be opened by Blaney's all fun show "A Boy Wanted."

Death of an Editor.

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 24.—Carlyle McKinley, associate editor of the News and Courier, died here this morning, after a long illness. He was the author of "An Appeal to Pharaoh," an argument for deportation of negroes to Egypt, which attracted much attention. Some of his poems have been widely quoted. He was a distant relative of the late President McKinley.

The Game Tied.

The game of ball at Washington, Thursday afternoon, tied on a score of 10, darkness coming on preventing the tie being played off. The Greenville boys look upon it as their game.

Sixteen Horses Lost.

Hardin's livery stable in Raleigh was destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning. Sixteen horses were burned to death in the building.
