HUNDREDS BLOWN UP BY RUSSIANS.

Chefoo, Sept. 9.—1:30 a. m.—(Friday).—A Japanese column numbering approximately 700 men while marching along at night on a road in the valley between Long Hill and Division Hill met a frightful disaster through the explosion of an electric and mine, September 1. The mine was carefully laid by the Russians three weeks ago. It covered nearly a mile of available marching space. The explosive was placed at the bottom. The rock were placed next and on top of these clay was packed so carefully that the ground gave the impression of not having been disturbed.

The indications of Japanese activity in this put the Russians on their guard. Near midnight the out-posts rushed in and reported that the Japanese were approaching. The Russians with held their fire for sometime. Suddenly they threw a searchlight up the valley. The Japanese opened with a rifle fire. The Russians waited until apparently the whole Japanese column was in the danger zone. Then the mine was exploded.

The force of the explosion knocked a number of Russians down and the eight of Japanese rifles, legs and arms hurling through the lighted space made by the searchlight was an awful spectacle.

Some rocks landed inside the Russian lines.

There was one appalling moment during which the garrison itself was stunned into a death like silence. The searchlight coldly lighted up the road and hillside, strewn with dead.

The following day the Russians buried the dead but owing to their dismembered and mutilated condition, the Russians were unable accurately to estimate the number of killed. A few Japanese escaped however.

The foregoing information is contained in a small sheet issued September 3 by the Port Arthur Novakrai, a breakage in the press having made it impossible to issue a full edition.

A Chinese arriving here at midnight confirms the above to the extent of saying that he heard the report that many Japanese had been killed by a mine, but he did not learn the details. On the nights of August 26 and 27 a similar disaster befell the Japanese near Redoubt No. 2, it is reported, but no details have been ascertained.

It is expected that the exhibit will be sent to the exposition shortly after the return to Biltmore house the middle of this month of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha Monday Oct. 3rd and until noon of Tuesday Oct. 4th for one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and fitting glasses. 9 24th

DEATH OF AGED CITIZEN.

The hearts of the people of our town and community are saddened to learn of the death of one of our aged and most highly esteemed citizens, H. A. Sutton. Mr. Sutton was found dead in his bed when called early this morning by his wife, having died of heart failure during the night.

For forty eight years Mr. Sutton has been a citizen of Greenville. During much of that time he was in business in our town, and was known by his ability, and loved for his integrity.

He was an active member of the Baptist church, and was a type of the old fashion Southern Gentleman, with a high sense of honor, and knew not what it was to stoop to anything low.

Mr. Sutton was seventy three years old and had been very feeble for several months. Only yesterday he was superintending some work being done on his premises, and when asked regarding his health, he replied that he felt better than he had for several days past.

The deceased leaves a wife and one daughter, the daughter being the wife of our editor, D. J. Whichard. Also a number of grandchildren survive the deceased.

In the death of Mr. Sutton, we feel that our town and community has lost a good and useful man, and to the bereaved family we extend the heart felt sympathy of THE REFLECTOR and the community at large.

Expressions of Regret.

It is with genuine feelings of profound regret that we learn of the intended removal from our midst of our friend and associate, Mr. M. A. Allen, and while his promotion to other fields of larger usefulness is a matter of gratification and pleasure to his friends, we can only choose these feeble words to faintly express our deep and serious loss. We recognize in Mr. Allen a gentleman of highest character and frank open conduct.

We know that wherever he may go he will soon become well and favorably known for his many many qualities and excellent parts. As representatives of the board of trade it is our duty and privilege to take this means of expressing our regrets in losing him and we know that we voice the sentiments of the entire community, both in town and country, when we wish for him the fullest measure of success and happiness in the new field to which he has been elected.

Burial Service.

The funeral services of our esteemed citizen, Mr. H. A. Sutton, an account of whose death was published yesterday, took place this morning.

The impressive service was conducted by Rev. A. T. King, in the Baptist church, the choir rendering suitable music.

Immediately after the service, a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends accompanied the corpse to Cherry Hill Cemetery, and there paid their last respect to one whom all knew would be greatly missed from our midst.

The pallbearers were: C. T. Manford, J. N. Hart, W. L. Brown, J. J. Cherry, J. G. Moya, and W. B. Wilson.

INTERESTED IN THE OUTCOME.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I arrived at Weldon safe and sound, and shall go into the school room on the 12th inst, with the ever recurring sense of that awful responsibility which haunts the mind of every conscientious teacher. But in spite of myself I cannot but be interested in the outcome of Saturday's primaries. I regret exceedingly, sir, that my business is such that I cannot participate in same as is my want. I shall pray, however, that justice shall prevail and that worthy men—men allied with no questionable cause—may be chosen as legislators. Being absent from the county I have no candidate to offer to the voters. I shall content myself by asking that the enclosed stamps may induce you to register my name for the time being, as a subscriber to your most valuable paper THE EASTERN REFLECTOR and shall expect to receive copy of the first issue after receipt of this letter.

Yours in haste,
JOHN F. STOKES.
Principal Weldon High School.

Much Interest Being Taken in the Public Library.

Since the last report the following donations have been made to the public library:—

The Esvita Company, a handsome sign giving library hours.

Mr. J. B. Cherry, a set of Bazaar in 25 volumes.

Mr. G. W. Fineman, a set of 20 volumes of poems etc.

Mrs. W. B. Brown, the amount of rent for the library for September.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry, the amount of rent for the library for August.

All donations of money, books, periodicals etc. will be cheerfully accepted by the management, but the lady managers want the public to fully understand that they want the people of the whole town to use the books of the library and no pay is expected. The library is in every sense a public one and any citizen is entitled to one book for the period of eight days.

Mrs. M. H. QUINERLY.

HOOKER ERWIN.

A Beautiful Home Marriage.

Last evening at nine o'clock at the home of Miss Lelia Cherry, a beautiful marriage was celebrated, the contracting parties being Mr. Lawrence Hooker, one of Greenville's most successful business men, and Miss Della Erwin, one of our most charming young ladies. Rev. W. E. Cox, in the language of the matchless ceremony of the Episcopal church, pronounced the vows.

The bride gowned in a beautiful creation of white chiffon and real lace, over white taffeta, leaning on the arm of her dame of honor, Mrs. Snell, of Rocky Mount entered the parlor, to the strains of Mendelssohn wedding march, which was superbly rendered by Mrs. J. B. Cherry, where she was met by the groom with his best man, Dr. Zeno Brown.

The bride was given away by her friend, Miss Lelia Cherry, with whom she has been residing for some time. Miss Cherry, dressed in a handsome gown of black chiffon over black taffeta, received the invited guests in the front hall. Miss Rosa Hooker received in the sitting room, where the many beautiful presents were displayed. Miss Bettie Hooker received in the dining room, where elegant refreshments from Fussesles of Norfolk, were served by Misses Rosa Erwin and Emma Hardy.

The decorations consisting of ferns, palms, and bride roses were unusually beautiful and artistic. The color scheme being, in the front hall, red and green; in the parlor, blue and white; in the sitting room, pink and green; in the dining room, pink and white.

BEAUFORT GETS ATLANTIC HOTEL.

Mr. E. S. Howland, the lessee of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad gives out the information that the present Atlantic Hotel will be entirely torn down, and removed to Beaufort. A syndicate is now being arranged and organized at Beaufort to conduct the hotel there, and Mr. Howland desires that the hotel shall be furnished and kept as elaborately as possible.

It being Mr. Howland's desire for Morehead to have an hotel suitable for an all-year resort, a suitable one will be erected at that point. This is to be some smaller than the present hotel, but is to be thoroughly equipped with all modern improvements, with a Casino attachment. An experienced hotelman of New York is to have charge of it, and patronage will be sought the year round.

With Us Again.

C. W. Hearne has accepted a position with THE REFLECTOR.

Mr. Hearne was with THE REFLECTOR several months ago, but resigned his position to accept a position at Beaufort.

We are glad to have Mr. Hearne back with us, for we know something of his ability by his former work.

I have just returned from Baltimore where I bought my fall millinery and notions. Opening Sept. 15, 1904. Mrs. H. L. Boyd, (Grimmsland, N. C., next door to Dr's. office.

END TO STRIKE.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—The strike of the butcher workmen, which has demoralized the meat packing industry throughout the country for the last two months was officially declared off tonight by President Michael J. Donnelly, of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters' and Butcher Workmen of America. This Mr. Donnelly telegraphed the members of the national executive committee, asking their consent to an announcement of the end of the struggle and tonight, having received favorable answers from eleven, he declared that the strike of the members of his organization would end at midnight.

The strike of the members of the affiliated unions at the stock yards who quit work in sympathy with the butchers, will officially be called off tomorrow morning at a meeting of the conference board of the allied trades. This was decided upon at a meeting of the central body of the allied trades held tonight. The general body was at first in favor of continuing the strike, but Mr. Donnelly, who was present, announced that the men were defeated and in order to save his union from being entirely disrupted he would order his men to return to work in the morning no matter what course might be taken by unions.

As the other unions had no grievance of their own, but had gone on strike to aid the butchers, there was nothing left for them but to follow the lead of Mr. Donnelly, and they, too, decided to call off the strike as far as they were concerned.

The Associated Press gives out the following statement by Chairman Taggart of the Democratic National Convention, concerning the republican majority in Vermont:

"The result in Vermont is not surprising in view of the unparalleled efforts made by the republicans and the quiet campaign conducted by the democrats. The administration concentrated all its force and resources upon that state, holding in the last week two hundred meetings. Moreover, it was proclaimed throughout the state that the president had promised the candidate for governor to attend his inauguration in case he obtained a majority of 40,000."

"In view of the efforts, never made before by any party in a September election, it is remarkable that the administration did not succeed in increasing the republican majority. Indeed, it did not even increase the republican vote. That does not exceed 48,050, while in 1896 it was 43,427 and in 1900 it was 48,441."

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR

SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

D. J. WHICHARD, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter, Advertising rates made known upon application. A correspondent desired at every post office in Pitt and adjoining counties.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1904.

If the Russians can't fight they can run pretty well.

Now that the editors have been seeing and hearing let them get to doing.

From reports from Danville, Va., it is not wise to attempt a lynching and fail.

The cotton crop this year is good. The biggest trouble seems to be to get pickers.

Carrie Nation seems to be keeping quiet. Maybe she "has an axe to grind" this time.

We rejoice to note the favorable conditions under which the schools and colleges of our state are opening.

Well, you certainly have been patient. The editor has returned, and will resume control of THE REFLECTOR after this issue.

The duty of a citizen to his party is a very sacred duty, and one that should be done with careful consideration and manly courage.

"Wonder what the editors now think of Parker?" Said one of our townsmen to us today. We are wondering what Parker thinks of the editors.

The card to the public, of A. Savage and Co., found on another page, shows a good spirit. This firm does not want their competitors to suffer on their account.

Only two days and we hold our Primary. Let every Democrat of Pitt county remember the date and place, Saturday, Sept. 10th, in the Court house in Greenville.

The manner in which Ed. Hudson, who was recently hanged in Mobile for murder, met death, only shows the cool manner in which such fiends can do murder. He died smoking a cigar.

The Baltimore exhibit to be sent to St. Louis, an account of which is found on another page, will add much to North Carolina's exhibit. We have always known that we have the best of everything, we just want other people to know it.

Tomorrow being the date set for holding the primaries in the different townships of our county, we wish to especially emphasize the great importance of every democrat doing his duty. This is the critical period, and every citizen should do his part.

The name Theodore Roosevelt Alton Parker Jones was recently given to a young hopeful in one of our sister states.

This reminds us of a question once of grasping the truth that to a true man INTEGRITY is infinitely beyond price.

When any moral question presents itself to a man without convictions, his only inquiry is, will it pay? will it advance my personal interest? If so I will contend for it, unless a larger price is offered on the other side, in which event I reserve the right to flip over on the side that pays the largest price. Such an individual is a dishonor to his creator, a burlesque on man and a curse to the world.

On the other hand, when any moral question presents itself to a true man, his only inquiry is, is it right? And if so I shall stand for it no matter what may be the immediate result to myself. Such a man cannot be bought, he cannot be hired, he cannot be driven—he is a MAN. Such a man is an honor to his Creator and a blessing to the world.

A visit to the many shops, factories, and mills of our thriving town makes one feel like a different man. We have recently had the pleasure of visiting a number of the leading business places of our town, and we can truthfully say that we know of no town more wide awake, or more systematic in business than is Greenville.

Perhaps nothing is more essential to business success than is a correct system. Realizing this fact, the various companies of our town have invariably selected as their officials men who have executive ability, and who are systematic in their work.

Much of the wonderful business success of our town is due to the systematic manner in which the work is done, and in which the business is carried on.

The willing manner in which the workmen do their work, and the care and interest is very noticeable. They seem to realize that the interests of the employer and employee are one and the same, and by their earnest efforts they bring success to both.

By these means our town has become one of the leading towns of Eastern North Carolina.

On account of President Winston, of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College, having abridged the privileges of the senior class this year, not allowing them to be absent from the college except at certain times without permission, the class has threatened to leave college in a body. They claim that the lower classes have sworn to stand by them in their attempt to get the president to repeal the law. Four of the senior committee that were appointed to confer with the president and faculty were expelled. The seniors also want these men re-instated. As a result of the failure of the class to get what they asked of the president work has been stopped and the senior class barred from the dining room and dormitories.

For some time we have been watching President Winston in the great work that he is doing, and we have never found him to be a man who fears his duty. He is not the man to make a good law, and seeing it to be a good law, repeal it because it does not meet the exact approval of the students affected.

In this instance we believe the President has made a rule that will help the college, and our advice to students is not to rely on their ability to get President Winston to rescind.

DOING MANHATTAN.

And Getting Ready for Esopus.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6, 1904. North Carolina has not moved to New York, but about twenty editors from the Old North State reached here this evening to take part in the editorial conference and go on the trip to Esopus, and so many being here together makes us feel very much at home.

Taking supper in Greenville, finishing an after supper smoke in Kingston, loafing an hour in Goldsboro and another in Wilson, sleeping through Richmond, breakfasting in Washington and getting dinner in New York, looks like moving around through space quite lively, but it is only an instance of what the present day facilities for travel afford.

The North Carolina editors who are here met in Washington and came on to New York in a body. Arriving here our mind went back to what a Pitt county sheriff once said upon visiting the city "It looks like court week in New York."

We know they will be taught by experienced and trained teachers. The heads of our great colleges secure the best teachers and equipment possible.

In all our best colleges you will find Steiff Pianos on account of its beautiful singing tone, perfect action and wonderful durability. It is eminently the piano for artist and beginner alike.

We will quote from time to time, as our space will permit extracts of letters from the leading Southern colleges.

Three carloads of Pianos (consisting of Steiff and other makes) and organs can now be seen in our Greenville warehouses, direct from the factory at factory prices terms to suit.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

G. G. FINEMAN, Factory Representative.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT

This department is in charge of A. D. Johnston, who is authorized to represent the Eastern Reflector in Winterville and territory.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 10. ENTERTAINMENT AT THE WINTERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

On Friday night in the chapel of the Winterville High School a welcome was given to the students. The following was the programme:

Instrumental solo, Miss Mima Cox a former student.

Vocal solo Miss Janie Tyson, of Greenville, Miss Tyson was encored and sang another song. She has a sweet voice under her perfect control and if there had been nothing else on the programme our people who heard her were well repaid for coming out.

Then Prof. A. L. Jackson, a former Winterville teacher, made a short address of welcome in which he told how much the Winterville school had surpassed his fondest dreams.

John David Cox then made a few remarks principally to the country pupils. He was the orator of the occasion.

Then your correspondent advised to read the newspapers to keep abreast of the times.

Miss Janie Tyson sang another of her sweet solos.

Miss Ethel Carrol, a former student delivered a well prepared account of her school troubles, triumphs and joys. It was full of wit and very instructive as well as entertaining.

Then last but by no means the least came a "heart to heart talk" by Prof. W. B. Dove, of the Greenville normal school. There is no flowery burst of oratory in Prof. Dove's talk but he gets your attention and holds it while he puts his point so plainly every one can understand. He is entertaining, puts in some good jokes, and leaves a good impression.

Prof. Lineberry announced that the program was finished and that getting acquainted and conversation was in order.

The school is now about full. If North Carolina had had such schools as this dotted all over it at the close of the civil war no state in the union could compare with her in wealth, power or intelligence.

There is the best selection of inks, library paste and nomenclature at the drug store of Dr. B. T. Cox & Bro. ever brought to Winterville.

Protect your eyes by buying one of those eye shades at the Drug Store, price 10 cents.

Don't Forget Your Paper.

THE REFLECTOR hopes many of its subscribers over the county will call at the office while attending court next week and settle for their paper. It is the time of year now when they should be paying and they can save the necessity of being annoyed if they will call to see us. The office is on the corner near the court house, convenient for all to call in.

Big Attraction.

The auction sales of jewelry and silverware held at the store of W. B. Brown by Dave Raun, of Norfolk, are attracting large crowds. Many of the ladies attending the afternoon sales have received handsome prizes, three or four being given away every day. The auction is just now the sensation of the town.

New Superintendent.

On Sunday morning the Baptist Sunday school unanimously elected Prof. W. H. Ragsdale as superintendent to succeed Mr. M. A. Allen who had moved away. In selecting Prof. Ragsdale for this position the school made a wise choice.

FARMER'S CORN FAIR.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Sept. 12, 1904. We are reliably informed that there will be an exhibition of Pitt county corn by the farmers on Thursday the 13 of October, 1904 in Greenville. One dozen years or stocks of corn will be exhibited by every farmer desiring to compete for prizes to be offered. This is a simple easy step for the farmers to get together, compare matters, and manifest a deeper interest in the securing of the best seed for planting. It is hoped the people of the town and country will give encouragement to that feature of bettering the farmers of the county. More will be said in a short time concerning these matters and the farmers are invited to offer suggestions concerning the best methods and experiments they may have.
