RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET.

Adopted by Greenville Memorial Baptist Sunday School.

Whereas, our Sunday school superintendent, Bro. M. A. Allen, has accepted a position with the American Tobacco Company in Danville, Virginia, and hence will not live in Greenville, N. C., any longer; therefore be it Resolved 1. That we do hereby express our high appreciation of his labor among us as a christian citizen. We bear willing testimony to his noble spirit, his devotion and unswerving fidelity under all conditions.

A CARD PARTY.

Reported for Reflector

An event of unusual interest in social circles was the progressive whist party given by Mrs. E. B. Ficklen on last Friday evening. The recipient of this honor was Mrs. Lewis Morgan, of Uniontown, Ala., who is visiting Mrs. Ficklen. Mrs. Morgan is a well known beauty in her native state and has made a number of friends during her visit here by her attractive manner and charming personality. The guests were served with frappe in the hallway by Misses Sally Cotten and Pat Skinner. After the conclusion of the game refreshments were served by Mesdames James L. Little, F. G. James, A. E. Tucker and C. O'H. Laughinghouse.

Other amusements were provided for those who did not play cards. The first prize was won by Mrs. Morgan, the booby by Miss Lizzie Jones, the consolation was drawn by Miss Mary Moye.

Those present were:

Don't Forget Your Paper.

THE REFLECTOR hopes many of its subscribers over the county will call at the office while attending court next week and settle for their paper. It is the time of year now when they should be paying and they can save the necessity of being annoyed if they will call to see us. The office is on the corner near the court house, convenient for all to call in.

Big Attraction.

The auction sales of jewelry and silverware held at the store of W. B. Brown by Dave Raun, of Norfolk, are attracting large crowds. Many of the ladies attending the afternoon sales have received handsome prizes, three or four being given away every day. The auction is just now the sensation of the town.

New Superintendent.

On Sunday morning the Baptist Sunday school unanimously elected Prof. W. H. Ragdsdale as superintendent to succeed Mr. M. A. Allen who had moved away. In selecting Prof. Ragdsdale for this position the school made a wise choice.

 FARMER'S CORN FAIR.
 GREENVILLE, N. C., Sept. 12, 1904. We are reliably informed that there will be an exhibition of Pitt county corn by the farmers on Thursday the 13 of October, 1904 in Greenville. One dozen years or stocks of corn will be exhibited by every farmer desiring to compete for prizes to be offered. This is a simple easy step for the farmers to get together, compare matters, and manifest a deeper interest in the securing of the best seed for planting. It is hoped the people of the town and country will give encouragement to that feature of bettering the farmers of the county. More will be said in a short time concerning these matters and the farmers are invited to offer suggestions concerning the best methods and experiments they may have.

THE FIREMEN.

New Chief Recommended.

Greenville Volunteer Fire Company held its regular monthly meeting Monday night. A. J. Griffin having declined at the last meeting of the board of aldermen to accept the position of chief of the fire department and the matter being reported to the Volunteers to make another recommendation the company recommended that Ola Forbes the present assistant chief be appointed as chief and a committee was appointed to present his name at the next meeting of the aldermen.

The roll of the company was purged of continued absentees until the membership was reduced to twenty. This is not as large membership as the company should have. More of the business men and property owners should become interested in the company.

To The Public.

Owing to the law recently passed by the town, forbidding any buggies to be left on the street, and our room being limited, we are forced to quit feeding or taking care of any transient horses.

And as we are informed and believe that our stables is the cause of the law being enacted, we respectfully request the Board of Aldermen to repeal the law as to all stables except ours, that the public may be entertained.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1904.

NEW YORK AND ESOPUS.

It was the pleasure of the editor of THE REFLECTOR to attend the conference of Democratic and independent editors, who are supporting Parker and Davis, the past week. Arriving in New York Tuesday evening, Wednesday was spent in visiting the headquarters of the national committee, taking in points of interest about the city, and a trip through the subway, the underground railroad that has been built under the city and recently opened.

Wednesday night the editors were given a banquet by the national committee in the Waldorf-Astoria, one of the finest hotels in the city. The banquet was an elaborate affair with covers for about five hundred guests. S. L. Johnson, of Cincinnati, was toast master and speeches were made by Henry Waterson, of Louisville, Ky., Herman Ridder, of New York, Clark Howell of Atlanta, J. B. Stahl, of Indiana, and Andrew McLean, of Brooklyn. A letter was also read from Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the World.

Thursday morning the editors left by special train for Hyde Park, where they took a boat across the river for Esopus. As the steamer passed in view of Rosemont, the beautiful home of Judge Parker, the members of his family stood in the front veranda and a grandson vigorously waved a flag. At Rosemont Joseph Daniels, of Raleigh, was master of ceremonies. He introduced C. W. Knapp, of St. Louis, who spoke for the editors in an address which was responded to by Judge Parker.

After the speaking each of the party was presented to Judge Parker and also to the members of his family. Judge Parker is a man of strong personality and made a most favorable impression on all. He had a pleasant word for every one he met. About three hours were spent around the beautiful lawns at Rosemont and they got an idea of the judge's capabilities as a farmer. Some of the North Carolinians seeing an ox team hauling up hay to the barn said that looked just like down here.

The return trip to New York city was made by boat down the historic Hudson and the scenery along the river was magnificent. On the steamer one or two meetings were held at which several editors spoke of the pleasure the conference and trip to Esopus had given them and the impression Judge Parker had made upon them. Another feature that made his North Carolina brethren proud of him than ever, was the honors bestowed upon Joseph Daniels, of Raleigh. He was chairman of the editorial conference committee and the success of the occasion was largely due to his efforts. As a token of appreciation a purse was made up for the purpose of purchasing a loving to present him.

There is danger of the Democratic party making mistakes in the county convention that will take years to overcome. We do not believe there has ever been a campaign marked by so much malicious misrepresentation as the present one. Men without regard for truth, and with a purpose to accomplish their own personal aims, have gone through out the county circulating falsehoods with a view of engendering bitterness and disorganizing the party. The conservative element of the convention would do well to act with prudence in making nominations.

Some of the newspaper folks after seeing Judge Parker are commenting on his head and saying it is not as red as they expected. It is near enough to count in that class, however, and some members of his family can make up for what he may lack. A red-headed Tar Heel was being presented to one of the ladies at Rosemont and as they glanced at each other's heads the smile was mutual, and this enlarged into a hearty laugh when she remarked "you have our color along."

It is cause for congratulation that the faculty of the A. & M. College at Raleigh, won out in the recent trouble with certain students of that institution. If a college cannot have rules of discipline and enforce them it had as well close its doors. As to the case in question, it was a foolish demand the students made for greater liberty, and President Winston was right in standing firmly by the rules of the college.

The State Board of Health has recently issued a valuable pamphlet on the causes and prevention of consumption. The pamphlet should be read carefully, as it gives information by which this most fatal of all diseases can be prevented if followed. Any one interested can get a copy of the pamphlet free by addressing Dr. Richard H. Lewis, Raleigh, N. C.

The story that comes from Reidsville sounds almost like the days of Sherman's march through Georgia. It is said the First Regiment of North Carolina soldiers returning from Manassas developed a number of toughs who left the train at Reidsville and proceeded to plunder several stores in the vicinity of the depot. Is that the kind of big standing army we are fostering?

President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance is out, and as an epitome of length it takes undisputed rank. He occupies a good bit of space in telling that the Democratic party has no issues, and at even more length parades the greatness of his own doings. High tariff and increased pensions are a great hobby with him.

"Why don't your party have some issues?" was the query of a Republican met with on the train the other day. He was told that Rooseveltism was issue enough to fill any one campaign and Democrats found enough in that to go before the people and ask for a change in the administration.

North Carolina was well represented in the editorial party that called on Judge Parker at Esopus last week. After meeting the Tar Heels and noting the number of them Judge Parker remarked with a smile "I am glad this is not election day in North Carolina with so many of the voters away."

Men took prominent part in the Democratic primary here on Saturday who have declared publicly that they would vote the Republican ticket from Roosevelt down to township constable. Nice example of political integrity.

It was expected that the Republicans would carry Maize in the state election held Monday, but that they did so by a considerably reduced majority gives comfort to the Democrats.

Those who have them can afford to lose them. The dispatches tell that Mrs. H. M. Flagler lost a bag of diamonds and money at Newport.

If wheat keeps soaring we will have to fall back on hoe cake and potatoes.

PARKER'S SPEECH TO THE EDITORS.

"It is indeed a great pleasure to welcome to Rosemont this body of representatives of the great American press, one of the mighty forces in the up building and strengthening of a sturdy American citizenship. The leaders who have made a thoroughfare through history down which through all the centuries their frame will march with giant strides have all been men who, though unmoved by hasty expressions of the hurried judgment of the people, were yet guided in all their public acts by the knowledge of what the deliberate and mature judgment of the people would be. So the great papers are those which anticipate the careful judgment of the majority. Though the instant judgment of the people may be often at fault, the ripe and final decision is always for the right. And the part of leadership is to know the right and honestly, patriotically, fearlessly and zealously advocate it. Just as long as the press can discern and lead the unhurried and well-considered judgment of the people, so long will its power grow mightily, and so long will it hold its place in front ranks of the unflinching and vigorous march of national progress. To the up building of the power of the press and to the best use of that power you have devoted yourself. "I am not taking up your time with any of the great issues upon which our party, through its platform and candidates, confidently appeals to the people for endorsement, but crave your indulgence while I briefly refer to a single feature of the platform of the Republican party. "That platform opens with a declaration of that party's many years of control of government, coupled with the assertion that it has displayed a high capacity for rule and government, which has been made even more conspicuous by the incapacity and infirmity of purpose shown by its opponents. "This challenge to comparison of Democratic and Republican administrations, since the Republican party came into existence should be welcomed. Fortunately we have eight recent years of Democratic administration of the Executive Department of the government which we will gladly compare with any similar period since 1860.

"The comparison will show that under Democratic control the administration parity of the fathers was observed in the conduct of the government; that no one of its departments was permeated, as of late, with corruption rivaling the days of the star route frauds; that a successful effort was made to check the growth of expenditures; that it resulted in each department of the government below that of the preceding administrations. The comparison will also show that each succeeding Republican administration after 1898 increased expenses, and in some instances so greatly as to indicate reckless extravagance and waste of the people's money.

"The sturdy honesty, marked ability and thorough devotion to principle of all those in high places during those Democratic administrations may without hesitation be placed alongside the qualifications of similar officials in any and all other administrations. Who, I pray you, would hesitate to compare the members of the cabinet of those years with the present one, or with any one? Is the fame of Bayard, Manning, Fairchild, Endicott, Whitney, Vilas, Dickinson, Garland, members of the 1884 cabinet, and Olney, Carlisle, Lamont, Smith, Francis, Herbert Bissell, Wilson and Harman of that of 1892, dwarfed when contrasted with the cabinet officers of today? When the comparison is once completed you will be eager to ask the people which is the better. They will declare the victor in the contest between the administrations to be the one which, in addition to other excellencies, saved many millions a year to the nation.

"Extravagance is running riot in Federal, State and municipal governments in spite of the well directed efforts of some excellent officials. The indebtedness of the municipal governments are still piling up, bond issues are increasingly frequent, and the people have not the satisfaction, in many instances, of a full equivalent in improvements for the money expended. And the Federal government is leading the race of great expenditures. Ere long the people will demand a reform in administration expenses.

"And they will do it now if they are made to appreciate the whole truth.

"The Democratic party is not a machine: it is a body of citizens who believe that on the whole its fundamental principles are best adopted to the conduct of the government.

"Among so many patriotic and intelligent men it is inevitable that divergence of opinion as to minor questions and differences of view as to the correctness of the disposition of dead issues should be found. The party is concededly united to-day as to every vital article of faith which can reasonably enter into the pending canvass.

"Our adversaries are entrenched in full possession of every department of the government, and it is a mistaken policy that would drive away voters. The cause cannot be advanced by attacks on others within the party with whom we have had disagreements, but who are now working with us for a common cause.

"All men who have attained any degree of prominence have their friends, and the exercise of ordinary prudence forbids the alienation of allies who are willing and anxious to assist. The coming election is not to be determined by the September vote in hopelessly Republican States, where local issues and candidates even are grievously handicapped, but the result in Vermont on Tuesday admonishes us—and there can be no harm in giving voice to the admonition—that a harmonious cooperation of all and the elimination of personal, factional and unimportant differences involving no surrender of principle, are essential to success."

STOLE ANOTHER'S WIFE

The Guilty Pair Came Here and Ran Away.

Tuesday, the 6th, Marion Tucker and his wife came here from Norfolk and registered at the Hotel Farrar. The next day he left on the noon train to visit relatives in Whitakers. That same train brought H. M. Hardee from Norfolk. When the 2.31 train for Norfolk stopped that same day, Hardee and Mrs. Tucker boarded it.

When Mr. Tucker heard of his wife's disappearance, he telegraphed in every direction for the officials to arrest both. Thus far they have eluded arrest. It is known that they left the N. & C. at Suffolk, then took the cars for Petersburg.

Hardee is a member of the firm of H. M. Hardee & Co., of Norfolk, and Tucker, up to a few days ago, a traveling salesman for the firm, and related both to Hardee and to his wife, being the nephew of the former, and cousin of the latter. He and his wife boarded with Hardee. Undue familiarity between Hardee and his wife made him suspicious, and caused him to sever his connection with the firm. He came here with a view of looking around, to engage in some business. Hardee, is a man about 45 years old, has a wife, and four children. Mrs. Tucker is 24 years old, weighs between 100 and 120 pounds, is about five feet high, has light hair, and a fair complexion. She is what one would call good looking, but not beautiful by any means.

She has no children. A more wanton inexcusable guilt cannot be imagined. The greatest criminal is Hardee, who deserted his four children and excellent wife who is about to become a mother. For him no punishment can be too severe.—Tarboro Southerner, 9th.

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wootens Drug Store.

People who blame others are apt to praise themselves.

MAYO FOR COMMISSIONER.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As next Thursday is convention, and as it is the duty of the delegates to select or nominate five county commissioners to serve for the next two years, I write this to name a man from the North side of the river who would make us an ideal commissioner.

We all know that our roads are in bad condition, and getting worse. I travel the roads right much and know this is true. We need a set of commissioners who will lend some help to the road supervisors and overseers in this effort to make better roads, or at least to work in harmony with them in order that the best results may be accomplished.

I will suggest to the convention as one of the commissioners from the North side the name of Lewis A. Mayo. The people of Pitt county know Mr. Mayo, and know him to be a good farmer, an intelligent man and a true democrat. Mr. Mayo has been a magistrate for the last ten or twelve years, and has been a road supervisor during that time, and he knows what the county needs along that line. If something is not done in the next two years the roads will become impassable in bad weather. The road supervisors and overseers are powerless to do unless they have the cooperation of the board of commissioners.

I will also second the name of John L. Wooten of Greenville who was mentioned some time ago as one of the board. We all know Mr. Wooten to be a financier of the first class, and if nominated would render the county valuable service in the financial department.

Let the delegates nominate these two men and we will not suffer thereby.

UNLAWFUL TO KILL SQUIRRELS.

"The General assembly of North Carolina do enact:

"Section 1. That from the first day of March to the first day of November, in each year, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to hunt, shoot or kill squirrels within the counties of Chowan, Perquimans, Mecklenburg, Cleveland, Pamlico and Beaufort.

One Negro Kills Another.

A homicide occurred Friday evening on the plantation of Mr. H. B. Smith, about six miles from town. Alfred Wiggins and Jack Edwards, both colored tenants on the farm, got into a difficulty when Wiggins shot Edwards inflicting a wound from which he died in a few minutes. Wiggins made his escape and has not been captured.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Nominates a Ticket and Adjourns.

The ring of the court house bell at 11 o'clock this morning was the signal for the gathering of the large crowd in town at that edifice, and all faces quickly turned that way. All the morning the street had been thronged with delegates and others who had come in to the convention, and there was much activity among the delegates. The court house was soon filled until there was barely standing room left.

The convention was called to order by A. L. Blow, chairman of the democratic county executive committee, who is opening expressed the hope that the deliberations of the convention would be in the interest of the county and state. The roll was called and it was noticed that very few were absent, and their places were quickly supplied by alternates.

For permanent chairman E. R. Cotten and F. G. James were placed in nomination. The roll of townships was called, Cotten receiving 79 votes and James 62. Mr. Cotten was escorted to the chair by J. D. Cox and D. C. Barrow. In taking the chair Mr. Cotten expressed the hope that the business of the convention be conducted with utmost fairness so the result will be satisfactory to all. He had no set speech.

W. L. Brown and W. H. Long were elected secretaries by acclamation. D. J. Whichard and H. T. King, assistant secretaries. Nomination for senator being declared in order the names of J. L. Fleming, and A. L. Blow were presented, upon first ballot Fleming received 92 votes and Blow 45.

Upon the nomination of representatives the convention decided to nominate the representative from the south side of the river first. The names of S. V. Joyner, H. T. King, J. J. Laughinghouse, B. M. Lewis, R. R. Cotten and I. K. Wetherington were presented. On first ballot the vote (omitting fractions) was Laughinghouse 70, King 47, Lewis 9, Joyner 5, Wetherington 4, Cotten a fraction. Before the result was announced Farmville and Beaver Dam asked to change their votes to Laughinghouse which increased his vote to 84.

Nominations for a representative from the north side of the river were declared in order and the names of J. B. Little, Julius Brown and M. T. Spear were presented. On first ballot the vote was (omitting fractions) Little 73, Brown 22, Spear 27, Jones 1. For sheriff L. W. Tucker was nominated by acclamation. For register of deeds R. Williams was nominated by acclamation. For treasurer S. T. White was nominated by acclamation. For coroner the names of C. C. Joyner, J. E. Nobles, Wm. Fountain and C. O'H. Laughinghouse were presented. The first ballot resulted Fountain 69, Nobles 46, Joyner 16, Laughinghouse 6. For surveyor J. D. Cox was nominated by acclamation. For county commissioners J. J. Elks was nominated by acclamation, J. B. Spier on second ballot, W. R. Horne on third ballot, J. W. Page on fourth ballot, J. R.

Barnhill by acclamation.

As soon as the nominations were completed there were some resolutions offered but a motion to adjourn made and carried.

The Nation's Drink Bill.

The American Grocer, which has for years kept a careful record of the nation's drink bill, the amount expended for stimulants, both strong and weak, alcoholic and non-alcoholic, has finally summed up the figures for 1903, and finds that we paid $1,451,633,379 for our drink, or as much as the cotton, wheat, corn, rye, rice and sugar crops. Alcohol, however, took the greater part of this money, as the following details show:

Alcoholic drinks	$1,242,943,118
Non alcoholic stim.	156,690,261
Coffee	45,000,000
Tea	7,000,000
Cocoa	7,000,000

Total, 1903.....$1,451,633,379
This represents a per capita expenditure of $18.15, or $90.75 per family.—Charlotte Observer.

Unheralded Deeds.

Not a day passes over the earth but men and women of no particular note do great deeds, speak great words, suffer noble sorrows, like the pearls in the depth of the ocean, or flowers that blush unseen. Of these obscure heroes, martyrs and philosophers, the greater part will never be known until that great day when the small and the great shall be marshalled before the Judge of all the Universe, when the great shall be small, and the small great, and all will receive their full reward. The cup of cold water given in the true spirit will be a grander proof of the greatness of true character than plethoric gold bags of the world's great men and women.—Durham Sun.

Just about a week ago a young Russian nobleman arrived in New York under an assumed name. He was not allowed to land. On the way over he became somewhat hilarious in the smoking room one evening. While in this happy frame of mind his discretion broke away from its mooring and he confidently formed a couple of his fellow passengers that he was coming to this country to study American fortifications, and to pick up what information he could regarding military affairs. He also told them his real name. All of which decided the authorities that he was not a desirable visitor, so he returned by the same vessel without having set foot on American soil.—Ex.

Nine hundred country schools and churches were incorporated by the legislature of 1901 alone, with the express view of relieving the country people of the cross roads grog shop and the backwoods distillery. The following legislature upon petition of 40,000 citizens simply completed the good work and the Democratic State convention ratified its action. That's the Watts law in a nutshell.—Webster's Weekly.

I have just returned from Baltimore where I bought my fall millinery and notions. Opening Sept. 15, 1904. Mrs. H. L. Boyd, Grimsland, N. C., next door to Dr.'s office.

DO SOUTHERN PEOPLE READ MUCH?

Some days ago at a hotel table we heard the conversation of a number of gentlemen concerning certain conditions in the South, and the conversation interested us very much. One of the gentlemen was from Ohio, and of course the conversation had to take a turn at lynchings in the South. The gentleman from Ohio did not say anything harsh about the South, nor about the lynching here. On the contrary he said that for the same crimes for which negroes are lynched in the South, they would be "strung up," as he put it, in the North. He said that the people in the North do not really care as much for the negro as do the people in the South. He says the people here understand the race better than the people there do. But the most interesting part of the conversation turned up on the question of reading. The gentleman from Ohio said that he has travelled much in the North and in the South and so has had opportunity to make observations of the people in the different sections. He said that the people in the North read many times more than the people in the South.

Some one, he said, made close observation on a railroad car of the number of people reading as they leave a city. In the North on a train leaving a city he observed that almost every one is reading; but in the South on a train leaving a city very few are reading. One person in the company ventured to suggest that the price of news papers may have something to do with it—in the North you can buy a paper for a penny while in the South you have to pay five cents for one of equal size. It was not admitted, however, that the price of paper could not be the cause of such a discrepancy between the reading of the people of the two sections. The gentleman from Ohio stuck to his proposition, that the people in the North like to read much more than the people of the South. From his view of the matter the people of the South are too garrulous, they talk too much and think too little. And when we come down to the truth of it, the indictment which was not made in any spirit of bitterness or ridicule, for the most part holds good. The Southern people are not as constant readers as the Northern people, and in this lies much of the disadvantage which we suffer in being considered slow and behind the times. We might make good investment with more of our idle time by reading books, magazines and papers a little more.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

I. M. Meekins, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, spoke in New York Tuesday, and is quoted as saying that the Republicans have the Democrats on the run in his State. This will doubtless be news to both parties to the race in North Carolina.—Charlotte Observer.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha Monday Oct. 3rd and until noon of Tuesday Oct. 4th for one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and fitting glasses. 9 24w

LETTER TO PROF. E. T. HUGHES.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: It costs two or three times as much to put paint on as to buy it. A gallon of poor paint costs as much as a gallon of good, for the work; and a gallon of poor don't go half as far. Poor paint lasts half or a third or a quarter as long as good; and protects wood and iron a half or a third or a quarter as well as good.

Do you buy good paint or poor? You don't know any poor! Why, the market is full of it!
