

LETTER TO D. W. HARDEE.

Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: The handsome residence of Oliver Gliderleeve on Main street, Portland, Conn., was painted in 1888 with Devco and again in 1904.

There's 13 years; there are hundreds of such; the difficulty is to hear of 'em.
Reminds of another. The Farrington residence, Rockland, was painted Devco 21 years ago; the paint was in fair condition 6 years ago, when we saw it; don't know any more. Our agents there, Messrs Farrand, Spear & Co., know. Enclose a stamp, if you write 'em.

Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & Co.

Under a new rule, women inspectors visit the public schools of London and inspect the pupils. Those that are too clean are sent home. But already it has been found that some of the children smear themselves with mud before entering school, in hope that an inspector will pay a visit.

If a young man monopolizes too much of a girl's time she may be able to get rid of him by becoming his wife.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.
A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 26 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company manufacturing this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Seventh street and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants with which it is used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Free booklet on request.

After the band played "The Old North State" Col. John H. Bridges, introduced the orator of the day. Maj. Gen. J. S. Carr, who made an eloquent speech to his comrades, recalling much history of the great struggle of 1861-'65. The benediction was pronounced by the Rt. Rev. Bishop J. B. Chesbire. The band closed the exercises with "Dixie."
Among the distinguished visitors conspicuous on the speaker's stand were Bishop Chesbire, ex-Governor Jarvis, Gen. W. R. Cox and the honorary president, Mrs. W. D. Pender, of Norfolk.
After the ceremonies the Daughters of the Confederacy with others visited the graves of dead heroes and placed flowers thereon.

UNVEILING AT TARBORO.

Monument to Confederate Soldiers.
Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 29.—At the intersection of the walks leading through that portion of the town common on the east side of Main street, plain to the view of all passers, there stands a handsome pedestal on a heavy granite base mounted with the bronze statue of a Confederate soldier assuming a graceful posture, to enhance the admiration of perspective glances and incite the passions of patriotism.

This mark of memory is the reward of the tireless activity exercised by the members of the Wm. Dorsey Pender Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, that noble band of lovely women whose thoughts are ever foremost in cherishing that cause held so dear in the hearts of our sunny Southland. They have striven earnestly, diligently and zealously for this particular memorial of perpetuity and their accomplishment has indeed been a glorious one, for in this monument we have a befitting token of the love and appreciation of the valor of her gallant heroes in whom Edgecombe county has always felt such a great pride.

At 11 o'clock a procession led by a platoon of police, with chief marshal Albert Cox and six aides, marched up Main street. Following in the procession in order were the Tarboro band, Edgecombe Guards, Maj. Gen. J. S. Carr and escort, distinguished visitors, Mayor Allisonbrook and staff, county commissioners, veterans, Daughters of Confederacy, schools, lodges, freemen and citizens.

At foot of monument a stand was erected and gaily decorated with National and Confederate colors. S. S. Nash presided and Rev. R. C. Craven opened the ceremonies with prayer, after which the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee," was rendered by the band and choir. W. Stamps Howard delivered the address of welcome and the monument was unveiled by sweet little Miss Katherine W. Bourne and master W. D. Pender, Jr. Hon. H. C. Bourne then made a speech presenting the monument which was accepted in well chosen words by Paul Jones.

Progress.

Along educational lines wonderful progress has been made, as the following facts gleaned from a statement issued by Mr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will show. The comparison is made between the years 1900 and 1904.

The school term has increased from 14.6 weeks to 17 weeks. The number of local tax districts has increased from 30 to 229. The amount raised by local taxation has increased from $135,000 to $330,000.

The public school fund has increased from $702,702 to $1,765,362. The value of public school property has increased from $1,153,311 to $1,869,890. The sum spent for new school houses has increased from $56,207 to $170,420. The number of log houses has decreased from 1,132 to 508. The number of districts without school houses has decreased from 953 to 527.

The school enrollment has increased from 400,452 to 440,264. The average attendance has increased from 206,918 to 261,149. The number of school libraries has increased from 0 to 840, with 75,000 volumes of good readable books.

Solid Delegation Predicted.
Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 26.—States Senator F. M. Simmons, chairman of the state Democratic Executive Committee, who spoke here tonight, in an interview this evening stated that North Carolina would certainly return a solid Democratic delegation to Congress.

THE AURORA ZOUAVES.

The Most Marvelous Men at Arm.
In connection with the various feats and features so notably combined in the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous United Shows, booked for Greenville on November 18, will be forthcoming the champion Aurora Zouaves, the astonishing expert American citizen soldiers, who from Madison Square Garden, New York City, to St. Petersburg, Russia, have won unqualified triumphs, and the praise and plaudits of all military authorities, as unrivalled expert in drill and complex celerity of movement.

Upon their triumphant return from their European tour they were secured by the Forepaugh-Sells management as a most conspicuous and appropriate feature of the military department of their great exhibition, and their reception therewith in greater New York was a red-letter one in both aptitude and applause. The New York American and Journalist recently hit the nail on the head in terming them "a huge, red-legged centipede, whose celerity and precision have astonished the military world." Recruited from the best class in the city whose name they bear and have made so honorably conspicuous, they were organized but a day's march from the birthplace of the lamented Col. Elmer E. Edsworth's Chicago Zouaves, who, while justly the pride and wonder of their day, it is no disparagement or overpraise to say are far surpassed by their agile and amazing Aurora successors.

New Books at Library.
The following new books have been added to the public library in Masonic temple building:
"Gordon Keith," by Thomas Nelson Page.
"The Heart of Hyacinth," by C. Mayo Wainman.
"Ceclie," by Marian Crawford.
"The Proud Prince," by Justin Huntley McCarthy.
"A Speckled Bird," by Augusta Evans Wilson.
"A Gentleman of France," by Stanley J. Weyman.
"Lady Rose's Daughter," by Mrs. Humphrey Ward.
"Bylow Hill," by George W. Cable.
"Simon Dale," by Anthony Hope.
"Under the Rose," by Isham.
The ladies of the End of the Century Book Club, under whose auspices the library is conducted, cordially invite the people of the town to freely use these and all other books in the library.

Pit Countian Burned Out.
We learn from the Hickman, Ky. Courier, that in a fire which occurred in it at town a few nights ago the residence occupied by Rev. R. W. Stanfill, formerly of Pitt county, was among the buildings destroyed. Mr. Stanfill's family lost all their clothing and furniture and the family narrowly escaped being suffocated by the smoke when Mrs. Stanfill, their friends learn with regret of the loss they sustained.

Who Shall Do Jury Service?

It is worth while to notice how many of the jurors in the McCue trial in Charlottesville, Virginia, are failing to qualify for jury duty. A large percent of the special venire has been stood aside for the reason they claimed not to believe in capital punishment under any circumstances. Not a few were rejected because of their opposition to convict on circumstantial evidence, others escaped because they had read the papers and had therefore made up their minds and could not be influenced by evidence to change their opinions concerning the guilt or innocence of the prisoner. Under these conditions it becomes a question who, after all, shall do jury duty?
If the reading of the news concerning the facts, as reported by the press, is to disqualify a juror from sitting on a case, then it would appear that the most intelligent part of the community is to have little part in this most important duty. It looks to be absurd for a juror to declare he would not convict on circumstantial evidence where capital punishment was the penalty. Circumstantial evidence, when complete, is the most certain of all other forms of evidence and carries its own conviction—EX.

ACADEMY AND COLLEGE.
REV. J. H. CLEWELL, Ph. D., Principal.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., March 9th, 1904.
Mr. Chas. M. Stieff, Charlotte, N. C.,
Dear Sir:—It is a little unusual to file an order this late in the season, but we find that the more Steiff Pianos which we add to our music department, the better the results attained in the work. We have added quite a number of your instruments during the last few years, and they have all given good satisfaction. It requires a piano of unusual merit for the constant use which all practice pianos have within our school, but we are glad to be able to say that your instruments have stood the test, and we will continue to purchase from your firm from time to time as the need arises.
I think there are about a dozen now in the school.
J. H. CLEWELL, Principal.

A rare and magnificent display of these pianos can now be seen and heard at Greenville, at lowest factory prices and easiest terms. We also have on the floor several slightly used upright pianos at prices ranging from $175.00 to $225.00. Each instrument is guaranteed for 10 years.
We also have a fine display of organs at surprising low figures ranging in price from $85.00 and up. They are fully guaranteed.

This factory sale will posi-

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN N. C., Oct. 28, 1904.
For the past few days several parties have been here prospecting for the purpose of location with the result that right much real estate has changed hands, more capital circulated in our midst and the encouraging prospect of our population being greatly increased.
This is as it should be and if proper means are used the effect will be amazing. Let capital loose.
Our roller wash board is a "Worcer," it is without a parallel

Truth in Reference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1904

There is about an end to the fair. Even the foxes in Durham run blind tigers.

The higher price of bread increases the cost of living.

If indications count for anything Parker will be the next president.

Russia is putting up all manner of explanation why it occurred.

It is just as important to vote as it is to register. One follows the other.

Tom Watson's attack on Cleveland is about as effective as pouring water on a duck's back.

Maybe when President Roosevelt leaves the white house he can get a chair in Booker's college.

Registration is all over now and the next thing is to go to the polls on November 8th and vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Talk about Port Arthur falling seems to have gone out of date. At last accounts it was still at the same place.

There is no question about who will be elected in Pitt county, but every Democrat should vote just the same.

No need of looking after your neighbor not about registering, but be sure that every one who has registered votes on election day.

Don't waste your vote on the mixed crowd running for office in Pitt county, but vote the straight Democratic ticket.

The divorce mill continues to work every time a court is held. This thing will continue until there is a more stringent law on divorce.

Great Britain says Russia must pony up and be pretty quick about it, or there will be something else doing.

The betting by Republicans in New York can be put down as a bluff game to try and keep their side in heart.

Whether the Republicans get beaten or not in the coming election, they are the worst scared that they have been in many years.

Russia has agreed to make full apology and pay all the damage, so that may end the trouble caused by one of her fleets shooting on British fishing vessels.

Thirty speeches in one day, beginning at 6:30, A. M., and closing just before midnight, is the record Mr. Bryan made recently. He is putting in some effective work for Judge Parker.

We send felicitations herewith to the Charlotte Observer. No doubt our esteemed contemporary feels exuberant over the fact that another flying machine did fly.

Mr. Bryan made a great tour through Indiana and 700,000 people in that state heard him speak. He expresses the utmost confidence that the state is safe for Parker.

You know there is a straight Democratic ticket in Pitt county, one selected by the people themselves and the people are behind it. The duty of every Democrat is to vote that ticket.

It is a forlorn hope the Republicans have of trying to gain strength by opposing the Watts law. That is one law that has come to stay, and no amount of Republican opposition can overthrow it.

A Kinston woman who conducted a house of ill repute went through the courts in an effort to compel the telephone company to put a telephone in her house. The courts all decided against her.

The Carolina Fruit and Truck Growers Journal says the shipments of lettuce from Wilmington and vicinity this fall and next spring will distribute fully $200,000 among the growers. It is a profitable crop.

Every Democrat in every town ship in the county should vote on election day so that his township may have as large a representation as possible in future conventions. The coming election determines this point for the next four years.

And Mr Reynolds, the Republican candidate for congress in the fifth district, says if he is elected he will feel under obligation to support the measure to cut down the representation of the Southern states in congress. Sure. That is just what the Republicans all want to do. They don't like the straight Democrats that go up from the South.

The estimate of the outcome of the presidential election made by the Democratic national committee is that Parker will get a majority of seventy eight votes in the electoral college. On the other hand the Republican committee is claiming that Roosevelt is going to get all the votes except those from the South. Just wait until the night of Nov. 8th and you can see which side is right.

The Census Bureau reports that the government has 271,169 employees. It would be interesting to know just how many of them are on Mr. Cortelyou's list of spell-binders Washington Post.

The entire machinery of the government is being used to further the interest of the Republican party. The government has even been run to the expense of footing the bills for cable messages from the Philippines to be used for campaign purposes. Not only this, but the mails, the government printing office and all other departments are being used for the purpose, and the government foots the bills. Rooseveltism comes high, and the people will show on the eighth of November that they have become weary of it.

The New York sub-way, one of the greatest railroad undertakings of modern times, was formally opened to the public on Thursday. The sub-way comprises an underground electric railway that traverses the city and is about twenty miles in length. It has been four years in construction and cost $35,000,000. From sundry accidents 120 people lost their lives while the work was in progress. Though it was not then open to the public, we enjoyed the novelty of a trip through the sub-way while on a visit to New York in September. Such an enterprise has long been the dream of Manhattan, and now that it is realized the city is to be congratulated.

In a speech at Esopus Monday Judge Parker strongly denounced the campaign abuses of the present day. He said startling changes have taken place in the method of conducting campaigns, a change not for the better but for the worse. Special emphasis was given to campaign contributions by the trusts, and on this point he said:

"Political contributions by corporations and trusts mean corruption. They cannot be honest. They are moved solely by business considerations. A corporation will subscribe to a political party only because the corporation expects that party, through its control of public officers, executive or legislative, to do something for the benefit of the corporation or to refrain from doing something to its injury. No other motive can be imagined. In the nature of things, no other motive can exist. The relations established mean the expectation, if not agreement, actual or implied, that governmental action is to be influenced by and for corporation interests. No sophistry can give any other aspect to the transaction in the minds of reasonable men."

"Why should I vote?" a Democrat may ask himself, when to vote calls for a little time, a little travel, a little exertion. "Glenn is going to be elected anyhow," he continues; "Parker is going to carry the State, our candidates for Congress, the Legislature and the county officers are going to be elected—why, then, should I put myself out to go to the polls?" If every Democrat argued this way to himself and acted upon the argument, no Democrat would be elected. But leaving out of account this view of the matter, it is the duty of the Democrat to vote, not only to elect his party candidates but as a protest against the way the dominant party in national affairs is managing things. It is our affair, speaking narrowly, first to care of North Carolina, and next to let it be known to the country that we are opposed to Mr. Roosevelt's administrative methods, and the larger our majority the more fervent the protest.—Charlotte Observer.

The estimate of the outcome of the presidential election made by the Democratic national committee is that Parker will get a majority of seventy eight votes in the electoral college. On the other hand the Republican committee is claiming that Roosevelt is going to get all the votes except those from the South. Just wait until the night of Nov. 8th and you can see which side is right.

The Census Bureau reports that the government has 271,169 employees. It would be interesting to know just how many of them are on Mr. Cortelyou's list of spell-binders Washington Post.

Cheer Up.

Cheer up. The world is taking your photograph. Look pleasant. Of course you have your troubles, troubles you cannot tell the policeman. A whole lot of things bother you. Of course. Business worries or domestic sorrows, it may be, or what not. You find a rugged road whose stones hurt your feet. Nevertheless—cheer up.

It may be your real disease is "selfishness"—ingrown selfishness. Your life is too self-centered. You imagine your tribulations are worse than others bear. You feel sorry for yourself—the meanest sort of pity. It is a pathetic illusion. Rid yourself of that, and—cheer up.

What right have you to carry a picture of your woe begone face and funeral ways about among your fellows who have troubles of their own? If you must whine or sulk or scowl take a car and go to the woods or to the unfrequented lanes.

Cheer up. Your ills are largely imaginary. If you were really on the brink of bankruptcy, or if there were no thoroughfare through your sorrows, you should clear your brow, set your teeth and make the best of it.

Cheer up. You are making a hypothetical case out of your troubles and suffering from a self inflicted verdict. You are borrowing trouble and paying a high rate of interest.

Cheer up. Why, man alive! In a ten minutes' walk you may see a score of people worse off than you. And here you are digging your own grave and playing pallbearer into the bargain. Man alive, you must do your work. Smile, even though it be through tears—which speedily dry—and cheer up!—Milwaukee Journal.

A Word With Democrats.

Every man is responsible for his influence, be it small or great. Every Democrat who votes for Parker votes to defeat Roosevelt. Every Democrat who does not vote for Parker contributes toward the election of Roosevelt. On every question upon which Judge Parker's position is open to criticism, President Roosevelt's position is worse; where they differ, as they do on many important questions, Parker is right and Roosevelt is wrong.

Roosevelt favors a high tariff; Parker favors tariff reform. Roosevelt favors a standing army of 60,000 at the minimum; Parker favors a reduction of the army.

Roosevelt has brought the race issue into national politics; Parker would remove the race issue from politics.

Roosevelt stands for a colonial policy; Parker favors independence for the Filipinos and would make the promise now.

Roosevelt took into the White House a spirit of war; Judge Parker would substitute for it a spirit of peace.

Four years more of Roosevelt would make economic and industrial reform more difficult; Judge Parker's election would clear the way for economic issues. Let no Democrat by voting against Parker or by refusing to vote, take upon himself responsibility for four years more of Rooseveltism.—Bryan's Commoner

The next time the campaign is pitched all the parties will be on the temperance side. The great majority of the white folks of North Carolina are in favor of temperance, gentlemen, and we thank the Lord that this is true. You need never fear that you will offend the country people by taking liquor away from them. They are not fools, though some of you wily old foxes thought they were. You know better now—Charity and Children.

One Great Service.

If Judge Parker fails of election he will have one supreme satisfaction, and that is of having reunited every faction of the Democratic party. That of itself is a great accomplishment and it is doubted if there is another living Democrat today who could have performed that same service. Before the St. Louis convention there was not the remotest hope of all the factions of the party coming together peacefully under a single banner and supporting one standard bearer. Judge Parker has brought them together once more, and the result will probably be his election. He has good chances and his prospects are growing with each day. The Esopus candidate would make a truly great President.—Wilmington Dispatch.

A Streak of Cowardice.

Mr. Roosevelt is reputed to be a man of nerve, and he is on occasions. But all politicians are cowards on occasions, and Mr. Roosevelt is no exception. For instance at this moment, he hasn't the nerve to pass on the case of the white soldier whose dismissal from the army has been recommended because he married a negro wife. He is afraid to approve the dismissal and he's afraid not to approve it. Therefore he will let the matter rest until after the election.

This is the man of whose moral and physical courage we have heard much in this campaign.—Statesville Landmark.

The most earnest friend of Colonel William J. Bryan, however fervently he may desire the election of Judge Parker, could not ask better behavior of the Nebraskan. In view of the fierce attacks of Mr. Bryan upon the presidential candidate anterior to the nomination, it was feared by many, when he consented to go into the campaign, that his support of Judge Parker on the stump would be of such character as to do the latter more harm than good. It has, however, been earnest and outspoken, apparently wholehearted, and has unquestionably helped the cause. In Indiana, particularly, where Mr. Bryan is very strong, he has been especially effective, and it is the belief of the party managers that he has succeeded in bringing his followers in that State, almost in a body, to the support of the national ticket. He is entitled to full credit for the excellent work he has done and is doing.—Charlotte Observer.

"We pledge to our countrymen, through our platform, rest genuine prosperity, safety, and a return to the way marked out by the constitution; and we promise, through our candidates, that if it is the people's will, our platform shall be carried out and that under our governmental management Democratic conservatism and care shall rule the national councils to the exclusion of rash impulse and spectacular demonstration."—Grover Cleveland.

General Fitzhugh Lee has been offered the position of chief of police of the city of Richmond, though there is some doubt that he will accept the office. He has been a major general in the confederate army, the governor of Virginia, consul general to Cuba, and a brigadier general in the United States army; still it would not detract from his dignity to wear the buttons of chief of police of one of the finest cities of the country.—Savannah News.

By Championing the cause of whiskey the republicans think they are appealing to the farmer vote, but if they have sized up correctly then we confess that we do not know the farmer.—Durham Herald.

What Do You Believe?

If you believe in honest, economical and efficient administration, If you believe in low taxes, If you are opposed to tax-fod monopolies, If you favor real reciprocity in international trade, If you are burdened by the high prices that result from Republican policies, If you do not want to pay higher taxes to meet ship-subsidies, If you believe in the preservation of the constitutional and legal checks and safeguards against official usurpation, If you want the rascals in high places who have betrayed the people's trusts discovered and punished, If you would deal fairly with the Filipinos, If you are opposed to unnecessary foreign wars and needless increases of the army and navy, If you believe that national prosperity is the God given reward of industry intelligently applied under beneficent conditions of soil and climate, and not the result of legislation favoring unjustly accorded special classes, industries or occupations— Vote for Judge Parker!—Raleigh Post.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

OUR SHOE STORE IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

All of the Style and the most Comfort

Ralston Health Shoes #4.
UNION MADE

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quality of material and workmanship may possibly be equaled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less. They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.

Welcomed in Richmond.

The following criticism of Mr. Douglas Leftwich is clipped from the "Times Dispatch," Richmond, Va.

Mr. Leftwich has been engaged to give an entertainment at the graded school auditorium Monday evening Nov. 7, for the benefit of school library.

"Mr. D. L. Leftwich made his initial appearance in Richmond last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall before a large audience. No entertainer has ever more fully come up to the standard set by his advance press notices, than did Mr. Leftwich, the audience was more than pleased. The entertainment consisted of clever sketches and stories told in inimitable negro dialect, some convulsed the audience with laughter and others held them breathless with interest. His magnificent baritone voice has a sweetness of quality, a resonant tone and power. Several ballads and descriptive songs were introduced, which were in excellent contrast to his negro melodies.

Mr. Leftwich will be cordially welcomed on his next visit to Richmond.

Where are you going, my pretty maid?

It's like a dip in the fountain of youth. Touches the cheek so gently that "youth fingers on the face of old age." That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea does 35 cents, Tea or Tablet. Wootens Drug Store.

Like a Comet
This famous remedy does for the stomach what which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guarantee bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Wootens Drug Store. t. t. s. & t. s. w.

Many a man while walking to save a nickel care indulges in a 10 cent cigar.

From 148 to 92 Pounds

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Wootens Drug Store.

The rose is red, the violet is blue—and so is a man when his note comes due.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Breidden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist. *

A man seldom realizes the depth of a hole until after he gets into it.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak man without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and all organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold at Wootens Drug Store.

Did you ever pause to think how many people there are in the world who probably never heard of you?

A Power For Good

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Wootens Drug Store.

Money doesn't always lead to happiness, but it helps in the search very materially.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It is gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Wootens Drug Store. *
