

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

D. J. WHICHARD, Editor and Owner.

Twice-a-Week--Tuesday and Friday.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

VOL. No. XXIV.

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1905.

No. 15

THE LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY.

The senate almost unanimously passed the substitute bill creating a department of commerce and immigration.

One of the new bills introduced was to prevent the retail traffic of cigarettes and cigarette paper in North Carolina.

Among the new bills in the house were these: For the protection of children whose father is dead; to amend the code relating to movies in clerk's hands; to enlarge the state capitol; to amend the law relating to the Farmers Mutual Association; to amend the law so as to forbid building wire fences unless boards are placed on top; to amend the law relative to the pay of teachers in public schools; to provide for the enlargement of public school libraries; to make it unlawful for banks to combine together; to provide protection of registration of deeds by persons interested in their contents.

WEDNESDAY.

Among the new bills in the senate were these: To erect a suitable monument to the memory of Wiley P. Mangum; to prevent usurious contracts in North Carolina; to provide for the participation of North Carolina in the Jamestown exposition.

In the house most of the day was consumed in discussing the bill to increase the salary of judges. It finally passed. All the new bills introduced were of a local nature.

THURSDAY.

The senate passed the scales bill for the establishment of a reformatory for criminal youths. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $50,000.

No new bills of importance were introduced. Quite a number of bills passed third reading.

There were a number of new bills in the house, but they were as void of general interest as were the senate bills.

Representative Laughinghouse offered a bill to establish a stock law around Winterville.

FRIDAY.

The senate passed another day handling only local bills. Among them were two bills introduced by Senator Fleming, one regarding the courts of Pitt county, and one to provide for a permanent light and water commission for the town of Greenville.

The senate also discussed the committee report on the bill to reduce passenger fares on railroads and it was made a special order for next Thursday.

In the house also there were no new bills of general importance introduced. The bill restricting peremptory challenges of jurors in criminal cases to twelve on the part of the defendant and four on the part of the state passed the house by a vote of 76 to 27.

Two Papers For Price of One.

Some of our readers who have taken advantage of the offer to get the American Agriculturist free by paying a year's subscription to THE REFLECTOR in advance, have expressed themselves as well pleased with the premium. The Agriculturist is of special value to the farmer, and all who want it should not delay, as supply to be given free is limited.

MRS. SALLIE A. MOSELEY DEAD.

Peaceful Ending of a Beautiful Life.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb, on Second street, the spirit of Mrs. Sallie A. Moseley entered peacefully into rest. She was 78 years of age and had spent a life filled with the beauty of true Christian character, the end coming as a sweet release from bodily affliction and being met with calm resignation.

Mrs. Moseley's home was at Drakes Branch, Va. With her aged husband, Mr. C. H. Moseley, who is now 81 years old, she came to Greenville last fall to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lipscomb. Being feeble at the time she was taken sick while here and was never able to return to her Virginia home. Several of her children have visited her here during her sickness, and the son, Mr. C. A. Moseley, of Charlotte, accompanied by his wife, was here when she passed away.

Mrs. Moseley was married in 1847, and a wedded life of 58 years is remarkable. It is also remarkable that her death is the first to occur in the immediate family circle in 40 years.

Beside the aged husband, she is survived by eight children, six sons and two daughters. These are H. C. Moseley, of Naruna, Va., H. E., R. E., and G. G. Moseley, of Drakes Branch, Va., T. B. Moseley, of Raleigh, N. C., C. H. Moseley, of Charlotte, N. C., Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb, of Greenville, N. C., and Mrs. W. B. Oliver, of Florence, S. C.

The remains will be taken to Raleigh Friday for interment there.

Battle Within a Month.

Russian Headquarters, Huan Mountain, Manchuria, Feb. 15.—During the bombardment of Putiloff Hill a projectile from a siege gun entered and underground hut, burst inside and tore off the head of a lieutenant and wounded a colonel and two staff captains who were playing cards.

In front of Koudezi on the right flank the Russians are trying the effect of concentrated siege and mortar batteries with good results. firing as many as twenty mortars simultaneously.

According to the Chinese the Japanese reverse brigades are being moved eastward indicating the direction of the Japanese offensive when it begins. Reports from the same source say that General Nogi will command the extreme right.

While the nights are still cold the days are warmer and the time is approaching for ideal campaigning. Spring in Manchuria is not marked by a rainfall. The great battle which all are expecting and which may spell ruin to either army should occur within a month.

Telephone Directory.

We have received from General Manager F. C. Toepelman a new and complete directory of the Eastern Carolina and Virginia exchange and toll stations of the Home, Carolina, Inter State and Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Companies showing connection with the long distance lines of the American and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Companies. The many points reached shows the rapid development of the telephone system throughout this Eastern section.

Killed By a Bomb.

Moscow, Feb. 18.—4:20 a. m.—Within the walls of the far-famed Kremlin palace and almost underneath the historical tower from which Ivan the Terrible watched his enemies falling beneath the axe on the famous Red Square, and within a stone's throw of the great bell of Moscow, Grand Duke Sergius, uncle and brother-in-law of Emperor Nicholas and chief of the reactionaries, met a terrible death shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The deed was committed by a single terrorist, who threw beneath the carriage of the Grand Duke a bomb charged with the same high power explosive which wrought Minister Von Plehve's death. The missile was packed with rails and fragments of iron and its explosion tore the imperial victim's body to ghastly fragments, which strewed the snow for yards around. Every window in the great, lofty facade of the Palace of Justice was shattered, and bits of iron were imbedded deeply in the walls of the Arsenal, a hundred yards away.

The assassin belongs to the noted "fighting group" of the socialist revolutionary party which has removed other prominent officials and long since passed sentence of death upon Grand Duke Sergius. The Grand Duke knew that he stood in the shadow of death. He was the recipient of repeated warnings, and elaborate precautions were taken to insure his safety.

Troops From North Carolina.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The interest of the South in the inauguration of President Roosevelt was evidenced again today when word was received from North Carolina that the Wilmington infantry, of Wilmington, and Light Battery "A," both of the North Carolina National Guard, will march in the inaugural parade behind Governor Glenn and his staff. Governor Blanchard, of Louisiana, will head a detachment of the militia in the parade; Governor Warheld, of Maryland, will lead at least two Maryland regiments; Governor Montague, of Virginia, will command a brigade from the Old Dominion, and Brigadier-General Clark, of the Alabama National Guard, is recruiting a provisional regiment to attend the inauguration.

Please pay Promptly.

We are sending statements to those of our subscribers who owe THE REFLECTOR for a year or longer, and the special request is made to each one receiving a statement to pay as promptly as possible. The two months of this year have been hard ones on the paper from the fact that so much bad weather has made collections come in slow. In addition to this we have gone to considerable expense in putting in a new press and other material to improve the paper and money is greatly needed to meet bills.

Remember all who pay up their past dues add a year in advance for THE REFLECTOR will receive as a premium a year's subscription to the American Agriculturist, which is a splendid paper for the farmer. Don't wait if you want to receive this premium as only a limited number can be given.

STATE NEWS.

An 8-year-old son of State Senator Beasley, of Pasquotank county, mysteriously disappeared from home last Monday and has not yet been found.

In Wilson Thursday evening R. O. Pickard, superintendent of the cotton mills, was killed by Wiley House and Charles Norton. The murderers were captured.

Nathan Bullard, of Sampson county, working at his saw mill, was killed by the saw catching a large splinter and driving it into his brain through an eye.

He Is Right.

John Wamamaker gives the following sensible advice on advertising: "There is only one way to advertise, and that is to hammer your name, your location, your business, so constantly, so persistently, so thoroughly, into the people's heads that if they walked in their sleep they would constantly turn their faces toward your store. The newspaper is your best friend in spite of your criticism. It helps to build up the community that supports you. When the day comes that the newspapers are dead, the people are near the edge of the grave with no one to write their epitaph."

Evangelist Wm. Black Coming.

For more than a year several of the ministers and laymen in the different churches in Greenville have talked earnestly about inviting Rev. Wm. Black to visit Greenville again. About six months ago an invitation was extended him and now our turn has come. He promises to be here on Saturday Feb. 25th, to begin the work Sunday morning the 26th. Let us fix the date, the last Sunday in this month, the fourth Sunday.

We have waited long to secure him. He will remain but a short time, eight days. Therefore, let all who expect to hear him make their plans accordingly.
