LETTER TO B. F PATRICK.

Greenville, N. C. Dear Sir: County Commissione

E. W. Fassett had his house, 322 W. Sth street, Erie. Pa., painted Devos in August 1901.

In Marsh 1902, he had three others to paint and thought our prica too high, Bought a "just as good" for our house; the others he painted Devoe. 'Said he'd find-out by experience.

Guess he did, for he's used Devoe several times since; he's got the habit.

The queer f it is that peaple should grudge the cost of good paint, when it's worth about 50 times the difference.

Good is cheap, whatevr the price; and bad is dear, at no price at all, it costs too n uch to put or. Devos is a good paint; good paint is Devoc. Type is no other Devoe; these is no other good paint.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co. P. S. H. L. Carr sells Paint.

DEATH OF MRS. NORMAN.

Dies of Stroke of paralysis,

Mrs. Mary Norman, wife of Capt. J. S. Norman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Cobb, in Beaver Dam township, Tuesday, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. Two or three days ago Mrs Norman was stricken with paralysis, since that time her death has been expected, and a number of relatives from a distance were present at the bedside. Mrs. Norman was 63 years, six months and eight days old. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and a devout Christian. She leaves a husband two grown daughters and three grown sons.

The remains will be taken by rail to Hamilton, N. C., today where the funeral will take place in the afternoon.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G Bisher, Gillam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for ale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.
