SENIORITAS.

Traditions and Habits of the Young Women of Mexico.

The senioritas is a word which is used in Spanish speaking lands, and the Mexican senioritas are in charge to her Spanish. In fact, most of the upper class of Mexico is distinctly Spanish in appearance and bearing. There is a "senioritas" in the "senioritas" of Mexico, which very much depends from the charm of the word.

A WHITE HOUSE SCENE.

The Army That Mrs. Harrison Showed to Mrs. Dabrowska.

When Mrs. Dabrowska Harrison was the first lady of the land she gave the renovation of the White House her personal supervision, and some of her methods were unique. Mrs. Dabrowska told a story of one of her ideas, the working of which she witnessed once upon making an early morning call. Finding Mrs. Harrison in the red parlor alone she inquired for her mother.

PRINTING PRESS EATS PAPER.

That is What One Little Girl Says. Young America can knock we old crowd out two to one when it comes to getting off things that are bright. Since school was out the editor's hopefuls have been doing little chores about the office to keep in a little pocket change. One of them brought a friend down with her, the other day, and displayed an inquisitive turn of mind and asked a number of questions about different things in the office.

"What does Ben do up here?" the visitor finally asked about one of the boys in the shop. Our hopeful began enumerating Ben's duties with "He sets type, distributes type, folds papers, bundles the mail, feeds the presses."

"Feeds the press?" interrupted the visitor with astonishment. "What in the world does the press eat?" "Paper, of course," was the quick explanation. The foreman was able to restrain quiet after a few hours.

MAN MURDERS A WOMAN.

Otto Dehart Fatally Shoots Mrs. Pink Goode at Woodvine, Va. Reidsville, N. C., June 6.—News has reached here of a brutal act of a drunken young man at Woodvine, just across the Virginia line.

Mrs. Pink Goode, a respectable woman, was shot to death in her own yard, the shot going through her chest.

Otto Dehart was arrested and sent on to the grand jury without bail. It appears that Dehart was drunk and went to the Goode home and shot a chicken, and when Mrs. Goode protested against his conduct he put another shell into his gun and fired on her, killing her almost instantly.

He then left, but was later arrested while making his way to West Virginia. No one saw the shooting except some very small children of Mrs. Goode. Her husband was at work at a saw mill some four miles away.

Dehart claims that the shooting was accidental. He is a young man about 21 years of age. There is considerable excitement, but no danger of violence.

FIRE IN NEWBORN.

New Bern, N. C., June 5.—At 9:20 o'clock tonight an alarm of fire was sounded. The fire was located in the Bryan brick block on the corner of South Front and Middle streets, and its origin is unknown. By heroic work of the firemen the flames were confined to the corner store occupied by Mr. Yoffie. Mr. Yoffie's wife and child were on the second floor which they occupied as a sleeping apartment, and had not timely assistance been rendered by bystanders they would have been suffocated from smoke. The damage to stock is almost total, estimated at eight thousand dollars, with insurance of five thousand dollars.

The building is owned by Mr. James A. Bryan, and is covered by insurance.

ROBBERY MYSTERY.

Goldboro, N. C., June 3.—This morning Mr. A. V. Korney, secretary and treasurer, of the Goldboro Buggy Company, went to the Bank of Wayne and drew $250, as was his custom, to pay off his employees at the factory. After he left the bank he came up to the Goldboro Buggy Company's store, where he left the money, which was all in silver, in the drug store safe. He recalled back there this afternoon about 2 o'clock and went to get his money, but it was gone. A search was instituted, but the money was not to be found. Where the money is or who got it is a mystery, as no stranger was seen in the store any where near the safe.

TWO BUGGIES MIX.

And Both Come Out Broken. Monday evening while the crowd was around the depot waiting for the train, there was a mix-up among the horses that resulted in damage to two buggies. Tom Edwards was sitting in a buggy together when their horse became frightened at something and suddenly swung off. Both young men were thrown out of the buggy but neither of them was hurt. The buggy, however, collided with C. Harding's buggy, which was standing near on top, and threw the latter off the elevation back of the depot. Mr. Harding's buggy was badly smashed and a shaft of Mr. Parker's was broken.

Please Give Both Addresses. We have had several postal cards and letters of late from our subscribers who reside on R. F. D. routes with request to change their paper to the routes that they now receive their mail on, without giving us their former address.

We have tried on several occasions to find their names and make the changes and in some instances have had to look through at least a dozen or fifteen post offices, and even then we have failed on some. If each subscriber will always give the post office at which he has been getting the paper and then the office he wants it changed to, it will save lots of trouble finding their names, and will be the means of the paper reaching the new address earlier.

VACATION TIME IS HERE.

The time has arrived for our people who intend to visit the various summer resorts to be getting ready. Piedmont Springs and Vade Mecum springs are fine places. There you get the benefit of the health giving waters and the fine, embracing climate. Beaufort will also be a popular place for our people, and we might mention here the opening season at Morehead this week; this will be a most delightful occasion. And there is the mountain resorts, don't forget them.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

Bragaw will command the second and Col. J. N. Craig, the third regiment. Arrangements are already under way for the coming of the soldier boys to Wrightsville.—Wilmington Star.

TWO SPLENDID SERMONS.

Rev. J. Manning Damway, of Enporia, Va., preached in the Baptist church here Sunday morning and evening. Large congregations were out to hear him and the people were well pleased with him. His sermons were excellent, and delivered with an earnestness and eloquence that drew the closest attention of his hearers.

A STARTLING STATEMENT.

MILITARY RECEPTION.

Complimentary to Durward S. Wilson who Leaves For West Point, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson entertained Tuesday evening in honor of their son, D. S. Wilson, who has just successfully passed the examinations for the Military Academy at West Point and will leave on the 12th. From nine until twelve the beautiful home was thronged with his many friends toasting and wishing him all the success at the academy.

The home was very appropriately decorated for the occasion, the library being in black and old gold. West Point colors, the dining room was a scene of beauty and magnificence, being very heavily decorated in Uncle Sam representing the army in every respect. The soft lights from the many cut glass and silver chandeliers made it a most beautiful scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson received in the front hall and gave all a hearty welcome. Walter Wilson, Jr., and Miss Mattie Holt, of Graham, received at the library. D. S. Wilson and Miss Alice White received in the rear hall. Punch was served in the hall by Miss Elba Cotten and Frank Skinner.

At ten thirty every one present was presented with a card giving the historic questions about West Point and Miss Mattie Holt guessing the highest number was entitled the "White Doe." Miss Ellen Cotten and Miss Alice White tied for the second prize, and after drawing Miss White was the fortunate one. Fred Forbes received the body. These prizes were beautifully presented with very appropriate words by A. J. Moore.

After this all were invited in the dining room which was military in every detail. After the courses were served we were given cream in the camp, showing the likeness of the camps at West Point, all being in the national colors.

Then we were given the long canon that every one had to shoot a long role of Uncle Sam colors with a prize in each canon. Then were passed the almonds which also contained prizes suited for the occasion. The dining table was a hodgepodge covered in the beautiful silk dregs attached to the canon balls as souvenirs.

Among those present were: Miss Houck, of Lenoir, with Fred Forbes. Miss Irma Cobb with Harry Skinner, Jr. Miss Mattie Holt, of Graham, with Walter Wilson, Jr. Miss Annie Tyson with W. B. Wilson, Sr. Miss Alice White, of Greensboro, with Durward S. Wilson. Miss Glenn Forbes with Cary Warren. Miss Janie Brown, with T. J. Moore. Miss Lottie Blow with A. J. Moore. Miss Elba Cotten, of Cottondale, with Frank Skinner. Miss Mary Skow, of Washington, with Alex. Blow. Miss Margaret Skinner with Will Lipscomb. Miss Nell Skidner with J. Benj. Riggs. Mrs. John Skidner with Barney Warren. Miss Frank Wilson and John Gardner. Miss Lizzie Jones, Lizzie Riggs and Janie Bryan served in the dining room.

Miss Liza Cotten and Janie Tyson, who are so talented and accomplished in music, added much to the occasion. The time passed so fast and everyone said they would like to have a more pleasant evening.
