Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1905.

WHERE THE SHAME COMES.

It is not likely President Roosevelt will fully appreciate the plan of certain enthusiastic Georgians to present him with reminders of old slavery days in shape of balls of sale of four negro slaves disposed of as the property of his maternal grandfather. The President's mother was a native of Georgia; and the sale of these slaves was made to raise funds for the purchase of her wedding to her father when she was married to the President's father in 1855. The President no doubt, is proud of his Southern ancestry, which was of the best blood of Georgia, but it is not probable he will take much pride in heroisms of the kind the Georgians want to place in his hands—Southern Ball (Ind.) Tribune.

How the President feels about the plan of these Georgians is of little concern to us. The president has very often spoken of the fact that his mother was a Southern born woman, and being a woman living in the South before the civil war, it certainly was no discredit to her for belonging to the slave owning class.

The connection the president's paternal ancestors had with the introduction of slavery into this country is a matter we know nothing about, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that Northern people had a great deal more to do with it than the people of the South did. The Southern people acquired their slaves honestly. This is more than we can say of some Northern people who brought slaves into this country and sold them. There is one thing the president should be more ashamed of than this and that was the method by which the North and the party he heads destroyed property in slaves.

"DID MRS. GOULD SAY DAMN?"

Sam Patterson has been forgotten in the onward rush, and it is now Mrs. Howard Gould who is creating a sensation. Did Mrs. Gould say damn? is the question the New York yellows are asking.

The matter was brought out in a law suit instituted against Mr. Gould by an architect for $500,000 which he claims that Mr. Gould owes him for planning a castle for the millionaire. The architect alleges that Mrs. Gould bothered him continually, changing his plans and "nagging" of him also that she called him a "d— architect."

A state convention of building and loan associations has just been held in Charlotte, S. Witskowski, president of the state organization, delivered an address that contained much valuable information as to the benefit of building and loan associations. He said that in the city of Charlotte 3,700 houses had been built through the aid of the associations, and all business interests of the city are helped by them. THE REFLECTOR has argued many times that Greenville should have a building and loan association. We do not believe there is any other agency that helps a town in the same proportion.

There is too much style and not enough religion practiced in the churches of today, and the following from Charity and Children is well said:

An exchange says a man in South Carolina stuck his feet under a moving train in order to collect damages. The paper doesn't say, however, but we take for granted that he got damages all right enough.

The farmer is the one who loses on the low price of potatoes. Whether the price is low or high, the railroad and commission men get their money just the same. The big crop is a bonanza for the railroads.

A Georgian lawyer has started a resolution in order to be president, says the Atlanta Journal. It would take more than a resolution to land some of these fellows in this country as the president's chief.

A certain college president condones self assassination, he speaks to the fact rather than the head. He should remember that naughty few people, if any, have ever been able to take heads off.

It is noted that Japan has had 10,000 deaths, under discipline in the United States for several years, considering our methods of warfare. This explains the whole matter.

There is trouble ahead for Roosevelt. The following is from the Wilmington Messenger:

About the time Mr. Roosevelt settles peace in the Orient he will be called on to quiet matters in North West Europe. As soon as he gets Norway and Sweden quiet, he will have to turn his attention to preventing France and Germany from locking horns on the South side of the Mediterranean.

The Gattis Kilgo case which was called last Monday at a special term of Wake county Superior court, has attracted considerable attention this week. This is the third trial of this famous suit for pecuniary damages, entitled Gattis against Kilgo, Old deli, Duke, et al. The people generally and especially those of Methodist persuasion will be glad when this unfortunate affair is ended.

A sensation was caused when the jury was being selected to try the Gattis-Kilgo case now in progress at Raleigh. One of the men summoned while being examined testified his qualifications to serve on the jury, said he was approached by an officer who asked him to "help out Kilgo." Such methods as that being used in behalf of Dr. Kilgo is not creditable to his side of the case.

China is retaliating our exclusion of her subjects by boycotting American goods. And this naturally leads the American manufacturer who wants to trade with China to be stirring himself to get this country to modify the exclusion act. Many people are admitted to this country who are worse than the Chinese.

All the talk about there being three or four factions of Republicans in North Carolina is all farce. All this talk comes from the big dogs fighting over the bone. We will guarantee when the voting time comes it won't take 30 minutes for this crowd to bunch together.

Not many years ago it was agitated to a considerable extent that Japan England and the United States form a triple alliance. But at that time Japan was considered an insignificant factor. But today either England or the United States would be only too glad to have Japan ally.

A woman in Louisville has been pronounced insane because she gets up at 4 o'clock in the morning to cook her breakfast. If this is what you call insanity there are a lot of men who would like for their wives to go crazy, especially on this subject.

Eight robbers were put to flight by a Brooklyn woman armed with an umbrella. The robbers undoubtedly mistook her for a hoop skirt girl.

The Raleigh Post suggests that when Russia comes up with her indemnity it will be a good time for Japan to buy the Philippine Islands.

That ex-Senator Marion Butler will finally become the leader of the "Rumors" of this state becomes more apparent day by day.

"Millionaires for the most part are ill-mannered and illiterate," says Marie Corelli. We will let this pass as long as she is a lady.

A BABOON HERO.

An Incident of a Stirring Monkey Hunt in Africa.

The German naturalist, Herr Behm, tells this story of his adventure with baboons in Africa. "You dogs, beautiful slender graces, accustomed to deal successfully with leopards and other beasts of prey, rushed toward the baboons, which from a distance looked more like hosts of prey than hunters, and drove them back by the precipice to right and left. But only the females went right. The males turned to face the dogs, growled, beat the ground with their hands, spread their nostrils wide, showed their fangs, and looked at their adversaries so furiously and menacingly that the hounds, badly frightened and usually bold, shrunk back discomfited and almost fainting, sought safety beside us.

"Before we had succeeded in driving them up to show fight, the position of the monkeys had changed completely, and when the dogs charged a second time nearly all the herd were in safety.

"But one little monkey, about half a year old, had been left behind. It shrieked loudly, the dogs rushed toward it, and when they charged a second time nearly all the herd were in safety.

"That was not to be. Proudly and with dignity, without hurrying in the least or paying any heed to us, an old male stepped down from the security of the rocks toward the baboons. Old and young male and female, roared, screamed, snarled and bellowed all together, so that one would have thought that they were struggling with leopards or other dangerous beasts.

"At that moment I saw that this was the monkey's battle cry. It was intended to intimidate us and the dogs; possibly also to encourage the brave old giant who was running into such evident danger before their eyes." Youth's Companion.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was grown, or with what fertilizers, or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER of a CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed in our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

(Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Washington, June 14.—The United States Senator from North Carolina, Senator William W. Wood, who has been in the Senate since 1891, is expected to leave for his home in North Carolina today. He has been in the Senate for twenty years and has been a member of the Senate for twenty years. He has been a member of the Senate for twenty years and has been a member of the Senate for twenty years.

Wreck on Southern.

Charlotte, N. C., June 16.—Passenger train No. 47, of the Southern railway, left the track at the Mills siding, one mile north of King's mountain, at 9:30 last night, and Engineer Charles Canfield, the colored fireman of Greenville, S. C., is dead as a result.

The engine turned over and witherspoon was crushed to death beneath it, his body not being found until several hours afterwards.

Engineer Canfield also went down with his engine, but fell clear of his injuries being the result of a fall. He was removed to King's mountain, where he died at 5:30 o'clock this morning.

Hone Run Away.

On Thursday evening at Dr. L. L. Jones and his son were returning from the base ball park, his horse became frightened at some children playing on Dickinson avenue and ran away.

The horse ran some distance towards Evans street when some colored men ran out in the street and caught the brute. The horse fell down and broke one shaft of the buggy. The occupants got out of the vehicle without injury.

Death of Mrs. W. T. Farrow.

Washington, N. C., June 16.—Mrs. W. T. Farrow, wife of Gen. W. T. Farrow, died here yesterday at 2:30 o'clock. She had been a heroic patient sufferer from an incurable malady for years, and her demise was not unexpected, though a source of great sorrow to a wide circle of friends. The funeral was held from the residence today at five o'clock, the remains being interred in Oakdale cemetery.

Section Hands Strike.

All the section hands on the Southern road between Mr. Airy and Sanford are on a strike and refuse to work unless the company puts up more cash for a day's work. The Mr. Airy News learns that only two section hands are working, and they are below Greenville. This does not include the section masters, but they cannot do any work without hands, and the condition continues to grow worse.

Surprised Their Friends.

Williamston, N. C., June 16.—There was a surprise wedding here Tuesday when Mr. Samuel Forbes and Miss May M. Swan, both of Washington, were married. They came here from Washington, N. C., and after the wedding in the home of Mrs. Goldy, left for Washington. The bride is a charming young lady, daughter of T. J. Swan, and the groom is popular and prominent.

Old Citizen Dead.

Benjamin Tool, one of the oldest men in the county, died Wednesday afternoon at his home about 7 miles from town. He was in his 86th year.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be a remedy. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and was almost dead. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist. Trial bottle free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.00.

Not Apoplectic.

Two men met on a car at the Brooklyn end of the bridge on Monday morning. "Hello," said one, "why didn't you come round as usual, Saturday night?" "My wife's uncle in New Jersey died and I had to go over," was the reply.

"What did he die of?" "Why you see, he was a farmer, about 60, and a big, fleshy man, and he just went right off." "Apoplectic?" "Not apoplexy," Brooklyn Citizen.

Worth of All Experiences.

Can a youth because thou feel that every moment of thy life is a trial? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured unendurable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist.

Want Day Current.

There are numerous people wishing Greenville could have electric current in the day time. A number of motors would be put in if they could get power. The day current may come along when the plant gets on its feet.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved this medicine's worth for such troubles. It is a gentle, but powerful purgative. It is a gentle, but powerful purgative. It is a gentle, but powerful purgative.

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES.

Excellent Program Rendered by the Children of Methodist Sunday School.

Children's day exercises were held at the Methodist church Sunday night. The church was filled to overflowing with smiling children, beautiful women and handsome men. An interesting program had been prepared by Mrs. Overton, Mrs. Hooker and Miss Dona Hernandez, and without the slightest hitch or jar the exercises moved along from the first to the last moment of the evening.

The program consisted of: Voluntary Hymn—179 in S. S. book—by whole school.

Song, "Ninth His Banner Glorions"—by school.

23rd Psalm read in concert—by school and congregation.

Prayer—by pastor.

Recitation, "Welcome"—by Gertrude Critcher.

Recitation, "Only a Baby"—by Maud Hower.

Recitation, "Praise Him"—by school.

Class recitation—by Ella Brown, Addie Congleton and Mary George.

Recitation—by Wilfred Congleton.

Recitation—by Sadie Exum.

Motion song—by class girls.

Recitation—Bernice Hornaday.

Song, "Bring them in"—by school.

Recitation—by Nina Harris.

Song—"On this happy children's day"—by school.

Reading—by Mrs. Overton.

Recitation—by Mary Brown Collection.

Pantomime—"Never my God to Thee", Dorothea, congregation.

Too much cannot be said in praise of those who prepared the program and trained the children, neither can too much be said in praise of the bright-faced, sunny-hearted children who acted their parts so well. With such talents available for such occasions there should be no trouble about any sort of children's exercises in the church. We are of the opinion that many will look forward with increased pleasure to the next children's day exercises.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, June 19, 1905.

Regular services were conducted in the M. E. church Sunday by the pastor.

Some say a rail road will soon pass Ormondsville. We hope so, but it is too far away to hear the whistle yet.

The showers of last week gave the grass the advantage of our energetic farmers.

Will Ormonds have been the sick list but is now about his work.

Miss Pearl Onal, who is visiting Mrs. R. L. Coburn, attended services at Bethany last Sunday.

Ed. M. A. Woodard filled his regular appointment near Winterville last Sunday.

The eight-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Carr died last Friday and was buried Saturday. Our sympathy is with the bereaved parents. Rev. R. L. Coburn conducted burial services.

B. Y. P. U.

The B. Y. P. U. society of the Baptist church is increasing in attendance and interest. At the meeting Sunday evening in addition to short talks by older members, there were recitations by Johnnie Hubbard and Beate Whichard, both of which were well rendered. Miss Bertie Jackson has been elected secretary of the society in place of Miss Ollie, resigned.
