A Pleasant Exercise.

At the Christian church Sunday night the young people's society of Christian Endeavor rendered a pleasing program in place of the regular evening service. The subject of the meeting was "Our National Heritage."

Miss Minnie Tunstall ably presided and the program was carried out without a hitch throughout. This speaks well for the young people, who have only recently been in training for this kind of work in the church.

This service was designed to stimulate interest in home missions among the young people, and was uniform with one held throughout the country by the young people's societies of all denominations, especially wherever Christian Endeavor societies are organized.

The Christian Endeavorers of the Christian church have for their special work missions in Porto Rico. A goodly offering was taken for this cause.

Off For Philadelphia.

J. N. Hart and Carlos Harris left Greenville this morning for Philadelphia to attend a convention of painters and wholesale distributors of paints, held at the works of Harrison Bros. & Co., who are the largest and oldest paint manufacturers in the world. Mr. Hart and Mr. Harris expect while in Philadelphia to visit the painting department of the Navy yard, Pennsylvania railroad, and Gramp's ship yard.

Painted Paragraphs.

Truth and a woman's age are not speaking terms. Now the festive mosquito is preparing for a strenuous season. Money is naturally tight with the man who is shy of loose change. If you would convince others that you are a fool boast of your wisdom.

A pessimist thinks it's an ill wind that blows anybody good but himself.

Save now claim to practice what they preach merely as an excuse for preaching.

If you can't do any thing else you can at least keep out of the other fellow's way.

Why is it that one never sees the portrait of an angel in trousers or of the devil in petticoats?

One little flower to a living man is worth more than a wagon load of floral emblems to a dead one.

After making a strenuous effort to marry the man of her choice a woman is apt to be badly disappointed if she succeeds.

It sometimes happens that when a man comes home about 2 a. m. and finds his wife waiting for him at the head of the stairs he imagines he's a bigamist.

How Wonderful is Nature.

Many fish caught in dark caves have no eyes. Nature made them so because they have no use for them. If you live in an unsightly house for the need of paint, best thing to do is to employ a first class painter and have him apply Harrison's Town and Country Paint. Might just as well live in a cave as an unsightly house.

NOTICE.

I have been greatly annoyed by the boys of the town who tramp through my field and over my crops in search of fruit, and I take this opportunity to notify both the boys and their parents that positively I will prosecute for trespass any boy who repeats the offense hereafter. Nothing Equals Town & Country.

Compliments to the so-called pure brands of paint claimed to be the equal to Harrison's Town & Country paint. Indeed! the property owner is getting easy. Evidently their time clock isn't working; their mental microscope fails to find the difference between a perfectly pure paint and a so-called pure paint. The man you should use should be the paint distributor of paints, held at the works of Harrison Bros. & Co., who are the largest and oldest paint manufacturers in the world. Their works covering 35 acres of ground upon which is located 72 buildings devoted to the manufacture of the celebrated brand of Town and Country paint which because of its purity and wonderful covering capacity is used so largely by the government and the railroads.

AND YET ANOTHER.

Thompson Adds New Laurels to His Crown.

In a magnificent pitcher's battle Wednesday at Kinston "Bull" Thompson led us to another victory, the second shutout for the redoubtable twirler. The beautiful grandstand at the park was filled to overflowing and the field was partly filled with the interested spectators. It was exciting, for often the impetuous routers would find themselves between Turner E. in right field and Walker on first, and the umpire would have to stop the game, and yet it was played in one hour and fifteen minutes. How is that for something fast?

That park at Kinston is something to make your eyes pain you, with its monotony, nowhere there a brush or a blade of grass to relieve the incessant glare of the sun. Everywhere you see an absolutely level stretch of land, packed until it reminds you of the macadamized streets of a great metropolis, under these conditions our lads went out to battle a diamond and field as level as the pool tables in the Carolina club; "Bull" Thompson in the box, in perfect form; the whole team filled full of the confidence that spells victory, and with half the grand stand shouting their throats sore for Greenville.

Said one Kinston fan to another: "That crowd of Greenville women must be made up of, yes composed entirely of nerve," and so thought the Greenville team, for though out numbered two to one, they made themselves heard, for "Pap" Harris away out in centerfield kept saying: "Lord, ain't them women singing 'Teasing'?"

Everybody knows "Bull" was pitching ball, but that wasn't all, for he was backed by a base ball team Wednesday. Go back at former Frank Skinner's book and you find that not an error mars the page on which was scored Wednesday's game. When a ball went to any part of the field it was with the assurance that it would be fielded. Only one time did the Kinston team reach the third sack; two men were down, and a fly to Turner in right field ended their hopes.

Another time it looked bad for us, when the first man walked, but the next man tapped one out to the never failing "Pap" in center, then Rowe nailed one second and the next one was filled at first on an infield hit.

Though the game was ours we did not play all the ball. Hulcher for Kinston pitched a nice game, and Miller in left did several robbery stunts, and the people in Kinston! They were as nice to our team and to the friends of the team as any town can ever be. They are whole-souled, hospitable people, and it is a pleasure to visit the town. Ask the Greenville ladies if the men are not all right, and it goes without saying that the girls are.

The umpire was Mr. Sugge, and there is no kick coming from Greenville about him. He was all right. It is possible that Kinston may come here this week.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1905.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

Are not the places of vice, now being so loudly cried against recruited from the homes of our land? Then where does the evil begin, and where is the place to stop it?—Raleigh Post.

Wetake the above paragraph from the Raleigh Post and will give our answer as we see it. In the first place such evil begins in the homes, and the homes, and we might say churches too, are the right places to correct these evils.

To suppress an evil you must nip it in the bud. Don't wait until it has grown into a far reaching disseminating form. The preacher, Sunday school teacher, and more important than either, the parents, should exert every influence to properly train and educate the boys and girls of the land to ever be moral and virtuous.

If the young men and young women are not properly trained in the home and church all the laws of the land combined will not make moral, Christian people out of them. There can be laws enacted and enforced against certain crimes, but the idea of legislating into the hearts of men and women a sense of conduct as a moral code is absurd to say the least.

Is there any law that prevents the conceiving and harboring the desire to commit murder? No. And you might as well try to do this as to try to enforce a law against immorality. The only solution and remedy lies in the homes and churches, and to these and only these must we look for the remedy and suppression of existing evils. All the laws of our land cannot prevent vice. Nothing but the proper home training can prevent it.

THAT CHINESE BOYCOTT.

The seriousness of the Chinese trade situation struck this country very suddenly with telling effect, and when it became apparent that the merchants of Shanghai and other commercial centers were determined in their effort to boycott American manufactured goods, the authorities at Washington were quick to act. The cabinet was mustered together and the matter thoroughly discussed, and as a result of that caucus Mr. Roosevelt went to work to try to satisfy the indignant Chinese.

All this trouble has grown out of the exclusion of the celestials of this country. But it remains to be seen how the Chinese take this explanation. It may be that their determination cannot be diverted, and this country will have to act very careful if they smooth over these differences.

An interesting comparison may be drawn from the review of the mayor's court as reported by Mayor Wooten to the aldermen Thursday night for the past year and the record for the previous year. For the year ending June 30th, 1905, there were 265 arrests by the police upon warrants issued by the mayor. Of this number 206 were adjudged guilty, 19 not guilty, and 30 bound over to superior court. For the previous year ending June 30th, 1904, there were 385 arrests, 293 adjudged

"Is it hot enough for you?" This question is generally asked by those who haven't anything else to do. Men who work and attend to their own business haven't got time to be asking such foolish questions. At this season of the year we all know it is hot enough for us.

A widow in Pennsylvania has brought suit against a man thirty years old for breach of promise. The charge being that "his wife dances too much. No doubt, he has been giving him a song and dance also.

As time changes nature seems to change also, and what is puzzling us right now is how did the people get along in olden times when there was no such thing as appendicitis? We guess our ancestors didn't have any verminiform appendix at all, and too, these numerous breakfast foods were not on the market back in those days, yet they lived a long time back there.

It is said that Russia is not willing to go to peace; that she wants to put the initiative upon Japan. We will just bet our last summer straw hat that when Japan is caught using it will be for a big pile of damages—not peace. Japan don't want peace; she is having the time of her life in this war affair.

The merchants in Greenville have been wasting money on their side walks long enough for them to make a change. They are continually making repairs on the side-walks in front of their stores. They put in brick that last never more than eighteen months. It would greatly improve the appearance of the town.

A funny law has been passed in Indiana, that of requiring revolvers found on prisoners to be destroyed. This smells cheesy. Messrs. Smith & Wesson and Iver Johnson must have been hanging around when that law was passed.

Georgia has covered herself in disgrace again. A few nights ago a mob went to the jail at Watkinsville, in that state, forced the jailer to open the door and lynched nine prisoners, one of them white and eight colored.

It looks like China is determined to make all that is possible out of the exclusiveness of the United States with regard to immigrants from the Flowery Kingdom. Their indignation may carry them too far.

The warmest thing we have seen come down the pike is the editorial which appeared in a recent issue of the Charlotte Observer, in which Editor Caldwell unmercifully scores one Rev. A. J. McKelway. It reads as follows:

"For twenty-eight years I have been writing newspaper editorials and it has been my fortune within that time that many cranes have barked at my heels. Some of these have left the State between suns and others have dropped into obscurity. Others still remain. The most malignant and indecent of all these dogs is A. J. McKelway, preacher, reformer, editor of a so-called religious paper and common liar."

and make their places of business more attractive if they would swing together, each man paying his pro rata share, and put in a good asphalt side-walk on each side of Evans street, or even cement would be better and cheaper in the end. And again, why not save some of the money the town is expending in the present street force, and in the repairing of the streets after every storm, and pave or macadamize our streets and side-walks all over town.

The rise in cotton now does not do the farmers much good as the majority of farmers, the ones who needed good prices more, were forced to dispose of the staple for about 7 cents.

It is authentically stated that the Japanese have mastered the theory and practice of insulation of their armies against all forms of diseases common to war, even typhoid fever.

A man in Goshen, Ind., is suing his wife for absolute divorce. The charge being that "his wife dances too much. No doubt, he has been giving him a song and dance also.

The two proposed Republican papers for Greensboro bid fair to lock horns, but then they will get along as well as the three dailies at the capital.

Trouble about some people is that they never discover how little and insignificant they are until they are ready to "kick the bucket."

Texas comes to the front with her first bale of new cotton for the season. It was sold at auction and brought 30 cents a pound.

The crusade against vagrancy in various places seems to have stopped all of a sudden. Surely they haven't all gone to work.

The reason so many pepop broke is because they make it a habit of breaking every dollar they get their "paws" on.

The way cotton is acting on the New York cotton exchange makes us think that Dan Sully is hanging around there again.

There are scores of people who swallow their conscience without the slightest fear of having a case of indigestion.

The announcement of the date of the first issues of the two Republican papers at Greensboro has not yet been made.

It appears that the Japanese-Russian war has satiated the war spirit of more countries than Germany and France.

There was something doing Wednesday in the base ball line at Kinston. Greenville one, Kinston none.

If peace is not reached very soon Linovitch bids fare to break the springing record of Russia.

Next week the Carolina-Virginia editors will be doing Asheville. We hope to have a hand in it.

It is not a question now as to who started the war between Russia and Japan. Who is going to stop it is the question at issue.

The liquor question in some counties is getting about as hot as the genuine article itself.

Disorder and revolt is the order of the day in Russia, and this spirit is rapidly spreading.

GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR MALLOW PEOPLE

AND STILL WE WIN.

Greenville 10, Tarboro 2.

About four hundred people saw Greenville win the interesting game from Tarboro Friday afternoon. It was the slowest game seen here this season.

For a while it was something fast then it began to slump, and it slumped until even the team grew careless, and played "kid" base ball.

The crowd went to the park for a good game, and everybody expected it for usually Tarboro has a fast game.

There were no spectacular plays to make the fans grow wild, only a long hit or two for them to applaud and talk about.

The features of the game for Greenville was the hitting of John Ivey Smith, who got four hits of five chances, the catch of Bert James behind second, and the round loose work of the team.

A team always has an off day once in a while, Friday was the day. Next Tuesday they will be in trim and will give Washington all she is looking for, and perhaps a great deal more.

Greenville did do one right good stout though didn't she. It was good work when she kept the visitors from scoring when they had three men on bases with nothing out. It looked so bright for them that they began to feel good and show their big pitcher, began to smile, for he was at the bat, and was counting on one of these hard-corking, stinging singles; one of these you usually score two runs on, but he was counting like chicken and Tarboro had three men on bases when there men were out.

It would have been an easy shut out, but it seemed nobody wanted one. Three hits are what they are credited with, while we made four times that many. Eight errors are all we made, and they made seven. Nice game wasn't it But, paw, nobody cares how it was, just so we won it, and nobody will kick on a bad game in Washington just so it comes our way, but it is going to take hard work to win it. Our team can work and the game is coming to us.

Nervous Dyspepsia Can be Cured if One
Will Try the Right Thing.
I was down with Nervous Dyspepsia for eight years. When I was taken I weighed 185 pounds, and it reduced me to 118. I could not touch solid food. I believe if I had taken solid food it would have killed me, and I had to live on sweets and lightest kind of diet.
I had severe nervous spells nearly every day and would have doctors to treat me, but they did not do me one particle of good—
not even to relieve me.
I was so weak that for three months I was not able to walk across the room. I had rather die than to suffer it over again, and I felt that I was in a worse condition than any one who ever lived.
Mrs. Joe Person and my wife persuaded me to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.
I bought a dozen bottles and it was three months before I felt any relief at all. Then I commenced to improve right along.
I took thirty five bottles and it cured me.
It has been two years since I was cured, and I have never had a touch of the trouble since, and can eat anything under the sun, and as much of it as I want.
If any one will stick to Mrs.
Person's Remedy long enough to build up the system, I know it will cure the most aggravated case of dyspepsia or nervousness that can be found.

Why, when buying a book, are we influenced by the author's name?
Why, by an artist's, if we purchase a picture?

Why do wise buyers insist upon having a reliable name on nearly everything they purchase?

It is because the name attached is the safeguard of the buyer's protection against the palming off of inferior articles.
“This ‘name guarantee’ we all look for in the most important things we buy, and what can be more important than our food?”
Everybody knows that all intelligent housekeepers are very particular about the buying of things to eat and drink, and nobody realizes it more than the up-to-date grocer, who caters to the wants of his customers.

For instance, every real grocer knows the reason of the universal popularity of Lion Coffee, the leader of all package coffees. He knows that its uniform purity and high quality have made it welcome in millions of American homes for over a quarter of a century.

Realizing this, he cannot but hand it out cheerfully when asked for it. He knows that the people accept the package as a guarantee of the contents.

Yet there may be a few grocers left who do not recognize that the buyers—not the seller—has the right of choice, and they may want to sell their loose coffee (who knows what it is, or where it came from?) instead of Lion Coffee, which the customer asks for, and the merits of which both know.
In such cases the wise advice is:
“Change your dealer.”

A broader Sphere.
“We note with regret that the News and Observer announces that the Raleigh Male Academy has closed its doors. For many years it has done fine work preparing boys for college, and there are too few schools of this type.”

The above from the Greenville
REFLECTOR represents a misconception that has been somewhat general.
In name the Raleigh Male Academy, with its honorable history, is no more, but the work and the spirit of the Raleigh Male Academy, with its scholarly head, remain with us in a broader sphere of usefulness. Heretofore the advantages of Mr. Morson's wise instruction have been limited largely only to the youth whose parents were able to pay tuition. In the future, in the new Raleigh High School, the head of Raleigh's public school system, the instruction that has made the Raleigh Male Academy famous will be freely given to every ambitious youth in Raleigh. This step is the most progressive movement in education taken in Raleigh
in a dozen years.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Success And Failure.

It sometimes happens that the man who is popularly rated as successful has utterly failed, though no one else is so well aware of the fact as he is himself. He may have acquired wealth or he may have achieved fame, but in neither the one thing nor the other did he obtain what was most essential to him. On the other hand, the man who is rated as a failure may have achieved a very desirable sort of success. He may live in poverty and obscurity, but he may be the possessor of a character which is an inestimable blessing to him and to others. He has adjusted himself well to his environment and sustains right relations to the world about him, and he is not disturbed by the pranks of fortune.
We do not conceive of such a man as an inactive fatalist. Work is one of the best forms of prayer, and it brings the best form of mental peace that is possible to men in this world.

We would not be understood as holding that the man who has accumulated wealth has necessarily failed. If that was his chief desire and ambition, and if he succeeds in his efforts, he may be satisfied. The fact that he has sacrificed everything to the one end of money getting may not trouble him, and his accumulations may fill his sense of need. This is sometimes the case, though not always, but when it is, it is an instance of success as the world generally looks at it. When a man accumulates a fortune and feels that it represents sacrifices for which it does not atone, he knows that he has failed, no matter what others may think about it. So with the individual who achieves fame. The sacrifices often outweigh the reward, though occasionally it may mean success. Generally, though, there is more satisfaction in the struggle upward than there is in the seat on the heights. Very often the situation is isolated, lonely and removed from the channels of human sympathy.
Money does not necessarily mean success, nor does fame, and these facts claim consideration. People should try to determine what is best worth while, as a chief aim in life.
There is wealth in this world's goods and there is wealth of character—personal worth. This abides. It is something that the individual may take with him wherever he goes. Its possession does not necessarily involve self satisfaction, but it is rarely a source of disappointment. It is not accompanied, with the feeling that life has been frittered away, that the individual vitality has been expended in an effort to gather trifles
that are only for a day.—Danville, Va., Bee.

POINTERS.

Why Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy Should be used.

No preparation on the market today can show such endowments from North Carolina. It has been on the market more than twenty years, and made more wonderful cures than any medicine known. Its field for usefulness is unlimited, as it will cure anything that can be cured by building up the system and purifying the blood. It is a fine Tonic, as an alternative there is none better; as

CARD FROM MRS. PERSON.

Can it be That Most of the Ills of Life Can be Cured Through the Blood?

I have confined the recommendation of my Remedy to troubles that had their origin in impure blood, a "rundown" system, and yet I know it can do more. Five years ago my Remedy cured Mrs. J. S. Thompson, of Hasty, N. C., of ladies' trouble, and since then she has used it as a family medicine, and now I have her testimonial showing that it carried two of her children safely through an attack of typhoid fever.

My Remedy cured a case of kidney trouble in my own family, of six months' standing, after all medical treatment had failed and the party was regarded as a doomed man. Finding that he was rapidly declining, he tried the Remedy, and in two weeks a great change was apparent, and in two months he was well, and the cure was permanent. I have known it tried in a well known family in this state (whose name I am at liberty to give) for puerperal fever, when four doctors in consultation said the patient could not live many hours, and it cured her. The reaction was immediate.

I saw Mr. Fred. Howell, of Goldsboro, N. C., when he was down with constipation. I saw him again recently, a well man, after using the Remedy two years. I have seen two ladies, suffering with cancer of the womb (and know of a third), and I have Special Remarks.

I am sure my Remedy will perfect satisfaction in every case where a Tonic, Alternative, Purifier of the Blood, or Nervine is needed. I do not believe its equal can be found for nervous prostration, and when one is "rundown," it will certainly build up and restore to perfect health. I used to direct if half dozen bottles of my Remedy be taken and no benefit felt to stop it, that it was useless to try more, but I have met with a great many chronic cases, where no perceptible benefit was felt on the first half dozen bottles, and its continued use effected a cure. In chronic cases of long standing where any of my Remedy is needed at all the use of a dozen bottles is necessary, and in many cases more. Some take half dozen bottles and more before feeling any benefit; a great many tell me they have felt better from the first dose; most report benefit on second or third bottle. It will cure indigestion and stomach troubles. It will cure tertial Blood Poison. In such cases give a wineglass full every 15 minutes or 20 minutes until the effect is felt in the head. I most urgently recommend the Remedy to every one suffering from any trouble that comes from impure, impoverished, or poisoned blood, or for a "rundown" system. The use of the Wash is of the utmost importance to be used in connection with the Remedy, in cases where there is any external trouble, inflammation, or itching humor. Send for circular. a Purifier or the Blood it has no equal. It is a fine Nervine and gives good natural sleep to those who are restless. seem them perfectly cured, after having used my Remedy and Wash for about a year.

I have known it to cure a great many cases of stomach trouble, that had failed to yield to any other treatment.

I have known it to cure four cases of nurse's sore mouth, after all medical treatment had failed. In the beginning of my business career, twenty one years ago, realizing what a powerful agency for relief to the afflicted was in my hands, I went to the medical fraternity of Raleigh, and invited them to invest gate my claim that I had a specific for troubles that came from blood impurity. I invited examination, to the end that it might be generally used by the profession, if I could substantiate my claim. I offered to accept any number of test cases that would satisfy them in regard to the merit of my Remedy, and I would cure in ten months he was well, and the cure was permanent.

VOL. No. XXIV

Twice-a-Week—Tuesday and Friday.

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1905.

No. 54

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Score Was 5 to 3 in Favor of Washington.

It was through no fault of "Bull" Thompson that Greenville was defeated in Washington yesterday. He pitched a game that under ordinary circumstances is bound to win. At every stage of the game he was master of the situation and had the Guilford college twirler completely outclassed.

People had been talking Hobbs and Hobbs until some of them were looking for wonders. "Bull" was pitcher, Hobbs superior at hitting, at base, running and on the rubber. And the little Hobbs! He was not in it at all when compared with Rowe, whose throwing was a revelation to the fans of Washington.

Our team is greatly superior to the Washington aggregation. Our battery is stronger. "Bull" fanned ten men and Rowe had no pass balls. Hobbs, the pitcher, fanned ten of our men, and Hobbs, the catcher, had several pass balls. Our team made eight hits; their team made five. Our errors were costly theirs were less costly.

Washington seems to be our "Jonah" for we never play the ball against them that we are capable of playing.

The fun began for them and the trouble for us when Turner, E. misjudged an easy chance in right field, and then threw wild at home, allowing Springs to score from second.

None of the team except Thompson, the pitcher, and Rowe were at their best most of the others had their inexcusable off days. These days will come to the best of men and they struck us yesterday. Washington was proud. The business houses were closed, and there was an immense crowd, men, women and children, but somehow there was not much rooting for there was nothing for them to root for.

John Ivey Smith was not up to his usual form by a long way. He made a bad throw and was off with the stick, but made a couple of good sacrifices.

Gas Forbes played an errorless game and swatted the sphere for two safe ones. Rich, the new fielder, was tip top; everything that went his way counted against Washington, and he faced Hobbs for a heavy hunt.

Turner, E. made one excusable error, and brought the grand stand at his feet by robbing Washington of a hit.

Bert at second, although a little off on the diamond, made up for it at the bat, and scored one of our runs.

Thompson, at first, was off on a couple of grounders, but threw well and was in the game all right, but for that. He is a good man and will be all right.

Turner, E. played the greatest dumb base ball ever seen in these parts. He misjudged, muffed and threw them away. He partly redeemed himself with the stick.

The Washington people were all right and treated the team nicely. The team makes no guarantees, make no promise to the future, offer no excuse for the past; it will simply do its best.

Printer Resigns.

G. W. Hearn, who has for sometime held a position with THE REFLECTOR, has resigned and after a few days rest expects to leave for the West. His purpose is to go to Chicago and complete his trade in one of the large printing establishments in that city. He is ambitious and not afraid of work, and will win his way to success.

JAPS CAN'T CRUSH LINEVITCH.

Russian Opinion May Not be Held by Oyama, However, and Armistice Negotiations Continue Slowly—Vladivostok Not a Ripe Apple.

St. Petersburg, July 3, 2:07 a. m.—Negotiations for an armistice between the armies of Russia and Japan, it can be definitely stated, are now in progress, presumably at Washington; but they have not reached a stage where any further announcement can be made.

The decision seems to rest with Japan, which country is weighing the relinquishment of the prospects of bettering her present advantageous position against the enormous cost of lives and money of another great battle.

The chances for a decisive and final Japanese victory, it is believed here, are no better now than before Liao Yang and Mukden, and it is pointed out that it is idle to talk of Vladivostok falling like a ripe apple into Japan's hands before the peace conference meets.

Last Hours of Secretary Hay.

Newbury, N. H., July 1.—The body of Secretary of State John Hay, whose unexpected death early today has caused sorrow throughout the land and evoked expressions of sympathy and regret the world over, lies tonight in a room of "The Fells," the quaint Gambril roofed mansion, which for fourteen years, had been the summer home of the Hay family.

Just one week ago tonight the Secretary arrived at this village from Washington, wearied with the cares of State and anticipating a "long summer rest." Tonight the same launch in which Mr. Hay made the short trip from Newbury to the landing at "The Fells," conveyed relatives of Mrs. Hay to the cottages, where they brought sympathy and help to the stricken woman and her only son.

The only members of the secretary's family at "The Fells" when the end came were Mrs. Hay and Clarence Hay, Mrs. James A. Wadsworth, of Geneva, N. Y., a daughter has been ill recently and had not been at Lake Sunapee this season. Mrs. Payne Whitney, another daughter, is on her way to Europe.

Mr. Hay died at 12:25 o'clock this morning.

Dewey Case Wednesday.

New Bern, N. C., July 3.—The case of Thomas Dewey will come up on Wednesday. Today counsel for Dewey moved a continuance of the case because of the appeal made to the Supreme court in the matter of the refusal of the judge to have the solicitor give a bill of particulars to the defense, but the solicitor opposed any continuance, holding the appeal to be interlocutory. The judge decided against continuance and the case is set for Wednesday.

BROTHER KILLS BROTHER.

Tragic Affair From Momentary Rage in a Baltimore Street.

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—James E. Ream was shot and killed today in front of his home by his brother Harry, who fired a second shot, it is said, intended for another brother, William.

Death of Mayor Munn.

Elizabethtown, N. C., July 1.—Major Angus Munn formerly of Tar Heel, Bladen county, died in Norfolk, Va., and was buried at St. Pauls, N. C., recently. Before his death Major Munn was one of the oldest living alumni of the University of North Carolina. After his graduation he began teaching and devoted the greater part of his life to that profession.

He was one of the best equipped educators of his day in North Carolina. Polished in manners, dignified in bearing, affable and courteous, his friends were limited only by the number of his acquaintances, all of whom will regret his death with sorrow. Though possessed of great gifts, so quiet and reserved, he that he refrained from the press save a few lines, which he, with reluctance, and which demonstrated ability as a writer.

Hart Knocks Out Root.

Marion Hart, of Louisville, is now heavy weight champion slugger of the world, has defeated "Jack" Root, of Chicago, in the twelfth round at Reno, Nev., yesterday.

Jack J. Jeffers, retired heavy weight champion acted a referee. The betting odds were 3 to 1 on Root, but a hard punch just under the heart put him out of business. It looked like up till the last round that Root would wear the coveted belt.

Pardon for the seeming impertinence, but are you honest? The word takes a new definition every hour with some and we are learning that theft is a far more comprehensive term than when first coined by our forefathers. Tom Lawson shook us up some with his allegations bearing on the astounding rottenness of "Frenzid Finance" and yet his tales are as twice told in comparison with the so-called paint manufacturers, who claim their frenzied stuff to be the equal to Harrison's Town and Country paint, the manufacturers of which were in business when George Washington was president and learned in ye olden days how to make toym and country paint, which is a perfectly pure paint. Harrison Brothers & Co. were making paints long before the fathers of the present paint manufacturers were born.
