SIX YEARS FOR DEWEY.
The Long Deadlock in the Jury Room was Broken at Half Past Four O'Clock Yesterday Afternoon.
New Bern, N. C. July 8.—The jury in the Thos. W. Dewey case, the defaulting cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of this city, rendered their verdict of guilty this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock after being out for two days and nights.
The defendant and his attorneys were in open court, Judge E. B. Jones before passing sentence on the prisoner congratulated the attorneys for the State and the defendant for the manner in which they had argued their case. He said it was one of the hardest fought battles that he had ever witnessed during his career on the bench.
Judge Jones stated to the defendant that he sympathized with him and his family in his downfall, but that he had a duty to perform to the State of North Carolina as well as to the defendant. He then passed sentence, condemning the prisoner to six years in the penitentiary. The defendant's attorneys then served notice on the State of an appeal to the Supreme court, which convenes in Raleigh in September. A bond of $40,000 was required of the defendant which was immediately given, signed by Chas. Dewey, E. B. Dewey, F. K. Borden and E. B. Borden, Jr., of Goldsboro.
The defendant returned to his home in Goldsboro on the evening train.

WANT MONUMENT ERECTED.
Efforts to be Made to Have North Carolina Railroad Directors Decide on Place for Memorial to Calvin N. Graves
Greensboro, July 11.—There is a movement on foot to have the board of directors of the North Carolina Railroad Company at their meeting here Thursday take some definite action in regard to the placing of the monument which is to be erected to the memory of Calvin N. Graves. Several years ago money was donated for the erection of a monument to this man, who, in the Legislature as speaker of the House of Representatives, cast the deciding vote which made the road possible. The reason the monument has not been erected is that the board cannot agree upon a location, several cities and towns along the road clamoring for it. Greensboro people think the monument ought to be erected here, the terminus of the road, and place where the last spike was driven. There is a green plot east of the depot, on South Elm street, which would be an excellent location for the memorial to the man. The board of directors will hold their last meeting here Thursday. At that time the new board, yet to be named, will take their places. The old board will have a meeting and take their final adjournment, when the new board will meet and organize. There are eight directors on the part of the State and four on the part of the private stockholders.

VERY SERIOUS CHARGE.
Goldsboro Man Accused of Attempted Assault—Arrested in Norfolk.
Goldsboro, N. C., July 11.—Sheriff Stevens reports today receiving a telegram Saturday afternoon for the arrest of Walter Grady, in the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine Company of this city. Grady had previously left the city and could not be found by the sheriff. Before leaving Grady failed to state in what direction he was going or at what address he could be found.
Yesterday afternoon a Mr. Godwin and his son-in-law from near Kenly came to Goldsboro and stated for what purpose they desired the arrest of Grady. On Friday Grady was at Kenly and took a daughter of Mr. Godwin to ride. The young lady is a cousin of Grady's wife, this city. The young lady's brother-in-law drove along the road behind the couple and finally saw the buggy stop. The brother-in-law soon appeared on the scene and caught Grady trying to assault the young lady, so it is reported. Grady came on home and the young lady went home with her brother-in-law and swore out a warrant for Grady's arrest.

Price Of A Woman's Virtue.
Greensboro, N. C., July 8.—Chief of Police Neely this morning received a telegram from Washington, stating that W. P. Moore, who is wanted on the charge of seduction under promise of marriage, Leza Yow, had been arrested at the nation's capital and would be held until advice were received. Chief Neely started Officer Ashe to Washington, but just as the train was about to pull out the officer was advised by relatives of Moore's that the case had been compromised. It is learned that relatives of Moore offered the family $100 but they held out for $150, which was paid. Moore is well known here, for some time manager of the Singer Manufacturing Company's office in this city. The case has attracted much notice here, owing to the pronouncement of the justice concerned.

It Is In Favor of Greenville.
That's the result of the series, played with Suffolk at Suffolk yesterday. You know the game was won easy. Just think of the score 10 to 1 in our favor, and Suffolk scored her only run on last ball. Old "Ball" was thinking of his "Flossie" left behind all the time that he was flinging that "epit" ball. He gets better and better all the while and in every game he adds new laurels to his crown. This afternoon at 5 p. m., the boys will go up against the real article. It will be Norfolk and name means a strong team. Norfolk is advertising the game on every street car as the greatest game of the season and giving Greenville credit for having the strongest team in North Carolina.

Glenn The Orator.
Nearly every town in North Carolina of any considerable size will observe Labor Day this year and it is gratifying to the town which is so fortunate as to secure the Governor for its principal speaker for the celebration.
Governor Glenn has accepted the invitation tendered him by Salisbury to deliver an address there on September 7th, the occasion being the annual celebration of Labor Day in the various labor unions and organizations of that town and Spencer. The two places will unite in one tremendous labor demonstration.
The Program committee of Salisbury has invited other distinguished speakers and elaborate preparations are being made for the great event.—News & Observer.

Hanging Will Be Private.
The county commissioners this afternoon revoked the order made last Monday instructing Sheriff Alsapugh to arrange for a public hanging of J. W. Hammons, convicted of killing his wife. The execution will be in the county jail and will be private.

FIRE ON THEIR OFFICERS.
Firing Squad at Libas Turned Rifles on Officers Instead of Condemned Mutineers, Killing Twelve.
London, July 11.—The Morning Post, from private sources, gives an account of the recent outbreak at Libas, according to which the first naval mutiny led to 25 men being condemned to death. The attempt to carry out the sentences of death provoked still more serious signs of mutiny, whereupon the port commander ordered the executions to be stopped and applied to St. Petersburg for instructions. The government replied that all the mutineers must be shot and a shooting party was formed, but when the order to fire was given the firing squad turned and fired on the officers instead of on condemned mutineers and a dozen officers fell dead. Other troops, including Cossacks, the account says, were summoned, and a serious conflict developed, in which between 20 and 30 Cossacks were killed before the mutiny was quelled.

Smallpox in State.
The Bulletin of the State Board of Health just issued states that there was smallpox in seventy-eight counties during the past twelve months, with a total 7,377 cases of which 3,636 were white, but with only 30 deaths, of which 13 were white. The disease has greatly increased, but is decidedly less fatal, though it may assume a fatal type at any time. Scotland county is a number of cases, having 3,350, nearly half white, being second with 318.—Raleigh Observer.

Engineer Chandler Killed.
Asheville, N. C. July 8.—Engineer Chandler was injured at Black Mountain this morning and died about 1:45 this afternoon at the Asheville Hospital. Mr. Chandler was between two cars repairing an air pipe when he was caught between the bumpers. There was no one present at the time, and when the engineer was found he was unconscious. The remains were taken in charge by the lodge of Knights of Pythias of which the deceased was a member.

Arrested in Norfolk.
Norfolk, Va., July 10.—Walter Grady, about thirty-three years of age is under arrest here for the authorities for the Johnson county North Carolina, where he is charged with attempted assault on Miss Lou Godwin a young woman about eighteen years of age, whose brother, R. L. Godwin, traced the accused to Norfolk. Sheriff Ellington of Johnston county will tonight carry Grady to Smithfield, N. C., for trial, the accused having agreed to return without extradition papers. He denies his guilt.

Five Years for Mrs. Smith
Richmond, Va., July 8.—Mrs. Estelle Smith, of Manchester, Va., charged with beating to death her five-year-old son, Ralph, was today found guilty of voluntary manslaughter. The jury fixed the penalty of five years in the penitentiary. An appeal will be taken. The case was submitted without argument because of the indisposition of commonwealth's Attorney Page.

Dockery Not Being so Well.
John Dockery the man who was shot a few days ago, in Raleigh, was reported as having had a set back yesterday. The preliminary hearing of Policeman Rodgers who shot him has been continued.

J. B. CHERRY & CO.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT DEPARTMENT STORE.

FOUR NEWSPAPERS SUED
 The Charlotte Observer, The Charlotte Chronicle, The Raleigh Times, The Greenville, S. C. News.
 In yesterday morning's News and Observer, a telegram was printed under the Charlotte date line telling that Editor A. J. McKelway, of the Presbyterian Standard, had filed a suit against the Charlotte Observer and Editor Caldwell of this paper, for alleged libelous statements recently appearing in that paper in a signed article by Editor Caldwell on the editorial page.
 It is learned that not alone is the Charlotte Observer and Editor Caldwell to be sued, but that each paper republishing the article is to be given the choice to either publish a full retraction or stand suit, and that all the suits will be for heavy damages.

The suit against the Charlotte Observer is for $50,000 and that against Editor Caldwell is for $25,000. The Charlotte Observer has recently become incorporated as the Observer Publishing Company, with J. P. Caldwell and D. A. Tompkins holding all the stock except one share.

The other papers to be sued are the Raleigh Evening Times, of Raleigh, for $25,000; the Charlotte Chronicle, of Charlotte, for $25,000, and the Greenville, S. C. News, for $25,000. In the case of the Greenville News the article in the Charlotte Observer is its entirety, with comments reflecting severely upon Dr. McKelway.

In accordance with the law of North Carolina the London libel law, concerning publications held to be libelous, a demand has been made or will be made to the papers in North Carolina that a full apology and retraction be made of the article and statements published and republished, or that the suits will be started. It is expected that the cases against the Charlotte papers will be tried at the fall term of the Superior court.—News and Observer.

UNION STATION FOR GOLDBORO

The Outlook for One in the Near Future Considered Most Promising.

Goldboro, N. C., July 10.—A union passenger depot for Goldboro is now under way, which will be much interest being manifested by the people of all classes. A majority of the citizens would like to see a union station located on the outskirts of the city, while the strong business element prefer a large and attractive shed arrangement of some kind erected in the center of the town where the trains now stop. Provided such a structure could be built that would not detract from the appearance of East and West Centre streets. The outcome is awaited with interest by everyone and it is hoped will soon be settled satisfactorily.

Carved Him With Razor.

Rock Hill, S. C., July 9.—Louis Hutchinson, colored, surrendered himself yesterday to Deputy Sheriff Quinn. He told the officer that he had cut another negro, Ed Alexander, to death with a knife or razor, on the farm of Mr. W. C. Biggers, near this city, some time in the forenoon. It appears that Alexander had been attentive to some married member of Hutchinson's family and, after being warned, had persisted in his attentions. Saturday Hutchinson, so he claims, came on Alexander under suspicious circumstances and proceeded to cut him to pieces. The wounded negro was not dead tonight, but is believed to be mortally wounded. Hutchinson, after giving himself up, was taken to the county jail in Yorkville.

Standpipe Tested.

An official test of the pressure of the standpipe was made Monday evening. Water was thrown with great force to heights far above any building in town. The pressure registered 45 pounds.

NOTED DESPERADO CAPTURED.
 A Fugitive From Justice For Three Years Sketch as His Atrocious Crime
 Waynesville, N. C., July 9.—After successfully eluding the authority of this State for over three years, Fletcher Hopkins, murderer and desperado, has been captured and in a few days will be safe in Haywood county jail. His young son, implicated in the same crime was arrested with him.
 Hopkins' arrest has been effected at Bristol, Tenn., and Sheriff Nolan, of Haywood county, left yesterday for Nashville, Tenn., to secure requisition papers, from whence he goes to Bristol for his prisoners.
 Hopkins' crime was peculiarly atrocious. In the winter of 1902 he shot and killed Mack Kilby, a prominent young mountaineer of the Big Creek section of this county 15 miles west of Waynesville. The boy aided in the crime. Taking with him his son and a Miss Sutton, he struck out across the mountains for Tennessee and was lost to view until his arrest in Bristol. It is not known whether the woman was found with the Hopkins.
 According to those familiar with the circumstances, the killing grew out of the whippings of Hopkins' son by Kilby. The boy with others, was poaching on Kilby's land and they were ordered off by Kilby. They declined to go and young Hopkins was very abusive. Kilby gave the lad a spanking. Hopkins, who had been living in Washington State for some time, was apprised of the affair by his wife, and hearing a train came, straight to North Carolina and Haywood county. Going immediately to Kilby's home with his son he called Kilby out and the father and son shot Kilby to death. A woman in the neighborhood witnessed the crime.
 When he fled with the woman and boy Hopkins left a wife and another son at his home in Big Creek township. It is known among his neighbors hereabouts as a quarrelsome vindictive, rough mountaineer—in short, a bad man. Kilby was a quiet, peaceable citizen of good family.
 Big Creek, the scene of the crime, is the wildest, most inaccessible section of the State. There is general satisfaction around here over the capture of Hopkins, whose unsavory record as a bully is so well known, and where sentiment is strong against him.

WHIPPED CONVICT TO DEATH.

The Charge on Which Pink Fulton Has Been Arrested.
 Winston-Salem, N. C., July 10.—Sheriff Ainspach is in receipt of a telegram from an officer at North Fork, W. Va., stating that he has in jail at that place, Pink Fulton, the man who is wanted here on the charge of whipping a boy convict named Road Hart to death five years ago, when Fulton was guard on the county roads. If the man arrested proves to be Fulton he will be brought back and tried for his life, a grand jury found a true bill for murder against him shortly after he ran away.

PLEASANT TRIP TO GREENVILLE.

One can hardly imagine a nicer drive than I had last April, 37 miles, from Wiles by Saratoga and Farmville to Greenville.
 Good homes on fine farms were seen all the way.
 Some new buildings at Saratoga and many at Farmville.
 A large graded school is among the new structures at Farmville. I am sure the houses at Farmville are worth over twice as much as five years ago. God bless old Pitt county. I have some old thoughts about that section. I fear that piety is not keeping pace with pecuniary prosperity, leaving without religion is a curse. Because a rich sinner can do more harm than a poor one. Learning without religion is a curse. Because an educated sinner does much more harm than an ignorant one. A number of my friends have not given their hearts to God. Jesus says those who are not "with" Him are "against" Him.

 Spring Hope, N. C.

THE PORCH COLLAPSED.

Wilmington, N. C., July 8.—While a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen were thronged on a porch of the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach during a heavy thunder storm late tonight, the rain washed some of the pillars from under the porch and it collapsed, precipitating a score or more of the young people to the sand six feet below.
 It is thought that no one was seriously hurt, though one or two ladies fainted during the intense excitement which prevailed. The collapse was near the ball room, where a large number of couples were participating in the regular week-end dance. After the excitement was over the dance was resumed.

Cigarettes in Car Load.

W. M. Carter, vice-president of the Wells Whitehead Tobacco Company of Wilson, manufacturer of Carolina Brights cigarettes, spent yesterday in Raleigh. Mr. Carter says that his company has just shipped a solid car load of cigarettes to one firm in Richmond and that this is the first shipment of this character ever made to the American trade by any manufacturer.
 Mr. Carter says that the Wells Whitehead Company has increased its business over sixty per cent, over last year, and that prospects are that this great increase will steadily continue.—News and Observer.

Are you Suffering From Indigestion, Constipation, or do you have any trouble with your Kidneys or Bladder if so Drink the Famous Buckhorn Lithia Water.

ST. VINCENT HOSPITAL, NONFOLK, VA., May 11, 1905.
 Buckhorn Water Co., Henderson, N. C.
 Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to state I have been using myself and prescribing for my patients the Buckhorn Lithia Water very freely for several months and I do not hesitate to recommend it in highest terms.
 In lithemia, in rheumatic and gouty conditions and in certain cases of constipation I have seen excellent results follow its use. It is an exceedingly pleasant drinking water.
 Very truly,
 R. L. PAYNE, M. D.

OUR GUARANTEE:
 The shippers guarantee that of all the mineral waters so far known, this is the most powerful diuretic. They will furnish a case of any other water, regardless of its composition or price, and convince, by actual, practical, scientific comparison, that there is not a lithia water known to the public that will equal Buckhorn Lithia in uric acid diathesis.

THE TEAM AT SUFFOLK.

A Warm Double Header.

When the team drew up at Suffolk Monday at noon the clouds from the leaden sky were shedding bitter tears. There was no "trio" to meet us, and through the falling rain to The Nansemond hotel we trudged; a hotel with the European plan, a plan that feeds a hungry base ball team on bitter expectation.

After the noonday meal we went out to view the weather, and still the sky was overcast, and still the clouds were letting their rain drops fall, and soon we saw steaming across the track, the genial countenance of Suffolk's general manager a semblance of the expression that adorns the "mug" of the dead brakeman who is far from his protecting roof with no ticket to his "jees."

We wonder this face lost its smile, for the Monday's game could not be played, it was raining too much.

So the afternoon was spent after the dictates of each man's fancy. One Suffolk man played "lamb" and "skinned" old "Bull" in the pool room. In Greenville, "Bull" thought he was a bargain counter novelty, but with this man he was like the kid who fell from the box car; notice it.

Others of us treated our rustic eyes to the city sights until we were tired, others drank black and variously colored ices until we were broke, and manager Flanagan would lend us no money, and Bert James went to the postoffice sixteen times by actual count, between 3:30 and 6 o'clock. He thought the waves at Wrightsville were beating the shores with messengers for him.

The afternoon soon beat on to supper time, and shortly afterward we retired to rest ourselves for the battles of the next day. Manager Flanagan had arranged a double header, one at 10:30, another at 1:30.

The morning game began with Greenville at the bat. Bert James led off with a pretty single, and was sacrificed to second by Turner E. then John Ivy planked one to the third garden for a single and it looked good for Greenville, but Eskridge hit to pitcher and was out first, Turner J. went out to first and the jig was up for that time. Suffolk came up, with blood in its eye, but the first two went out by strikes from Turner E. to Thompson E. who by the way caught a hustling good game, the third man, Barret, patted the horsekick for a double tonight, but the next man hit to Turner J. on short and you know the rest. From then on it was "nothing doing" until the inning. Then Suffolk landed two on an error by Thompson at first, and a hit to right that Lipscomb could not find in the grass. It was lost in the knee high grass and the two men loafed home.

And still it was "nothing doing" for Greenville until the eighth, when Turner E. reached first, stole second and third, and scored on hit by Turner J. Suffolk in her half of the eighth did nothing, then our half of the ninth came, and we scored three, making the score four to two. In their ninth Turner E. who had been pitching a winning game was a little wild and gave way to Thompson, but this was not enough to fill the hole we were in, and they scored the two men whom Turner had given free passes.

At the end of the tenth it was still four and four, and the game was called to allow the players to rest.

Score by innings:

Suffolk. 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 2 0

The features of the game were theonessid mping of A. P. Ely, he gave Suffolk everything he could give, a one handed catch by Turner J. and a long running catch of Eskridge in left. Thompson E. caught a good game, and had them scared to try for second.

Halck, the left handed "Browie" who faced us at Kinston in the one to nothing game was in the box for Suffolk, and would have been here but for the hard luck of our team, and the decision against us. It was a good game. Now for the afternoon game. It was a regular slaughter. For nine innings we pounded out hit after hit. Bevel who pitched the five to nothing game at Greenville is not the firing line for Suffolk and "Bull" was for us. After a few innings had been played the tall, lipping form of Mr. Bevel was led a bruised and bleeding man, and to the tall grass to rest, and Haskins took his place, but they all looked a like to the Greenville team and he too was sent to the tall timbers, and a third man was brought in to stem the tide, but all in vain, for we had our batting clothes on today.

For nine innings "Bull" teased and played with them, and finally wearying of the sport he tossed one over to see if they could hit anything, and the batter drew back with all his strength and hit that ball for a drive to the centerfield fence, where it repeated the morning of his sister ball in the morning and lost itself in the grass, allowing the batter to make the circuit, the only time they reached the third sack.

Although the game was one sided it was not devoid of interest, for we made pretty plays, double plays, and played fancy ball. Eskridge and Bert made a double, and Turner J. threw to Bert, and he threw to Turner E. for another, and we made still another when "Bull" threw to first, and then Turner E. threw to third cutting off a man there, and the outfield was something to be proud of, all of them were in the game. Turner J. made another one hand stab that was grand, and Bert took one that looked like a home run. "Bull" Thompson struck out ten of their men, and their three pitchers struck out one of ours.

Today was a good day's work, for with a good umpire we should have won the first game. The afternoon umpire was Mr. Bucke, a former captain of the Washington Nationals, and he was a good one.

The score by innings:

Death of Mr. A. W. Simpson.

Washington, N. C., July 13.—Mr. A. W. Simpson, a prominent citizen of Buxton, Dare county, died recently at his home at the age of seventy. Mr. Simpson had just returned home after having conducted a meeting at Bolanthe when he was stricken with paralysis. He died in a short time thereafter. At one time he represented his county in the legislature and at other periods held other offices of distinction and trust.

GREENVILLE'S TEAM FULL OF CONFIDENCE.

Carolina Boys Think They Will Defeat Collegians Easily Tomorrow

The Collegians of Norfolk will be up against the real article tomorrow when they tackle the team from North Carolina. Greenville has one of the strongest college teams in the dear old North State and from the predictions of some of Norfolk's stars when they read over the line up of the visitors here on Wednesday the Norfolk team will have to play faster ball than she has done this season or win from the down home team.

They have some of the best men from the University of North Carolina baseball team, with Davidson college and other university players represented on the team. The Carolinians are confident of defeating Hannon's pets without any extra trouble. The line-up of Greenville is as follows: Thompson, pitcher, from University of North Carolina; Smith, third base and captain of Wake Forest; Turner, shortstop, from Wake Forest college; James, second base, from University of North Carolina; White, first base, late of North Carolina; Turner, pitcher and outfielder, from Wake Forest; Richardson, center fielder, a fast one and always sure; Forbes, G., another good outfielder and heavy hitter.

If confidence counts Carolina's boys have won the game, as they are defeating everything coming their way. The Norfolk boys are in the best of condition and show up well in real practice, as the rain late yesterday afternoon caught them while at work.

Norfolk is made up largely of North Carolinians and as they usually back up anything coming from down home, a large force of rooters will be there to help Greenville to victory. Manager Hannon says they all look alike to the Collegians and when they need run he has yet failed to see them get the required number.

The game will be called promptly at 5 p. m. Dan Staley will officiate. —Norfolk Virginia Pilot, 11th.

Little Gallaway.

The following cards have been issued:

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gallaway request your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Mannie Virginia.

Mr. Robert Lee Little on Wednesday afternoon July twenty-sixth nineteen hundred and four at three o'clock Salem M. E. Church Grimesland, North Carolina.

New Market for Tarboro.

Tarboro, N. C., July 14.—The question of a market house so long agitated seems now a certainty. The town commissioners have purchased a handsome two-story brick building, situated in the heart of the town and will expend a thousand dollars deemed sufficient to convert what is now a carriage factory into an up-to-date market house with concrete floors, walls impervious to water and fitted up with all modern improvements.

A Sixty Pounder.

RIGHT ARM BROKEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Pritchard Meet With an Accident.

Through a private letter to a friend here in Greenville we learn that late in the afternoon last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Pritchard, who are spending the summer at Panacea Springs, were out driving; by accident the carriage was driven against a stump and Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard were hurled to the ground. Mrs. Pritchard's right arm was broken and she received several ugly cuts about forehead. Mr. Pritchard was more fortunate, though he was dragged some distance and badly scratched and bruised. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard will be rejoiced to learn of their misfortune but grieve that the accident proved no more serious.

God to Judge.

Did you ever hear of a man trying to lift an unfortunate woman when she falls from the pedestal of honor and virtue? Nary a lift. Too much Adamic blood still creeping through our snake pointed veins. When once a woman trips and falls from high and honored position, she lands in hell, from which no human will stop to lift her out, husband and brother, father and son are dead to the cries from that hour. But on the other hand how be it? We have seen men as low as it is possible for them to fall. We have seen the wife lift the husband from the gutter and press him to her heart while tears trickled down her cheeks in profusion. We have seen the wife follow the husband through life in one constant whirl of misery and misfortune, and when at last at the gate of hell they are separated, she would wring her hands in anguish because the curtain had fallen between them and she could go no farther. We have seen the mother follow the son through paths of oblivion, shame and degradation, through which a man was never known to follow a woman, yet who is to blame for the downfall of some? What for the angels be the jury and God Amalthea the judge.—Ex.

The Seaside Colonel.

Caplain Dinger, of the Hamburg American liner Prinz Oskar, was talking about sea sickness says an exchange: "One voyage," he said, "I had on board an English ship, or I should say, an English sailor. We had hardly left Genoa before the colonel went down to his stateroom, and by the time the Sardinia was in sight he was sick beyond description—limp as a distelbush, pale green in color, and unable to eat or drink anything.

"As he was a friend of mine I went to see him on the fourth day. He lay on his back with his eyes closed, very still, very green. "First, I thought he was asleep, but, noticing a slight movement of his lips, I leaned over and heard him murmur faintly: "Corporal—corporal—sergeant, major—lieutenant colonel—lieutenant colonel—" "Could he be delirious? I listened again and again the monotonous murmur continued: "Sergeant major—ugh, lieutenant general—corporal—ugh, lieutenant general— "Then his eyes opened, and he said: "Good morning captain." "Why, I said I thought you were delirious. What on earth were you doing?" "Assigning the ways their rank, he answered with a sad smile. "There have been six lieutenants general in the last four minutes."—Wilmington Messenger.

A Strong Testimonial Commending Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Rheumatism.

Lowell, N. C., July 2, 1901. A few years ago I was afflicted with rheumatism, which was caused by indigestion. For about ten years I was confined to my bed two or three weeks every spring and fall when I would be so bad that I could not move a muscle in my body. I tried several different doctors but they failed to do me any good. During these attacks my head was shaved, and mustard and fly plaster were applied to my head, back, shoulders and feet, but that treatment did it no good. Some friends in Charlotte advised me to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I bought a half dozen bottles and took it. Finding I was getting better, I continued it until I took two dozen bottles, which made a permanent cure of me, as I have not had any symptoms of the trouble since. I consider Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the finest medicine that is sold today. I have recommended it to be several, and it gave satisfaction in every case. Before using Mrs. Person's Remedy my usual weight was from 135 to 145 pounds. Now I weight 170 and my general health is good.

Why She Rejoiced. She put the book down with a sigh. "What is it, darling?" he asked. "Ah, dearest, I'm so happy!" she replied. "But you had such a sad look in your eyes just now." "I know, I've been reading about the unhappiness that the men of genius have to bear. Oh, Alfred, I'm so glad you're just an ordinary sort of a fellow."
