CELEBRATION BARGAIN FEAST!

I have been selling goods to the people of Pitt and adjoining Counties for the Past Nineteen Years and I herein give you my guarantee that during this VERY SPECIAL SALE I will give such alluring values as have never before been known in Eastern North Carolina.

New Fall and Winter Goods Arriving Every Day

But for want of space we can only quote a few of the many Thousands of Magnificent Bargains we are now offering.

THE WELL DRESSED MAN

Should consider with great care the suit he is to buy and the store he is to buy from for the coming season. It is general appearance will depend largely upon the fit of his clothes, and the G. GRIFTON brand.

Good Cloth: This is the foundation of your suit. Avoid those unwholesome goods which lead to shoddy and pin your faith to GRIFTON Clothes.

Good Fit: This is the second thing you should exercise with more care than anything else. A poorly fitting suit is a poor piece of property. Buy your clothes just how tall you are, how slim you are, and at all times how short you are, we have ten to fit your own suit. This suit has the distinction of being distinctly stylish.

All the new lines of goods at low prices from $10.00 to $22.50. We will make it most interesting to you. Bring your shoulders with you.

SUPERIOR COURT.

September Term in Session.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report: W. T. Fleming, obstructing public road, not guilty. Ham Slaughter and Sam Slaughter, resisting officer, guilty, sentenced 12 months each in jail with leave to be assigned to work roads. James Boyd, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, fined $10 and costs.

Ernest Hardee and Will Barton, disturbing religious congregation, guilty, Hardee fined $15 and half costs, Barton sentenced 60 days in jail with leave to be assigned to work roads.

The trial of E. B. Jones for murder in second degree is in progress this afternoon. B. B. Jones, murder, not guilty. J. R. Haddock, carrying concealed weapon, not guilty.

Annie Smith, retailing liquor without license, not guilty. Ham Slaughter, perjury, pleaded guilty, sentenced 18 months in penitentiary.

James Kennedy, violating town ordinance, not guilty. Dennis Atkinson, carrying concealed weapon, guilty, fined $10 and costs, appealed to Supreme court.

Cornelius Atkinson, assault with deadly weapon, pleaded guilty, sentenced 90 days in jail with leave to be assigned to work public roads. Hilliard Mills, carrying concealed weapon, not guilty.

Rebucked the Jury. Judge Jones rebuked the jury this morning in a case for retailing liquor without license in which a verdict of not guilty was returned when the evidence showed that the defendant was guilty. It is noticeable that it is very hard to secure convictions on cases of this kind.

New Wholesale Firm. The Cobb & Long Co., composed of Chas. Cobb and Jas. Long, will do a wholesale grocery business in the building now nearing completion on Dickinson Ave. Both are good business men.

The Cuban surplus is said to be the result of over-taxation. That's queer. So is our deficit.

Minstrel's Coming. A. G. Allen was here today advertising for the coming of his New Orleans Minstrel on Friday night, Oct. 6th. The minstrels come can give in these dark and trying hours of life.

An Original, Old Time Minstrel Show. A. G. Allen's New Orleans Minstrel, clean, refined and up-to-date; everything new this season. Clever comedians, comic and artistic cake walkers and the greatest galaxy of sweet singers of the sunny South ever assembled in one company, presented under a mammoth canvas theater, seating over two thousand people. Watch for the imposing street parade which takes place at noon on day of the show, Friday Oct. 6, at Greenville.

All in One Week. The coming week will tell its own tale. By the time the folks get through with the carnival, two entertainments in the opera house and a big minstrel aggregation, they will feel like taking a rest.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C., will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha on Thursday Oct. 5th, for one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat, and Fitting glasses.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted By Greenville Baptist Sunday School.

As we pass our days here in life there come moments of sorrow and grief when the only thing we can do is to bow in submission to what we cannot now understand. Such an occasion now comes to our Sunday school. Miss Myrtle Wilson, the faithful and consecrated teacher of our infant class, is no more here. She has gone to her loving savior. We realize our loss and therefore, as your committee, we desire to offer a feeble tribute to her memory.

Since her conversion and connection with our church she has been a faithful attendant upon the Sunday school, always filling cheerfully and without a murmur any place assigned her. When a vacancy occurred for a teacher for the infant class, a year or more ago, the superintendent recognizing her peculiar fitness for this place gave her this class. Not only the members of the class but the members of the church had a more loving, faithful teacher. She possessed every qualification which goes to make a sweet Christian life. In disposition like her Master, she was loving and forgiving, in thought she was pure and kind, in service she was true and faithful, as a friend none ever knew one truer, and above all as a Christian she followed meekly, submissively, and faithfully her Savior whom her life showed she loved first of all. By Him she has been called from earth with its cares, trials and pains to Heaven with its joys and freedom from ills, therefore, resolved:

1st. That though we miss her and cannot now understand why she, in the very prime and fullness of a life of service, should have been taken, yet we bow in submission to the will of Him who hath done this and 'murmur not as we know, though we may not now see it, that He doeth all things well.

2nd. That we commend to the entire school her life as one worthy of imitation, in that it bore such striking resemblance to her Lord.

3rd. That from the depth of our own saddened hearts we extend to the sorely grieved and sorrowing family, relatives and friends of our departed sister our deepest sympathy in this, probably, the darkest and saddest hour of their lives, praying our loving Savior to give the balm which He alone can give in these dark and trying hours of life.

4th. That this feeble testimony of the life of our beloved sister, friend and teacher be recorded up on the permanent record of this school, a copy sent to THE DAILY REFLECTOR with a request to publish the same, and a copy to the family of the deceased.

Tobacco Sales For September. Secretary C. W. Harvey of the tobacco board of trade, furnishes the following figures of sales on the Greenville market:

Sales for month of September 2,811,726 pounds at an average price of $6.98. Sales for month of August 1,645,429 pounds at an average of $6.57. This makes the total sales for the two months since the market opened 4,457,155 pounds.

The sales for September this year were nearly a million pounds more than in the same month last year.

There are so many towns trying to get a stop-over from the president when he comes to North Carolina.

A TRIP TO BATH.

In Honor of the Visiting Young Ladies of Grimsland, N. C. Sept. 27, 1905.

Tuesday a most delightful trip to Bath on the "Myrtle" was given by John Warren and Amos Clark, of Grimsland, in honor of Misses Fannie Hardee, of Ormondville, Palmetta Taylor, of Hookerton and Ida Edwards, of Ayles, who are the guests Mrs. J. O. Proctor. Among the invited guests were Misses Heleu Galloway, Jessie Pugh and Daisy Tucker, James Galloway and Raymond Tucker.

An elegant lunch and delightful refreshments were served at noon on our arrival at the old historic town, after which we visited places of interest. A most pleasant day was spent and everyone declared Messrs. Warren and Clark to be most charming entertainers. Chaperon, Mrs. J. O. Proctor.

Jewish New Year. The Jewish new year will begin tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock and end Saturday evening at 6. The places of business of our Hebrew citizens will be closed.

Imperial Officials Here. Several officials of the Imperial Tobacco Co., from England, spent Wednesday in Greenville. They were E. H. M. Gunn and his son, H. S. Gunn, of Bristol, England; A. C. Churman, of Ipswich, Engla d. They were accompanied on their tour of inspection by W. C. Reed and E. S. Carl, who have charge of the local department of the Imperial company in this country. The party left on the evening train.

IT IS GREAT. Everybody in town is talking about the gigantic event to be given on Tuesday night when one hundred and twenty-five people will delight a big audience at the Masonic temple with an opera that is full of lively music and pretty girls. The fancy dances are beautiful and the cast is executing them to perfection. The opera house is going to be packed from pit to dome and the audience is going to be delighted.

All the scenes to be given are now running in New York and will be reproductions of Fantasia--The Silver Slipper--The Circus on the Mars, running at the Hippodrome--Boss Izzy and many others. It is going to be great. The sale of seats will open at Coward & Wooten's tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, 50 seats and extra charge for reserving. Tickets get them promptly at 9 o'clock.

Large Sales and Better Prices. This week has been another good one on the tobacco market. The warehouses have had large sales and prices have made a decided improvement, bringing anywhere from one to five dollars per hundred more than a week ago.

Graded School Ready for Opening. Everything is in readiness for the opening of the graded school on Monday and the attendance promises to be large. The faculty of the school for this session is composed of Prof. W. B. Dove, superintendent, and Misses Annie Irwin, of Milton, Minnie C. Taylor, of Toona, Va., Essie Rhodes, of Milton, Tenn., Neva Rogers, of Darlington, S. C., Edna Cox, of Ayles, Buena Spruill, of Columbia and Lillie Bennett, of Reidsville. Most of the teachers have arrived ready to begin their work.

A GIGANTIC EVENT.

Big Opera Next Tuesday Night.

One of the most gigantic events ever seen in Greenville will be the big opera on next Tuesday night with one hundred and twenty-five people in the cast. The production is an elaborate one and the most beautiful affair ever given here. It is an entirely new production of scenes from operas now running in New York. Mr. Atkinson, the director, brings some beautiful new costumes with him this time. Everybody is talking about the event and it seems that the whole town is going on Tuesday night. The sale of seats will open at Coward & Wooten's on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The sale will be 50 seats.

ASKED FOR EVANS STREET. But the Aldermen Declined. When the aldermen gave permission for the carnival to come to Greenville--that is took the tax off and let it come free (it could have come any how by paying the tax) it was with the understanding that the tents were not to be put up in the business section of the town. A petition was taken around Tuesday asking the board to change this by letting the tents go up anywhere on Evans street.

The board of aldermen held a special meeting, Wednesday night, to consider the petition that the carnival next week be allowed to put up tents on Evans street. The petition was denied, and the streets cannot be occupied by the tents.

One Negro Shoots Another. Goldsboro, N. C., Sept. 27.--People who were on Walnut street at that early hour saw an exciting scene when one negro pulled a pistol from his pocket and fired at his antagonist about 7 o'clock this morning. The ball took effect in the shoulder of the negro, and will not possibly do more than make an ugly wound. The negro who did the shooting, known as Slew Maek darted through an alley and made his escape as soon as he fired his gun. He did not wait to find out the effects of his attack. The negro who was shot was taken to the office of Dr. Theo L. Ginn, where his wound was attended to and he was allowed to go home. The two negroes had been quarrelling over some woman, and had been at enmity for some time. When they met on the street this morning the quarrel was renewed and the shooting took place.

Found Yellow Fever. Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 28.--A physician here received a letter from a friend near his had sent to Hillsboro, a cotton mill settlement, near Ashtabur, Randolph county, saying there were several cases of yellow fever there, and it was the last letter she would be allowed to mail.

The nurse went there two weeks ago to nurse what was supposed to be an epidemic of typhoid fever. She writes that there were so many deaths that expert examination was made, resulting in discovering yellow fever. It is believed here that the disease is hemorrhagic fever.

GREENVILLE'S GREAT
DEPARTMENT STORE.

Mill Girl Saves $1,200 in Ten Years.
The Salisbury Post tells the following story of a smart young woman: Ten years ago, Miss Laura H. Hooper, the daughter of Mr. N. I. Hooper, of Mt. Ulla, came to Salisbury. She entered the Salisbury cotton mills, went to work and at the expiration of ten years, she has saved a neat little fortune. This she did by faithful work and not by the arts of the miser. She always dressed neatly, was popular and she deserved to be. She is the daughter of a most excellent farmer and is a splendid young woman. Sometime ago, she invested $500 of her saved earnings in a small farm. Later upon offering it for sale, she realized $700, a profit of $200. Recently she has purchased and paid cash for a 200 acre farm valued at $1,400, her savings having amounted to $1,200.

The Landmark state in its last issue that the North Carolina companies did not sell insurance any cheaper than the Northern companies but that they promised better returns. This was an error. The Greensboro companies sell certain forms of policies cheaper than the same policy can be bought in the Northern companies, the difference being something like $4 to $5 on the $1,000. Other forms of policies are sold at the same rates. We maintain, however, that all forms of insurance are sold too high. The investigations of the life companies show this. We are informed that the cost is on account of the mortality basis fixed by the actuaries, which is too high, and that if the mortality tables were reduced to a more correct basis insurance could be sold cheaper.—Statesville Landmark.

A NEW ENGLAND GENIUS. HOW TO LOCATE SPRINGS.

Indians and Frontiersmen Learn From Signs and Observations.
There is undoubtedly a practical art of discovering springs. Indians or frontiersmen can find water in the desert where a "tenderfoot" cannot. Mexicans and experienced prospectors can similarly find ore. These arts consist mainly in the recognition of superficial signs which escape the ordinary observer.
It is not necessary that the operator should consciously note these signs separately and reason upon them. No doubt he frequently does so, though he may not give away the secret of his method to others. But in many instances he recognizes by association and memory the presence of a group of indications, great or small, which he has repeatedly found to attend springs or ore deposits.
This skill, due to habit, is often almost unerring for a given limited district, but under new conditions it breaks down. Old miners from California or Australia have often made in other regions the most foolish and hopeless attempts to find gold, because they thought this or that place "looked just like" some other place in which they had mined successfully.
Apart from the magnetic minerals, there is no proof that ore deposits exhibit their presence and nature by any attraction or other active force. With regard to water, however, there may be an action affecting the temperature and moisture of the overlying surface. Even here, however, it seems more likely that such effects are manifested visibly to a close observer rather than by direct system. The favorite fields for water diviners are regions in which water is abundant, but not gathered upon given horizons of impermeable strata underlying porous rocks.—Cassier's Magazine.

Winter Tree Duds.
The infinite variety of nature's laws, the nice adaptation of all forms of life to varying circumstances and conditions, the wonderful inventive genius which nature displays in devising a particular means to every special end, is nowhere more forcibly illustrated than in the development of the buds and in the various means adopted for their protection during the long sleep of winter. Observation of these winter buds will disclose ample evidence that the trees are forehanded, having completed their preparations for the spring adornment months before the season arrives. It will also show that, while the trees appear to stand unshaded in the winter blasts, the extremities, tender and susceptible to cold, are most carefully and cleverly protected, each according to its needs.—Frank French in Scribner's.

Food Courses in Ireland.
The etiquette of the fashionable hotels has not yet penetrated into the hinterland of Ireland. A correspondent who, with his wife, put up at an inn in the darkest interior was served the first night with an elaborate dinner of five or six courses. Unwilling to give trouble, they begged the landlady not to cook so much, as a single dish would generally do. They were taken at their word. Next evening the soup, fish, cutlets, joint and sweets were served in a chaotic mass in the same dish.—London Globe.

Triple Brass.
It has been said that the most brazen man on record is the one capable of asking a cab driver to tell him the way. A New York paper gives this instance of the next to the most brazen:
A doctor's night bell rang, and he rose in professional haste and went to the window.
"Can you inform me," asked the man on the step below, "if the doctor next door makes night calls?"
"I've been ringing his bell for ten minutes, but no one answers."
All to Herself.
One morning Mr. W.'s coachman was very late in getting to work, and on being questioned for an explanation of his tardiness he said:
"To tell you de truth, boss, I dun not married de marmite, and dat's huemone it I got late."
"Well, Jim," his employer said, "where is your wife, and why are you not off on your honeymoon?"
"Lord, boss," said Jim, "she's slum gone off on de honeymoon. She had all de money."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Clerical Wit.
The witty bishop of Oxford was once waited on by a clergyman who came to lodge a complaint against a brother cleric, whom he accused of ritualistic practices. "For instance," said the aggrieved clergyman, "does your lordship consider it right for a priest to kiss a stole?"
"Well," replied Dr. Stubbs, very gravely, "I think there would be better ground for complaint if he stole a kiss."

Cobby's Valuation.
Biggs (to cabman) — What will you charge to take me and my wife to Blank's hotel?
Cabman — Half a crown.
Biggs — And how much for taking me alone?
Cabman — Half a crown.
Biggs (to his wife) — There, my dear, you see how much you are valued at.—London Telegraph.

THE WELL DRESSED MAN

Should Consider with great forethought the suit he is to buy and the store he is to buy from for the coming season. His general appearance will depend largely upon the fit of his clothes, and the CLOTHES he wears.
Good Cloth: This is the foundation of your suit. Avoid those unreliable firms who deal in shoddy and pin your faith to GRIFTON Clothes.
Good Fit: This is one essential that you should exercise with more care than all others. A poor fitting suit is a poor piece of property. But it matters not how tall you are, how slim you are, how stout you are, how short you are, we have 'em to fit your form. A Grifton suit has the distinction of being distinctly stylish.
All the new things are here. At any price from $10.00 to $22.50. We will make it very interesting to you. Bring your shoulders with you.

Death in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 3, 1905.

A meeting has been called in Washington City November 8th looking to a change in the date of presidential inaugurations.

Mr. Cortelyou, who as chairman of the Republican campaign committee received the large sums contributed by the insurance companies, is not saying anything about returning the money, though there have been several intimations that it should be paid back.

Is Greenville going to do anything toward getting another daily train on this branch of the Coast Line? There will be no better time to get it than now, but it is not coming unless the effort is made.

Greenville hotels are putting in white dining room servants and find out that the change is doing well. It is said many of our best through-out the state are making the same change.

Greenville seems determined to see some big fire without going to the state fair; the only difference, the pumpkins will be absent.

It is said that Governor Montague did not spend any money in his contest for the Senate in Virginia. The returns were unimpressive.

The President is very busy just now preparing his message to congress. Here's hoping that that body will not snub him as bad as it did before.

Mr. Rockefeller says that a young man has a much better chance now to make more money than he ever could. The old man must have had John D. Jr. in mind when he used the above remark.

Mr. Roosevelt has rose up to say that "Nature has furnished us with these beautiful crops." Still, there are some little bob-tailed republicans in this state who would have you think that the Republican party should have credit for good crops.

The president on his tour through this state will stop five minutes in Durham, and the Herald says that is as long as anybody wants to see him.

The agitation is on again about annulling the lease of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad to the Howard Improvement Co. We fail to see the good to be accomplished by this.

Maryland is to vote on a constitutional amendment restricting negro suffrage in the coming November election. All the states will yet see that it is best to come to this.

GREENVILLE GRADED SCHOOL.

In view of the fact that the graded school will begin another year's work Monday, Oct. 2nd, I wish to urge upon every good citizen of Greenville the importance of giving his or her support toward making the year's work mean what it ought to mean in promoting the highest, the best, and the most permanent good of the town.

In the past the enrollment has been good, but not as large as might have been, and will not be until every boy and girl for whom it is possible will take advantage of the facilities so wisely provided by a generous public.

It is a hard matter for the man who wants office to keep from showing it and still harder for him to keep from showing his spite against his defeat.

Colonel Bryan long ago declared that syndicates of big insurance companies had a great deal to do with his defeat for the Presidency.

"Saveard," the Washington Post's military writer on political topics, says that John Sharp Williams is the greatest constructive statesman in this country today.

The Regulars. They are the people who think they can be found every day of the week and every hour of the day.

They are the people who have been made and trustworthily and face as those who are regular and who do not fly off at every tangent and carry every hobby that comes along with them in politics and they are the factors that count.

JUDGE JONES TO RESIGN?

The Raleigh News and Observer of Wednesday had the following:

There is a persistent rumor that Judge Erastus B. Jones, of Winston-Salem, will resign his position as Superior court judge and return to the practice of the law in Winston-Salem.

The Reflector showed the foregoing to Judge E. B. Jones, who is residing at the present term of Pitt Superior court, and questioned him regarding the report.

Speaking further Judge Jones said the nomination for the judgeship came to him as a surprise and without solicitation and that while it necessitated his giving up a good law practice and being kept from some much of his time, both of which were against his inclinations, the honor coming to him as it did he felt it his duty to accept it.

The Reflector is glad that Judge Jones has no inclination to resign. North Carolina needs just such men on the bench as he is.

ARNOLD'S BALM. Guaranteed to Cure. Cholera Morbus By J. L. Wooten and Edward W. Wooten.

North Carolina. In Superior Court Pitt County. 1 Nov. term 1905.

J. F. Harrington, J. S. Barber, Joseph Cox, and I. J. Pringle, plaintiffs, vs. Sumner & Co., defendants.

The defendant above named will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Pitt County, to recover certain personal property, to claim and delivery thereon, and the said defendant will further take notice that he is required to appear at a term of the Superior Court of Pitt County to be held on the 1st Monday in September, at the court house of said county, and answer or demur to the complaint in said action.

J. D. Moore, Clerk Superior Court of Pitt County.

The Dignity of the Farmer.

Time has been when a man did not particularly expect an honored seat because he was a farmer; and in some places and among certain classes perhaps he might not expect it now; but, speaking broadly, a dignity attaches to the profession of the farmer that has never been known before.

We say "profession of the farmer" for we believe that his high and noble calling entitles him to a distinction among the professions.

Never before, perhaps, has the farmer's influence and importance been so well understood. The Charlotte Observer in an editorial article gives this striking paragraph: "It will not do to deery the men who come from the soil. All of us came from it directly or at most through a few generations not far removed. It is true to say that the towns and cities must, if they exist, be recruited from it constantly, and equally true and true that very much of the best brain and energy of our cities, in industrial pursuit, commerce and the professions is recruited immediately from it."

Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A young man might think it is to his advantage to leave North Carolina for some other state but he is mistaken unless the sheriff is after him—Wilmington star.

Markdownwits Reduction Ophobia and Salesfever. These ailments are common with most retailers at the closing of the season, but with some of Greenville's retailers it has become "epidemic." Just think of a store selling at cost the whole year. Markdownwits affect the patients pump, veracity—they can't tell the truth.

Reductionophobia develops a mania for talking "hot air" and the germ is in some stores in Greenville all the year-round.

Salesfever creates a reckless gathering of "flotsom and jetsom," stuff of inferior qualities, no matter what its antecedents, most of it prepared for the store with Red Signs and Markdownwits.

A Veritable Boarding House Hash.

We shall expect our methods to hold. We are neither reformers nor philanthropists, and for young fellows, rather than old-fashioned.

But we are determined to build up this store on principle statements based on facts and values and Merchandise beyond any competition.

Newspaper space is too expensive to use for "JOKES."

Our little comparisons, such as reference to the "Merchantile diseases" are very serious statements, and we take this method of calling the attention of the most critical and intelligent purchasing public to these abuses.

It is high time for better business methods, my how. This store has demonstrated that today, did yesterday, and shall to-morrow.

We are never "over stocked," because we do not buy merchandise because it is cheap.

It must be good or it will not be admitted in this store. We reduce every week, yes every day, if we think it necessary. The new goods are here. Now for a general shake-up all along the line.

WE ARE HERE TO SELL GOODS.

THE WELL DRESSED MAN

Should consider with great forethought the suit he is to buy and the store he is to buy from for the coming season. His general appearance will depend largely upon the fit of his clothes, and the GRIFTON'S is his wear.

Good Cloth: This is the foundation of your suit. Avoid those unscrupulous salesmen who deal in shoddy and pin your faith to GRIFTON'S clothes.

Good Fit: This is the essential that you should exercise with more care than all others. A poor fitting suit is a poor piece of property, but if it matters not how tall you are, how slim you are, how short you are, how short you are, we have 'em to fit your form. A Griffon suit has the distinction of being distinctly stylish.

All the new fashions are here. At many prices from $10.00 to $22.50. We will make it very interesting to you. Bring your shoulders with you.

ORDAINED TO PRIESTHOOD.
Interesting Service in Episcopal Church Sunday Morning.
A very interesting and impressive service was held in St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday morning during which Rev. W. E. Cox was ordained to the priesthood, he being advanced by the church from the order of deacon under which he has served the church for some time.
The ordination was conducted by R. Rev. Robert Strange, Bishop of this diocese. Rev. Oland F. Smith, of Washington, D. C., a native of this county and uncle of Rev. Mr. Cox, preached the ordination sermon. Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, N. C., was also present to take part in the service.
The sermon of Rev. Mr. Smith was from the text John 20, 21-23, the basis of his discourse being the words "Peace be unto you; as my Father has sent me, even so send I you." It was a strong sermon and was listened to with marked interest by the large congregation. His remarks addressed personally to R. Rev. Mr. Cox, as the latter stood before him near the close of the sermon, were beautiful.
The music at the service was excellent, especially the offertory solo sung by Miss Nina James to which the chorus choir gave splendid support.
There was not a happier soul in the congregation than Mrs. Mary Smith, of Winterville, the 80 year old mother of Rev. Mr. Smith and grandmother of Rev. Mr. Cox. She remarked afterward that she had looked forward with joy to the day when she could look upon her son and grandson standing together as ordained priests. Verily she is "a mother in Israel," and her children were brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. She could indeed look with pride upon the two before her on this occasion. Both are men of consecrated lives and true Christian character, and are an honor to their county and will faithfully fill the sacred calling in which they have enlisted.

Keep Order.
It is well enough for the people to keep in bounds and not get crazy because this is carnival week. They are not given license to do just what they please.

Association Drew a Crowd.
Sunday's train was like an excursion. There were two extra coaches and they were crowded to the steps with colored people going to an association over near Staton's mill. The crowd around the depot was immense.

Primitive Baptist Service.
Elder L. H. Hardee, of Ridsville, a visiting minister of the Primitive Baptist church, will preach in the Universalist church here tomorrow (Tuesday) night.

Beulah Report.
The government bureau report issued today places the condition of the cotton crop at 71.2. This was much better than expected and in consequence a sharp decline in price followed.

Mrs. Griffin's Opening.
Mrs. Griffin's fall opening of millinery today was the center of attraction for the ladies. Her stock is beautiful.

Wilkinson's Opening.
C. L. Wilkinson & Co. had their opening of fall and winter goods today. They carry one of the best stocks to be found of the very kind of goods that please the ladies.

The Bold Bank Robbery Show.
Was seen last night by about 400 of our citizens and all were well pleased. Tonight will be presented the "Moonshiners" where you can see a distillery in full operation in the mountains of Kentucky, with the revenue officers in pursuit of the moonshiners. A fight to death takes place at the still, the office killing the moonshiner and the latter's wife killing the officers. The most thrilling scene ever witnessed. Also tonight can be seen the great Chicago strike, and the whole Dam family and the Dam dog." The most comical picture ever witnessed. The Greenville young man who went to New York under disguise and advertised for a wife, which was answered by a multitude of old maids and grass widows meeting him at Gratt's tomb and chase him back home will afford a fund of amusement. Tonight at the carnival. Admission 10 cents.

New Officers Elected.
After the regular meeting of the Baraca class Sunday at the Baptist church there was a business meeting held. The following officers were elected:
C. E. Bradley, president.
R. F. Betts, vice president.
H. B. Tripp, treasurer.
S. M. Abbot, corresponding secretary.
J. W. Allen, press reporter.
Asa Parham, music director.
J. W. Bryan, teacher.
Z. P. Vandyke, assistant teacher.
There was a large number of the members present and a great deal of interest manifested. It is important that every member should attend regularly, unless providentially hindered, as we have one of the best teachers in the state.

Letter to J. A. Wilson.
Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: Let's have a little private talk by ourselves on business; nobody else, please, read. You want to know how to do a cheap job of painting, and have it look good. Here it is: The cheapest thing there is in the way of a good looking job--say nothing about its being good--is Devco; the regular thing is Devco.
The reason is: Devco goes further than anything else. Lead and oil is good looking; don't go so far and cost more. The other paints are more or less short in one way or another; don't go so far and cost more. The other paints are more or less short in one way or another; don't go so far and cost more than Devco.
Devco costs least of all; you don't mind its lasting longer, do you? We can't help it; paint that goes further lasts long; we can't help it.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOR & CO.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Graded School Opens.
The graded school opened this morning for the fall session with about 350 pupils in attendance. Governor Jarvis made a short address to the school at the opening. The outlook is for a session of good work.

Munford's Opening.
The fall display of millinery and fancy goods at Munford's big store yesterday and today, has afforded a feast of pretty things. As usual his stock is carefully selected and represents the very best styles that the fashion centers produce. The ladies visiting his store are delighted with what they find there.

Let Us Know.
This week of carnival, late trains and general push will cause a number of personal items to escape THE REFLECTOR. Our friends can help remedy this if they will phone or send us word if they have visitors.

Big Success.
The presentation of echoes from operas in Masonic temple opera house, Tuesday night, was a decided success. Every part was well rendered and delighted the large audience. The receipts amounted to nearly $130.

Fire at Rocky Mount.
On Saturday night two tobacco warehouses at Rocky Mount were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at about $15,000. It is not known how the fire started.

Large Ear of Corn.
Today County Commissioner W. R. Horne brought to town with him one of the largest ears of corn he has seen. It was 12 inches long, 7 1/2 inches in circumference and was filled with grains to the tip.

Vote for the Queen.
Ladies' maneuvers set to be given to the Queen of the carnival on Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Vote 1 cent each at Coward & Wooten's drug store, or Evans' Book Store 10 1/2 1st d.

Bold Bank Robbery.
At the Bold Bank robbery last night the carnival tonight will be presented Jesse and Frank James robbing the Northern bank of Minnesota. You can see them blow open the famous safe, the noise of the explosion awaking the citizens, the chase that follows and two of the robbers killed. Jesse and Frank make their escape with the bank's money. Also tonight the "Gamble's Crime," "The Whole Dam Family," and the Greenville young man in New York advertising for a wife. All of this for 10 cents.

Announcement.
There will be a subscription dance tomorrow night, Thursday, October 5th, at Perkins opera house. Music by carnival orchestra. The dance is given in honor of the home girls, so boys will please take notice.

Tickets at the Window.
The postoffice has got the blues again, as a reminder that the box next carnival is on once more. The admission is, general 50 cents, reserve d 75 cents. Performance repeated every quarter.

Better Send Him On.
A man going through this section lately claiming to represent art schools in certain cities has been working a sick flock on the people. But the people love to be humbugged.
Don't Miss It.
Do not miss the Great Van Amburg Show, which will arrive here on its own special train and give two performances in Greenville on Tuesday, Oct. 10, one at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and one at 8 o'clock in the evening. The doors to its big tent opening one hour earlier. Grand free street parade in the forenoon on day of exhibition.
