The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or pesty boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Backies' Arnica Salve over handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality when burns, sores, ulcers and ptyles threaten.

Put an End to It All.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Civil Term in Session.

The November term of Pitt Superior Court, for the trial of civil cases, began this morning with Judge E. B. Jones presiding.

In calling the eighteen jurors for the first week only one failed to answer. Of the seventeen there were five with excuses. One who was sick and another who was running a public gin, which had to close during his absence, were excused for the term. Two clerks in town and one tobacco warehouse man were let off for the time being, the judge advising them they would be sent for when needed.

When the calling of cases set on the calendar for the first day began, it was found that one side or the other was not ready and it looked for a time that there would be little doing. Judge Jones advised the bar that he wanted them to give them something to do, and that after dinner he would regularly take up the calendar as arranged and the cases must be tried or the cost would be levied.

One case was non-suited because of failure of plaintiff to appear. Judgment was entered in a railroad case that had been compromised, a divorce case occupied a few minutes more, and recess was taken until afternoon.

There is a very small attendance at court, civil terms not usually having much interest about them.

Wilmington Mutiny Trial On.

Wilmington, Nov. 4.—The trial of Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, two of the three negro seamen charged with mutiny and murder of Captain E. R. Rumlil and four members of the crew of the schooner Harry A. Corwind, of this coast early in October, began in the Federal court today. A true bill was returned this evening against Henry Scott, the third of the alleged mutineers, who was the principal witness today against his shipmates, charging each of them with the murder of one man and with firing simultaneously at the third and throwing all their bodies overboard. He confessed to the killing of one negro seaman himself, but claimed that it was in self-defense after the mutiny was over. The trial of Adams and Sawyer will be placed on trial Tuesday, counsel having been assigned by the court today.

The witness today, besides Scott, were Captain J. W. Taylor, master, and Mate Simmon, of the schooner Blanche H. King, which took the negroes off the schooner at sea, and Captain I. F. Hewitt, of New Jersey, managing owner of the Berwind. The cases are being prosecuted by District Attorney, Harry Skinner, while the prisoners on trial are being defended by Attorney George L. Heschain, of Wilmington.

Negroes Bolt Party.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—Developments today have confirmed the report of an organization among the negroes, the immediate result of which will be the practical elimination of the Republican negro vote from the State election next Tuesday. The organization is that of an independent negro party, the idea being for the members to absent themselves from the polls for the present as a rebuke to the white leaders of the Republican party in the State for ignoring the "brother in black." The white leaders say they are glad to get rid of the element represented in the new party, as their present effort is to build up a white Republican party in the State.

LITERARY MEETING.

Epworth League Highly Entertained.

The monthly literary meeting of the Epworth League, of Greenville Methodist church, was held Friday evening at the home of the third vice president, Miss Beatie Harding, an elaborate program had been prepared and a large number of the leaguers were present and every one enjoyed the evening.

The spacious parlor had been supplied with additional chairs to furnish seats for these lovers of literature and music, and the large crowd present was evidence of great interest in his department. The league is fortunate to have at the head of the literary department Miss Beatie Harding, who not only possesses a highly cultivated taste for and knowledge of literature herself, but also possesses a rare ability and willingness to interest others in this great work she is so ably doing.

The program rendered consisted of choicest selections of music, reading and recitations. The instrumental music was furnished by Miss Mamie Haskett with a charm and ease that showed gracefulness and talent of rare possession. Mrs. H. C. Hooker sang several notes much to the delight of all present. Mrs. Hooker possesses a voice of beauty and richness which always commands admiration and applause.

The reading of selections from Biley's poems, and comments by Miss Beatie Harding were especially pleasing and instructive. Miss Harding also delighted the audience with a recitation, which was equally pleasing.

"The Foreign View of the States" was recited by Miss Dora Hornaday, who was called again and recited. "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." The entire program was interesting and instructive, and all who attended the meeting Friday evening are delighted to note the progress the literary department is making.

Wheel Run Off.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. F. M. Hodges and her two little girls were out driving and as they started up Third street at the corner of Cotacuch one of the front wheels run off, throwing one of the girls out in the street and the other one fell and caught in the foot of the buggy. Mrs. Hodges, fortunately, being on the opposite side remained in the buggy and stopped the horse in a short distance. None of the occupants were hurt at all.

It Was All Right.

There was a large and well pleased audience in Masonic temple opera house, Friday night, to witness Elmer Walter's "A Thoroughbred Tramp." Every part of the performance was good. Manager Reuss is to be congratulated on securing this excellent play and can always expect a large house when he has this kind.

DANCE AND BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

All Arrangements are Made and a Pleasant Evening Assured All Who Attend.

Everybody here is looking forward to the big dance and banquet to be held here Friday evening, Nov. 10, Park's Hall is lighted by electricity, and being decorated appropriately for the occasion. Over sixty couples have been checked beside the visitors that are coming with partners. Mrs. H. A. White is manager of the banquet committee and is doing things up in style, and we are going to have one of the swellest banquets ever held in this state. C. S. Payne, who is taking orders for flowers, reports over 150 dollars worth of American Beauties ordered for the dance and banquet. Everybody here, even to the business man seem to be taking interest in the dance and it is going to be a

Went just in receipt of a letter from Leola Ochsena of Raleigh, saying "I don't believe we will be there sure Friday evening Nov. 10, with full orchestra and guarantee satisfaction." Prof. Levin's orchestra considered by far the best music in the state.

This is strictly a card dance, and couples are requested to be there at nine o'clock sharp. The dance will begin at 9:30 promptly if there are only five couples participated.

Lets all come together and get there promptly on time and secure good engagements for the hop germ.

Several selections from Babes in Toyland, Potatoes, and Believing Girl will be rendered for the pleasure of the audience from 8:30 until time of dance.

Handsome engraved invitations are on sale at Coward & Wooten's Drug store at 10 cents each.

Large Fish.

The water has been turned off of Sheppard's mill pond and people in the neighborhood caught large quantities of fish, many fine chub being taken. L. R. Whitehead brought us one that measured nearly 2 feet in length.

Died.

Mrs. Sallie Ann Moore, wife of Worrell Moore, of Carolina township, died this morning. Mrs. Moore was quite old and had been in feeble health for sometime. Last Saturday she was painfully burned, by accidentally falling against a stove. She leaves a husband, who is also very old, one son and four daughters. All the children are grown.

The Columbian Club requests the presence of

Get Ready for the Dance. Alex. Port, of Baltimore, an expert tailor, has opened business in Greenville in the room above Frank Wilson's store. He is prepared to do all kinds of work on men's clothing. Those who want their dress suits neatly pressed for the dance should call on him. All work guaranteed at reasonable prices.

Back in His Old Place

W. F. Borch came in from Baltimore Tuesday evening. "Billie" returns to Greenville to take his old place as foreman of THE REFLECTOR, a position he once filled for nearly twenty years. He is glad to be in Greenville again and his host of friends are equally glad to see him back in our midst. He is here for business and our patrons will find him ready to serve them with his old time cordiality.

Six and One-Half Millions Bales Ginned

The government ginners' report issued today, places the number of bales of this season crop ginned up to the first of November at 6,500,000 bales. The future quotations took considerable drop after the report came out.

Marriage Follows Divorce.

At this term of Superior court there was a divorce followed quickly by a marriage. Mrs. Margaret Ann Forbes obtained a divorce from her husband, Manassas Forbes, to whom she was married about a year ago. James Curtis Harrington was in attendance upon the trial and as soon as the judgment in divorce was signed he and Mrs. Forbes went to the register's office and obtained a license. Squire C. D. Rountree was called in and married the couple.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

It Was Close in Some States—Amendment Defeated in Maryland.

Returns from the elections held Tuesday have been hard to get, owing to the result being so close in some states.

Both sides claim to have carried Ohio.

Stratton was elected governor of Virginia by 45,000 majority and there were large Democratic gains all over the state.

Penny mail was carried by the Democrats.

The amendment was defeated in Maryland.

New York is in doubt for some time, the election among the voters, but the last report stated that McFadden is elected mayor, and Jerome district attorney.

Truth in Reference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., Friday, Nov. 10, 1905.

By this time Prince Louis has been given an idea of what America is.

Russia's condition is worse now than it was when the war in Japan was going on.

The Greensboro Industrial News shows a disposition to stand pat on that police libel suit.

The fact that cotton is bringing eleven cents puts others besides the farmers in a happy state.

With cotton at eleven cents the farmers ought to be happy. They have carried their point.

Has the matter of another daily train on this branch of the Atlantic Coast Line died a natural death?

The Industrial News must have money behind it or else Greensboro's chief of police is badly mistaken.

The Greensboro Industrial News is progressive. Before it is a month old it is about to get a libel suit on its hands.

Greenville has numerous good sites for factories, but the trouble is that they are not being utilized for that purpose.

The High Point spirit ought to permeate the state. If it did some of the other towns might get needed factories.

The sick prisoner being kept in a hospital at Winston and was told to take a little walk for his health, is walking yet.

It looks like the other nations of the world should be doing something to stop the horrible butchery of Jews that is going on in Russia.

A football victory got on the side of the University team Saturday. That may encourage the boys to go to doing something for Thanksgiving day.

They hollered themselves hoarse for Mr. Roosevelt when he made his tour of the South, but they would not do it if he was running for president.

President Roosevelt got much praise for his part in the peace negotiations between Japan and Russia, but something like his big stick is needed now to restore order in the latter country.

Some calendar makers have a way of making holidays through the year in red, but those who put Thanksgiving day for this year on the fourth Thursday in the month did not reckon that the president would have his say about it later and put it on the fifth Thursday.

Mr. Joseph Benson Foraker seems to be supporting the president's railway regulation plan just like Sampson supported the pillars of the temple.—Commoner.

The actor should always be strong enough to take his own part.

Don't Get Mad When You Are Busted

There is one class of people who should not ask for credit, who should never owe a red cent and that is the class that get mad when a statement of their account is sent to them. It is a very rare thing now that a man gets mad and chews the rag when a statement of account is sent him, but occasionally some fellow who has not paid his bill, and shows no inclination to pay it, paws sand and raises merry Cain because he is "dunned." The modern business man sends at stated times statements to all who owe him and the business world acknowledges that as good business and no one but a lack number or a fool is going to get mad when he receives such a statement. If a dun is odious to you just keep your name off of account books, pay cash as you go and you will pass a single dun out if you transact business with a business man as you are sure to get a dun. That's just plain business and it is nothing to rattle feelings. But ninety nine times out of a hundred the fellow who gets mad because his attention is called to his indebtedness never gets mad enough to pay the account promptly. He wants to pay in getting mad and playing the fool about it. And you may bet your bottom dollar that the fellow who loses his temper when he receives a statement of account is never lax when it comes to collecting his own debts. Why, if a man owed him and was three days behind in paying the account farthing he would sell the poor debtor out soul-and body to collect the debt. But this class is growing beautifully small. May their tribe continue to decrease.—Monroe Enquirer.

The New York Times is making this enquiry: Who owns the streets?

The Wilmington Star says the autumn girl with her new frack and bonnet owns "most of 'em." Down here about Durham, it is the nurses and the baby carriages.—Durham Sun.

While the railroads often claim to be imposed upon by railroad commissions and the like, they are never willing to prove it by a reference to their books.—Durham Herald.

Some Little Fables in Lifting Rhythms

Two Pharisees.
A Pharisee of gracious men who loved of all men to be seen, once to the temple took his way to pose before his cunning eyes towards the bright and sunny skies he gave loud thanks—the story ran—he was not like the publican.
The Pharisee of whom you've read has for a long, long time been dead, but in his place in every land some other Pharisee will stand, and standing thus will pray aloud—not to the Father, but the crowd—and then imagine he is viewed with honor by the multitude.
A man with overwhelming gall who answers to the name McCall, swiped fifty thousand plunks or more belonging to the widows' store, and gave it to a sleek campaign in hopes to add unto his gain, but raised his pious eyes on high and prayed—and worked graft on the sly.
"Thank God," he said, "I did not swerve, but strove our honor to preserve." And as he prayed his pockets bulged with wealth secured by schemes divulged despite his loud emphatic pleas that none were quite so pure as he. And with a nerve sublime he tried to point to his career with pride.
The Pharisee of olden time has long since struck another clime, and all the world declares with vim 'tis surely hot enough for him. The Pharisee who grateful feels because the profits of his steals were spent to further other schemes will sometimes feel just how it seems.

My Friend, This is Worth Reading— Suppose You Stop and See— Isn't it Wonderful?

Greensboro, N. C. March 29, 1903.
Mrs. Joe Person—I take pleasure in stating that your Remedy has entirely cured my little girl of a very bad case of eczema, which covered a great part of her body. She had eczema periodically from the time she was three weeks old, until she was six years old. She is now perfectly well and I feel that I cannot speak too highly of it. She has not had a symptom of it for six years. Respectfully, J. W. COBB.

It was considered unusual because a number of hogs at Shelbyville, Ind., drank cider and got on a jag. However, the only unusual part we see about the affair is the cider, for generally hogs get drunk on this key.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Shoe Ayden is growing. An evidence on chief of police right in the broad day light lost himself and had to be instructed as to his bearings. Certainly we are spreading. That too, at a tremendous pace.

The success of the Security Life and Annuity Insurance company, of Greensboro, is phenomenal. Our friend W. E. Hooks informs us that during the month of October his policies issued closed with over one half million dollars, and during the present year it has done more than three and one half million. They anticipate at the close of the next two months to make it reach five million for the year. This is remarkable and reflects much credit upon our own home institutions. Mr. Hooks himself within the last twenty days has written more than thirty thousand dollars.

Lee Bland and wife and Miss Lizzie McGowan, of Greenville, passed from Saturday until Monday at Elder Bland's.

Cannon has got to eleven, now for twelve and that will clean the gutter.

Two nice families have come to Ayden. M. B. Barber who has accepted a position with J. R. Smith & Bro. and lives in the new house out near the graded school, and Mr. D'vae who temporarily resides at the Early House.

Mrs. John Hinton spent Friday in Greenville.

Miss Della Smith is teaching the free school at Waverlyville.

Cotton generates and degenerates as the market fluctuates and there can be no regular rates at all dates to suit the tastes of producers of cotton freights.

Our old and good friend, W. H. Hamilton, from Waverlyville, came Friday and spent a pleasant hour with us. We enjoyed his visit ever so much and hope he will do the like again.

Late Saturday night someone shot a pistol or rifle ball through one of the show windows of Dr. M. M. Smith's drug store. There is no reason nor sense in such conduct and the matter should be investigated and the perpetrator severely punished.

How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder, or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and drowsiness, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to such a degree that I could not walk, and water had collected around my heart. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering, and I could not get up to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if I had not been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."

TO EYE SUFFERERS.

Having just returned from the Philadelphia Optical College and graduating in a special course in the human eye, and in the science of refraction, I feel fully able and prepared to correct any form of error of refraction that any other man can correct with glasses. I will take any case of weak eyes, or eye strain, dull hurting, aching, burning or itching eyes, or eyes with bad or low vision, on a positive guarantee, to relieve the trouble and give entire satisfaction to the patient or not charge one cent. The largest per cent. of all chronic headaches and eye-aches originate from errors of refraction and eye strain. It is dangerous to procrastinate when your eyes call for assistance. Glasses are the only remedy for errors of refraction and weak eyes. Any style or form of glasses given desired. As good references as are in the county furnished on application.

MRS. MOYE ENTERTAINS

In Honor of Mrs. Paul Brown. One of the most delightful social affairs given in Greenville this fall was the six o'clock dinner which Mrs. Bert Moye gave to her friends Tuesday evening, November the seventh.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums, while colored lights brilliantly illumined the whole scene. Mrs. Moye, in her own charming way, welcomed her guests in the front hall and ushered them into the parlor where they met her guest of honor, Mrs. Paul Brown, of St. Louis, Missouri. Mrs. Moye was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister, Mrs. M. H. Quinerly.

After some minutes of pleasant conversation dinner was announced. The color scheme of the dining room was pink and green, and the sight on entering was very beautiful—silver, cut glass and flowers being in profusion. Here the color scheme was carried out in soft pink lights, pink ices, and pink and white carnations. These beautiful flowers hung in a graceful shower bouquet from the chandelier, and were placed in vases on the table, while at each plate flowers were placed for the guests.

The dinner, which was served in eight courses, was elaborate but dainty. It was a happy event and Mrs. Moye proved herself a most charming hostess.

Those present were Mrs. E. A. Moye, Mrs. Paul Brown, of St. Louis, Mrs. J. L. Little, Mrs. Harry Skinner, Mrs. F. W. Clark, Mrs. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, Mrs. A. L. Blow, Mrs. M. H. Quinerly, Mrs. Nana Brown, Mrs. C. C. Vines, Mrs. J. L. Wooten and Mrs. H. L. Carr.

Baptist State Convention.

The Baptist State convention will meet with the Tabernacle church in Raleigh December 6th. The Baptist churches of Raleigh have arranged for providing entertainment to all delegates who will attend the convention in time. If you are a delegate from your church, association, or ladies' missionary society, and expect to attend the convention, send your name and postoffice address to the chairman of the joint committee on entertainment at once. We cannot promise to provide homes for any who fail to send their names by December 1st. The committee will secure accommodations and special rates at the hotels and boarding houses for visitors and others who may desire us to do so. Let all delegates send their names at once to the undersigned.

J. M. Broughton, Chairman Joint Com. Raleigh.

Heart Will Contest.

New York, Nov. 8.—That a bitter fight will be waged in the courts to decide whether George B. McClellan or William Randolph Hearst is to be mayor of New York for the next four years is now assured. The complete returns give McClellan a plurality of 3,485 votes, the smallest ever recorded for a successful mayoralty candidate and a result which might readily be reversed by a recount of the ballots.

Very Pure Water.

The last monthly examination by the state biologist of the water supplied by the municipal plant here pronounces it "very pure water." No one should be afraid to use that kind of water.

Dead.

Lula, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryan, aged two and one-half months, died at 5 o'clock this afternoon, after an illness of several days. The parents have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Taken to Plymouth for Burial.

The remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryan, that died Tuesday afternoon, were taken to Plymouth on this morning's train, accompanied by the sorrowing parents and Mrs. J. F. Kemp, of Jameville.

THE DANCE

One of the Season's Most Delightful Events.

One of the most successful and enjoyable social occasions of the year was given Friday night in Perkins' Hall it being a subscription dance given by the young men of Greenville. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens, over which hung festoons of red and white, and in the centre of the hall hung two large, many colored Japanese parasols, draped with red, white and blue flags and lit by Japanese lanterns.

Dancing began promptly at 10 o'clock, music being by Levin's Orchestra, of Raleigh.

Sixteen numbers were danced, after which all participating marched to the Carolina club rooms where a delightful supper was served. This supper and the profuse decorations of the dining rooms were managed by a committee of the ladies of Greenville headed by Mrs. Herbert White, and the club is to be congratulated at its good fortune in procuring such able management for this, perhaps the most enjoyable feature of the evening. Red and white were the predominating colors in the decorations of the dining rooms. The walls were festooned with paper hangings of red and white which were joined in the centre of the room, where hung an enormous bunch of rich red flowers.

The tables were set in the shape of the letter A, and more than one hundred enjoyed the bounteous supper served, which was in the reception room next to the dining rooms, the orchestra playing many beautiful selections in the meantime.

After supper the dancers returned to the hall and the grand was danced until 3:30 when the familiar and much beloved tune of "Dixie" ending with "Home Sweet Home" announced the close of a very delightful occasion.

Greenville was delighted to welcome on this occasion many visitors from the surrounding towns and their presence added much to the beauty and pleasure of the dance. The success of this dance is due in a large measure to the able management of Walter Wilson, Jr., who led the dance, assisted by Miss Janie Brown, both of Greenville. Others dancing were:

R. B. Wiggins, of Boston, Miss Mary Watson Gottlieb, of Baltimore; J. D. Garden, Miss Sallis Cotten, of Cottondale; Harry Skinner, Jr., Miss Alice White, of Greensboro; W. E. Goolsby, Miss Laug; Dr. Wm Fountain, Miss Basnight, of Wilmington; Stewart Carr, M. P. Patis Skinner; A. M. Mosley, Miss Nell Skinner; Will Hunter, of Kinston; Miss Olive Morrill, of Snow Hill; Chas. Forbes, Miss Ada Wooten; F. M. Wooten, Mrs. Hume, of Greensboro; Frank Webb, of Kinston; Miss Coward; Mr. Seogins, Miss Irma Cobb; Chas. James, Miss Annie Gray Nash, of Tarboro; Dr. Fleming, Miss Bertha Patrick; Frank Skinner, Miss Short, of Washington; Cary Mayo, Miss Patrick; Fred Forbes, Miss Sherrod, of Hamilton; Mr. Sheppard, of Wilmington; Miss Basha Sherrod, of Hamilton; Chas. Horne, Miss Mary James; Mr. Ward, Miss Mac Whitfield; P. S. Cotten, Miss Lamb, of Williamson; A. L. Blow, Jr., Miss Ethel Skinner; Miss Bryan, of Tarboro; Mr. Fleming, of Hamilton, Miss Bagg; Mr. Williams, Miss Simmons, of Washington; Mr. Harper, of Goldsboro, Miss Blaw; Mr. Alop, Miss Laughinghouse, of Washington; Chas. Carver, of Winston Salem; Miss Barlow, of Washington; Zeno Brown Jr., Miss Margaret Skinner; Mr. Hall, Miss Janie Tyson; Mr. Pritchard, Miss

Forbes; Will Hooker, Miss Sorrell, of South Carolina; N. C. Everett, of Hamilton; Miss Fleming, of Hamilton; C. L. Wooten, Miss Daisy Tucker; B. T. Smith, Miss Nina James.

STAGS. Ben Brinson, of Washington, Mr. James, W. T. Brown, W. B. Horne, Herbert Jenkins, of Washington; P. Davenport, Clarence Jeffress, of Williamson, L. I. Moore, Mr. Harper, of Castoria.

CHAPERONES. Mr and Mrs Herbert White, Mr and Mrs Bob Cobb, Mr and Mrs Ed Flanagan, Mrs Mark Quinerly, Mr and Mrs McClellan, Mr and Mrs Vines, Mrs A. L. Blow, Mr and Mrs Haywood Dall, Mr and Mrs Woodward, Mr and Mrs Chas Skinner, Mr and Mrs Jim Fleming, Mr and Mrs Richard Williams.

Still Captured. A raid was made by revenue officers Wednesday night, and they captured and destroyed a 60 gallon still about six miles from Greenville. Several barrels of beer were also found around the still and this was poured out. The battered remnant of the still was brought to Greenville to be shipped away. No one was caught at the still, as the operators in some way got the hint that the officers were on them and skipped.

Just a Word Personal. THE REFLECTOR would appreciate it very much if its subscribers especially those taking the semi-weekly who it is not convenient for us to see personally, would bring or send what they owe the paper without waiting for statements to be sent them this season. Making out and mailing statements to a large list of subscribers is a big undertaking, and the subscribers can help us much by saving us this additional trouble and expense. It is the time of year now when all should be able to pay their subscription and also take advantage of the low club offer we are making. We do not like to dun subscribers through the paper, and hope it will not be necessary to do much of it. So we hope none will wait for a statement but let us hear from them without having to be reminded of it again.

Hazzard G. Nichols Dead. On the morning of November 9th, at eight o'clock, Hazzard G. Nichols, aged thirty-two years, a young man well known in this vicinity, beloved among his large circle of acquaintances, passed away after a brief illness culminating fatally at the hour mentioned; at the home of Dr. Blount.

Mr. Nichols had been in poor health for a number of years, but with few exceptions had been active and able to go about considerably. He attended the state fair at Raleigh, and while there was taken ill and returned at once to his home at Dr. Blount; since that time he steadily declined. The immediate cause of his death was rheumatism together with complications of an obscure nature and difficult of diagnosis. Everything that medical skill and loving hands could do failed to stay the progress of the malady, and a young and promising light was extinguished by the hand of the death angel.

The burial took place at the Nichols' family plot Thursday at 2 p. m. Rev. H. H. Moore, minister of the Christian church of Greenville, officiating. Mr. Nichols leaves to mourn his dear wife three brothers and three sisters, as well as a large number of friends in Pitt county and elsewhere.

MR. HOOKER ENTERTAINS.

Delightful Dinner to His Friends. W. E. Hooker entertained a number of his friends at a dinner party Thursday evening, Nov. 9th from 6 to 9 o'clock at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan on Equis street. The house was exquisitely decorated with palms, ferns and many other plants, while beautifully lighted candelabras illumined the whole scene.

After being received very cordially by Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan in their own hospitable way, dinner was announced. The dining room decorations were of American Beauties roses tastefully arranged on the table and banked in profusion in front of and on the mantle. Each plate was placed a bouquet of pink La France roses and Maiden hair ferns for the guests. Dinner was elegantly served in six very dainty courses.

Mr. Hooker proved himself an ideal host. Those present were Miss Irma Cobb with W. E. Hooker, Mrs. Nina James with Will Hunter, of Kinston, Miss Alice White, of Greensboro, with Lewis Soggin; Miss Beuna Spruill, of Columbia, with Tom Moore; Frank Webb, of Kinston, with Miss Nancy Coward; Miss Lizzie Jones with Tom Hooker. It was indeed a happy occasion.

Funny Aggregation Coming. "Hooligan's Troubles" which comes here Friday Nov. 17 for one performance can be truthfully termed the very quintessence of fun. Unlike most comedies it has a plot and this plot is in the main responsible for the many ludicrous mishaps and complications that round out a solid two hours and a half of genuine merriment. Hooligan's company that will present this, the latest model high grade wheel of mirth, is the original company. "Hooligan's Troubles" is a merry, madcap, crazy concoction of hilarity and as such leads the world in laughter. The audience has yet to be met which has not been captivated and convulsed by this uniquely and mirthfully incomparable comedy and its many special features such a paragon in itself. The advance sale will certainly be large. Considerable talk is going on for tickets. Fetch Grandma and Grandpa—let the whole family see "Hooligan's Troubles." Friday night Nov. 17th.

Meeting of F. A. Society. The Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church South held its annual meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. Wiley Brown. Soon after the appointed hour it was hardly possible to be seated, this showing the great interest in the work and the honor due our beloved president, Mrs. Jack White. The object of this meeting was the opening of mite boxes—collection amounting to $22.60.

A delightful program followed the regular business which was as follows: Reading—Mrs. H. L. Carr. Vocal duet—Mrs. H. C. Hooker, Miss Nina James. Recitation—Mrs. Clara. Vocal solo—Miss Nina James. Dainty refreshments were served after which the society adjourned to meet Wednesday afternoon Dec. 6, with Mrs. Bert Moye.

Pitt Keeps Ahead. Occasionally we see some of our exchanges bragging about big sweet potatoes, but none have yet gone ahead of the 7-pounders which Superintendent J. A. Hardee, of the county home, brought THE REFLECTOR.
