THE NEW TRAIN.

"Reflector Special" On Its First Trip—Greenville Delighted With It.

The new passenger train inaugurated by the Atlantic Coast Line to run between Tarboro and Kinston, made its initial trip today, reaching Greenville exactly on time at 11:18. Quite a number of people were at the depot to meet it and much delight was expressed over the additional service for this road.

The new train is quite a handsome one, looking brand new within and without. Capt. D. Dove, conductor and Engineer J. H. Hughes had charge of the train. On the first trip about a dozen passengers got off at Greenville, and about the same number bought tickets here for points down the road. The southbound train is No. 57 and the northbound No. 56. Capt. John Dixon, train master, came down with the first train. "Hello, Whicard, here's your train," was his greeting to the editor as he stepped off. "Is this Whicard's special?" asked Mr. K. C. Barrett, route agent of the Southern Express Co., who also came on to the new train. "Yes," replied the jovial train master, "this is Whicard's REFLECTOR special."

"The train and the name are all right," said the editor by way of acknowledgement, "and we thank you and your company for giving our people this additional service."

Mr. Barrett told us that he expects to put an express messenger on the new train so that the greater part of express matter for Greenville can come by the forenoon train instead of on the night train. This will be quite an advantage. While at present the new train has no postal clerk on it, it brings and carries mail in pouches, and by this several hours will be saved to our business men in getting important mail. In every way this new train is going to help Greenville and the other towns along the route and we rejoice that it has been secured.

LADIES AID SOCIETY.

Elects Officers and Plans For Next Year.

At the meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church, held last week, which was the annual meeting, the same officers were re-elected for the coming year. They were: Mrs. P. E. Dancy, president. Mrs. R. J. Cobb, vice president. Mrs. R. L. Humber, secretary. Mrs. C. D. Rountree, treasurer. The society planned to hold a shirt waist sale the last week in April or first week in May next, and to hold a Christmas Bazaar early next December.

How The New Passenger Train Helps

A. G. Cox, of Winterville, at the A. G. Cox, Mfg. on the morning train, early three hours on the morning train, spoke here and there, 11:18 train. While here to THE REFLECTOR about the train service on this road and expressed his gratification. He says he transacted much business with Greenville people, and that now he can afford to come here six times where formerly he disliked come once when the trip kept him out of his office all day. This is one of the evidences of the advantages of the new train service, and there are more of the same kind.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Approaching Holidays Increases Number.

The new fiscal year starts off well in marriage licenses, and for the first week Register of Deeds Williams issued them for the following couples:

Edward Dixon and Little McGowan.

C. S. Carr and Pattie S. Skinner. George Brisson and Sarah Dail. Oscar Gwaltney and Pennie Boyd.

Josh Lovett and Mary Wooten. Samuel Fleming and Lena Howard.

Henry Pugh and Julia Fleming. William Pitt and Lovie Lang. Major Barrett and Clyde Blow. Herbert Evans and Naomi Spell. Edgar Jackson and Janie Nobles. Sam Harper and Mary E. Thigpen.

W. Ben Highsmith and Hattie Whitfield.

Died in Baltimore.

Information was received this morning of the death of Miss Leila Tucker, daughter of Mr. J. L. Tucker, of Grifton, which occurred in a hospital at Baltimore where she had gone for treatment. The remains will be brought to Grifton for interment.

Marion Whicard Dead.

Mr. F. M. Whicard, a valued and highly esteemed citizen of the county died suddenly at his home two miles from Greenville, on Saturday night about 7:30 o'clock. He had been a sufferer for quite a while. Mr. Whicard was well known in the business circles and was a man of the very highest character and integrity. He leaves a wife and three children, two girls and an infant son. He was a very successful farmer, and loved his friends. His remains were buried at Mr. Ashley Whicard's, his brother's, 6 miles from Greenville, at 4 o'clock Sunday. A good man is gone. He was 60 years of age.

Same Acreage for 1905.

President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, has issued the following letter to the farmers of the South regarding a reduction in cotton acreage for 1906. The letter says in part:

"The Southern Cotton Association will not ask the farmers of the South to reduce the cotton acreage for 1906 less than that planted in 1905. The association does ask and insist with all the force at its command, however, that the acreage planted in cotton throughout the belt in 1905 be not increased during the planting season of 1906. Let the watchword of every Southern farmer be 'diversification' and through that agency produce an abundance of food supplies to maintain each farm."

The present estimated twenty-seven million acres planted in cotton is sufficient under normal conditions to produce enough cotton to meet the demand for the American staple. Any material increase in the cotton acreage for 1906 will tend to stagnate the cotton market and depress prices below their legitimate value. The legitimate law of supply and demand is the only true medium for raising fair and legitimate prices for our great staple product.

of eggs. closes the door. to the of P. G. Jordan letter with a strong appeal. farmers to plant an abundance. small grain, corn and side crop, and urges them to raise more hay, cattle and hogs, that the farmers may become self-sustaining.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR.

Has Most Successful Beginning.

BEAUTIFUL BOOTHS CONTAIN MANY ATTRACTIVE ARTICLES

The Christmas bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church opened Tuesday night in Perkins' opera house, and will continue for four nights. The bazaar is the center of attraction and is greeted with a large crowd on the opening night. The ladies worked with unceasing energy in preparation for the event, and are to be congratulated that their efforts are so successful.

The hall, with its splendid decorations and artistically arranged booths, is transformed into a scene of beauty. There are articles innumerable for sale in the booths as well as an elegant menu of refreshments, with the fairest of fair daughters to wait upon and serve the purchasers, and he possesses a miserly spite who sits to yield liberally of his "filthy lucre" in the midst of such attractions.

The first thing to greet the eye as one enters the hall is the kitchen, which with its excellent appointments might easily be taken for a parlor. From this are served oysters in any style to suit the taste, ham, turkey, salads, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake. Over in the opposite corner is the palmistry and fortune wheel booth, where the fortune teller, enconced in most inviting surroundings, will for a small fee unfold the mysteries of the future.

Next is the Japanese booth filled with novel articles from the Orient. Attached to this is the tea parlor, where you can sip the delicious cup served in the midst of catches from sweet songs. Then comes the baby booth in which are dainty and beautiful caps, socks and other articles for the little tots.

The fancy works booth contains an exquisite array of such laces and other fancy goods as bring delight to the ladies. The doll booth veritably caught the eye and the heart of the little folks, especially the girls. There are dolls of all sizes and to-morrow magnificent doll houses already furnished. The largest of these houses is to be awarded the girl receiving the largest number of votes during the bazaar.

The Klondyke booth catches all the boys and girls. This is equipped suggestive of the arctic regions and contains a mine of buried treasures from which prospectors can for a nickel dig out a prize. The Little Helpers booth is filled with handsome sofa pillows, bric a brac and other handsome articles. The candy booth is sweetened itself with a great variety of candies and fruits.

Last comes the smoking booth where you can take a cozy corner and enjoy the whiff of a fragrant cigar, puff a cigarette, or draw the comforting pipe. This booth also has a telephone for talking any where on the exchange.

The arrangement and decoration of all the booths are beautiful and the articles on sale are at reasonable prices. The assembly is entertained with musical selections at intervals, and on the closing night, Friday, there will be an old folks' concert at which many of "ye olde time songs" will be sung.

There are crowds on the streets today now and they will grow as the day advances.

WHAT WILL PRICE BE?

Mr. Jasper Mills Declares That This is for the Farmer to Decide.

The following from Mr. Jasper Mills will be of interest to farmers throughout the State: "The National ginners' report shows 3,485,000 bales ginned to December 1," writes Mr. Miller. "The government report shows 8,618,000 bales. The national ginners estimate that 88 per cent of the crop has been ginned. If this be correct, then the crop is 9,787,000 according to the government, or 9,643,000 by the national ginners report."

"Last year's crop was 13,657,000 bales. Of this crop Hester shows 13,565,000 came into sight and that the visible supply up to last Friday night was only 250,000 bales more than last year. If then the world used 13,315,000 bales of cotton last year, the world with its increased consumption ought to use about 14,000,000 bales and this year."

"With the demand something in the neighborhood of 14,000,000 bales and the supply but something like 10,000,000 bales, the deficit will be about 4,000,000 bales and it is believed that prices will have to go up a point that will almost prohibit consumption. "What will these prices be? Will 15 cents be enough? It is for the farmer to say what he will take."—Charlotte Observer.

Have the Right Change.

The traveling public will do well to remember the rule of the corporation commission that a ticket agent is not obliged to make change for a large bill when the same will put him to an inconvenience in conducting his sale of tickets. The reason for the rule is obvious and parties going away should have as near the exact price of their ticket with them as they are able to calculate.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

TAYLOR-BEVERLY.

Marriage of Popular Couple Near Bethel.

Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 6th, at 3 o'clock there was a beautiful marriage at the home of Mr. B. A. Beverly, near Bethel, when his charming daughter, Miss Sadie, was led to the altar by Mr. Carlwright Taylor, a very enterprising and successful young man from near Robersonville.

The parlor was artistically decorated with ferns and palms. Miss Edie Grimes rendered the wedding march. Rev. J. T. Rubanks, pastor of the Baptist church, was officiating clergyman. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of Mr. Taylor's father, where an elegant reception was given them. We congratulate the happy couple and wish for them a prosperous voyage through life.

As to "Professor Napoleon"

One of those fellows who goes about getting up entertainments with local talent for the alleged benefit of some local charity has played Charlotte like a fute. The only wonder is that the Charlotte papers express any surprise about it, for the game is as common as can be. This fellow had some sort of a performance that he called "Professor Napoleon." Local talent did the work under his direction and paid all the expenses. The Charlotte papers were working for columns of free advertising for several days. "Professor Napoleon" was very conspicuous in the papers. Well, the performances were pulled off and the receipts aggregate $1,500. The play was for the benefit of the Presbyterian Hospital and when the settlement was made the hospital got about $80, while "Professor Napoleon" his pockets bulging with swag, departed for some other town to work the game again.

The Pay for Labor.

Considerable comment has been made in the State recently about the pay of the laborer. One thinks it not enough and many will say it is too much. It is neither and it is both. Some laborers may not be paid entirely too much. It should not be any more a question as to what is paid the laborer than it is how much does he earn. The truth is, almost all laborers who are hired at a certain price do so little as possible to hold the job. Many an employer who pays his laborer fifty cents, a dollar, or two dollars a day would be glad to increase the pay if only he could get the laborer to give him better service. Somehow the opinion has taken hold of the laboring world that the man who hires some one else to serve him is rich, at least in a comparative sense, and can stand to "for any sort of service, to be paid as much as much."

D. J. WHICHARD, Editor and Proprietor

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter, Advertising rates made known upon application.

GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, DEC. 15, 1905

The toy pistol will get in its record through the holidays.

If the cotton farmers will stand by their guns they will get the price

Three fires in High Point in one night look like that town is infested with fire bugs

The papers are saying a crisis is now on in Russia. Looks to us like it has been on for some time.

As advertisements THE REFLECTOR will state Greenville merchants against any town of 4,000 inhabitants in the world.

The esteemed Congressional Record is again making its appearance and wrapping paper will be correspondingly more plentiful while it lasts.

If the coming year does not show great development in Greenville you can mark us as a second rate prophet.

Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest woman going, is a wise girl. She says there would be fewer fools on record if people talked less.

Witte handled things all right in the peace conference, but the premiership of Russia amid the troublous times existing there was too much for him and he has resigned.

South Carolina farmers in the vicinity of Spartanburg have decided to plant only ten acres of cotton to the mole for next year's crop; with a view, if enough farmers adopt the rule, of keeping the acreage small enough to maintain high prices for the next crop.

We are unable to see any plausible reason for the way cotton has slumped in the last few days. Perhaps the bears think the farmers are holding back a large lot of it, if so they are very much mistaken. True some are holding, but there is no large supply of cotton now to be marketed.

That is a pretty story coming from the state penitentiary that Wilcox and Utley, two of the most noted prisoners there and both serving sentences for murder, had been furnished with pistols to shoot their way out. If there is any truth in it the matter should have a rigid investigation.

The grand jury of Mecklenburg county adopted a recommendation to the legislature that justices of the peace and the recorder of the city of Charlotte be given more power, and have final jurisdiction in petty criminal cases. The legislature would do well to comply with this recommendation and make it apply to the entire state. If such power was given to justices it would save great expense to the counties by not taking up the time of Superior courts with petty cases.

Even the church bell repeats at this is told.

A bill by any other name would be just as unsatisfactory.

ELVEN YEARS OLD.

On the 10th day of December 1894, there appeared in Greenville a little paper called THE DAILY REFLECTOR, being the offspring of THE EASTERN REFLECTOR, then a weekly paper established twelve years previous.

The career of the paper has proven that these prophets of misfortune did not know the spirit of the people of Greenville and Pitt county to whom THE REFLECTOR looked for support.

The little paper of 1894 had existed only four months when its "corps were lengthened" and it was made a size larger. This step forward was followed so closely by the growth of the town that when the first anniversary of THE REFLECTOR was reached the paper was enlarged again.

Today by way of celebrating the beginning of its twelfth year, THE DAILY REFLECTOR appears in 8 page size, six and a half times as large as in 1894. Judging by the encouragement given us in the past, we have continued faith in the people to believe they will appreciate this further effort to give them a larger and better paper.

In speaking of the past progress of the paper, which we have a pardonable pride in doing, it is with no moel of self praise, for we realize that what has been accomplished has been under the guidance of a kind Providence and through the constant help and encouragement of our patrons.

A dollar in the pocket of a stingy man represents close quarters

It can be truthfully said that THE REFLECTOR has outlived the adage that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," for one of the greatest sources of gratification to the paper is that it has the confidence of the people of its own town and county. We shall try at all times to merit this.

The Baptist State Convention and Woman's Union proved too large to hold their meetings together, and at the recent convention in Raleigh it was decided that the two organizations meet at different times hereafter.

Bertha Brown has been virtually banished from Durham county by the judgment of the court this morning. She was fined $100 and cost for keeping a disorderly house, and a capias was issued imprisoning her in the county jail for 12 months if found in the county after next Monday.

This is the same old story—run a bad citizen out of one town to be turned loose on another community. It is an unwise practice that some judges or municipal authorities have and it ought to be stopped.

The Success of Ad-venture.

Ad-Venture in the business world has ever proven necessary to win success, as it was needed when in the early days the spirit of adventure should lead men to risk life and property in search of new lands.

The merchant who complains is not the one who advertises, for the success of advertising gives the merchant no pause in his business to utter complaint, for there is no time left on account of the trade which comes through good advertising.

A FRIEND'S TRIBUTE TO F. M. WHICHARD. As one who knew the real man that he was, I simply drop this upon his grave. I knew him for 25 years. He was not a big man in the sense that the world would call him big, but he was a truly loyal friend.

A reward of $10 will be paid for information sufficient to convict any party or parties who have taken upon or do any damage to plants or fence around Greenville stock land territory, or who cut the fence, so that dogs and horses may run through.

What Loafing on the Job Means.

Almost anyone will do to perform an ordinary job in an ordinary way. It is when some extraordinary occasion arises that the difference is shown between full confidence and half confidence, between real service and the service that is measured by the amount of money that is drawn on Saturday night and by the clock which permits leaving work at a certain hour.

It is curious how thoughtless and how short-sighted some people are who work for others—how much they fail to realize that whether or not their services are fully appreciated, they owe it to themselves to do each day's work that is in them, and to do some thinking as well on behalf of those who employ them.

A first class man or a first class woman—the kind who are able to make a success for themselves—never knew what it was to loaf on a job for other people. If they had done this they could not have succeeded, and if you do this you can not succeed simply because you will get the habit of being dilatory, careless and of neglecting both your interests at times.

If you are a second class worker and expect to remain that all your life your condition is, indeed, an unfortunate one, for your place can be filled through a want ad by fifty second-class people in a few days. It is hard to get first class men and first class workers at almost any price. The head of any business concern will tell you this, and for this class of people he is willing to pay the limit that his business will permit his paying.

There is another point this business of loafing on a job or failing to give the quickest and most intelligent and best thought, energy and effort to it that we can—that is dishonest. It is failing to render service that you sell. It is just the same thing, so far as dollars and cents are concerned, whether you take money away from a man directly or whether you take it by not giving him what you contract to give him.

We are happy to say that we think that most people who work—and nearly everybody works these days—do try to render conscientious and honest service. It is because of this that the American nation has grown to be so great and powerful a nation. It is because of this that business goes ahead and that more positions are opened up to more workers. The success of any business depends upon the vitality of those who manage it and on those who work for it more than upon any other single condition.

His death is my great loss, I shall miss him as no else will or can miss him. I loved him, he loved me. There was a communion between us two that seldom exists where there is no blood kin. He was honest and faithful. I shall always cherish his memory in the sacredness of my soul. Peace to his ashes. Love A. Sage

A $20 Watch Free. We know that most of the people of Greenville are studying what to give this on-or that one for a Christmas present. It is a question not so very easy to solve in the great majority of cases. In giving a present it should be your chief aim to give something that is appropriate and suitable for the person to whom it is to be given, and it is essential also, that the present be in keeping with the sentiments of the season. There is no better place in the world to find a gift such as is outlined above than at a book store. What can be more appropriate than the dainty articles which you find in the class of stores mentioned. Greenville has a book store, and in it can be found those articles of merchandise which, as gifts, are most suitable for Christmas. Evans' Book Store has a splendid line of Christmas goods, and as an inducement to purchase of them, they offer you the following: Fifteen hundred tickets are to be issued numbered from 1 to 1500. One of these tickets is to be selected and deposited in the Bank of Greenville, the number thereon to be known by none. Each purchaser of fifty cents worth of goods will be given one of these tickets, and the person getting the number

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)
