GREENVILLE NORTH CAROLINA TUESDAY FEB. 6 1906

PLAN TO SECURE BUILDINGS.

Ex-Congressman T. G. Skinner, of Hertford, tells us of a plan he has originated for securing buildings in towns that look like it should prove very successful.

The plan is this: The subscribers to the stock agree to take any number of shares desired at $10 each, payable one-fifth when the association is incorporated, one-fifth when the material for the building is placed on the site provided for it, and one-fifth on the first of each month thereafter until all is paid.

Mr. Skinner says if the Daughters of the Confederacy in Greenville would like to secure a building by this plan he will be glad to meet with them and talk the matter over.

When Jordan went after North he made his win.

In this quarter the ground hog saw all the shadow he was looking for.

You can count on it that Governor Glenn will display his good judgment and not pardon Bishop.

While sitting around the stove these cold days is a good time to talk building and loan association.

Past defeats do not satisfy Sir Thomas Lipton and he announces his desire for another yacht race in American waters.

As the men made a failure on the Raleigh monument, the women are going to try their hand. This gives a little show of success.

If the cotton farmers can accomplish measures to their advantage through organization, the way is open for the tobacco farmers to do likewise.

The Charlotte Observer wanted to send the blood hounds to catch the ground hog. The little fellow is too sly to be caught that way.

Instead of going to catch the ground hog with great hounds, the Charlotte Observer might look up his hounds in advance and plug it up so he cannot come out next time.

A Moultrie, Ga., physician returning home at 9 o'clock p. m. and finding another man with his wife drew a revolver and shot the man dead. At last account the doctor had not been arrested, in which the officers are showing good judgment. The despoiler of homes deserves to be shot.

TAX DODGERS AND HIGH TAXES.

Now and then some State comes forward with a movement to bring the tax dodger to time—that is compel all persons to give in their property for taxation. The idea is to make the wealthy class who give false lists of their possessions uncover what they have so that the greater part of their property will not escape taxation.

A board of appraisers to go from house to house and place values on personal property as well as real estate would be an improvement. And as to solvent credits, require a list of the name and amount of every note and mortgage, making it unlawful to collect any that are not listed, also making it a misdemeanor for a man to possess stocks or bonds or other evidences of wealth and fail to disclose the same for taxation.

This will get more property on the tax lists.

But a suggestion on the other side: One thing, and the main thing, that leads to so much false giving in of taxes, is that the tax rate is too high. A high levy puts people to planning how they can keep as much of their property as possible from being taxed. A low being under a different method of levy would accomplish just as much in revenue raising as a high levy under the present method.

Reunited.

It is to be regretted that all the citizens of the Union south of Mason and Dixon's line could not have seen the impressive military pageant which made Gen. Joseph Wheeler, general a beautiful and memorable spectacle.

If they could have seen the flag-draped casket on the gun carriage, the escort of Spanish war vessels, national guardsmen, artillerymen and khaki-clad regulars, who are neither Northern nor Southern, but American—if they could have seen the orderly lines of people as numbers as the total population of Atlanta bare their heads as the slow line moved past, it would have been a revelation of Northern sentiment to some of our Southern friends.

There was in the sight no sadness, but a deep and patriotic satisfaction that stirred to tears thousands of those who looked upon it. In death, as in life it was the peculiar glory of this man—there was no other thought in all the throng—to remind us that this is truly one nation; that the dead soldier himself, the empty saddle, the guns, the troops, and the flag above them all are not yours or theirs, but ours.—New York World.

HUGE FREIGHT ENGINE FLEW

It Made an Eighty-four-mile Run in Seventy Minutes.

J. Levering Jones, an attorney of this city, had an engagement with Western capitalists in his office at 10 o'clock Friday morning. There was money in it, and he wanted to keep the appointment, but he got to the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Atlantic City just thirty seconds too late to catch the Broad street flyer.

"Give me a special: Never mind the cost!" The yardmaster got busy, but could find no express locomotive. "Will you chance it with a freight mogul?" he asked. "I'll chance it with anything on earth that will get me to Philadelphia at 10 o'clock," replied Mr. Jones.

At 8.48 the mogul pulled out with one car and one passenger in the car. At 9:58 Mr. Jones alighted in Broad Street Station—84 miles in 70 minutes. The special cost $210.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A bill has been introduced in the Ohio Legislature which provides that a person of sound mind who is sick unto death, and who is suffering unbearable pain, can ask a physician to administer an anesthetic until the patient loses consciousness and dies. The physician must consult three other physicians before administering the drug, and also must admonish the patient that certain death is to follow.

Sunday at Richmond, the Rev. Dr. Hawthorne, of that city, preached a very remarkable sermon on the dangers which surrounded the youth of that city, in the course of which he said: "We must combine for moral health; as we do for physical health. We do not value the souls of our children as we do their bodies. If we were as much concerned about their moral insecurity as we are about their physical perils, we would raise such a clamor in this old city as would compel the powers that be to stamp out the centers of moral infection that are making drunkards, gamblers, whoremongers and criminals of a large percentage of the rising generation."

The Editor Has Duns Also.

An exchange says that a subscriber once received a dunn through the postoffice, and it made him mad. He went to see the editor about it, and the editor showed him a few dunes of his own—on paper, one for type, one for fuel and several others. "Now," said the editor, "I didn't get mad when these came, because I knew that all I had to do was to ask several reliable gentlemen like you to come and help me out, and then I could settle all of them." When the subscriber saw how it was returned, paid up and renewed or another year.

How to Keep an Umbrella.

Do you ever lose your umbrella? Are you in the habit of losing your umbrella? If so, it is a bad habit, and you should break yourself of it. How can it be done? By falling into the habit of taking care of it. It is all a matter of attention. Have a particular place at home and at the office to keep your umbrella. At home the umbrella stand will do. At the office you should hang it in the same place every time. When you leave home with the precious article, tax your memory with the fact. If you ride on the car keep in touch with it. If you stop on the way, do not lay it down. Stick to it. When you finally arrive at the office, hang it in the usual place. If you will do this for a week or so, you will form the umbrella habit, and the rest will be easy. Habits once formed, whether bad or good, are hard to break.

But some may say that all that trouble is not worth while. All right. If the umbrella is not worth its care, leave it to take care of itself and keep close to it. It's your choice. But don't blame us for it. We are telling you how to break yourself of the habit of losing it. If you'd rather not follow the advice, it's all right with us. But it's always annoying to lose an umbrella every week or so, and it's always worth while, we think, to take pains to avoid annoyance. Moreover, to cultivate the umbrella habit, we mean the habit of taking care of it, is to cultivate the habit of care and attention in all things. And that's worth while, now isn't it.—Times-Dispatch.

Last of Old Confederate Blockade Runner Going to Pieces.

The beach near Lumina pavilion was strewn with wreckage on Sunday from the old hulk of the blockade runner Hebe, which was being off shore there for years. The wreck began breaking up in Thursday night's storm and among the pieces that drifted up was an old iron safe. This was broken open by Mr. H. E. Bonitz and others but nothing of intrinsic value was found therein. Mr. Bonitz found an old watch chain and a rusted carving knife which he brought home as relics.

It is supposed that the hulk which is breaking up is that of the blockade runner Hebe, which was driven ashore under fire of the Federal blockaders during the war. The Hebe and the blockade runner Dee are known to have gone down about off Lumina, but the wreck in question is thought to be that of the former. The General Beauregard went aground farther down towards Carolina Beach. Another ship lost in blockade running was the Emma. The safe which has now been cast up ashore was probably relieved of everything of value before it was beached to escape possession of the enemy.—Wilmington Star.

Sometime ago a prisoner on trial in Arkansas was sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years. He appealed, secured a new trial and now he has been sentenced to death. More good work of that kind would stop this everlasting abuse which comes from the habit of appealing.—Raleigh Times.

Man's Unconquerable
 "As great as woman's, but not so easily conquered," said the "Republican" of Leavenworth, Ind. was the unconquerable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, Druggist.

 Greenville, N. C. March 29, 1903.
 Mrs. Joe Person:—I take pleasure in stating that your Remedy has entirely cured our little girl of a very bad case of eczema, which covered a great part of her body. She had eczema periodically from the time she was 1 1/2 years old, until she was six years old. She is now perfectly well and I feel that I cannot speak too highly of it. She has not had a symptom of it for six years. Respectfully,

How Is Your Heart?
 Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder; or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and dizziness and gradually grew weaker. I was told I was hopeless. My neighbors and my family were so worried that they sent for a doctor. My limbs and body were so weak that I could not stand. My head and back ached, and I was so tired that I could not get up. I had three months of this kind of life. I had taken them all when I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. I had been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I would now be in my grave."—L. C. CLARK, Warren, Ky.

VEST POCKET WONDER.
 Marvels of the Watch—Distance Traveled by Wheels Each Year.
 How often is it that things we see and handle many times in a day are seldom thought of? How few of those who possess a watch have ever thought of what is expected of it and the work it has to do!
 This little machine is expected to work day and night without stopping (as our pulse has to work from birth till death). We expect it to show us the right time in winter and summer and in whatever position it is placed.
 Now, if we open an ordinary gentleman's Geneva horizontal watch we can see the balance about five-eighths of an inch in diameter, which gives a three-quarters' turn at every tick of the watch, so that the little pin seen in the balance travels at every tick of the watch about one and a half inches, and as a watch of that description has to make 18,000 vibrations in an hour the little pin has to make a journey of about ten miles every twenty-four hours.
 Now, well made watches are generally expected to go for two years, so the little pin in the balance would have made the long journey of 7,200 (English) miles.
 The balance in a lever watch makes generally one and a half turns at every tick, and therefore travels double the distance—viz., 14,400 miles. To be able to accomplish this all the materials must be of the best and hardest. The oil also must be of the best and so fine and fluid that one drop will suffice to oil 200 pivots, or bearings, and keep good in the watch for at least two years.
 Equally astonishing are the means by which a watch is regulated. This is done by lengthening or shortening the fine spiral spring, generally known as the hairspring.
 If a watch should be half a minute slow a day the hairspring is a fourteen thousandth part of a second too long. Should a watch be only a minute a week slow it would then be the ninety-eighth thousandth part of a second too long.
 All that is expected of the user of a watch is that it is regularly wound up and be not too carelessly treated. Everything else has to be left to the mechanism of the watch and to the clever skill of the watchmaker.—Pearson's Weekly.

His Lone Sample.
 When James T. Brady, the celebrated lawyer of New York, first opened a lawyer's office he took a basement room which had previously been occupied by a cobbler. He was somewhat annoyed, says the writer of "Famous American Jurists," by the previous occupant's callers and irritated by the fact that he had but few of his own.
 "One day an Irishman entered. 'The cobbler's gone, I see,' he said. 'I should think he had!' tartly responded Brady.
 "And what do you sell?" asked Paddy, looking at a few law books.
 "Blackhead," responded Brady.
 "Beorra," said the Irishman, "ye must be doing a mighty fine business. Ye're not out but one left."

Used the Hat.
 A British officer in his expense list on government service put down, "Porter, 2d." The war office in a verbose and Latin letter pointed out that expenditures while in the service of public duty were not chargeable on a private. The officer replied that the hat did not represent his private life, but a fee to a carrier. This was replied, "You should have put 'porterage'."
 The officer remonstrated the hint. Next time he had occasion to take a baggage coach he put down in his accounts "hat porterage."

Get His Money's Worth.
 King Alfan of Sicily once went to the hotel of a distinguished lady who was giving a banquet for the benefit of the poor children of Paris. As soon as the king appeared upon the scene she advanced toward him with a splendid silver salver in her hand on which was beautifully embossed the family arms. On it lay a pretty little bunch of violets. "How much, madame?" asked the king. "Twenty-four louis, sire," was her soft response. Milan paid her the sum the lady asked, with a courteous bow, took the salver from her hands, placed the bouquet in his buttonhole and walked off with the tray under his arm.

The First Letter.
 In London one evening I was looking for the Albanian said an American traveler. Not knowing exactly in which direction to go, I stopped to inquire of a passerby, when suddenly the name of the theatre escaped me entirely, so I was obliged to ask, "Do you know where that large theater is near here?" It begins with an A." The man replied at once, "Oh, you mean the Aymarket, sir."

Why Not Own a Home?

REAL ESTATE IN GREENVILLE IS A Safe investment.

Secure a Good Location while there is an opportunity to do so at Reasonable Prices and on Easy Terms.

I have devided that splendid property, just east of the town limits in South Greenville, into convenient lots for home-seekers and will sell them on easy terms. There is no better location for homes anywhere around Greenville. High elevation, level, and convenient, being only a few minutes walk from the business part of town. This property is just outside the corporate limits, yet those who reside there will have the benefit of the graded school, and be as near to the churches, and depot and postoffice as are the people in many parts of the town, being only three hundred yards from Five Points, nice neighborhood adjacent to the property. Talk it over with me and let me show you these desirable lots. No better time than NOW to buy. Greenville will grow rapidly in the next few years and property will be higher. Catch the opportunity before it is too late.

BARACA CLASS. POOR POTATO MARKET.

Holds Business Meeting and Elects Officers. The Baraca Class of the Memorial Baptist church held a business meeting Sunday morning after the lesson was taught, and elected the following officers: President, W. M. Pugh. Vice President, Z. P. Vandyle. Treasurer, Dr. J. W. Bryan. Secretary, Royce Tucker. Motion made that president appoint members and other committees next Sunday. The report of year ending Jan. 1st, 1906, was very successful, and we have started off for a still more successful year, and with prospects of doing much good work. Baraca Press Reporter. An Opportune Time. About this time of year the bargain season comes on. There will soon be a hurrying out for present stock to make room for spring arrivals. The wise merchant to make quick sales cuts the prices down close and uses a liberal supply of advertising space, while the wise buyer watches the paper to see what bargains are offered. THE REFLECTOR affords opportunity for the seller and buyer to get together. Put it here and you can hear almost anybody say "I saw your ad, in the paper."

BUSINESS COUNCIL IN PITT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

Hold's Interesting Meeting and Elects Officers. An important and enthusiastic meeting of the Pitt county branch of the Cotton Association was held in the court house in Greenville Monday, 5th. E. R. Cotten, president of the county association, being unable to attend owing to sickness, O. L. Joyner vice president, presided. Mr. Joyner explained fully the objects of the meeting and the business before it. G. T. Tyson offered his resignation as secretary and treasurer, and it was accepted, W. A. B. Hearne being elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Joyner read a notification from R. R. Moore, president of the State organization, relative to a more thorough and complete organization of the State, county and township organizations, giving the rules governing same with fees for membership, etc. A resolution was passed endorsing the general plan of organization and pledging the hearty support of the Pitt county branch. The election of permanent officers for the period of 12 months resulted as follows: President—R. R. Cotten. Vice-president—O. L. Joyner. Secy. and Treas.—W. A. B. Hearne. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. L. F. Evans, Greenville. W. L. Nobles, Greenville. Marshal Cox, Winterville. S. M. Jones, Bethel. The meeting adjourned to meet at 11 o'clock on the first Monday in March, at which time a capable speaker will be present to more fully explain the objects and benefits of this organization, and every man in this county interested in its general welfare should attend and take part in this meeting. The membership fee is 25 cents quarterly, and a tax of 3 cents per bale on each bale of cotton raised during the past season. An organization of this kind deserves the earnest and enthusiastic support of every loyal citizen of Pitt county, cotton grower, merchant or professional man, and if supported will accomplish, and in fact, has accomplished a vast good.

A PRESIDENT WHO NEITHER REIGNS NOR GOVERN.

Under the constitution of 1875 the French President is chosen by the Senators and deputies in joint session. This method of selection insures the choice of man whom the legislators know, and whom they believe to be devoted to the principle of the supremacy of the legislature. They habitually select a man who has long been a member, and has perhaps served as president, of one or the other of the chambers; who has been active in committee work, and has perhaps held a portfolio in one or more ministries; who is not a strenuous or aggressive, and has not made too many personal enemies. This president, under the provisions of the constitution, may exercise certain enumerated powers only in the councils of ministers, and every act of his must be countersigned by a minister. The constitution also provides that "the ministers are collectively responsible to the chambers for the general policy of the administration, and individually responsible for their own personal acts." The French constitution vests the appointment of the ministers in the president, and does not require that their appointment be confirmed by the legislature; but by the mode of his election and the nature of his position, the French President is obliged to take his ministers from the dominant party or coalition in the Chamber of Deputies, as the King of Great Britain takes his from the dominant party in the House of Commons. The list is actually drawn up by the party leaders, and the President appoints the men whose names are submitted to him. All the powers conferred upon him by the constitution are, in fact, exercised by the ministers. As the familiar French witticism puts it: "The King of Great Britain reigns, but does not govern; the President of the United States governs, but does not reign; the President of the French Republic neither reigns nor governs."—From "The French Presidency and the American," by Munroe Smith, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for February.

Work is soon expected to begin on the Masonic temple at Raleigh.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIER DEAD

Passes Away at Soldiers' Home. A letter to THE REFLECTOR from Superintendent R. H. Brooks of the Soldiers' Home, at Raleigh, announces the death of Mr. John Moorring, which occurred Sunday morning after a sickness covering some time. Mr. Moorring was 63 years old, and went to the home from Pitt county about four years ago. In the war he was a member of Co. A, 7th Regiment N. C. Troop. He leaves two sisters—Mrs. D. H. Moore and Mrs. Maud Moore—who live in this county near House. He was also a cousin of ex-Sheriff G. M. Moorring.

CHANGE IN OFFICERS.

The Greenville Banking and Trust Company. At a meeting of the directors of the Greenville Banking and Trust Company held Friday afternoon, the resignation of L. I. Moore, as president, was accepted and R. J. Cobb was elected president to succeed him. C. S. Carr was elected cashier to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Cobb's promotion to the presidency of the institution. Both of these gentlemen have long been connected with this bank—Mr. Cobb since its organization—and they are officers of exceptional ability.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

TRINITY PARK, FEB. 5TH, 1906.—Messrs Lloyd LaRoue and Loyd Wooten, of Kinston, are spending a few days' campus with friends. Dr. L. L. Hendren gave a very interesting talk Thursday afternoon, under the auspices of the Science Club, his subject being "The Panama Canal Construction." During the month of January there were added to the library more than three hundred new volumes. Almost the entire number were purchased out of the library fund, the cost being several hundred dollars. The most of these books were purchased for the department of economics. With these additions the library now has thirty-one thousand catalogued books, besides hundreds that have never been catalogued. It is almost a certainty that Trinity is to have another game added to her list of athletic sports in the near future. The game in question is a basket ball. Trinity has already received a challenge from Wake Forest, wishing to arrange dates for games to be played in February, but it is doubtful if the team can get practice enough to be in readiness for a contest before March. Washington's birthday will be observed by the college as a holiday. It has always been the custom of the college to invite some speaker to deliver an address on the evening of this day. The speaker for this year will be Rev. G. E. White, D. D. of Atlanta. Dr. White is a native of North Carolina, and has the reputation of being a great pulpit orator.

Married.

The office of Clerk D. C. Moore, in the court house, was the scene of a marriage about eleven o'clock this morning, the contracting parties being Robert Kittrell and Mrs. Fannie Wethington. They came in together and called on Register of Deeds Williams for the necessary license and let it be known that they did not want much time wasted in getting united. Rev. F. D. Veibe was sent for and the ceremony was soon performed. The bride was a blushing widow and the groom a giddy widower.

Holton And Milliken.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—The President, acting independently of both Republican factions in the State, sent to the Senate today the names of District Attorney Holton and Marshal Milliken for third terms.

ANOTHER BANK.

Greenville to Have a National Bank. In the press dispatches sent out from Washington we see that authority has been given for the organization of the National Bank of Greenville, N. C., capital $50,000. The following gentlemen with others are the incorporators: L. I. Moore, Harry Skinner, F. G. James, L. W. Tucker, J. F. Davenson and E. A. Moyer, Jr. These are well known professional and business men of Greenville who have the ability and means to bring success out of such an enterprise. Greenville is progressing rapidly and there is room here for a third bank. This new one, being a national bank, will be under government supervision and will give the town broader recognition in financial circles of the country. The organization has not yet been perfected, but we understand that the National Bank expects to be ready to begin business in about sixty days.

COX'S MILL ITEMS.

COX'S MILL, N. C. Feb. 6, 1906. Saturday morning L. N. Edwards was very badly hurt. He was riding on his buggy and the ground being frozen made so much noise he didn't hear the train, and the woods on that side of the road caused him not to see it as it was coming down towards Greenville with flat cars on the Beaufort County Lumber road, until he was so near that he couldn't stop. Just before he got across the road the foremost car struck his buggy and threw him out on the iron wheel, breaking one or two of his ribs and otherwise hurt and bruised him. While he is not thought to be seriously hurt, yet he is suffering much pain. His many friends will be glad to know he is getting along as well as could be expected. A basket party was given at J. W. Cox's store Friday night for the benefit of Rose Hill church. A large crowd was present with lots of pretty girls and well filled baskets. The nice sum of nearly $40 was the result.

ACCIDENT ON THE DAM.

Mr. Jesse Speight Thrown From Buggy. On Tuesday evening Mr. Jesse Speight was returning to town from the north side of the river, and while on the dam just beyond the bridge met with an accident that for the time being looked very serious. His horse was trotting along at a lively gait when suddenly one shaft of the buggy came uncoupled from the axle. This threw the buggy off the dam, landing Mr. Speight at the bottom of the embankment. As good luck would have it, he came out with only a sprained wrist and scratched face. The accident was due entirely to the insecure fastening on the buggy. The horse was also hurt, but not seriously.

EXAMINATION FOR REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5, 1906. Editor REFLECTOR: An examination will be held under the Civil Service Commission, on February 26th to 28th inclusive, for the purpose of securing eligibles from which to fill vacancies in the position of cadet in the Revenue Cutter service. Applicants, when appointed, must be not less than 18 nor more than 25 years of age, physically sound, and mentally qualified. Examinations will be held in Eastern North Carolina at Raleigh and Wilmington. Applicants should apply to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., for application form and other information. The position is a very desirable one. Respectfully, JNO. H. SMALL.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

As Adopted by Mohican Tribe No. 50, T. O. R. M. of Winterville, N. C. Whereas, God in His divine wisdom has seen fit to visit our Tribe and take from us our beloved Brother, Jos. Henry Smith, be it resolved: 1st, That our Tribe has lost a useful member but still we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who knoweth and doeth all things well. 2nd, That we invoke the blessings of the Great Spirit in behalf of the bereaved family trusting that when they are gone trailing the forest of life that they may be reunited on the shores of the happy hunting where Friendship, Freedom and Charity abideth forever. 3rd, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon our records, a copy be sent to the grief-stricken family and a copy be sent to the Greenville REFLECTOR and Ayden Baptist for publication. J. A. Manning, E. A. Cooper, J. F. Harrington, Com.

SHELMERDINE ITEMS.

SHELMERDINE, N. C. Feb. 6. J. J. Oakley went to Greenville Monday. George Savage, Jr., who has been visiting his parents on Pine street, returned to his home in Rocky Mount Monday. W. J. Boyd, of Ayden, was in town Monday. Mr. Scott, of Elizabeth City, was in town Monday. A letter was received here Saturday stating the marriage of Cecil Harrington. He will make Shelmerdine his home for awhile, but not permanently. Mr. Dawson, of Washington, was in town Monday. H. H. Stanley went hunting Monday afternoon. He was gone about two hours and returned with eleven birds, killing several more that could not be found. L. K. and A. J. Whitford, of Clay Root Neck, were in Shelmerdine Monday afternoon. C. D. Baker and S. P. Alford spent Sunday in Washington. F. G. Whaley returned Saturday night from Suffolk, where he attended the funeral services of Mr. J. M. Shepherd, the father of Mrs. Whaley. Mr. Shepherd died at his home in Suffolk Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock and was buried Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the cemetery at Suffolk. Their many friends extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Whaley. Mrs. Mary Lancaster, aged 93 years, who lives about nine miles from Shelmerdine, is quite sick with pneumonia. She is the grandmother of Mrs. Ricks of this place, and was visited by Dr. and Mrs. Ricks Sunday.

OVER THE STATE.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina. A pointer dog died in Mecklenburg county recently whose owner said had been in the family for 56 years. John C. Dancy, colored, of this state, has been reappointed recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia. Fear Thomasville three white tramps asked the section master of the railroad to let them ride to town with him on the dump car. Permission was given two of them, but the third, being drunk, was told he could not ride. The tramp drew a pistol and shot the section master and was about to make his escape when one of the negro section hands shot him down. The section master and tramp both died of their wounds in a short while. Postponed. A bashful young couple, who were evidently very much in love, entered a crowded street car in Boston the other day. "Do you suppose we can squeeze in here?" he asked, looking doubtfully at her blushing face. "Don't you think, dear, we had better wait until we get home?" was the low embarrassed reply.—Life.

Membership Contest. The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church on Sunday organized a membership contest that promises to be very interesting. The society formed in two companies, one composed of boys and the other of girls, and they are going to see which side can bring in the most new members within a given time. At the end of this time a banquet is to be given at which the winning side in the contest will be the guests of honor and are to be served by the other company.

WHAT IS BROMONIA?

(BROMOZONE.) Bromonia is a product as near capable of curing the majority of diseases as it is possible for Modern Science to produce. The use of Bromonia makes pure blood. Bromonia is not a miracle but simply the result of the scientific investigation of the greatest chemists of the present century. At the first symptoms of fatigue, headache or backache, which are often the forerunners of disease, send for your physician if you will, but, if you take Bromonia, you may find that by the time he has answered your call, that the symptoms have disappeared. Use Bromonia as directed. Live a temperate life. If you become ill while so doing, we will pay any reasonable doctor's bill on demand and proof of illness. We don't want you to invest a cent, however, until we have bought the first bottle for you. Fill in the coupon under this advertisement and mail it to us, taking care to write your name and address plainly, and we will send you without any cost of postage a full size package to try. No matter what your trouble is, write to us. Correspondence confidential. Address Bromonia Co., New York. J. L. Wooten will give his personal guarantee that you will receive an order on your nearest druggist for a free bottle if you send us coupon. Be sure to write your name and address plainly. FREE BROMONIA COUPON. Name..... City..... State..... My nearest dealer is at..... My disease is..... If you think you need Bromonia at once, or if you have already used it, it is to be had at all first class druggists. "25 and 50 cts." J. L. WOOTEN. Exclusive Wholesale Agents for Greenville, N. C. Henry Clark Bridges, one of the most progressive and successful young men of the State, and the youngest railroad president in America, is in the city. He advises us that he is making his arrangements and plans to build an extension of 15 miles to the East Carolina Railway, that is 15 miles from its present terminus, Farmville, in Pitt county, to Hookerton, in Greene county, and at last Greene county is to have a railroad. It is one of the few counties in the State that hasn't a railroad within its borders, and some sections of it are the best and most fertile lands in the State. The new extension will be a model road in all respects, it is to be laid with new 65 pound steel rails and will probably be completed this fall.—Raleigh News and Observer.
