

The day being Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, there will be service with sermon at the Episcopal church at 11 a. m.

There will also be services daily except Saturdays all through Lent. The Wednesday service will be at 7.30 p. m. at which there will be an address services on other days will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Christian people of every name are cordially invited to attend these services. The church will be tapped a few times fifty minutes before each service.

On the forty days of Lent correspond to the forty days' temptation and struggle of our Lord in the wilderness and are kept in commemoration of that event. It is a season of self-denial and self-discipline. It is especially to be hoped that the duty will avail themselves of the opportunity to quicken their spiritual life, deepen their devotion and draw nearer to Christ in every way.

W. E. Cox.

"Decorated" Dress. The latest calls attention to the whole manner in which the materials which keep us warm during the winter are decorated. The silk dress of the lady of a hundred years ago, ribbed as she moved or accented by the gloss of the silk, now it rustles with the 30 per cent of satin of the used to sophisticate it. The lady of the period in her silk dress is indeed a sort of "woman in armor." Even silks, instead of being used for medicinal purposes, as formerly, are now employed, it would appear, for leading flannel. The snowy table linen which used to delight the hearts of Mrs. Tulliver and Aunt Gleig is no longer linen, as of yore, but largely made of cotton filled with china clay, starch and size.

In a Hurry. Rev. Kong Yin Teb of Honolulu was describing in Philadelphia the horrors of leprosy.

"An American, a tourist, I suppose, is almost afraid to look at a leper, isn't he?" a Baptist minister asked.

"Indeed he is afraid," said Mr. Teb, smiling.

"Does he run away?" "Well," Mr. Teb replied, "I wouldn't quite like to say he runs away, but he retreats pretty briskly. If you saw him going for a doctor at that speed you would be altogether warranted in thinking that somebody was dreadfully sick."

The Star Arcturus. It is quite natural for the human mind, which associates all thoughts and makes all comparisons by earthly standards, to think of the inhabitants of some of the monster worlds which are known to be whirling through space, being giants of the most gigantic kind. Lapse the star Arcturus as an illustration. That gigantic planet is 2,000,000 miles in circumference, or about 650,000 miles straight through from pole to pole, or from equator to equator. Our little world is only 8,000 miles in diameter, or 2,000 in circumference. In fact, it is such a mere pygmy compared with Arcturus that it might fall into one of that planet's great lakes, whether they be water or burning seas of gas, and bury itself out of sight. We are apt to think of these planets as being inhabited, however much the chances may be against such an assumption, and to compare such supposed persons to the size of the world upon which they live. If Arcturus is inhabited and its people are built on the same ratio that we are an average Arcturian cannot fall much short of being twelve miles in height.

A Hard Problem. "If this man, Pompono," breathlessly inquired a man who had climbed several flights of stairs and been admitted into a darkened parlor.

"It is," replied the stately personage whom he addressed.

"The famous clairvoyant and fortune teller?"

"The same."

"Do you read the mind?"

"With perfect ease."

"Can you foresee the future?"

"The future holds no mysteries that I cannot unravel."

"An you unfold the past?"

"The record of all things past is to me an open book."

"Then," said the caller, feverishly taking from his pocket a handful of money, "I wish you would tell me what it is that my wife wanted me to bring home without fail this evening and name your price. Money is no object."

OUR

BIG SALE

IS NOW

GOING ON

C. T. MUNFORD'S

Big Store

Greenville, North Carolina.

CAPTURED WITH BLOOD HOUNDS.

Negro Robs Store and is Run Down.

On Saturday night the store of Mr. Joseph Moore, about 10 miles from Kinston and just over the line in Jones county, was robbed. Sunday morning Mr. W. C. Hines received a telephone message from Kinston to go over with his blood hounds.

Mr. Hines left about 11 o'clock and reached Kinston at 4 p. m. where he was joined by officers and they went on to the scene of the robbery, reaching there two hours later. Though this was about eighteen hours after the robbery had been committed the dogs readily found a trail. This was followed for a mile and a half to the home of Tamar Jones, a colored woman. When Mr. Hines and the dogs reached the house Sam Jones, a son of this woman, tried to make his escape but was captured. The premises were searched and a lot of shoes, shirts, underwear, and other articles were found hid in a barn under some cotton seed. These were identified as goods stolen from Mr. Moore's store.

The negro, Sam Jones, was carried to Kinston and placed in jail. On the way he made a confession of the robbery and told how he broke in and how he had served two terms in the penitentiary and had been sent to the roads several times.

MR. JESSE PROCTOR DEAD.

Sudden Attack of Hemorrhage Ends His Life.

Mr. Jesse Proctor died at 12:30 o'clock Saturday night, at his home on Dickinson avenue, of hemorrhage. He was 61 years of age, and had long been a resident of Greenville following his vocation of brick mason.

Mr. Proctor's death was very sudden. He seemed in usual health up to the time of quitting work Saturday evening. After supper he wrote two letters to his absent children before retiring. About midnight he aroused his daughter, Miss Ellen, told her he was sick and asked her to go after one of the neighbors to get a doctor. Miss Ellen hurried out for this purpose and when she returned to her father's bedside he was dead.

Mr. Proctor is survived by three children, Mrs. C. E. Stafford, of Lakeland, Florida, Mr. Will Proctor, of Norfolk, and Miss Ellen Proctor who lived with him. His wife died some years ago.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, service being conducted in the Episcopal church by Rev. W. E. Cox. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. L. Brown, J. S. Higgs, C. E. Bradley, E. C. Williams, H. B. Harris and E. H. Taft.

Funeral of Mr. Wilson.

The funeral of Mr. S. B. Wilson, who died Wednesday night, was held Friday afternoon. Services were conducted at this late residence and at the grave by Revs. J. A. Horaday and J. F. Asycue. The service was in Cherry Hill by, the pall bearers being J. G. Moye, W. L. Brown, Harper, A. L. Blow, Wiley R. C. Flanagan, R. L. and J. J. Laughinghouse.

One Price. Some seem not to exactly understand about the price of admission. A reserved seat for the Trinity College Glee Club Wednesday night. No need of getting mixed on it. The price of admission is 80 cents, and you can go and have a seat reserved without extra cost. But whether you take a reserved seat or not the price is the same.

MR. S. B. WILSON DEAD.

One of Our Oldest Citizens Passes Away.

Wednesday night at 11 o'clock, at his residence on Dickinson avenue, the spirit of Mr. Simon Burney Wilson took its departure from earth to the spirit world. In his death a long and upright earthly life is ended and the better life entered upon.

Mr. Wilson was in his 73rd year and was a native of Pitt county. The best years of his life were spent on the farm, and not until the advance of age rendered him too feeble for active work did he leave the vocation he loved. He moved to Greenville about sixteen years ago and spent the remainder of his days here. During the last few years of his life he was an invalid, unable to get about at all except on buggy or rolling chair. The devotion of his family and friends during these years of confinement and suffering was beautiful, everything being done that could in any way contribute to his comfort and pleasure.

Mr. Wilson possessed that strength of character and true manhood that made friends of all who knew him. He held their esteem through life and his death is mourned by all.

In January, 1857, he wed Miss Martha Brown, and their happy wedded life lacked less than a year of covering half a century. Ten children blessed their home, and four times the death angel crossed their threshold taking away one of their loved ones. He is survived by the widow and six children—three sons and three daughters. The sons are Messrs. Walter B. Frank and Eugene Wilson, and the daughters Mrs. Ollen Warren, Jr., Misses Nannie and Lillie Wilson. These have the sympathy of hosts of friends in their sorrow.

OAKLEY ITEMS.

OAKLEY, N. C., Mar. 3, 1906.

W. A. Andrews and little son Elbert, spent last Sunday here visiting J. R. Jenkins.

W. R. Whichard, of Whichards with his many friends, who are always glad to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Skinner, of LaGrange, spent a few days here this week.

Misses Bessie Barnhill and Elma Whichard, of Greenville, spent a few days here last week visiting Miss Pearl Jenkins.

Lewis Roberson, of Stokes, was a caller here this week.

I. H. Little went to Tarboro to hear Harvie Jordan speak and reports a large crowd present.

The quadrille given Monday night at the C. B. H. hall in honor of the visiting young ladies was a success.

E. Rodgers & Co. have opened their new stock of general merchandise.

Battier is quite sick at his home.

S. W. Belcher, of Charleston, S. C. has been visiting his mother here for a few days.

Mrs. Minnie Brown, and little daughter, of Bethel, are visiting here this week.

Cheep John made business calls at Grindool Friday.

HARVIE JORDAN AT TARBORO.

He Speaks to a Large Crowd of Attentive Listeners Composed of Farmers and Business Men of all Professions.

Those who have never seen Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, and heard him speak, can form no idea of the great personal strength and magnetism of the man. For the past seven years I have read informally many of his practical contributions to the agricultural press of the South, but never had I formed the estimate of him that I unconsciously foresaw upon those who see and hear him.

His speech in Tarboro was delivered in the city hall, and almost every class and profession were represented. The house was just comfortably filled, not enough to be crowded, and yet there were few, if any, vacant seats. The crowd that went to hear him was received in a very timely and appropriate welcome by Mr. J. L. Bridges, and the speaker was presented by Hon. E. L. Daughdringer in a few well chosen words which a crowd appreciated, for generally speaking the briefer the words the keener the appreciation of the audience.

As Mr. Jordan came forward there was tremendous applause after which the most perfect attention we ever saw paid a speaker was given him. From the first words of his address until the last had been spoken not a breath or a whisper could be heard, and with the exception of the frequent outbursts of applause there was not a sound but the reverberating echo of the speaker's voice.

He stated in the beginning that he did not come for the purpose of delivering a literary address, but as a plain man to state plain facts to plain people, and to show them if possible why every Southern farmer should ally himself at once with the Southern Cotton Growers' Association. I think he clearly convinced every one who heard him that it was not only a privilege but the duty of every Southern planter to join the association. He spoke with vim, with the force and strength of conviction that is born of a just and honest cause. I wish every farmer and every business and professional man in Pitt county could have heard the cause of the Southern cotton growers plead on this occasion. It would have done him good. It would have made him prouder of his country, prouder of the Southland. It would have inspired a new and stronger faith in the sure triumph of the cotton growers over speculators and gamblers who bear the price of cotton the South is annually robbed of millions of its people and honestly earned wealth.

Space here forbids more than a mere outline of his talk, and even if the whole paper were turned over to me I could convey no adequate impression of its real value. It would have to be heard to be appreciated. Mr. Jordan speaks slowly and clearly. He talks mainly in short, well rounded sentences, but at times employs well modulated phrases of perfectly plain, well selected words, and turns them loose with a snap and vigor that adds strength and pleasure to his form of expression.

He said that the best, strongest and safest financial rating a farmer could have was a well filled corn crib and full meat house.

He appealed to the individual farmer to do his duty and not to

WITH THE ALDERMEN.

Business Transacted at Last Meeting.

The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night, all but two of the members being present.

G. S. Pritchard, representing the tobacco board of trade, requested that drinking fountains be placed in the tobacco section of the town. The matter was referred to committee with authority to place two fountains at most convenient points.

The street committee reported that much work had been done during the past month and streets were in fair condition.

No other of the regular committee had any report.

The several officers filed their reports of collection for the month.

The report of the superintendent of the water and light plant showed an addition of six water customers and five light customers during the past month. Income for the month was about $900.

Fred Cox was refunded tax on $1,800 cash and solvent credits incorrectly listed.

The chief of fire department and building inspector was instructed to make detailed statement of buildings inspected each month.

Residents of Fifth street asked permission to put in a sewer along that street from the railroad to connect with Hotel Bertha sewer. The petition was granted.

A request was made for special police service at the depot, but no action was taken on it.

A PERSONAL TRIBUTE.

In memory of many pleasant hours, I bring one flower to lay as it were on the bier of Mr. Simon B. Wilson, whose spirit on Ash Wednesday after the great god of day was in his western couch, and ere morning's silvery rays kissed darkness away, passed to the bosom of Him who gave it. A consistent member of the Methodist church, gentle as a woman, appreciative, generous nature, devoted husband, fond loving father, a friend loyal and true has left us to join in that happy land the sweet young son he so mourned and longed to be with. Though for years confined to an invalid's chair he bore his sad affliction with that patience, Christian character and fortitude emblematic of the Savior he loved so well; Familiar with interests of many years of the past, and ever conversant in the present, he was as congenial to me as if we had tread boyhood's happy paths together. I shall miss him in the ides of the summer, days to come, and as his body rests in you cemetery "neath flowers from friends and loved ones, may the soil press lightly on his bosom.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow?
God has recalled His own,
But let our hearts in every one
Still say, "Thy Will be done."
WYATT L. BROWNS.

Location for Bank.

A temporary location has been secured for the National Bank. It is, or will be in the Proctor building, the postoffice block, in which Mr. L. Hooker has been conducting a pool room. Mr. Hooker had a lease on the store, and to get possession of this it was necessary to purchase his outfit. As early as practical the bank may erect its own building.

Winston-Salem is moving to purchase for the city the lighting plant in operation there.

HOLDING MOVEMENT STILL FIRM.

Notwithstanding the recent heavy and unauthorized depression in the price of spot cotton, due to bearish speculative influences, the great majority of spot holders have stood firm and refused to be panic-stricken over the extreme tactics pursued by the large cotton buyers and exporters to shake out cotton from the interior of the old States.

We are now facing comparisons with enormous receipts one year ago. Last March there came into sight 1,200,000 bales and in April 800,000 bales, or during those two months as much cotton as there is in the South to come into sight for the balance of the season. More cotton came into sight last March than there is now left in the hands of the spot holders on plantations and at interior uncounted towns.

The spot holders will continue firm and remain unshaken while the exporters who are short in their contracts are being forced to the ports to beg, borrow or buy supplies for immediate requirements. The worst of the depression is already over. The combination of spinners, speculators and buyers have played their last cards, and the holders, by remaining steadfast in the possession of their staple, will soon be able to dictate prices and force the market to fifteen cents. Cotton goods are weekly advancing in price, and the demand cannot be filled, many mills having already taken orders as far ahead as December and into next year. Mill sales are based on the future price of spot cotton as spinners realize prices will advance in the near future. Remember that last March with cotton at 7 cents, in the face of a 14,000,000 bale crop, those who held received 10 1/2 cents early in July. Do not get discouraged. Mill men say raw cotton is worth fifteen cents and that they are prepared to pay it if they cannot get it for less. If the staple is worth it, every interest in the South should assist the holders to get it. Let there be no break in the ranks. The supplies from the interior of the southwest are practically exhausted, and all buyers must soon turn their attention to the holdings in the old States. Do not get panic-stricken, but have only one price in view for the balance of this crop, namely, FIFTEEN CENTS. Plant less cotton and increase the food supply crops. Curtail the production of cotton, so that what is grown will be absolutely required by the consuming world and will, therefore, command profitable prices. The slogan for the next two months throughout the entire cotton belt must be INVESTIGATION, less cotton, more food supplies, and an absolute refusal on the part of spot holders to market their middling cotton for less than 15 cents. Show the world a normal acreage and a fixed determination to demand fifteen cents for the balance of this crop. HARVIE JORDAN, President, S. C. A.

Calendars and Fans. The REFLECTOR office will soon be in position to fill orders for calendars and fans for advertising purposes. We will have a beautiful line of samples ready for examination in a short while and ask the business men here and in nearby towns to hold their orders until they can see what we will have to offer. We can furnish the best to be had at lowest prices.

Five horses perished in a burning stable at Dunn Saturday night.

THE RALSTON HEALTH SHOE.

Shoemaking has been developed on wooden feet--lasts--which know no "pinch" nor discomfort. The soft, yielding, tender flesh of a live foot has thus been compelled to inhabit an unnatural, ill-fitting and oftentimes unsanitary shoe. To be foot-tired is the average man's daily inheritance. And how much ill health can be traced to an ill-fitting shoe. When the foot is improperly shod the delight of walking is gone, and man's best friend--his feet--refuse to him the comfort he should enjoy. A perfect walking shoe, one that keeps the foot always in good condition--can such be had?

This question brought into being the Ralston Health Shoe. Recognizing that the foot sole is a curve made by the twenty-six bones which form the heel, ball and toes, (a fact strangely ignored by shoemakers in the past) we evolved a construction method which places prime importance in last modeling.

Ralston lasts are anatomically correct and differ from all other makes. Ralston construction is a principal combining comfort, ease, service, style, fit and commonsense--real quality in footwear, built into the shoes from the very start.

Shoes made on Ralston lasts are nature shoes, conforming to the natural foot, and because they need no "breaking-in" they never lose that charm and style for which Ralston shoes are famous--and which cannot be obtained in other methods of manufacture.

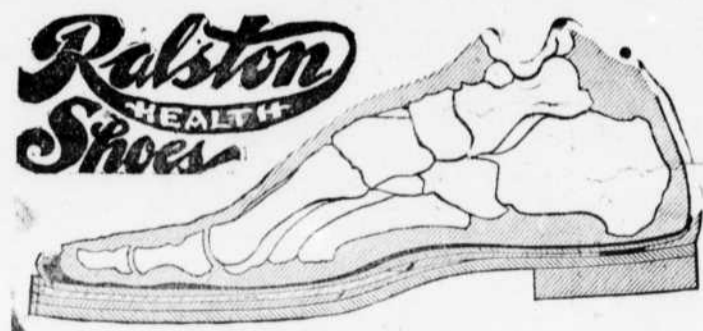

In the selection of materials for Ralston shoes the World's best makers are searched and every bit of upper, top, or sole leather, linings and fittings must pass the Ralston test

The Latest Oxford. College Pattern. Extra large Eyelets. Very Stylish. If you want something distinctive, individual, come and see this shoe.

before acceptance. The same idea with our employees. Each and all must do his or her part according to the Ralston idea, whether it is cutting, stitching, lasting, making or finishing. The result is a shoe unrivalled in pleasure giving, service and abounding in comfort and style. Thus our immense factory with its army of happy, skillful employees is dedicated to the gospel of the foot salvation from cramped and unsuitable footwear. The Ralston Shoe cannot be duplicated at the price asked--$4.00--and as good a shoe is not made or sold for less.

ARE FOOT FORMED

New Spring styles of Ralston Health Shoes are now on display in our store and we invite you to give them a look

J. R. & J. G. MOYE.

The Birmingham Age-Herald says that Alabama has but 35 inhabitants to the square mile, while Massachusetts has 337, and contends that the former state should have as many as the latter. There is no doubt that the natural resources of Alabama are more able to support that number than Massachusetts, but the question of securing them is the thing. --Charlotte Observer.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

The Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt county, having issued letters of administration to me, the undersigned, on the 26th day of January, 1906, on the estate of W. J. Lovie, deceased. NOTICE is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and to all creditors of said estate to present their claims properly authenticated to the undersigned within twelve months after the date of this notice, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. This the 26th day of January, 1906. R. E. BELCHER, Adm. of the estate of W. J. Lovie, L. A. Sugg, Attorney.

The Yellow Fever Germ

has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs, the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guarantee to cure all diseases due to malaria poison and constipation. 25c at J. L. Wootens' Drug Store

Not Quite!

How often you can get a thing "not quite" done--a nail or screw driver or auger lacking. Have a good tool box and be prepared for emergencies. Our line of tools is all you could desire, and we will see that your tool box does not lack a single useful article.

Of Course!

You get Harness, Horse Goods, &c., of

J. R. Corey

Of Course

You Can Live

WITHOUT TELEPHONE SERVICE

BUT YOU DON'T LIVE AS MUCH AS YOU MIGHT

BECAUSE

Telephone Service

SAVES TIME

And Time is the Stuff of Life.

FOR RATES APPLY TO LOCAL MANAGER OF Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, N. C.

D. W. HARDEE, DEALER IN

Groceries And Provisions

Cotton Bagging and Ties always on hand

Fresh Goods kept constantly in stock. Country Produce Bought and Sold

D. W. Hardee, GREENVILLE North Carolina.

D. W. Hardee, GREENVILLE North Carolina.

Friend. This is Worth Reading--Suppose You Stop and See--Isn't it Wonderful? Mrs. Joe Person:--I take pleasure in stating that your Remedy has entirely cured our little girl of a very bad case of eczema, which covered a great part of her body. She had eczema periodically from the time she was three weeks old, until she was six years old. She is now perfectly well and I feel that I cannot speak too highly of your Remedy. Being angrily repulsed by the maid, the monkey withdrew at a safe distance, and after giving the girl a good scolding in monkey chatter for her rudeness he started out to see what he could find on his own account in the way of laundry work. Relating the story, the lady who owned the monkey said: "Unfortunately the windows of my room were invitingly open, and he entered with the idea of the washing still fresh in his head. He soon discovered two small drawers containing lace, ribbons and handkerchiefs. Ah, here was the washing all ready to his hands! In a moment all of these articles were out of the drawers and into a foot pan, together with all the soap and water that happened to be in my room, and the laundering began. He must have washed away with great vigor, for when I returned to my room after an absence of an hour or so I found him busily spreading out to dry the torn and disfigured remnants of my lace, ribbons and handkerchiefs. He was well aware that he had done wrong. Without my speaking to him, he made off the moment he saw me, going very quickly and hiding himself in the case of the kitchen clock in his own home. "At another time this same monkey saw the cook at work preparing partridges for dinner. This looked like an amusing and interesting operation, and he determined forthwith to put it to the test. There were no more partridges. But, ah, yes! His mistress had some pet bantam fowls! Doubtless one of them would do equally well. At the first opportunity he hurried out in the yard, seized one of the hens, quickly returned to the kitchen and then coolly began pulling out the feathers just as he had seen the cook do, utterly regardless of the squawking protests of the poor bantam. The servants heard the noise and hurried to the kitchen, but they found the hen in such a pitiful condition that they were obliged to kill her."

GREENVILLE, N. C. To Publishers and Printers

We have an entirely new process, on which patents are pending, whereby we can reface old Brass Column and Head Rules, 4 pt. and thicker, and make them fully as good as new and without any unsightly knobs or feet on the bottom.

PRICES

Refacing Column and Head Rules regular lengths 20c. each Refacing L. S. Column and Head ruled 2 inches in and over 40c. per lb.

A sample of refaced Rule, with full particulars, will be cheerfully sent on application.

Philadelphia Printers Supply Co. Manufacturers of Type and High Grade Printing Material 3 N. Ninth Street, Philadelphia, P.

NORFOLK & SOUTHERN R. R. CO. N. & S.

Steamboat Service.

Steamer "R. L. Myers" leaves Washington daily (except Sunday) at 6 a. m. for Greenville; leaves Greenville daily (except Sunday) at 12 m. for Washington.

Connecting at Washington with Norfolk & Southern Railroad for Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and all other points North. Connects a Norfolk with all points West.

Shippers should order their freight via Norfolk, care Norfolk & Southern, R. R.

Sailing hours subject to change without notice.

J. J. CHERRY, Agent, Greenville, N. C. H. C. HUDGINS, General T. and P. Agent, Norfolk, Va. M. K. KING, V. P. & G. M.

How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder, or hurt when lying on left side? If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and dropsy, and gradually grew worse. I was laid by my family physician that my case was long and he said I was unable to do any thing but rest. My heart was enlarged, being seven eighths of an inch larger than normal size, and I had collected dropsy. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from suffocating. I sent for five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and by the time I had taken them all, I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if I hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would not be in my present condition." T. CURRIE, Winona, Ky.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

IMITATIVE MONKEYS.

One That Essayed the Role of Laundry and Cook.

Monkeys are the most imitative of the lower animals, and some very funny stories are told of their pranks. Occasionally they get themselves into trouble by their propensity for doing what they see people do and then get well punished for their mischief. A story is told of a pet monkey owned by a lady living in London that, seeing the maid washing the laces of her mistress one day, obligingly offered to help her. Being angrily repulsed by the maid, the monkey withdrew at a safe distance, and after giving the girl a good scolding in monkey chatter for her rudeness he started out to see what he could find on his own account in the way of laundry work. Relating the story, the lady who owned the monkey said:

"Unfortunately the windows of my room were invitingly open, and he entered with the idea of the washing still fresh in his head. He soon discovered two small drawers containing lace, ribbons and handkerchiefs. Ah, here was the washing all ready to his hands! In a moment all of these articles were out of the drawers and into a foot pan, together with all the soap and water that happened to be in my room, and the laundering began. He must have washed away with great vigor, for when I returned to my room after an absence of an hour or so I found him busily spreading out to dry the torn and disfigured remnants of my lace, ribbons and handkerchiefs. He was well aware that he had done wrong. Without my speaking to him, he made off the moment he saw me, going very quickly and hiding himself in the case of the kitchen clock in his own home. "At another time this same monkey saw the cook at work preparing partridges for dinner. This looked like an amusing and interesting operation, and he determined forthwith to put it to the test. There were no more partridges. But, ah, yes! His mistress had some pet bantam fowls! Doubtless one of them would do equally well. At the first opportunity he hurried out in the yard, seized one of the hens, quickly returned to the kitchen and then coolly began pulling out the feathers just as he had seen the cook do, utterly regardless of the squawking protests of the poor bantam. The servants heard the noise and hurried to the kitchen, but they found the hen in such a pitiful condition that they were obliged to kill her."

A Tender Husband. "Whenever did you get that dreadful black eye, Mrs. Hawkins?" said the east end district visitor as she seated herself on the extreme edge of the least dirty chair in the room. "It was the result of a trifling altercation with my husband, mum," replied the lady of the house. "Dear, dear, dear!" cried the visitor, holding up her hands in horror. "How dreadful! What a bad, wicked man your husband must be!" "Not at all, mum," retorted the other, with dignity. "Hawkins is 'asty, but 'e's a perfect gentleman at 'eart. I can assure you that after 'e'd give me this black eye 'e sat 'old in a cold 'rain' pan to it for 'iswards of a 'ower, a-tryin' to deduce the swelling. A little 'listention like that goes a long way toward makin' married life 'appy, mum, as I dessey you've found 'erself." -- London Mail.

Pet Phrases of Novelists. As women have their favorite perfumes, as explorers have their favorite dishes, so novelists have their favorite phrases. This is a list of the favorite phrases of certain novelists, compiled by a book review in an idle moment: "Then a strange thing happened."--R. Rider Haggard. "For what do you take me?" shrugged his interlocutors."--Henry James. "But that's another story."--Rudyard Kipling. "Incidentally, I stepped forward."--Robert Louis Stevenson. "Now, my dear Watson."--Conan Doyle. "Well!"--Walter Pater. Forehanded Boys.

It is perhaps not true that in St. Louis when the noon whistle blew carpenter nailing shingles on a roof let his hammer suspended in the air at the upper end of a stroke and went to lunch, but Search Light vouchers for the following, which is along the same line: While the American Library association was in session a number of members went to inspect a cotton mill. They were in the card room when the whistle blew for noon and saw the card room boys put up their work as if by magic and disappear. "Do all the boys drop their tools the instant the whistle blows?" asked one of the visitors. "No, not all," replied the foreman. "The more orderly have their tools all put away before that time."

Why Not Own a Home?

REAL ESTATE IN GREENVILLE IS A Safe investment.

Secure a Good Location while there is an opportunity to do so at Reasonable Prices and on Easy Terms.

I have deeded that splendid property, just east of the town limits in South Greenville, into convenient lots for home-seekers and will sell them on easy terms. There is no better location for homes anywhere around Greenville. High elevation, level, and convenient, being only a few minutes walk from the business part of town. This property is just outside the corporate limits, yet those who reside there will have the benefit of the graded school, and be as near to the churches, and depot and postoffice as are the people in many parts of the town, being only three hundred yards from Five Points, nice neighborhood adjacent to the property. Talk it over with me and let me show you these desirable lots. No better time than NOW to buy. Greenville will grow rapidly in the next few years and property will be higher. Catch the opportunity before it is too late.

Call on or address SAM WHITE, Greenville, N. C.

Hardware.

For Cook Stoves Ranges, Heaters Pumps, Guns, Ammunition, One and Two Horse Steel Plows, Leaf Cutters and Stuffers. In fact anything in Hardware come to

H. L. CARR

COTTON SEED, MEAL AND HULLS. FEED STUFFS.

I am paying the highest market price for Cotton Seed in any quantity. I also sell Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls, in car lots or less, sacked or loose, to suit purchaser, or exchange for Seed at warehouse. HAY, CORN, OATS, BRAN, SHIP STUFF LIME and all kinds of feed constantly on hand. Car of Golden Seed and Feed Oats to arrive, also White and Black Oats, Red Rust Proof Oats. I have just had built a large warehouse near the depot for this line. I will continue to carry a line of nice Groceries at the same stand occupied by Johnston Bros.

F. V. JOHNSTON.

The Reflector

THE REFLECTOR IS READ BY EVERYBODY in reach, and it reaches people who have money to pay for what they want. If you have what they want advertise it and you are sure to get a part of their money.

PRICE CUT IN HALF

REVIEW OF REVIEWS COSMOPOLITAN WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION THE AMERICAN FARMER THE DAILY REFLECTOR

$5.00

OR

Review of Reviews Cosmopolitan Woman's Home Companion American Farmer Eastern Reflector

All for $3.00

We are very fortunate in being able to arrange with the publishers of these well known magazines to offer a subscription for the coming year at this sensational price. We have decided to let our readers have the full advantage of the reduction in order to get quickly a large body of paid in advance subscribers

Don't Neglect This Wonderful Offer

Reviews of Reviews The Cosmopolitan Woman's Home Companion

Many other publications are desirable, and you may prefer this or prefer that fiction and art publication, but the Review of Reviews is necessary. Substantial American men and women are going to keep up with the times and they are going to take the shortest cut which is the Review of Reviews.

A leading magazine for 18 years With the recent change of ownership it has been improved. It is far better in every respect, and aims to be the best in the field. Every year or so there's one notable advance in the forward movement among the many magazines. This year it is the Cosmopolitan.

The Woman's Home Companion is for every member of the family. For our bright, earnest, cultured, home-loving American woman it is an ideal entertainer and helper in a thousand congenial ways; but the fathers and brothers and sons join in its perusal by the fireside; children eagerly turn to the pages that are written for them.

The American Farmer is the leading Agricultural paper of the country, and pertinent to farming, live stock and poultry raising. Every farmer should have it you get all four of these papers with THE DAILY REFLECTOR a year for $5.00, or, all four with THE EASTERN REFLECTOR a year for $3.00

REMEMBER

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Advertising rates made known upon application.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE NORTH CAROLINA TUESDAY MAR. 6 1906.

They will fix up some way to get Dr. Matthews out of it.

The "profession" got a jolt in San Francisco the other night when one of the pugilists in a contest received injuries in the knock out from which he died.

If the Republicans themselves think every appointee of their party to office in North Carolina is unfit for the place, what can they expect the balance of the folks to think?

From some matters we have heard talked you may look for even bigger things to be taking place in Greenville. The flood tide of progress is coming in for this good old town.

It is the fact now when one is caught in crime to attempt suicide rather than take the consequences. Must be that the courts are getting better along the line of administering punishment.

The way that Durham wife murdered her husband over his crime indicates that he is a villain of the deepest dye. Hanging more than once, if such a thing was possible, would be none too severe punishment for him.

The Durham Sun, that has a way of shining brightly, even on cloudy days, has begun its eighteenth year. As a factor in Durham's growth the Sun has made its presence felt, and it is entitled to the best the people of that town can give it.

This is the way they go about it in the enlightened (?) North. At Springfield, Ohio, two negroes shot and wounded a white man. The negroes were taken by officers and put in a place of safety. A mob of a thousand people collected, and not being able to get at the negroes who did the shooting, they went to the negro section of the city and proceeded to bombard and burn houses of innocent persons. It took several companies of military to dispel the mob and stop the frenzy.

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.

There were not enough present at the meeting of the Merchant's Association called in the Mayor's office Friday night to constitute a quorum, so no effort at the transaction of business in connection with the association was made. Those present, however, put in some good time talking informally about several matters of interest. There ought to be such interest awakened in the association as to bring out the cooperation of every merchant and business man. Nothing succeeds like working through organization, and there are so many things the association could accomplish for the benefit of the town if every member should be interested. There are reasons that vitally concern the association which the association ought to be looking after right now. Greenville is losing by her business men not working together as they ought and taking interest in matters that concern all.

GOOD APPROACH TO DEPOT.

In a communication in this paper a correspondent makes an admirable suggestion to the town officials for a suitable thoroughfare from the business portion of the town to the depot. For years there has been contention over widening and improving Dickinson avenue, but every effort to improve that street has been obstructed by the property owners along the street. There is no prospect of ever making it a suitable street without much litigation and immense cost, more than the town ought to be burdened with.

Though Dickinson avenue is really the nearest approach to the depot, with no prospect of making it a suitable street attention had as well be turned elsewhere, and the suggestion of the correspondent to make Evans and Ninth streets meet this need is timely. The town owes it to the public to have a good thoroughfare to the depot which will not get almost impassable in every wet spell. The traveling public has justly complained of this deficiency and it is time the town was showing some pride in this particular.

As Scientist Langley who was building the airship is dead, some one else will have to take up his work if we are to fly any time in the near future.

Durham wants a special term of court to try the recent vice murderer. Something like that is needed. And after conviction he should hang at the earliest possible moment.

They think the South is some, or a smart Jack would not get up in Congress every now and then with a move to cut down her representation. It is not likely to be cut, and the agitation only seems to give some fellow a little cheap notoriety.

Every day that Greenville goes along without day electric current, just so long is the development of small enterprises held back. The enterprises would come if they could get cheap power with which to operate, and Greenville needs every possible enterprise that will make something and give employment to wage earners.

Great movements go slow, and possibly that is one reason more people are not taking interest in having a better county home in Pitt county. The county could do itself no greater credit than by acting quickly in this matter. The poor of the county are not as well provided for as they should be. Think if you or some of your own kin had to become inmates of the county home.

It takes the New York fellows on cotton exchange, when they want to demoralize prices and scoop in the suckers, to give out the information they are now saying that their investigations show a ten per cent increase in the acreage and preparations for the crop are well under way. And this before the farmers have hardly stuck a plow in the ground. The farmers should band together and just show those fellows how far such forecasts miss the mark.

The G's come front in point of notoriety, Greensboro, N. C., and Gaffney, S. C., dividing the honors now.

Raleigh's three telephone systems might fight it out among themselves, but the trouble is the people are paying for it.

Sometimes a fellow gets justice even in Greensboro. It was so in the two years on the roads given McMillan.

Every town has its croacker, and has less use for him than any other class of citizen. The man who is given to speaking disparagingly and running down everything ought to follow the example of the ground hog—go in his hole and stay there.

One has to strain a point to have sympathy for the man who keeps money about his home and gets robbed. Such robberies are read about almost every day. In this age when the country is full of banks, even the small towns having them, people ought to put their money in bank and not be taking such risks. Around the house or even in the pockets is no place to be keeping money except what is needed for handy change.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

By an Occasional Contributor. Senator Tillman is to make his first call in four years at the White House. It is understood that Queensberry rules will govern and there will be no hitting in the breakaways.

If the agricultural department and the food manufacturers association could pass sentence on each other, it would be a verdict of six months twice a year?

Countess Sanaroff complains that she cannot get a passport either as an American or a Russian citizen. The Countess is wasting time in Washington. Any American consulate would make her a citizen for a fee of two dollars and no questions asked.

The Pat Crowe jury evidently thought the defendant was such a liar they could not even believe his own confession.

It seems that the only people who quit ahead of the game on the Yerkes-Mizner marriage were $20,000 worth of the husband's creditors.

Japan is now experimenting to see whether the big stick will be as effective at Pekin as it was at Portsmouth.

Ambassador von Sterburg is laying for Secretary Root the next time he refuses to draw cards.

Prof. Wiley says that the food manufacturers' association is a band of toxicologists in disguise.

Sporting editors will please take notice that Senator Aldrich is going to carry Senator Tillman next.

Lincoln Steffens says that public opinion is behind President Roosevelt. But as yet he is also a long ways in the lead.

Mr Longworth has been presented with a presidential boom by an admiring friend. It is needless to say that there is small likelihood of the present boom being duplicated.

High Grade Tailoring

Tuesday March 6th is the day

Our Expert Cutter and Fitter will be here to show you the most complete assortment of STYLISH FABRICS for Spring and Summer Don't fail to be on hand Tuesday for this is a

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY to obtain real METROPOLITAN STYLISH and the finest Tailoring at very low prices. Come in and see the new fashions anyway even if you are not thinking of ordering we shall be glad to show you

Frank Wilson,

The King Clothier.

TODAY'S MARKETS.

By Wire to Daily Reflector.

Norfolk Cotton & Peanuts

AS WIRED BY J. W. PERRY & COMPANY, Cotton Factors, Norfolk, Va.

Table with columns: Cotton, Today, Yesterday. Rows: Strict Middling, Middling, St. Low Middling, Low Middling.

Table with columns: Peanuts, Today, Yesterday. Rows: Fancy, Strictly Prime, Prime, Low Grades.

NEW YORK AND LIVERPOOL FUTURE MARKETS.

AS WIRED BY COBB BROTHERS & COMPANY, Bankers and Brokers, NORFOLK, VA.

New York Futures:

Table with columns: Closed, Today, Yesterday. Rows: May, July.

Table with columns: Liverpool Futures, Jan. & Feb., Chicago Markets.

Table with columns: May Wheat, May Corn, May Ribs, July Ribs, May Lard, July Lard.

GREENVILLE COTTON MARKET, REPORTED BY J. B. & J. G. MOYE, MIDDLETOWN.

Table with columns: Closed, Today, Yesterday. Rows: May, July.

Pulley & Bowen THE HOME OF WOMAN'S FASHIONS

We will inaugurate Our Spring Season by putting on display the newest ideas to be shown in

SILKS & WHITE GOODS

We have no trash or Special Sale stuff but we will have the latest and best things that were obtainable in the American markets and we cordially invite the Ladies that are desirous of seeing the NEWEST CREATIONS IN SILKS AND WHITE GOODS to call at our establishment and feast their eyes. Very truly yours,

Pulley & Bowen.

R. L. JOHNSON, Greenville, N. C. Contractor, Builder, Tile Setter.

R. B. BYNUM, Real Estate Agent, Fire Insurance and Loans. Business Opportunities and Investments. Stock Companies Promoted and Financed. Farmville, N. C.

Save 10 Per Cent

I hereby give all owners of DWELLING HOUSES notice that they can save 10 per cent. on premiums paid for by having all flues built of brick or stone from the ground. This information is hereby gladly given to the public.

FIRE INSURANCE

Insurance F. M. HORNADAY Greenville, N. C.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT

This department is in charge of J. H. FRY, who is authorized to represent the Eastern Reflector in Winterville and territory.

Miss Georgie Joyner, who as one of the teachers of the Winterville High School, went to her home in LaGrange Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Nice line of fresh groceries always on hand Harrington Barber & Co.

Any one in need of a good cart one that will last and render good service just call to see or write the A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

Frank Carroll, a very prosperous farmer, of the Black Jack vicinity, was in town Friday evening.

If you expect to exchange your seed for meal you can save time by taking meal far your seed when you have your cotton ginned at the Pitt Co. Oil Mill.

For special prices on bearers see W. L. House.

The Vance Literary Society of the Winterville High School are preparing to give a public debate some time in the near future.

Miss Bessie Smith, of Woodland, is visiting Mrs. E. G. Braxton.

If you want your laundry to look nice and last long take it to H. L. Johnson who represents the Wilmington steam laundry.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are still shipping cotton planters and guano sowers by the car load, and if you need any you had best write or see them at once.

All farmers anticipating oats sowing and wheat can be supplied with mowers, rakes, reapers and binders at Harrington, Barber & Co.

Mrs. D. L. Carr, of Castoria, is visiting her brother, J. B. Little this week.

Be sure not to forget the furniture and those iron bedsteads at A. W. Ange & Co.

Winterville Canning factory consisting of furnace, cooker, canning books, work shed, warehouse and about one third acres of land in heart of Winterville for sale. For particulars see Dr. B. T. Cox or J. F. Harrington.

We offer our silver table ware, 25 years guarantee at a bargain. See us. B. T. Box & Bro.

Buy a pipe from J. H. C. Dixon at the drug store.

Joshua Manning made a business trip this week to Grimesland, and other points in that vicinity.

Nice buggy Robes at Harrington Barber & Co.

All colors of patent, and yellow ochre at Harrington Barber & Co.

Nice line of boys suits at H. L. Johnson's.

Another large shipment of shoes all styles and sizes and prices very reasonable. Harrington Barber & Co.

Miss Annie Lewis, who is teaching school at Rosehill was in town Friday evening on her way to Grifton to spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

White's Colic and Kidney Cure, the combination kidney medicine for stock and a sure colic cure. at the Drug Store

Buy your Candies, Apples, Oranges and Bananas from J. H. C. Dixon at the drug store.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor and Mrs. L. A. Sparks left this morning for Baltimore, where they will buy their spring and summer goods. We can look for a nice line of goods this spring and summer as they know what is needed, and that will be what they buy. We hope them a pleasant trip.

Try a bottle of "Foley's Kidney Care" a sure cure for all kidney troubles at Harrington Barber & Co.

If you have cotton seed to sell or exchange write or phone Pitt Co. Oil company, their prices are the highest.

Henry Nelson went down the road Friday 95 business.

Men's and youth's pants, all sizes, at Harrington Barber & Co.

Heber Mumford spent Sunday in town.

The demands for Tar Eel cart wheels is great now, and any one in need of same will do well to write or see the A. G. Cox Mfg Co. Trucks and Valises at Harrington Barber & Co.

The Pitt County Oil Co. will pay highest price for seed cotton.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., are still shipping cotton planters by the car load.

Big line of hats and caps just received, latest styles. Harrington, Barber & Co.

Fernando Whichard, who is a student of the Winterville High school went home Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with his parents, who live near House.

Tooth and Dick Harrow at Harrington, Barber & Co.

Go to H. L. Johnson's for fresh meats, fish and oyster.

Farmers make money by exchanging their cotton seed for meal at Pitt County Oil Co.

H. L. Johnson can fill your order in the grocery line, for he carries a full line all the time.

Jim Griffin, of Ayden, was in town Friday evening.

Our meal analyzes 832, Pitt Co. Oil company.

Any one in need of a plow will do well to go to A. W. Ange & Co., and get one of those "Oliver Chilled Plows." They are the best on the market.

Farming implements of all kinds at Harrington, Barber & Co.

Mrs. Henry Harris, of Greenville, has been visiting Mrs. E. W. Braxton this week.

Furnishings for the house we are new ready for business, and extend an invitation to all, to visit our store, and see the beautiful line of furniture, which we have planned to deal out on easy installment, that even the poorest shall have excuse for their homes not being furnished. Thanking you in advance for patronage, we are yours to serve, Eastern Carolina Supply Co., Winterville, N. C.

Pay your bills in a business like way, by check on the Bank of Winterville, your money is safe with us, and it is much more convenient when you wish to pay a bill. The returned checks are legal receipts for every bill you pay.

Car load of flour just received, nice and fresh, at lowest price. Harrington, Barber & Co.

For hoes, rakes and farming implements of all kinds go to Harrington, Barber & Co.

Nicest line of dress shirts ever shown in Winterville at Harrington, Barber & Co.

New furniture is arriving daily at A. W. Ange & Co's. Come and get the best at lowest prices.

A new line of calicoes and dress goods just received at A. W. Ange & Co. Be sure to see them and get your pick.

Quite a number of traveling men have been in town this week.

L. L. Kittrell went to Greenville Friday evening.

C. A. Fair, of Ayden, was in town Thursday on business.

Woods high grade garden seed have for years been the most popular southern seed offered.

Try a Prince George, or a Dan Emmett Cigar. Jim Dixon at the drug store will show them to you.

If you need a nice Rug just call at A. W. Ange & Co and you can get one, and cheap too.

200 bushels of seed Oats at Harrington, Barber & Co.

If you want good flour, some that you can eat without any trouble with indigestion, go to A. W. Ange & Co., and get some of that flour he has that is made out of pure wheat.

If you are wise preserve your houses by painting them with Harrison's town and country paint, for sale by A. W. Ange & Co.

For hay, corn and oats go to Harrington, Barber & Co.

If you want a nice shirt or tie go to Harrington, Barber & Co.

All who have not paid their town tax will do well to see C. L. Smith, collector, before an extra amount is added to them.

Firm the habit of saving by making small deposits with the Bank of Winterville. From small savings great fortunes grow. Begin now.

We noticed in the paper a few days ago that while some party was out driving the buggy shaft became unfastened and the entire buggy was thrown from the top of a high embankment, the occupant barely escaping serious injury.

The cause was a defective shaft coupler. Such accidents as these are serious in as much as they often threaten life, and every precaution should be taken to guard against them. It is to your best interest. You can do this by using Hunsicker Buggies. The shafts are fastened with Holdfast Couplers which are sold, are the best on the market. They are quick and easy to apply and never come off or rattle. You can then take your wife, sweetheart, or children with perfect safety.

When you come to Winterville at the bank. The cashier would be glad to see you. He would also like to show you how an amount with the bank of Winterville will be helpful to you.

If you want a nice double sewing machine for $15.00, or any kind of house furnishing goods cheap go to A. W. Ange & Co.

The gentleman, who left town last week and lost his clothes would not have had such bad luck if he had bought one of those nice traveling trunks, or suit cases at A. W. Ange & Co.

Advertising in the Golden West. Sea's free: $1.20 a line. 83 the pair. At this small price we offer 1,200 pairs of men's extra fine worsted pants, regular $4.50 values.—Portland Oregonian.

Critically Ill. Ex-Mayor W. R. Parker, who has been in feeble health the past year, is in a critical condition at his home in South Greenville. His friends are fearful that the end is near.

DISSOLUTION. The firm of Proctor & Gibson, Merchants at Grimesland N. C. has this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons indebted to said firm will make payment to T. P. Proctor, who will continue business at the old stand, and will settle all indebtedness against said firm. This Feb. 28, 1906. T. P. Proctor. J. L. Gibson.

NOTICE OF EXECUTION SALE NORTH CAROLINA. In the Superior Court. R. L. Smith & Company vs. Basil Dixon. By virtue of an execution directed to the undersigned from the Superior Court of Pitt county in the above entitled action, I will, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1906, at 12 o'clock M. at the Court House door of said county, sell to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said execution, all the right, title and interest which the said Basil Dixon, defendant, has in the following described real estate, to-wit: estate one undivided one eighth interest of Basil Dixon, subject to the life annuity of his father, S. S. Dixon, in and to the lands which were deeded to him from his mother, Henrietta Dixon, (formerly Henrietta Boyd), and containing the lands of L. A. McGowan, E. P. Fleming and wife, Ed Laughinghouse, John E. Boyd and others, and containing three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, and being the entire interest of the said Basil Dixon in and to the lands of which his mother, the late Henrietta Dixon, (formerly Henrietta Boyd), died seized and possessed, situated on the north side of Tar River, Greenville Township, Pitt county, subject to the life annuity of S. S. Dixon, the father of the said Basil Dixon. This 16th day of February, 1906. L. W. TUCKER, Sheriff.

DID YOU SAY FURNITURE

Then A. H. TAFT is the man to deal with.

Our store is at all times open to those who want good goods at low prices. We can furnish your house from the kitchen to the parlor in Furniture at prices that will suit your purse. SATISFIED CUSTOMERS ARE OUR ADVERTISEMENT.

PICTURES FRAMED TO ORDER

Well we can suit you in Price, Quality and Workmanship, our Mouldings are up-to-date, our place is convenient, our prices are right. Give us a call when in need of anything in the Furniture or Picture line. Orders taken for Portraits, likeness guaranteed.

Yours Truly, A. H. Taft

Wash Goods Sale!

We have just received our full line of WASH GOODS consisting of

FANCY WHT GOODS PERSIAN LAWN. 45 IN INDIA LINEN

GINGHAMS, CHAMBRAYS, MADRAS, PERCALES &c will be on sale Monday. Everybody cordially invited to inspect these goods,

Jas. F. Davenport,

OPPOSITE GREENVILLE BANKING & TRUST CO.

Save 10 Per Cent.

I can give owners of DWELLING HOUSES information that will enable them to save 10 per cent. on premiums paid for

FIRE INSURANCE.

Details will be gladly furnished to anyone interested. Insurance H. A. WHITE Greenville, N. C.

BUY Fay Stockings

FROM C. L. WILKINSON & CO.

We sell and guarantee FAY STOCKINGS 20 and 25c per pair. We are not "exclusive" agents, but are Sole Agents and therefore can sell you cheaper.

We were the first to ever have the FAY STOCKINGS shipped to Greenville.

C. L. Wilkinson & Co.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Kleber Denmark Celebrate Their Fifth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Kleber Denmark were at home to their friends last evening from 9 to 11 o'clock. The occasion being the celebration of the fifth anniversary of their wedding.

As the guests entered Mr. S. L. Stough of Miss Sue Wilson gave each a cordial welcome and after remaining for the weather on the porch the party moved to the parlour where the receiving party, besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Denmark, consisted of Mrs. E. L. Pippin, of Enfield, Mrs. V. A. Brewster, and Mrs. Thomas McGee, of Goldsboro.

Mr. Denmark, affable and genial always, wore his best smile, and Mrs. Denmark, gowned in a grey hand embroidered chiffon with diamonds, was a charming hostess. From the west parlor the guests were ushered into the dining room where the color scheme of green and white was beautifully carried out with white carnations and ferns. While a salad course and bouquets were being served by four sweet little girls, Miss Agnes Quinerly, Lucile Collins, Elizabeth Woodley and Ina May Lee, the guests were entertained by Misses Starkey, of Greenville, Lumberlake, of Raleigh, and Bessie Wooten and Frances Campbell.

From the dining room the guests were led into the spacious hall, where Mrs. J. H. Parham, Mrs. T. R. Lee, and Miss Emma Joyner, of Greenville, dispensed the coffee. From above on the staircase, cones cooled behind evergreens, an Italian band discoursed gentle strains of music. Then Mr. Carl Harper and Miss Hattie Smith, of Greenville, showed the guests into the east parlor, where Mrs. H. D. Harper, Jr., and Miss Bessie Gold, of Wilson, presided at the punch bowl.

Their elegant home was tastily and beautifully decorated with palms and ferns and other potted plants. There were many presents in the east parlor—expressions of love and good will—from a host of friends in and out of Kingston. New Year's gifts were counted.

It was a joyous evening, and at 11 o'clock the guests were feeling happy after saying good night and wishing the host and hostess many years of continued health, prosperity and wedded joy.—Kingston Free Press, Feb. 28

A man boasts of his bad habits only when they are the best he has; too many men pray for the things they are too lazy to work for;

When a man is in the right he can afford to wait his turn.

SHAPE OF THE NOSE.

Pay Attention to the Nasal Organ in Early Life.

The shape of the nose is a thing which troubles all of us more or less at some period of our existence. Whatever shape we have we feel that we should have been better pleased if it had been formed according to some different pattern. This is on the principle of always wanting what we do not possess.

In speaking of this or that feature we often say that nature has given us this or that. The remark is correct, as a rule, but persons who possess a short nose may make a mistake in saying it. As a matter of fact, it can be shown that the nasal organ might have been longer in hundreds of cases if attention had been paid to it earlier in life. The shortness of growth in these cases is due to some trouble with the organ of smell.

When a child speaks in a peculiar manner, when it finds difficulty in breathing freely through the nose, then an examination should be made. Some children have to all appearances a perpetual cold, manifested only by "stiffness," but the real state of the case is that they are suffering from adenoids or some other trouble that can easily be remedied.

The importance of being able to breathe freely through the nose cannot be overestimated. One of the greatest men in history said that the power to take plenty of breath through the nasal organ meant a clear brain, clear judgment and a clear heart. Your success in life will be as your personal appearance may be spoiled by an impediment which to some people seems of little consequence.

Adenoids will sometimes prevent the growth of the nose, and the afflicted person may grow up with a very stubby specimen. A small boy afflicted with adenoids, was taken to an expert in order to ascertain why the child's nose did not grow. An operation was performed, and the medical man enjoyed a kind of massage of the organ several times a day with a view to increasing the size of the nose as the child increased in years. In order to explain to the little one what to do, as "massage" was too big a word, he said that he must pull his nose. Every day the father on returning in the evening asked the seemingly strange question, "Have you pulled your nose today?" One evening he received the startling answer, "No, papa, auntie pulled my nose for me!"—San Francisco Examiner.

THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is often occasioned by actual external conditions, but in the vast majority of cases by a disordered liver.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills

They control and regulate the liver. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and vitality to the body.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Lest Rold for Taxes.

Mr. C. W. Harvey, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, gives as the following figures of sales of leaf tobacco in the Greenville market:

For the month of February 458,350 pounds at the average price of $7.45. For the corresponding month last year the sales were 714,883 at the average price of $7.57.

For the season from August 1st to March 1st the total sales were 10,458,430 pounds at the average price of $7.79. For the same month last year the sales were 8,587,410 pounds at the average price of $8.87.

While these figures show a falling off of sales this February as compared with last year, the total for this season is nearly two million pounds more than last. It will be noticed also that the average price this season is $1.08 higher than last season. This is accounted for in the quality of this season's crop being poorer than last. Taking quality in consideration this season's crop has sold better than the previous one.

TO DEEPEN CHANNEL.

The people of North Carolina will be gratified to read that the Secretary of War recommends an appropriation of one million and fifty thousand dollars to increase the depth of the channel from the ocean to Wilmington from twenty to twenty-four feet, and to appropriate annually thereafter $65,000 for maintenance.

In the report it is stated that the commerce of the port in 1889 was $346,557, and it had grown in 1904 to $41,750,000, a most remarkable increase.

The growth of the commerce of Wilmington is approached by that of no other town or city in the State, and if the Congress should be wise enough to deepen the channel so that larger vessels can come to Wilmington, the dream of the fathers will soon be fulfilled and our chief seaport will before many years contain a population of an hundred thousand. It is much wiser to make large appropriations for a few such works of improvement than to spend the money in innumerable small checks that can never be made commensally.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Cotton Association.

The Pitt County branch of the Southern Cotton association meets on Monday, 5th. Every farmer and every business man who can do so should attend this meeting. All working together and the farmers sticking to their pledges is the way to insure better prices for cotton.

When a man is in the right he can afford to wait his turn.

When a man is in the right he can afford to wait his turn.

When a man is in the right he can afford to wait his turn.

DO YOU KNOW THE ADVANTAGES OF OUR TIME DEPOSIT FEATURE?

Call in or drop us a line.

THE GREENVILLE BANKING & TRUST CO.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE BANK OF FARMVILLE, FARMVILLE, N. C.

AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS, JAN. 29TH, 1906.

RESOURCES:	LIABILITIES:
Loans and Discounts $22,616.63	Capital stock pd in $10,000.00
Overdrafts 499.44	Undivided profits 1,607.04
Furniture and Fixtures 1,630.50	Depos. subj to check 82,609.88
Due from Banks 15,478.17
Cash Items 30.05
Cash items 502.50	$44,216.92
Silver coin 1,401.63
Nat. bk & U. S. notes 2,058.00
	$44,216.92

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt, ss: I, J. R. Davis, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 8th day of Feb. 1906.

J. V. JOHNSTON, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: W. M. LANG, J. R. TURNAGE, R. L. DAVIS, Directors

THE BANK OF GREENVILLE GREENVILLE, N. C.

CAPITAL - - - $25,000.00
SURPLUS AND PROFITS - - - $39,350.00
ASSETS - - - $258,150.00

The above resources we offer for the accommodation of our customers and the encouragement of every legitimate enterprise.

R. L. DAVIS, President, JAMES L. LITTLE, Cashier, J. A. ANDREWS, Vice President, WALTER G. WARD, Asst. Cashier.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE BETHEL BANKING AND TRUST CO.

AT BETHEL, N. C.

At the close of business Jan. 29th, 1906.

RESOURCES.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and discounts $15,547.73	Capital stock $ 5,300.00
Overdrafts secured 89	Surplus fund 700.00
Furniture & Fixtures 989.63	Undivided profits 815.87
Due from Banks and Bankers 19,436.66	Time certificates of deposit 2,515.80
Cash items 426.38	Deposits subj. to check 28,991.08
Gold and silver coin, National bank and other U. S. notes 2,922.21	Cashier's checks outstanding 372.08
	Certified Checks 600.00
Total $30,323.98	Total $30,323.98

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt, ss: I, H. H. Taylor, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 5th day of Feb. 1906. SAMUEL A. GAINER, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: ROBT. STATION, J. R. BUNTING, M. Q. BLOUNT, Directors.

OUR AYDEN DEPARTMENT.

J. M. BLOW, Manager and Authorized Agent
AYDEN, N. C.

As authorized agent for DAILY and EASTERN REFLECTOR we take great pleasure in receiving subscriptions and writing receipts for those in arrears. We have a list of all who receive their mail at this office. We also take orders for job printing.

D. G. Allen, of Winston-Salem, is here on a visit to friends and relatives in Ayden and surrounding community. He was raised and lived in early life in Pitt.

Our rugs and art squares are finer than the finest, Cannon and Tyson.

J. J. Edwards & Son have just received another car load of E. J. Good wire fencing.

Preserve your buildings by painting them with Harrison, Town and County Paint—oil lead and full line of colors, kept at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Buy your Felt Mattress at Cannon & Tyson, they have the best.

Joe Noyles, of Greenville, spent Wednesday night in Ayden with friends.

V. Crumps and paper roofing, Pumps with long or short joints and pipe at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Dress goods, Broad cloth, Henriettes, Mohair, cashmere, albatross, silks, trimmings, lining and white goods at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Capt. D. G. Berry was in Greenville Tuesday on business.

The Coxville rural route is to be transferred to Ayden in a very short while. This will give us two routes. The carrier, Walter Gardner, will move his family here and make this his home.

L. J. Chapman, a prominent merchant of Grifton, spent the day here yesterday.

Miss Lela Tripp, of Greenville, is here on a visit to relatives.

Bedsteads, mattresses, springs, single and double, rockers, dining and split-bottom chairs wash stands dressers centre tables at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Calico and Gingham at 4 cents per yard, great reductions in white shippers and summer goods, at J. R. Smith & Bro.

J. R. Smith & Bro. have just received a car load of ground alum salt. Also a car load of Lee's agricultural lime for peanuts, etc.

J. E. Dail & Co. will do all they possible can to please you with their new line of heavy and fancy groceries.

Car load of salt for sale by Cannon and Tyson.

Mrs. C. A. Fair has accepted a rickshaw with J. R. Turnage & Co.

W. M. Edwards was over in Greene county Sunday.

P. S. CANNON.—Since the fire can now be found on east side railroad between office of Dr. S. Dixon and Tripp Bro shops, have a full supply of general and fancy groceries, confectioneries, cigars, and tobacco. Freshysters and fish every night on arrival of train, call and I will get you fair. P. S. Cannon.

Hay corn, oats, meal, hulls, lime indows locks hinders nails Cross at saws and mechanic tools at J. Smith & Bro.

J. S. Sumrell who has been several weeks at work in C. has come home with a load of peaches, apples, corn &c, apply to E. E. Dail.

have bought the grocery store of Sumrell and McLaw and will conduct the same business at the same store, invite the public to call and we will sell as cheap as cheapest and always the best. as a trial.—C. R. Williams.

to E. E. Dail & Co's new market for beef, fresh meats, sausage, and fresh fish.

A full supply of Trunks, Valises, Telescopes, Grips, Satchels and Suit Cases, at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Old Fashion Hand-made Paw Paw Gum Bread, Trays, at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Cannon and Tyson invites your attention to their car load of stoves and heaters.

We call your attention to our splendid line of harness, Cannon and Tyson.

Buy your furniture from Cannon and Tyson, they have the best and cheapest.

There have been several bales of cotton on the market during the week. They seem a little out of date as well as out of place, but the proceeds of sale no doubt come in nicely for the seller.

Latest styles in cloaks and wrap pers for babies Misses and Ladies also a nice line of Zephyr fasciata at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Cannon and Tyson have the strongest line of dress goods and shoes in town.

For a nice present buy a novelty clock at J. W. Taylor's. It is appropriate for any occasion.

Elmer Worthington, while at play one day during this week, had the misfortune to fall and break his collar bone. At last accounts the little fellow was getting along nicely.

A beautiful line of crockery, glass ware, fancy lamps, and tinware at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Get the Cox cotton planter the best on the market at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Miss Annie Dudley came up on the train Wednesday from a visit down the road.

We have moved in the brick store of J. H. Bynum on West Railroad street just north of the Carolina House. Our goods are all new as our entire old stock was burned in the recent fire. We will be pleased to have our friends as well as the general public call and see us. We know we can please you both as to price and quality.

W. C. Jackson & Co.

Miss Evelyn Sutton, of Winter ville, spent several days in Ayden this week with friends and is now on a visit in Kingston.

Wanted—50 cars cotton seed, will pay highest cash price, don't sell your seed until you see me. Frank Lilly & Co.

A full line of trunks, valises, telescopes, grips, satchels, hand bags, and suits cases at J. R. Smith & Bro.

I always keep on hand a full line of feed stuff at lowest cash prices. Such as hay, oats, corn, cotton seed meal and hulls, brand and ship stuff. Frank Lilly & Co. Monday morning there came to my house three bay mules and one black mule, three of them horse mules and one mare mule. The owner can have same by coming forward and proving property and paying costs. This February 19th, 1906. J. M. Harris.

MERCHANDISE BROKER.—I carry a full line of meat, lard and can goods. Don't buy before giving us a trial. Frank Lilly & Co.

For carpenters tools, grind stones & lamp ropes and pulleys, at J. R. Smith & Bro.

Why exhaust your patience with that kicking cow when you can buy fresh Evaporated Cream and Condensed Milk at F. G. Bahmann & Co's.

New Livery, Feed and Exchange Stable—Moore and Jones, Ayden, N. C. Team well cared for. Passengers carried to any and all available points. The best and most comfortable conveyances. Prices reasonable. At service of the public at all times and hours. Try them Moore and Jones, livery, feed and exchange stables, Ayden, N. C.

Car load V. Crimped roofing in suitable lengths to cover residences churches, school houses, barns, etc., shingles much cheaper than singles and very little labor, at J. R. Smith & Bro.

When your eyes need attention J. W. Taylor, expert optician, Ayden, N. C. is the man to do your work if you want to be pleased.

We regret very much to hear of the serious illness of Dr. J. F. Hedges, who is confined at his home with pneumonia.

Only a few weeks before Easter how about letting us make that spring suit while you can secure your choice of goods. Wanamaker & Brown, per F. G. Bahmann & Co.

Tuesday evening Mr. Caleb Worthington, a very old gentleman living in the eastern portion of town, while endeavoring to catch a horse out in his lot had the horse to run against him knocking him up in the fence and tearing a large piece in his breast. Mr. Worthington has suffered immensely from the hurt, but we are pleased to learn the wound is not necessarily serious.

Tuesday evening at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. Wyatt Tucker, five miles from Ayden, Mr. Joseph Tripp, of this place, and Miss Anna Tucker were united in marriage by J. M. Blow, Esq.

The attendants were J. M. Mills with Miss Venie Tripp, E. F. Tucker with Miss Alice Tripp, Marshal Tripp with Miss Clara Jolly, Levie Cannon with Miss Pattie Tucker, Joseph Tucker with Miss Susie Branch. After the ceremony the bridal party and a large number of friends drove to the home of the groom in Ayden where a bounteous supper awaited them and it was way in the "wee sma' hours" when this a most pleasant occasion came to an end. We extend congratulations.

My son William Jenkins, col., having left my home and lodging without my consent, and the said William Jenkins, col., being a minor, this is to warn any and all persons giving shelter, food or employment to him and those doing so will be prosecuted according to law. This January 19th 1906. William Jenkins Sr., col.

SPECIAL SALE.

Beginning with Monday, January 15th, we will conduct a special sale on all dress goods, dry goods clothing, shoes and hats. These prices will prevail till Feb. 1st. This is the month you should buy. It is the month we should sell. All lines in our store will be reduced from ten to twenty (10 to 20) per cent.

Our spring and summer goods will soon arrive and in order to make room for our stock, we have decided to conduct this sale. This opportunity is a mutual one, and we trust you will take advantage of the many bargains we will offer. Come to see and be convinced for yourself.

J. R. Turnage & Co.

Dr. Joseph Dixon, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office Brick Block, East Railroad St. Ayden, N. C.

Dr. R. L. Carr, Dentist.

Greenville, N. C.

STATEMENT OF THE BANK OF AYDEN

AYDEN, N. C.

At the close of business Jan. 20th, 1906.

RESOURCES.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and Discounts, $23,817.57	Capital stock paid in, $10,000.00
Furniture and Fixtures 610.50	Surplus fund 1,000.00
Demand Loans : : : 1,334.25	Undivided profits less expenses, : : : 1,334.25
Due from Banks, : : : 31,162.38	Dividends unpaid : : : 66.00
Cash Items, : : : 110.40	Deposits subject to check, 48,601.01
Silver Coin, : : : 1,675.47	Cashier's checks outstanding 91.75
National Bank notes and other U. S. notes 3,717.00
Total, U. S. : : $61,093.01	Total, : : : $61,093.01

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, } ss: J. R. SMITH, J. T. SMITH, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. J. E. SMITH, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 5th day of Feb. 1906. STANCLIFF HODGES, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: J. R. SMITH, JOSEPH DIXON, R. C. CANNON, Directors

It is sometimes considered not good taste to get too "Spanish" unless it is opening over the top of the head. Chocolate at F. G. Bahmann & Co's.

Your Eyes.

If you are troubled with your eyes or have difficulty in containing your eyes, it matters not how difficult your case, call on J. W. Taylor, an expert optician, Ayden, N. C., who has five years experience with some of the most obstinate cases. He never fails to give patients satisfaction or their money refunded. Over five hundred of Pitt Greene and Lenoir counties' best people testify to his honesty and ability. Give him your eye work if you want satisfaction.

Original Observations.

Umbrellas seldom come home to roost.

A blind man never fails to love at first sight.

A base deceiver is fit for nothing out playing ball.

It is more blessed to receive than to ask in vain.

A bachelor lawyer isn't necessarily a failure in court cases.

Once in a while the greatest truth is told by the biggest liar.

I takes a lot of cash to make an impression on a marble heart.

Features cannot lie, but they can stand for a great deal that is not so.

Noble birth is one thing, and a nice, soft political berth is quite another.

A Healing Garrel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Blair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints and complete physical collapse. I was also weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all complaints. Sold under guarantee at J. L. Wooten's Drug Store Price 80c.

GOODS SAVED FROM FIRE

Same as new—consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes Hats, Gent's and Ladies furnishing goods. In fact everything kept in a first class general merchandise store sold at greatly reduced prices.

HORTON & McLAWHORN.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

The firm of Johnston Bro., was on the 5th day of January, 1906, dissolved by mutual consent, F. V. Johnston purchasing the interest of J. B. Johnston in the business. The business will be continued at the same stand by F. V. Johnston.

This 8th day Jan. 1906. F. V. Johnston, J. B. Johnston.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

All persons are hereby forbidden under penalty of the law to hire, contract with, give employment to or shelter our sons, William Amos Stocks and James Allen Stocks, without our consent. Jackson Vandford, Mrs. Rebecca Vandford.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Having duly qualified before the Superior Court Clerk of Pitt county as administrator of the estate of Mrs. M. F. Seal, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against the estate must present them to the undersigned on or before the 17th day of January, 1907. This notice will be placed in day of recovery.

This 8th day of Jan., 1906. W. I. Seal, Adm'r., of Mrs. M. F. Seal.

THE BETHEL BANKING AND TRUST CO.

AT BETHEL, N. C.

At the close of business Jan. 29th, 1906.

RESOURCES.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and discounts $15,547.73	Capital stock $ 5,300.00
Overdrafts secured 89	Surplus fund 700.00
Furniture & Fixtures 989.63	Undivided profits 815.87
Due from Banks and Bankers 19,436.66	Time certificates of deposit 2,515.80
Cash items 426.38	Deposits subj. to check 28,991.08
Gold and silver coin, National bank and other U. S. notes 2,922.21	Cashier's checks outstanding 372.08
	Certified Checks 600.00
Total $30,323.98	Total $30,323.98

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt, ss: I, H. H. Taylor, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 5th day of Feb. 1906. SAMUEL A. GAINER, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: ROBT. STATION, J. R. BUNTING, M. Q. BLOUNT, Directors.

Pompeian Massage Cream

The Only Requisite for A Perfect Complexion are your hands and a jar of Pompeian Massage Cream.

Soap takes the dirt off but not softens the skin. There is nothing in soap that is good for the skin; if it remains, it becomes an impurity—nature is blocked.

Pompeian searches every pore of the skin—blackheads, freckles, soap-rot, dirt, and the massage builds the foundation—softens and eliminates mud.

Pompeian searches every pore of the skin—blackheads, freckles, soap-rot, dirt, and the massage builds the foundation—softens and eliminates mud.

Gentlemen use it in place of face powder. Gentlemen use it after shaving.

Price 50 cents and $1.00 per Jar.

For Sale at SAUL'S PHARMACY.

ISN'T IT ODD.

When a fellow asks you money you seldom see him any more. It is really funny. How he dodges off the map. Other people seem to find him. As he goes out the way. But you're always just behind him. And you miss him every day. If you see a fellow d-d-bass you will meet him wherever; in a store you go for cigars. And you'll find him waiting there. Visit plumber, visit grocer. Visit any place you go. He goes everywhere you go, sir. And you meet him every day.

WHEN SOME MEN DIE

"The world is made bigger when some men die," said a well known citizen the other day. That seems like a peculiar proposition at first thought but the gentleman went on to explain what he meant. It is that "Some men are so intensely selfish and have so much of a disposition about them—so much of the miserly instinct, that they stand in the way of progress. They lay land, or lots, in a growing town and refuse to improve or sell at any reasonable price. They buy large farms and refuse to sell unless it is somebody they can use or control in their own interest. There are plenty of people who would pay a fair price and take the land and improve it, but the land miser either refuses to sell or places a prohibitive price on it. When such a land miser dies it generally leaves his property so it can go into the hands of progressive men." That is what the gentleman referred to meant by saying that the world is made bigger by the death of some men.—Marion News.

Facts About Failure.

People do not die from overwork so much as from a sense of failure in their work. It is not what they have done that kills them, but what they could do do; not fatigue, not mental nor physical exhaustion, but a sense of not having had the power to grasp their opportunity for success. No one ever knew of an egotist dying of overwork—such people have an opinion of their own capabilities that will support them through all disasters; but it is the sensitive person, who after having made a desperate struggle and bent every energy toward reaching the goal, finds that they are left behind in the race for wealth or honor, who feel the sense of utter failure and the chagrin of defeat, and are conquered, and so they fill premature graves with victims—not of overwork—but of failure of having succeeded in their work.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

National Reunion.

It is now proposed to hold in Washington City at no far distant date a national reunion of all the old soldiers who were engaged in the Civil war, the Mexican war, the war with Spain and the campaigns with the Philippines and China, together with all sons of veterans.

The idea is to continue the rally for one week and a part of the programme will be one grand review before the president.

We trust that the reunion may be arranged as planned and that all the soldiers of many wars may be allowed to meet, to forget past differences and to join in one grand and happy reunion.—Charlotte News.

Married.

On Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith, 3 miles from Greenville, Mr. James E. Fleming and Miss Ella Smith were married by Rev. J. E. Ayden.

A peculiarly curious news item is sent out by the Tar Heel of Elizabeth City. It is to the effect that the customs port maintained there collected only $65 last year, while the cost of maintaining it was $1,607! While this takes the cake it is but one of many similar cases that exist merely to "give jobs to patriots." The president has recommended the closure of all custom offices that are not self-supporting.—Gastonia Gazette.

Mr. George W. Oden, of Hunter, B. case, N. C., died Feb. 28th with cancer of the face. Mr. Oden was 60 years of age and one of Blount county's most highly respected citizens. He leaves a wife and six children, two of the latter, Mrs. J. G. Latham and Miss Laura Oden, living in Greenville.

A man's idea of an evil communication is a written statement from his wife's dressmaker.

Rightfully Burned

Charles W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Scalds, Eczema and Piles. 25c at J. L. Wooten's, Druggist.

GOOD POTATOES BRING FINE PRICES

There is a large crop of potatoes, the well known quality of the "Blue Mountain" variety, which will be sold in large quantities at the following prices: 10c for the first quality, 9c for the second quality, 8c for the third quality, 7c for the fourth quality. Write now.

Potash

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Potash, Sulphur and other fertilizers. Write now.

ALBANY KALI WORKS
ALBANY, N. Y.
New York 212 Nassau Street, Cor. Canal Street.

Dr. R. L. Carr, Dentist.

Greenville, N. C.

STATEMENT OF THE BANK OF AYDEN

AYDEN, N. C.

At the close of business Jan. 20th, 1906.

RESOURCES.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and Discounts, $23,817.57	Capital stock paid in, $10,000.00
Furniture and Fixtures 610.50	Surplus fund 1,000.00
Demand Loans : : : 1,334.25	Undivided profits less expenses, : : : 1,334.25
Due from Banks, : : : 31,162.38	Dividends unpaid : : : 66.00
Cash Items, : : : 110.40	Deposits subject to check, 48,601.01
Silver Coin, : : : 1,675.47	Cashier's checks outstanding 91.75
National Bank notes and other U. S. notes 3,717.00
Total, U. S. : : $61,093.01	Total, : : : $61,093.01

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, } ss: J. R. SMITH, J. T. SMITH, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. J. E. SMITH, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 5th day of Feb. 1906. STANCLIFF HODGES, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: J. R. SMITH, JOSEPH DIXON, R. C. CANNON, Directors

THE BETHEL BANKING AND TRUST CO.

AT BETHEL, N. C.

At the close of business Jan. 29th, 1906.

RESOURCES.	LIABILITIES.
Loans and discounts $15,547.73	Capital stock $ 5,300.00
Overdrafts secured 89	Surplus fund 700.00
Furniture & Fixtures 989.63	Undivided profits 815.87
Due from Banks and Bankers 19,436.66	Time certificates of deposit 2,515.80
Cash items 426.38	Deposits subj. to check 28,991.08
Gold and silver coin, National bank and other U. S. notes 2,922.21	Cashier's checks outstanding 372.08
	Certified Checks 600.00
Total $30,323.98	Total $30,323.98

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt, ss: I, H. H. Taylor, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 5th day of Feb. 1906. SAMUEL A. GAINER, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: ROBT. STATION, J. R. BUNTING, M. Q. BLOUNT, Directors.

State of North Carolina, County of Pitt, ss: I, H. H. Taylor, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 5th day of Feb. 1906. SAMUEL A. GAINER, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: ROBT. STATION, J. R. BUNTING, M. Q. BLOUNT, Directors.

OUR

BIG SALE

IS NOW

GOIN ON

C. T. MUNFORD'S

Big Store

Greenville, North Carolina.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

Miss Olive Morrill, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Sam Morrill, has returned to her home in Snow Hill. Frank Hazel is visiting J. T. Dixon and attending Snow Hill court, at which place he expects to locate as an attorney soon. Rev. J. F. Moore, of Wilson, shed his regular appointment Sunday in the Christian church here. He also preached at Fountain, a mission point from this place in the evening. Mrs. Avada Joyner, of Ayden, has returned home after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hines. Mrs. W. S. of Goldsboro, is visiting her sister Mrs. Ed Newell. Evening services in the Episcopal church conducted by the Rev. Edward Wooten, of Wilmington. Services were changed for next meeting to fourth Sunday at 4:30 o'clock. The ladies of the Magazine club had a business meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. M. Lang to decide on new books, and other important matters.

The Highest Honor. The Greenville Methodists, who are preparing to build a handsome new church, decided in the absence of ex-Governor and ex-Senator Jarvis from home to name it "the Jarvis Memorial Church," in honor of Pitt's first citizen and one of the State's first statesmen of the ante-bellum period. No honor could be higher. Governor Jarvis is the son of a Methodist preacher and is devoted to the faith of his father. In the General Conference which meets in Birmingham in May, he will be the most distinguished lay delegate.—Raleigh News and Observer.

WHAT IS BROMONIA? (BROMOZONE.)

Bromonia is a product as near capable of curing the majority of diseases as it is possible for Modern Science to produce. The use of Bromonia makes pure blood. Bromonia is not a miracle but simply the result of the scientific investigation of the greatest chemists of the present century. At the first symptoms of fatigue, headache or gaitache, which first often the forerunners of disease, read a few lines of Bromonia and you will find that by the time he has answered your call, that the symptoms have disappeared. Use Bromonia as directed. Live a temperate life. If you become ill while so doing, we will pay any reasonable doctor's bill on demand and proof of illness. We don't want you to invest a cent, however, until we have brought the first bottle for you. Fill in the coupon under this advertisement and mail it to us, taking care to write your name and address plainly, and we will send you without any cost to you whatever a full size package to try. No matter what your trouble is, write to us. Correspondence confidential. Address: Bromonia Co., New York.

BETTER FIXED THAN EVER.

Our Motto to Keep Going Forward.

Since THE REFLECTOR has installed an electric motor to operate its presses a number of people have been in to see the machinery at work and many have expressed admiration. One business man in offering congratulations said "you have equipped your plant better than it has ever been." That is what we try to do constantly, to prove all the time and never go backward. We spend money on it just as fast as it can be made, and as never a dollar has been invested in the plant but what the good people helped us to put there we want them to feel that it is their plant and when they help us with their patronage they help themselves.

Some have asked us when is the best time to see the presses at work. As day current is not yet supplied by the town's plant we seldom can operate the motor except late in the evening and at night. At present the presses are running from about 7 to 9:30 every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday night, and those interested can come in on either of these nights.

J. L. WOOTEN, Exclusive Wholesale Agents for Greenville, N. C.

Seven years ago, before there was such a thing as a juvenile court, a boy of nine was arrested in Denver for burglary. He was brought into the criminal court, tried as a burglar, and sent to jail. He served a term of years, during which he learned thoroughly the trade which he had been accused of plying. When he was released he began to practice it earnestly. He was rearrested, recommitted, and, after a second term, turned loose again, a more accomplished burglar than before. A few months ago he was shot at by the Denver police in an attempt to escape a third arrest. He was captured and brought into the Juvenile Court, still a mere child that ought to have been going to school. Judge "Ben" B. Lindsey, who presides over this tribunal, was confronted by a bold, hardened, and unusually sharp young expert in crime who had mystified the police by telling half a dozen different stories. Judge Lindsey began by telling the boy he didn't believe him to be half as "tough a kid" as the police had made him out, and that he would not be "sent up" if he was "square with the court" and made a clean breast of his trouble with the "cops."

This new treatment got from the boy his real story. He had been led into his first offense by a desire for a knife with which to make a kite. His father refused to get him one, and he broke into a barber shop and took a razor. According to the letter of the criminal law, the boy had committed a burglary. As there was no "juvenile" law at the time, he was dealt with as a professional housebreaker. Asked about his first trial, he said to Judge Lindsey, "Aw, de guy wid the whiskers wot sat up on de high bench looked over at de 'cops,' and de 'cops,' he says, 'Dis is a very bad kid; he broke into Smith's barber shop and took a razor, and he admits it, yer Honor.' Den de guy on de high bench sends me up widout givin' me a chance to say a word."

Thus, the boy was well started on a criminal career before he was ten years old. Fortunately, he fell into the hands of the Denver Juvenile Court, which had been established in the interval between his second and third arrest, while he was still able to "pull up." Instead of telling him he was a bad boy and sending him to jail again, Judge Lindsey told him that he was a "bully fellow" and set him free—on probation. Today that boy is still going uphill as fast as he was going downhill before.—From "The Children's Court in American City Life," by Frances Maule Bjorkman, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for March.

Some have asked us when is the best time to see the presses at work. As day current is not yet supplied by the town's plant we seldom can operate the motor except late in the evening and at night. At present the presses are running from about 7 to 9:30 every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday night, and those interested can come in on either of these nights.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.

About 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the dwelling house of Mr. J. E. Tripp, who lives two and a half miles from town, was destroyed by fire, together with nearly everything contained in the building. None of the family were at home at the time, so it is not known how the fire started. Mr. Joseph Tripp, who lives a quarter of a mile distant, first saw the fire and it was then burning through the roof. He ran over there and with some help succeeded in getting out a bureau and sewing machine. The roof of the house fell in so soon that nothing else could be saved. The loss is about $600 with no insurance.

The Child Found.

Elizabeth City, N. C., March 5.—The small child of W. H. Williams, which had been unaccountably missing from its home, near Woodville, since last Tuesday night, was found this afternoon by its uncle, who chanced to pass the home of an aged white woman, a recluse, and saw it playing in the yard while the hermit watched from the doorway. He took possession of the child without opposition and carried it home, a distance of six miles, where it was received by its parents with great joy.

MOVE THE COUNTY HOME.

Contentees Township, N. C., Mar. 6. EDITOR REFLECTOR: What has been said in the matter of the home for the aged and infirm has been well said. The last grand jury did well in what they reported. The "County Home" as it is commonly called is too far from Greenville. There are charitable societies in the town that would love to do something for those unfortunate who cannot help themselves. There is a place near the town that could be made more suitable and desirable for all the considerations. The county commissioners are in honor bound to make a change. M.

HASTY FOUND GUILTY.

Sentenced to Prison for Life. Gaffney, S. C., March 6.—After being out all night the jury in the case of George Hasty, indicted for the murder of Milan Bennett and Abbot Davis, members of the "Nothing But Money" Theatrical Company, today brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree accompanying it with a recommendation to mercy. He was immediately sentenced to imprisonment for life. He received the verdict with a sentence without a tremor, but shortly afterwards, and for the first time since the trial began, broke down and wept upon being approached by a minister who offered him consolation. Counsel for Hasty gave notice of an appeal. Hasty was tried for murder of but one of the men.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to the people of Greenville for their kindness and attention during the affliction arising from the death of our father, Mr. Jesse Proctor. HIS CHILDREN.

PROPER STREET TO DÉPOT.

Greenville, March 7th, 1906. EDITOR REFLECTOR: The question of making Evaffs and Ninth streets the thoroughfare to the depot is becoming a matter of discussion in business circles. The writer has heard a number of persons giving vent to their ideas, and not a single one has said to the contrary. It is the only practical thing that Greenville can do. This does not mean that Dickinson avenue will be closed up, or that any one shall be forbid traveling on it, or that the town will withdraw the effort to make it as pleasantly possible as possible. But it is an admitted fact that Dickinson avenue cannot be made what the town and traveling public will demand of it at any cost. It is to be hoped that this matter will engage the attention of those who have it in their reach to do something. It is an absolute necessity, and one that the whole town is interested in, and would rejoice to see a nice thoroughfare to the depot. W.

SHELMERDINE ITEMS.

SHELMERDINE, N. C. Mar. 6. M. J. Crumpler and David Dawson, of Washington, spent Monday night in town. Little Susie Keeter, who was badly hurt from a fall, is improving. Tom Whitehurst, of Greenville, spent several days with friends near Shelmerdine last week. Dr. L. E. Ricks returned Saturday night after a short but pleasant visit to his mother in Pantego. C. D. Baker and J. P. Alford attended church at Timothy McLawson's and returned to the Kingston road.

MURDER, PURE AND SIMPLE.

We quote the following from an editorial in the Greensboro Telegram: "A bill to prohibit in New York State even the advocacy of the suggestion that persons suffering from an incurable mental or physical ailment to be put to death, has been introduced in the assembly branch of the Legislature. The bill is everlastingly right. There is no principle so firmly established by usage and consideration of common sense and decency as the one which says so long as there is life there is hope." Shake on that, Brother! We sincerely hope that the bill will pass the assembly branch of the New York Legislature. Not only should the fact that "while there is life there is hope" put a quietus to the foolish doctrine of killing the incurable, but the eternal laws of the Bible should cause Christian people everywhere to do all in their power to eradicate such a diabolical and irreligious idea from our country. The idea has had a few supporters. Every absurd and freak idea always does. It is, however, nothing more nor less than murder pure and simple. The command, "Thou shalt not kill," has no provisions. It stands simple, and should cause the foolish advocates of public murder to sink away from the presence of law, religion and decency, with shame and disgrace.—Charlotte News.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to the people of Greenville for their kindness and attention during the affliction arising from the death of our father, Mr. Jesse Proctor. HIS CHILDREN.

COUNTY MATTERS.

The board of county commissioners met in regular monthly session on the 5th, all the members present. Orders on the treasurer were issued aggregating as follows: For paupers $144.25; county home $155.75; bridges and ferries $230.34; jail $104.15; coal $65; conveying prisoners $11.95; superintendent health $33; building gallows $26.11; stationery $13.80; witness tickets $19.20; court costs $10.80; clerk superior court $10.20; register deeds $38.05; roads $287.50; Confederate veterans $50; commissaries $36.60; miscellaneous $11.10; stock law territory $686.22. The monthly report of the treasurer, sheriff and superintendent of health were filed. The board donated $50 to the Confederate veterans of the county for their reunion to be held May 10th, next. J. S. Corbett, of Chiswell township, was permanently released from jail. El. Turange was released from Grifton special school tax, erroneously listed. B. M. and J. T. Lewis were released from Farmville special school tax, erroneously listed. R. B. Barrett, Farmville township, was released from taxes on $45 personal property, erroneously listed. Thomas G. Britton, Bethel township, was released from poll tax, being a non resident. Adam Ylivirtion, Greenville township, was released from poll tax, charged in error. A petition was presented for a public road in Contentees township, beginning at Mary McLawson's and running to the Kingston road.

MURDER, PURE AND SIMPLE.

We quote the following from an editorial in the Greensboro Telegram: "A bill to prohibit in New York State even the advocacy of the suggestion that persons suffering from an incurable mental or physical ailment to be put to death, has been introduced in the assembly branch of the Legislature. The bill is everlastingly right. There is no principle so firmly established by usage and consideration of common sense and decency as the one which says so long as there is life there is hope." Shake on that, Brother! We sincerely hope that the bill will pass the assembly branch of the New York Legislature. Not only should the fact that "while there is life there is hope" put a quietus to the foolish doctrine of killing the incurable, but the eternal laws of the Bible should cause Christian people everywhere to do all in their power to eradicate such a diabolical and irreligious idea from our country. The idea has had a few supporters. Every absurd and freak idea always does. It is, however, nothing more nor less than murder pure and simple. The command, "Thou shalt not kill," has no provisions. It stands simple, and should cause the foolish advocates of public murder to sink away from the presence of law, religion and decency, with shame and disgrace.—Charlotte News.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to the people of Greenville for their kindness and attention during the affliction arising from the death of our father, Mr. Jesse Proctor. HIS CHILDREN.

TRINITY GLEE CLUB.

Excellent Entertainment D-lights Appreciative Audience. The Trinity Glee Club and Orchestra of Trinity College, Durham, N. C., rendered their entertainment in the opera house Wednesday night to a large and appreciative audience. Every man on the program was in an excellent state of preparation, and much credit is due Manager Pugh and Directors Overton and Jones for the surpassing manner in which every man does his part. The music by the club and orchestra was exceptionally pleasing and entrancing, while the quartettes, medleys and impersonations were delightful and captivating. The large audience showed their high appreciation by enclosing through the entire program, and many were the expressions of praise and commendation for the Trinity boys when the entertainment was over. The program follows: 1. The New Melody Glee Club, Overton. 2. March "Waltz Bill," Orchestra. 3. Hush, Ye Honey, Mash, Quarters, Roberts. 4. Intermezzo, Orchestra. 5. How Uncle Moses Counts, Roberts. 6. Arkansas Traveler, J. H. McPhail, Jr. 7. Poor Ned, Glee Club. 8. March "Feather Queen," Mabel McKinley. 9. Violin Solo, Bridal Vale, Alard. 10. Glee No. 1, Quartette. 11. Waltz "The Story Teller," Orchestra. 12. The Dog on the Lobster, Farrant. 13. Dr. Petter, Glee Club. 14. Yankee Girl, Orchestra, Holzman.

SENDING THEM IN.

Another Offer to Those at Work For The Reflector. Since making the announcement a few days ago that any friend of THE REFLECTOR who sends in four new subscribers can have his own paper free, several have taken advantage of the offer and many subscribers have been added to our list. One friend has sent in six and says he is not done yet. Now we are going to make this additional offer to encourage those who are at work for us: To the one sending in the largest number of names by the 15th of April we will also give a year's free subscription to our magazine club, including the American Review of Reviews, the Cosmopolitan, the Woman's Home Companion and the American Farmer; or if the winner should prefer it he can have a handsome $3 Parker Lucky Curve Fountain Pen instead of the magazine club. This prize is worth working for, and the one who sends in the most names will win it.

RENSTON ITEMS.

RENSTON, N. C., Mar. 7, 1906.—Charles McLawhorn and son, Dennis, spent Sunday with relatives over the river. Mrs. Addie Fortines is on the sick list. Herbert McCalley and J. H. Fry, of W. H. S. spent Saturday night and Sunday with H. J. Langston. Miss Mary Brooks and Jerome McLawhorn spent Sunday afternoon at Altona Holton's. Exna Dail and sister, Miss Lizzie, went to Saratoga Sunday and returned Monday. Benoit McLawhorn, went to Ayden Tuesday afternoon. J. A. Jarrell went to Farmville Sunday and returned Monday afternoon. Miss Allie Dail went to Ayden Monday afternoon. Miss Mary Wooten has come home to spend vacation, after teaching several months at Forbes' school house.

MURDER, PURE AND SIMPLE.

We quote the following from an editorial in the Greensboro Telegram: "A bill to prohibit in New York State even the advocacy of the suggestion that persons suffering from an incurable mental or physical ailment to be put to death, has been introduced in the assembly branch of the Legislature. The bill is everlastingly right. There is no principle so firmly established by usage and consideration of common sense and decency as the one which says so long as there is life there is hope." Shake on that, Brother! We sincerely hope that the bill will pass the assembly branch of the New York Legislature. Not only should the fact that "while there is life there is hope" put a quietus to the foolish doctrine of killing the incurable, but the eternal laws of the Bible should cause Christian people everywhere to do all in their power to eradicate such a diabolical and irreligious idea from our country. The idea has had a few supporters. Every absurd and freak idea always does. It is, however, nothing more nor less than murder pure and simple. The command, "Thou shalt not kill," has no provisions. It stands simple, and should cause the foolish advocates of public murder to sink away from the presence of law, religion and decency, with shame and disgrace.—Charlotte News.

SENDING THEM IN.

Another Offer to Those at Work For The Reflector. Since making the announcement a few days ago that any friend of THE REFLECTOR who sends in four new subscribers can have his own paper free, several have taken advantage of the offer and many subscribers have been added to our list. One friend has sent in six and says he is not done yet. Now we are going to make this additional offer to encourage those who are at work for us: To the one sending in the largest number of names by the 15th of April we will also give a year's free subscription to our magazine club, including the American Review of Reviews, the Cosmopolitan, the Woman's Home Companion and the American Farmer; or if the winner should prefer it he can have a handsome $3 Parker Lucky Curve Fountain Pen instead of the magazine club. This prize is worth working for, and the one who sends in the most names will win it.

RENSTON ITEMS.

RENSTON, N. C., Mar. 7, 1906.—Charles McLawhorn and son, Dennis, spent Sunday with relatives over the river. Mrs. Addie Fortines is on the sick list. Herbert McCalley and J. H. Fry, of W. H. S. spent Saturday night and Sunday with H. J. Langston. Miss Mary Brooks and Jerome McLawhorn spent Sunday afternoon at Altona Holton's. Exna Dail and sister, Miss Lizzie, went to Saratoga Sunday and returned Monday. Benoit McLawhorn, went to Ayden Tuesday afternoon. J. A. Jarrell went to Farmville Sunday and returned Monday afternoon. Miss Allie Dail went to Ayden Monday afternoon. Miss Mary Wooten has come home to spend vacation, after teaching several months at Forbes' school house.

MURDER, PURE AND SIMPLE.

We quote the following from an editorial in the Greensboro Telegram: "A bill to prohibit in New York State even the advocacy of the suggestion that persons suffering from an incurable mental or physical ailment to be put to death, has been introduced in the assembly branch of the Legislature. The bill is everlastingly right. There is no principle so firmly established by usage and consideration of common sense and decency as the one which says so long as there is life there is hope." Shake on that, Brother! We sincerely hope that the bill will pass the assembly branch of the New York Legislature. Not only should the fact that "while there is life there is hope" put a quietus to the foolish doctrine of killing the incurable, but the eternal laws of the Bible should cause Christian people everywhere to do all in their power to eradicate such a diabolical and irreligious idea from our country. The idea has had a few supporters. Every absurd and freak idea always does. It is, however, nothing more nor less than murder pure and simple. The command, "Thou shalt not kill," has no provisions. It stands simple, and should cause the foolish advocates of public murder to sink away from the presence of law, religion and decency, with shame and disgrace.—Charlotte News.

A BUSY DAY.

Georgia Wells in March at Nicholas. My papa has a little sign, Printed in black and gray; It's only just a single line; "This is My Busy Day!" And sometimes when I creep to look, He's writing with a pen; Or quiet reading in a book— He calls that busy then! Why, when I'm busy I just race Downstairs; then, like as not, I fly back to the other place For something I forgot! Then I slide down the banisters, And I'm on the porch I spring (Perhaps I tumble in the bars) The dog and take a swing. And then I race Jack Smith to town, Or out to garden walk; And though I'm sure to tumble down, Nobody minds a fall. But I sit still in a chair, It couldn't be my way; To say, with such important air; "This is My Busy Day!"

OVER THE STATE.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina. A negro in the Rowan county chasn gang committed suicide by eating rosin soap. Several business houses in the town of Davidson, including the postoffice, were burned Tuesday. James Tipper, a Greenville county chasn gang committed suicide by eating rosin soap. Several business houses in the town of Davidson, including the postoffice, were burned Tuesday. James Tipper, a Greenville county farmer, was drowned in a branch in which the water was not more than a foot deep. Mrs. W. J. Jordan, wife of the editor of the Snow Hill Standard, died a few days ago. We extend sympathy to him in his bereavement. There were 2,825 people in North Carolina who made income tax returns last year, and the amount reported was $27,988,000. Mr. I. H. B. Myers, one of the oldest citizens of Washington, died in that town Tuesday night. He was 79 years old, and for a long time was agent of the Old Dominion Steamship Co. A bad wreck occurred Monday eight miles from High Point, on the Asheville division of the Southern railway. Two coaches and a box car plunged down an embankment. There were about twenty passengers on the train and all but two of them were injured. Mr. Jacob F. Parrott killed his little son "Jumbo" Wednesday and weighed 729 pounds dressed and 715 pounds in street clothes. He thought by many to be a head breaker for porkers in the State. The huge mass of flesh was taken to Bond's market and stayed on exhibition last night, where many visited and viewed the post curiosity. This morning the monster hog was cut up and some 150 lbs. of size can be gathered from the weight of hams, 65 lbs. each trimmed, about to cut away the fat, and the best weighed 47 pounds. Suspended from the gibbets the hog measured eight feet and the hind was three feet and one inch in the shoulder. He was two feet across the back and the tip end of his snout was 14 inches across. The hog was 24 years old and had tusks four inches long. He was 6 feet 3 inches long standing up. Notwithstanding the enormous weight the hog was not considered fat and could easily have taken on 150 pounds more flesh. It is probable that Lenoir leads the list in big hogs this year.—Kinston Free Press.