

THE GREAT JULY Clearance Sale

KEEPING ABREAST OF THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

The time for Clearance Sales has moved up a month or more. Formerly September, then August, now July. The factory agents are even out selling fall goods before the selling of Summer Stuff began, even now solicitations are made for next spring's delivery. The wheels of commerce are spinning. To keep pace with this progressive age, Clearance Sales, swift and fast, is now the order. Nothing summerish is to be carried over. So profitless is this sale to us that no goods can be charged or sent out to see at July Clearance Sale prices. We have planned to sell all Summer Goods, have taken into due consideration the great loss of profit at such reduction as we are making means. We take the loss cheerfully, wisely, believing it to be the best kind of business sense to clean up all summer goods at a sacrifice, and do it while the wearing season is at its height.

CONDENSED STORIES.

An Interruption That Won a Case For a Witty Lawyer. Wickliffe Matthews, the San Francisco lawyer, tells the following:

A case came on for trial for the recovery of rents for the occupation of a house, which were unpaid. After the plaintiff had proved his case and rested, Michael McGrath, attorney for the defendant, in making his opening statement to the jury, said: "The defense in this case is that the premises are not fit for human habitation. The house is old and in poor condition, the posts of the back porch rotted and the west corner gone down, the front porch sunk, the lining room floor lower on one side than on the other, the roof about to fall in, and in fact, everything about the house is old, dilapidated and settled."

The late Susan B. Anthony was once talking in Washington about the nude in art. "The nude in art is all very well in its way, I have no doubt," she said, "but there is one thing about it that I particularly object to. That is the habit some men have of smoking pipes with nude women carved on the bowl or of carrying canes with nude women on the handles or of wearing rings that contain carvings of nude women."

"There was a certain high dignitary of the church who once rebuked this habit. "The thing happened in the days when it was fashionable to take snuff. It was at the end of a dinner, and a distinguished nobleman (let us call him Lord Jones) extended his snuffbox to the clergyman and said, bowing and smiling: "Snuff, sir?"

"The other opened the box and took a pinch of the brown powder within. It was a gold box, and in a circle of brilliant a nude woman was portrayed in bright enamel. The clergyman frowned as he saw the picture. Lord Jones smiled. Intentionally perhaps he had given this affront."

"But Lord Jones' smile vanished quickly as the clergyman said, tapping the nude figure with his finger: "Very pretty. Is it Lady Jones?"

A Sargent Story. J. S. Sargent, the artist, is cosmopolitan to a degree. He is the son of American parents, he was born in Florence, gained some of his education in Germany and France and makes England his home. One of the first masters he studied under was the great Carolus Duran. Leaving him to strike out when little more than a boy, Duran, deploring his departure, told him that if he stayed with him another seven years he would make an artist of him. But Sargent's genius developed with wonderful rapidity at that time, and by the age of twenty-three it was obvious to Carolus Duran, as to the world, that he had made an artist of himself despite the lack of that seven years. Mr. Sargent has been accused of absent-mindedness, and the failing is certainly borne out by the story of a Christmas day party to which he was invited. "What time is it now," he said that he remembered, Christmas day fell last year on the 25th, he remembered its date would now be 5 days later, the 26th.—London Tatler.

The High Price House. The Liberty Warehouse will be conducted the coming season by S. T. Hooker, manager, H. S. Hardy, assistant manager, and H. A. Timberlake, auctioneer.

This is a strong team and every one of them will look after the interest of every farmer who sells at the Liberty. For the past seven years the Liberty Warehouse has led the market in Greenville every month showing that it made higher average prices than any other house.

That will continue to be the aim of the Liberty in future, never let a pile of tobacco go until it has reached its full value. Nothing will be left undone that is in the interest of the farmer.

DEATH OF REV. G. L. FINCH

Passed away in Richmond, Va., Wife Formerly Here.

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of Rev. Gilbert Lafayette Finch which occurred in Richmond, West Virginia, on June 16th.

The deceased was born in Halifax county, North Carolina, in 1864, and was in the 42nd year of his age and from his earliest youth showed those honorable and upright qualities that have distinguished him all through life.

He received the collegiate education at Wake Forest college N. C. and labored in his master's vineyard with great zeal and success until four years ago when a severe attack of throat trouble necessitated his giving up the preaching of the gospel and entering another field of work.

Mr. Finch was married on June 25, 1895, to Miss Ida Naomi Barnes of this city.

While in Valdosta, Ga., last December Mr. Finch had pneumonia which resulted in consumption and his wife accompanied him to St. Petersburg, Fla., hoping the change would benefit him.

Mr. Finch was removed to Southern Pines, N. C., for special treatment and from there to the mountains of West Virginia where he died last week.

Owing to the critical illness of his wife Mr. Finch's remains were interred in Richmond, Va., for the present.

Besides his bereaved wife, Mr. Finch leaves one sister, Mrs. E. D. Washburn, of Richmond, Va., and one brother, Mr. W. B. Finch of Columbia, S. C., all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community.—Wilmington Star.

Rev. Mr. Finch was well known here having served as pastor of the Baptist church at this place.

ADVERTISE

THE ALDERMEN.

First Regular Meeting of the New Board.

The new board of aldermen that qualified and elected officers for the fiscal year on the 2nd, held its first regular monthly meeting on Thursday night, all the members being present.

Mayor Wooten announced the following standing committees for the year:

Finance—C. S. Carr, G. J. Woodward, A. H. Bowen.

Streets—B. W. Moseley, T. E. Hooker, to be assisted by the mayor.

Cemetery—D. S. Spain, E. M. McGowan, A. H. Taft.

Lights and Water—B. W. Moseley, D. S. Spain, T. E. Hooker.

Ordinance—G. J. Woodward, E. M. McGowan, C. S. Carr.

Market—W. A. Bowen, G. J. Woodward, A. H. Taft.

Fire—Mayor, Chief and Assistant chief of fire department.

Property—Mayor, Chief Fire Department, Chief Police.

Mayor Wooten at some length discussed the duties of the several committees with suggestions as to what should be done for the improvement of the town.

C. S. Forbes was granted permission to erect a clock on the corner edge of the sidewalk in front of his store.

A schedule of special license taxes was passed, practically the same as those heretofore in existence.

The several officers made their reports.

The report of the Water and Light Commission for the fiscal year showed total receipts from service and construction $20,861.30, total expenses and purchases $20,266.19, leaving cash balance on hand of $595.11, and accounts due and stock on hand $1,647.04.

The report of the dispensary commissioners showed a total business during the year amounting to $66,643.81 and net profit of $16,338.66.

Applications for license were granted to the following: S. J. Nobles, B. F. Tyson and C. F. White to conduct pool and billiard tables; Martha J. Forbes, Tom Yellowley, Ed. Harris and H. J. Hopkins to conduct restaurants.

The salaries of officers was made the same as last year: Mayor $75 per month, clerk $60 per month, chief police $50 per month, assistant police $40 per month, night police $45 per month, chief fire department and building inspector $20 per month, treasurer $350 per year.

The chief of police was instructed to examine and approve all accounts of feed for horses of the town before such bills come before the board for payment.

An order was passed that proper blanks be printed and supplied to the agent making purchases of any supplies for the town, such blanks to be signed by the agent and to accompany the bill when it comes to the board for payment, the bill not to be paid unless accompanied by such order.

Accounts were allowed and ordered paid amounting to $137.94. It was ordered that the mayor visit neighboring towns to investigate fire departments and public improvements for the information of the board.

Race Horse Drops Dead. Snow Hill celebrated the Fourth of July with horse racing by members of the Greene County Association and several went from Kinston to witness the sport.

There was only one complete race, the race breaking up the last one after two heats had been trotted.

Joe Jones' horse won in the first race against three entries, and in the second Mr. Bill Williams' horse had taken two heats when the rain broke up the racing.

In the first race Mr. Josh Potter's horse dropped dead at the first heat as he was passing under the wire. It was a good horse for which he had just prior to the races refused $300. A lady watching the races fainted when the horse dropped dead on the track.—Kinston Free Press.

GREENVILLE NORTH CAROLINA TUESDAY, JULY 10, 1906

The Republican state convention is the next thing to attract attention. It meets at Greensboro on the 10th.

In England Chicago canned meats and cigarettes are being put in the same class, with cigarettes declared the most dangerous of the two.

A town up in Pennsylvania has forced the railroads to stop carrying negro excursions there. Every now and then the North shows what great love it has for negroes.

Wadesboro ought to be right well satisfied with the whiskey record it is making. Since saloons were opened in that town last October thirteen murders have been committed, all traceable to whiskey.

On the ground that it is not a political gathering, President Roosevelt has been invited to preside at the New York reception to be tendered on W. J. Bryan on his landing there from his trip abroad.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

(By the Editorial Contributors.)

The Chicago Tribune announces that the casualties resulting from explosions and Fourth of July celebrations were: 38 persons killed, 2789 injured and fires destroying $60,100 worth of property in the United States.

Now that the dancing masters have decided that waltzing must be conducted at arms' length, the whirl may be expected to lose much of its popularity. Some devotees may continue to go the old way, but it will be out of style.

President Roosevelt has declined the invitation to preside at the reception of the Commercial Travelers Anti-Trust League is to tender W. J. Bryan in New York on his return from abroad. Guess he thought it was most too much for him to be an eye witness to all the applause Mr. Bryan will receive on that occasion.

Congressman Henry, who was one of the speakers at a Tammany celebration in New York on the 4th, nominated W. J. Bryan and C. A. Towne as the Democratic national ticket for 1908. The reports say the suggestion was greeted with a roar of applause.

A farmer living near Mooreville was despatched with typhoid fever. To save his crops from ruining by want of attention, twenty-five of his neighbors gathered and in one day thoroughly worked them out. That is a kind of "brotherhood of man" that is worth while.

The editors of North Carolina and Virginia will hold a joint convention at Chase City, Va., this week, meeting on Friday and Saturday. On Monday they will go in a body to Norfolk and from there take an ocean trip to Boston. The Reflector wishes the brethren a good time and regrets that it cannot attend the convention this year. We have a lot of new meetings since joining the State Press association twenty-eight years ago.

The Republican scrap at Greensboro will be pulled off tomorrow.

Nothing the matter with Greensboro when it comes to taking care of and entertaining a crowd.

Col. Lumpkin has withdrawn from the senatorial race in South Carolina and leaves the field clear to Senator Tillman.

Hackett has challenged Blackburn for a joint canvass of the eighth district. Blackburn has no "wool" to spare and will find a way to keep from facing Hackett in debate.

As the Supreme court of the United States has decided that Congress can have no control or supervision over insurance companies, but that this is a matter coming under the jurisdiction of the States for themselves, there will be something along this line that the next Legislature of North Carolina should look after.

Smiles on the faces of the trust magnates are as scarce as hen's teeth.

The candidates this fall that are backed by the masses, will be liable to be cut by the voters.

The Panama canal commission is now having supplies in the highest market as directed by the Republican Congress.

Secretary Shaw has met his Waterloo and Gov. Cummins will be able to declare that the tariff fosters trusts. "Too much Roosevelt" and "standpat" was the cry of Shaw's downfall.

Tom Lawson refers to the president in the June number of Everybody's Magazine, as "the boss crook-maker of us all." There must be some good reason for Tom being willing to admit that his rake is not the biggest one.

The administration admits that it does not expect in its Standard Oil prosecutions to catch any one "higher up." This is not so disappointing as some people imagine, for no one with horse sense expected to see Rockefeller or Rogers behind the bars.

When Senator Knox—then attorney general—denied that the president would not "run amuck" against the trusts and corporations did he mean that the president would only make a good showing politically, but not do enough to reduce trust prices, such as recommending tariff reduction?

Joseph Crow, recently Republican postmaster at Omaha and former member of the Nebraska legislature has been found guilty in the Federal court on the charge of impeding justice. He was mixed up in the land fraud cases so many other Republicans have been.

The failure of Congress to pass the Tamm anti-corruption bill is due mainly to the President. If he had worked for that important measure as he did to get $25,000 out of the treasury for his own private use in violation of the "emolument" clause of the constitution, we should have had an end of it.

Sometimes we hear the wisdom of young men selecting politics as a profession, if we may call it a profession. If they succeed in gaining political preferment, and hold office for a number of years they are generally speaking unfit for anything else. After they have retired from office they become discouraged and have little ambition to take up other work. We are told that there are a large number of people newly exiled out an existence in Washington City merely because they have lost their government jobs or some other office. Go to the county seats and what do you find? We will venture the assertion that you will hardly find a county seat in the State where there are not men who are living practically in idleness because they lost some local or county office. Many of them hang around hoping that the people will again take them up and give them office. These are not the kind of men we like to see hold office. They are unworthy of the support of the people. We have heard people make the assertion that to succeed in politics one had to become a scoundrel and resort to dishonest methods. Of course there are exceptions but we are sorry to say this is too often true. The young man who eschews politics and follows some other business in life has nothing to regret.—Sanford Express.

The tobacco trust is charged with having depressed the prices of leaf tobacco in this State to such an extent that some counties have gone almost entirely out of the cultivation of tobacco, the farmers finding it unprofitable. This being the case, the news that the tobacco trust is to be investigated will be read with pleasure. Since the trust destroyed competition in the leaf tobacco markets the North Carolina growers have had a sorry time but once the probe is inserted, something may eventually result to improve conditions.—Charlotte Observer.

This is a strong team, and every one of them will look after the interest of every farmer who sells at the Liberty. For the past seven years the Liberty Warehouse has led the market in Greenville every month showing that it made higher average prices than any other house. That will continue to be the aim of the Liberty in future, never let a pile of tobacco go until it has reached its full value. Nothing will be left undone that is in the interest of the farmer.

A word to you young men—little twelve or thirteen-year-old boys who are smoking cigarettes on the ly. What do you want to be when you grow up—a stalwart, healthy, vigorous broad-shouldered man, or a little, puny, measly, no count weak-minded duffer? If you want to be a man strong like a man, with hair on your face, biceps in your head and muscles in your limbs, you just let those cigarettes alone. If you want to be a thing plied by your folks, despised by the fellows, keep right on smoking and end your days in the insane asylum.—Louisburg Times.

Legalized Primary.

There is some talk that a legalized primary will be asked for to select the nominees for the various county officers. It strikes us that a thing Pitt county has no need of a primary, and it will create much dissatisfaction if one is held.

This department is in charge of F. C. NYE, who is authorized to represent the Eastern Reflector in Winterville and territory.

We know some people who are afraid to entrust their money to a bank for safe keeping. They may be honest in their distrust. A bank fails once in a long time. People are continually being robbed and having the savings of years turned up in their houses for every loss caused by bank failure there are ten caused by failure to use them. The Bank of Winterville pays interest on time deposits. It guarantees the safety of your money.

A. W. Ange & Co.

If you want a prosperous town where people can come who are disposed to make homes, then do away with and bury from sight all jealousy and spite work, move for common prosperity and mutual benefit.

Wake up, rub your eyes, roll up your sleeves and go to work. Do not work with fear and trembling, but take for granted that blood will tell. Leave results to themselves, borrow no trouble, but all unite to make it the biggest kind of town. "Go to work".—Louisburg Times.
