MR. ANDREWS WINS PEN. Makes Neatest Guess at September Tobacco Sales.

A month ago the Reflector Book Store offered a Parker Fountain Pen to the person who could guess exactly or nearest to the number of pounds of tobacco sold on the Greenville market during the month of September. The time of guessing closed September 27th and during the last few days of the contest there was a lively guessing by those who had been keeping tabs on the sales. That some good guessing was done is shown by the result.

MONDAY EVENING MR. C. W. HARVEY, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, reports the sales for this market during the month of September at 3,556,688 pounds, the average price being $9.91. For September of last year the sales were 2,839,660 pounds at an average of $9.23. For the two months this season since the market opened the total sales were 4,812,694 pounds.

MONDAY EVENING MR. C. W. HARVEY, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, reports the sales for this market during the month of September at 3,556,688 pounds, the average price being $9.91.

MR. J. W. AYOCK, former cashier of the National Bank, left Sunday for Rocky Mount to take a similar position with a bank there. Mr. M. R. Turnage, formerly with the Bank of Greenville, has taken a position with the National Bank, and Mr. Roland Lang, of Farmville, has succeeded him at the Bank of Greenville.

COBBDALE. A new station opened on the Norfolk & Southern railway, in Beaver Dam township, about half way between Greenville and Farmville, is called Cobbdale. Tickets can now be purchased to that station. The people of Beaver Dam are delighted at having a railroad station in their midst, and it will prove a great convenience to them.

FREAKS OF SPORT.

How the Geese Cost the Turkeys In a Ten Mile Race.
The history of sport is made fascinating by many strange incidents. From the days when John Milton accepted a dare to hunt over frozen fields in his nightgown to the annuals of wagers are full of the most extraordinary examples.

No more curious incident of one of the sides of the contest can be found than is offered by a match made when George W. and Prince of Wales. The match was a famous one in that they were regional matters. The parties engaged in it were the most famous in the world. The Duke of York, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Cambridge and the Duke of York. The Duke of York was the champion of the day. At the time the Duke of York was the champion of the day. LEADING THE A...

The Old Gum Warehouse a Record Breaker.
The largest average that we have heard of in recent years was made today at the Gum Warehouse. Including everything sold on the floor, scrap and quite a good deal of damaged tobacco, the average for the entire break was $4.14, while a number of sales with fine tobacco sold big piles away up in the 40's.

O. L. Joyner, besides having the direction and management of the entire business of the Farmington's Consolidated Tobacco Company has personal charge of the warehouse at the Gum Warehouse in North Carolina. He is a man who knows tobacco better than any other man with the many duties which he has to look after personally, he probably gives closer attention to his sales than anybody else, and the side he made today is a sample of what he is capable of. Keep your eye on the Consolidated.

TALKING HIM.
Mr. W. F. Harding has $200,000 worth of his home and office building. Charlotte Observer.

Enfield, N. C., Sept. 28.—The Enfield Knitting Mills made $100,000 profit this week and it is pleased to hear the news. From 75 to 100 hands will be given employment but the force will be added as fast as possible.

Salisbury, Sept. 28.—John Lewis Heiler, 16-year-old boy, the son of Mr. K. P. Heiler, died today from today after a day's suffering from a horrible accident of yesterday.

The young man was employed by the Greece Furniture Company, doing business on the main line of the Southern, and about 2 o'clock yesterday was adjusting a belt that runs the machinery. The stick which he was using was caught up by the wheels and jerked him into the machinery. The most frightful of internal injuries resulted, and so badly battered was he that he never could give an intelligible account of his misfortune.

Well, Mr. Editor, from the foregoing you may have come to the conclusion that Vanderbilt is very much smitten. In answer to that I will say I am like the little fellow who came into the store one time. I asked him what his name was, and he said it was Herman. I said "You are a good looking boy, ain't you?" and he said, "I am dat." And as old man pap used to say "jess so" I am dat. I think I met you "affinity," if not I certainly have run up again my fate. So long.

Grifton is on a big boom now since the training school has become a reality. The recently burned district is built up anew, and three new stores besides. A brick hotel is in process of erection and will be open in thirty days, if the Lord is willing, and I reckon He is if Long B. Dub's money holds out that long. I suppose it will hold out, as he has some coming in all the time. Selah.

Cousin Bill Dawson went to the Jamestown exposition this week and expects to see the dive in hell while there. He promises all we poor sinners a full description of the places when he gets back, so you see if any of our folks should be so lucky as to go there they will be posted as to what they will be seen in that part of the country. But we folks at in and around Grifton are not going to the "sho nuff" hell, or sheol, either, as we now have two Sunday schools and will start a third one shortly. don't think the devil can get us all, even if he does take a few.

WATERBURY, Sept. 28.—The rept to get abroad in Statesville to-night that the postoffice at Taylorsville was robbed last night of $1,200 and that the robbers had stolen a horse and buggy from a lively stable there and left town, coming towards Statesville.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 28.—Insanity, which was of two years' standing, is the cause given for the suicide this morning of Zoily C. Church, son of Mr. T. L. Church, a prosperous merchant of Ready Branch, 13 miles from Wilkesboro. The suicide lived in the same neighborhood. The lifeless body of Church was found about 10 o'clock this morning, dangling from a rope suspended from a joint in his barn. The family missed him about 9 o'clock and began a search for him. He was cold in death when found. Church leaves a wife and several children.

REIDSVILLE MAN WOULDN'T TEACH MIXED SCHOOLS.
Mr. Gordon Wooten, a Reidsville young man who recently went to Des Moines, Iowa, to accept a position as instructor, found, after arriving there, that the school received students of both races. When this fact dawned upon him, he picked up his hat and walked out, notifying the principal that he was not suited to that kind of work.—Reidsville Review.

AROUND GRIFTON

Vanderbilt Taking in the School.
Grifton, N. C., Sept. 27.
Whoopie, Mr. Editor, we are having hot times in the old town now, with all these pretty ladies who have charge of the tutorage of the young minds at our graded school here. I tell you it is enough to break the heart of an old widower, if it is made of flint rock fresh from the North Pole, to just be in their presence. I just felt all over in grace when I went out to the teachers' meeting at the beginning of the season. You know Bro. R. was here to talk for the education of all who heard him speak, and I will tell you, I think he did very well under the circumstances, being as how he was a courtin man too. And don't you know, I sat there and thought to myself that if I had a position like him (i. e.) to have the task of visitin' all the schools in the county and see how they are getting along—there is no use talkin' old Satan might as well hang up his harp on a window tree so far as Vanderbil't is concerned, for he would be singing that good old song that says "I want to be an angel man so with the angels stand, a crown upon my forehead and my harp in my hand."

DON'T YOU SAY, MR. EDITOR, I DON'T WANT TO BE AN ANGEL, I WANT TO BE AN ANGEL MAN. SO THE GIRLS CAN COME AROUND TO SEE ME AND TALK TO ME SUNDAY AND SUNDAY MORNING. BUT LET ME TELL YOU, IT IS CANDY THEY WANT ME ON WAS. AND OF SAT IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA, ESPECIALLY WHEN ASKED FROM THEIR PRETTY LITTLE WHITE HANDS. I LIKE THE ANGEL HAND AND GRIFTON, THEY ARE AS GOOD AS IN MY HAND. I WOULD BE AN ANGEL MAN TO KEEP A GIRL FROM COMMITTING SUICIDE. I WOULD BE AN ANGEL MAN TO KEEP A GIRL FROM COMMITTING SUICIDE.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 28.—L. S. Powell, 28 years old, had both his legs mashed off up to the knee early this morning at the plant of the Whiteville Lumber Company, at Whiteville, Columbus county, where he was employed. He was brought to the hospital here for treatment, but died within an hour after reaching the institution.

UP TO THE RAILROAD.

Newspapers Do Not Make Time Tables.
It is a rule with newspapers to pay no attention to communications when it is not known from whom they come. But The Reflector received one Saturday morning from Grimesland, that even when not accompanied by the name of the person sending it, can be relied on. It is the time table of the Norfolk & Southern railroad clipped from this paper, and on the margin of it is written the question if we do not know where Grimesland is at. Then through the time table is drawn a line showing that Grimesland is between Chocowinity and Greenville, 10.40. Greenville, 12 noon, Farmville, 1.00 p. m. Stantonsburg, 1.47, arriving at Wilson 2.15 p. m. The train leaves Wilson at 2.05 p. m., Stantonsburg 2.30, Farmville 3.35, Greenville 4.40, Chocowinity 5.50, and arrives in Washington at 6.20 p. m. Connections will be made at Chocowinity with both north and south bound trains to Norfolk and intermediate points and to New Bern, Morehead City, Kinston, and Goldsboro.

Extension of Passenger and Freight Service to Wilson, N. C. September—30th.
The Norfolk & Southern Railroad will announce the opening of the extension to Wilson, N. C., on September 30th, giving both passenger and freight transportation and this will be welcome news to the many who have been anxious for the developing of this new territory and wished to have the opportunity of trade expansion in that direction. There has been some slight change in the schedule of trains, the morning train now leaving Washington at 10.10, Chocowinity 10.40, Greenville 12 noon, Farmville 1.00 p. m., Stantonsburg 1.47, arriving at Wilson 2.15 p. m. The train leaves Wilson at 2.05 p. m., Stantonsburg 2.30, Farmville 3.35, Greenville 4.40, Chocowinity 5.50, and arrives in Washington at 6.20 p. m. Trade Opinion.
Richmond, Va., Sept. 25, 1907. Bradstreet's Saturday will say for Richmond, Va., and vicinity: Wholesale dealers in dry goods... The fall trade is practically all in and travelers are preparing samples for the spring ordering. The demand is strong and receipts light, causing prices generally to be high. In North Carolina tobacco is better marketed in large quantities and prices continue good. In Virginia this crop is being cared. Manufacturers through the district are busy, and while in some lines the crop is well up to the supply will be adequate until the new crop is available. The peanut crop, though late, is in excellent condition and growers now expect a full crop. Prices continue high for all grades of the old crop. Labor generally is more plentiful than at any recent time. Retail trade is at its between season dullness, some dealers are displaying fall stocks, but sales are as yet nominal. Collections continue to show slight improvement.

FINISH OF THE COURT.

The September term of Pitt Superior court came to a close late Wednesday evening, the criminal docket being practically completed.

In the trial for murder against Ben and Anderson Peebles, a verdict of not guilty was taken as to Anderson Peebles. The other defendant, Ben Peebles, offered submission to a verdict of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to State prison for twenty years.

Spencer Pettaway and Joe Kitchell were found guilty of larceny and each sentenced two years to work on roads. This was the case of stealing a barrel of whiskey from a freight car at the A. C. L. depot here a few Saturday nights ago.

A. V. C. R. M. R. and T. E. Butler were tried for affray. Vik was found not guilty, the other two guilty. Butler was fined $3 and half the costs, judgment suspended as to Rous upon payment of half the costs.

Leon Moore was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons in two cases and sentenced to work roads for four months. Mack Davis for carrying concealed weapon and assault with deadly weapon was sent to the roads for three months.

John Johnson and Ben Johnson for assault with deadly weapon were sent to roads for four months. The Pitt County Eastern Training School bonds have been declared valid. This is a matter of congratulation. We never did think anything else would be the final outcome. We hope that the whole question will soon be settled and that no other impediments will be placed in the way of the school as planned. -Kinston Free Press.

Washing Machine in West.

Some of Crooker's Doing in other Counties.
Pitt county people will no doubt be interested in what some of the Western North Carolina papers are saying about the washing machine frauds up that way. In the Hickory Democrat of the 19th will Kennedy had a warrant issued for Mr. Crooker, who has charge of the washing machine men in this section. The warrant charged that false pretense had been used in selling Mr. Kennedy a "right to sell rights." One of the agents told the prosecutor that he had made large sums out of the business, that he had $1,700 in one bank and $1,000 in another. He also pulled out a roll of bills of $500 saying that he had made this entire amount in a very short while. This was too much for Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy to withstand and they readily signed notes, secured by a mortgage on the home in order to secure a right. It developed at the trial that Mr. Crooker had advanced the other agent—Bash—a large part of the $500 in cash, and that there were only $1,200 in the two banks instead of the $2,700.

The case was tried before Justice Bruns and Whitener and the defendant was bound over under a $300 bond.

Later Armsby, Bush and Crooker were arrested and placed under bond to appear before T. J. Leonard, Esq., Friday to answer the charge of conspiracy.

In the Hickory Mercury of the 21st the following also appeared: It is hard to tell the washing machine business now stands. If any body really knows, they are in a condition not to tell. One thing certain, they did not appear at the trial set here Friday at 2 o'clock. And no one seemed to care, or in the least disturbed, not even the officers. A bench warrant was sent here for Crooker from Pitt county on Thursday. One was also sent to the Sheriff of Caldwell. It is said the sheriff there got Crooker Thursday evening. Crooker was arrested and taken to the county jail. He is believed by some that the Kennedy & Michael case here has been compromised. But the real facts about it can not be known. Crooker's lawyers do not know. How the compromise can be made and no one is a great legal mystery. It is not believed Crooker and the other fellows here who got the money will be seen here again unless caught and brought back here. No one seems anxious to catch them, except it is the Pitt county folks. However time will tell.

Washing Machine Fraud.
Pitt County Striped Over It.
Most of Reflector readers will remember that several months ago a man named Crooker was in this county selling washing machine rights. The paper at the time tried to warn the people against the fraud, but there were several who bit at the game and repeated it afterwards. The atmosphere here got rather warm for the old Crooker and no and his helpers pulled out from other fields of operations. Some of those who were caught by the sharper have since been at work stop payment of notes and other claims obtained by them.

Colony Charge Against Woman
Columbus, Ga., Sept. 23.—J. J. Coleman has sworn out a warrant against Belle Anthony, a white woman, charging her with the kidnapping of his thirteen year-old daughter, Jessie Coleman. It is alleged that the Anthony woman held the Coleman girl in her house and it is charged that she was kept there in a deplorable and moral character.

LEASSED HIS FARM.
Mr. O. L. Joyner Will Devote All His Time to Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company.

Mr. O. L. Joyner, who for a number of years has been conducting a stock farm about two miles west of Greenville, and who developed one of the best farms in Western Carolina, has leased it for a term of years to Mr. B. N. Sykes, of Harrotsville, Bertie county, and the latter will take charge at the close of the present year.

While conducting the farm Mr. Joyner has also been engaged in the tobacco warehouse business in Greenville, and since its organization has been president of the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company. This company has grown so rapidly under his wise direction that its large and increasing business make such demands upon him that he could not judiciously continue to look after his farming operations, hence gives up the latter so as to devote all of his time to the interests of the company. This means still greater development for the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company, for no man is more capable of pushing such a business to the highest success than Mr. Joyner.

He is also fortunate in securing such a man for his farm as Mr. Sykes, and Pitt county is to be congratulated upon getting a man of his standing. He
