THE PROBLEM.

On September 1st., in the morning, Clarence begins work for the Druggist at $9 per week. On September 6th, at noon, Henry begins work at $18 per week, at what day and hour, at these rates, will Henry's wages amount to just double Clarence's.

The answer to this problem, easily is found,

He who is blind may see it if his brain be sound,

Even the sick may read it it by use their eye

You see its very simp though quite a sur-

Now listen! I will all you, first, if you are ill. 'Ere you begin, Cas-car-ria take. It will

Very much aid you, STRENGTHEN NERVES, DIGEST.ON, too, Ease the CLOGGED LIVER, and DYSPEPSIA cure, that's

RHEUMATICS, also, and SICK HEADACHE it corrects;

While KIDNEY TROUBLES yield to its benign effects

If wisely used; and FEMALE WEAKNESS it will cure, Let our "sole agent" say can anything be truer

Lo! Catch the answer? No! He'll show you I am sure.

It is dangerous to delay treatment

For any of the above ailments—they lead to incurable diseases, great suffering and death.

CAS=CAR=RIA

Will cure. It's the best medicine in the world to use for them. Ask the Druggist whose name is on this card.
