1917 Class Song.

Class Song.

Faithful loving, nobly proving
This we swear with heart and hand
We the class of 1917,
We will ever serve our land.

CHORUS

We will ever keep our motto
"Not to seem but to be true,"
All we are and all we may be
Gladly will we live for you.

Brings tomorrow, joy or sorrow,
Still our hearts will constant prove,
We the class with bonds eternal
All our hearts are knit in love.

When our school days shall have ended,
And we tread the path of life,
We shall do our duty bravely,
We shall conquer in the strife.
