God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine:
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, Lest we forget.

The tumult and the shouting dies,
The Captains and the Kings depart,
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, Lest we forget.

Far call'd, our navies melt away,
On dune and head-land sinks the fire,
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Ninevah and Tyre!
Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget, Lest we forget.

If drunk with sight of pow'r we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe,
Such boasting as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds without the law,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, Lest we forget.

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord! Amen.

"Are You For Me, Or Against Me?"

"Are you for me, or against me?" asked the flag as it went by:

"We are for you! We are for you!" said the people in reply!

"We will follow where you lead us, We are ready when you need us;
We have pledged our hearts' devotion!" said the people in reply.

"Are you for us, or against us?" came the question of the Stars.
By the war clouds dark above us, by our old wounds and our scars,
We are for you. Now and ever! Bonds of love no foe can sever
Hold us fast and bind us to you! said the people to the Stars.

"Are you for us, or against us?" called the White Stripes and the Red;

"By the great hearts of our heroes, by the blood that they have shed,
We are for you! Doubt it never! We are for you now and ever!
And our gold and strength and service all are yours!" the people said.

"I shall take your hearts' desire,—And your wealth of gold and land;

I shall take your souls' ambition, And your work of head and hand!
I shall take away your nearest, Your best beloved and dearest!

"Are you for me or against me?" asked the flag as it went by,

"God be with us. We are for you!" said the people in reply.

Class Motto: "The truth will free you."
