SENIOR NORMAL CLASS

PROCESSIONAL:

"THE CHAIN OF FRIENDSHIP"

THIRTY-ONE

Time has forged the links of Friendship's chain:
Hours so grave and gay, blend of work and play,
Into the links we've welded; with joy and pain,
Reluctant, on the Campus green we lay
The chain complete—smooth and rough, an alloy tough—

Yea—of hope and faith and love and trust;
One chain that wind, nor sun, nor rain
Ne'er can tarnish, break or rust;
Each of the class a link in Friendship's Chain.

PART TWO — WOODLAND STAGE

PAST AND FUTURE

A Pageant of The SENIOR CLASS OF 1931

“History,” says Van Loon, “is the mighty tower of experience which time has built amidst the endless fields of bygone ages.” As members of the four-year Graduating Class of Nineteen Thirty-One, we can appreciate the meaning of this definition, because we know that “history is all that man has ever hoped for, thought of, or achieved.”

Out of the multitude of events which we might have included in our Class Pageant, we have chosen those that we considered most characteristic and outstanding. In these few scenes we present a brief history of ourselves by depicting as clearly and impartially as possible these experiences selected from the four years that we have been a part of East Carolina Teachers College.

We have also striven to look into the future and by additional scenes to reveal what a person on Mars might find the members of this class doing twenty years hence.
