SPRING COMMENCEMENT

EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

Saturday, May the Sixth

Ten O'Clock

Ficklen Stadium
Greenville, North Carolina

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

For the benefit of our visitors the following information digested from "An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide" prepared by the American Council on Education, may prove helpful in identifying the costumes you will see in the Commencement Procession.

In the procession, first come the speakers, trustees, administrative officers, candidates for honorary degrees and other members of the platform party, then the faculty; and finally the candidates for degrees arranged in the order in which the degrees are to be conferred.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the earliest days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges prescribed the wearing of a long gown. When American colleges and universities desired to adopt some suitable system of academic apparel, a conference held at Columbia University in 1895, made up of representatives from various institutions drew up a "By-Law, Regulation, or Statute" for the establishment of a suitable code of academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. This code, with modifications made in 1959 by The Committee on Academic Costumes and Ceremonies of The American Council on Education, is still in force; the costumes and colors, trimmings, and patterns you will see are all traditional, and interpret both the degree and field of learning. The bachelor's gown, designed to be worn closed, has pointed sleeves, the master's gown, which may be worn open or closed, has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist which hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has the arc cut away. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

Black is the recommended color for all academic gowns. Bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. Doctor's gowns are faced with black velvet, with three bars across the sleeves; or the color of the velvet may be that which is distinctive to the degree, agreeing with that of the edging of the hood. The colors you will see in the hoods and gowns of our faculty represent the various fields in which the degrees were taken:

Apricot ..... Nursing
Brown ..... Fine Arts
Citron ..... Social Work
Crimson ..... Journalism
Dark Blue ..... Philosophy
Golden Yellow ..... Science
Green ..... Medicine
Lemon-Yellow ... Library Science
Light Blue ..... Education
Lilac ..... Dentistry
Maroon ..... Home Economics
Olive-Green ..... Pharmacy
Orange ..... Engineering
Pink ..... Music
Purple ..... Law
Sage Green .... Physical Education
Salmon Pink ..... Public Health
Scarlet ..... Theology
Yellow-Brown ..... Commerce, Business, Accountancy
White .... Arts, Letters, Humanities

The hoods, differing in length for the three degrees, bachelor's, master's, and doctor's, are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet of the color appropriate for the degree. You will see in our procession many edged with dark blue, for doctor of philosophy.

Mortarboards are the approved headgear. The tassel, worn on the left side of the cap, may be of gold if the holder has a doctor's degree.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Kay Yow

Head Women's Basketball Coach
North Carolina State University

The name of East Carolina University alumna, Kay Yow, is synonymous with women's basketball in North Carolina, in the United States and throughout the world.

In 1988, she was the head coach of the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team which won the gold medal in Seoul, Korea.

For the past 14 years, she has been the highly successful Head Coach for Women's Basketball at North Carolina State University, where she has a record of 464 wins and 158 losses. Her teams at N.C. State won three Atlantic Coast Conference championships in 1980, 1985, and in 1987.

Coach Yow was graduated from East Carolina University with a Bachelor of Science degree in English in 1964, and from UNC-Greensboro with a Master's degree in Physical Education in 1970. She is a native of Greensboro, North Carolina, and a graduate of Gibsonville High School.

Previously, Ms. Yow coached at Allen Jay High School, Gibsonville High School and Elon College. In addition to the 1988 Olympics, teams coached by Ms. Yow won gold medals at the 1986 World Championships, the 1986 Goodwill Games, and a silver medal at the World University Games in 1981. As a head coach in international competition, she has an overall record of 21-1.

Kay Yow was inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame on May 4, 1989. In 1988, she was inducted into the National Women's Sports Hall of Fame. She was voted the 1988 Woman of the Year in Sport by the National Organization of Women (NOW) and received the prestigious Carol Eckman Award by the members of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in 1988. Currently she serves as the Honorary Chairwoman of the Lineberger Cancer Research Center at the UNC-Chapel Hill School of Medicine. She is a recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award from East Carolina University and was selected as the University's Distinguished Alumni Lecturer in 1989.

Ambassadors

The University is deeply grateful to the Student Ambassadors who provide valuable assistance during commencement and numerous other activities throughout the year.

THE EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY MACE AND SEAL

The Mace

The mace, a medieval weapon, has become through the centuries an insignia of university authority. In this instance it represents the continuity of the institutional governing body.

Some forty-three inches long and weighing approximately fourteen pounds, the East Carolina University mace is constructed of sterling silver. It features a unique purple fluorite crystal cluster contained within a gold-plated cage. The shaft of the mace has a hammered texture and is divided in the center by a pierced band. The pierced design is repeated at the mace boss (symbolic head) and terminus. The terminus is a representation of the historical weapon head which has diminished in size as the mace has changed from a weapon to a symbol. The same representation of symbolic use has increased the size and importance of the boss or mace head. The mace bears the inscription East Carolina University 1907.

This handsome mace was designed and executed by John Satterfield of the Design Department of the East Carolina University School of Art, who comments on the design concept: "In designing the East Carolina University mace I have attempted to maintain the visual integrity of a traditional mace and at the same time create a contemporary symbol which is unique to this institution."

The Seal

The official East Carolina University seal is a six-cornered shield encased in a circular border containing the name, location, and founding date of the University. The shield represents the "shield of trust," as was used in the Crusades.

The motto servire, meaning to serve, is emblazoned on the scroll. The blazing torch and the open Book of Knowledge symbolize education and the service rendered to the students by the University. The ink pot and quill, symbols of scribes, represent the creative arts and the contributions of the students to the world of business. The pirate is the school mascot.

The central motif of the design — a shield within the shield with Polaris, the guiding star, behind the two half globes that make up the world — expresses the idea that East Carolina University has the mission to educate graduates who will serve to the four corners of the world.

The Commencement Program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, the inclusion of names of degree candidates in this program is not certification that degree requirements have been satisfactorily completed.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh! say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

— Francis Scott Key

ALMA MATER

Praise to your name so fair,
dear old East Carolina
Your joys we'll all share,
and your friends we'll ever be.
We pledge our loyalty
and our heart's devotion
To thee, our alma mater, love and praise.

— Harold MacDougle '44
