Dec 31

My Dear Fry:

I am sending to you this copy of a letter I am just sending to Ned Wood. I had spoken to him something about this last May, one day at Luncheon. But I have been carefully considering it all ever since that time.

I am sending copies also to Mr Collins and to Mr Lippincott, as being these most familiar with all our work. I would be glad to have any suggestions in the wording so as to shorten the communication to be sent to all the others, especially those not so familiar with all our details, for I realize the letter is really too long and yet I wished to cover all the points.

Wishing both you and Mrs Fry and
Gilbert a very Happy & Prosperous
New Year, I am

Yours very truly
A. Walter Stevens
