My Dear Father

Your favor of the 24 was received yesterday morning, and at the same time I received one from Washington which I enclose in this. Since receiving your letter I have heard that there was a large fleet of Wilmington and that you were looking for an attack daily, but do not place much confidence in the report for I thought had there been any truth in it you would have written me about it immediately. I am very much in hope that you may succeed in communicating with MA. if you do you can let me know and probably by the same plan I can see my also. She is very anxious to see both of us and I have no doubt it would make her feel much more satisfied. You mentioned in your letter Mr. Telfair being near Washington, and his wife being at Mrs. Van Orckes. Don't you think that in the same way you could communicate with Mother and probably bring her away. That is if she wants to come, and I think from her letter that she does. I shall write her a long letter to day, and as soon as you receive this I want you to answer it so that I can send you the letter. I know of no other way to get it to her. I received the brush and Combe, at the same time I did the other things. It is cold, and my hands are so numb that I cannot write. Write soon.

Your Affectionate Son
