

Ocracoke Inlet
Aug. 19th 1861.

Captain -

Your Company, the Washington Grays having volunteered in the war, and having been transferred to the State Troops, and being in daily expectation of marching orders, are not considered as forming part of the Seventh Regiment of N. Carolina Volunteers, and are thereby discharged from the performance of duty in said Regiment. You will not omit in the least your duties as Commander of the Company, nor the duties of your Officers & men.
